WWPR-FM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

---

WWPR-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Armed Forces: Join us Sunday at 7AM along with Shar Jackson and Alycia Lerer to get the info on Mission One Voice's "Independence Day Celebration: Salute The Troops". The July 1st show will benefit our Veterans and feature live performances from American Idol and Grammy Award winner, actress, song writer and author Fantasia. The day will be hosted by Moesha co-star, actress and singer Shar Jackson. Opening performances by Jean Dubreus, American Idol Season 13 finalist Stephanie Petronelli, Zavvezo, Mikey Jay, and New Zealand's Platinum artist Titanium. Fireworks after the show & FREE admission with government issued identification.
- Arts: Tomorrow morning we're joined by Michael Royce, the Executive Director of New York Foundation for the Arts. Established in 1971, NYFA empowers emerging artists / arts organizations across all disciplines at critical stages in their creative lives and professional/organizational development. In short, they provide support and needed funding to artists! A few famous alum include Terry McMillan, Spike Lee and Eric Overmyer (The Affair, Law & Order, The Wire, Treme and more).
- Children's Services: Join us Sunday at 7AM along with NYC Administration for Children's Services- ACS. ACS protects and promotes safety and well-being of New York City (tm)s children and families by providing child welfare, juvenile justice, and early care and education services.
- Community Service: We're joined by David Levinson, Founder and CEO of Big Sunday - a month long community service initiative that's all about # PeoplePower ! You don't need a lot of money to give back, just a lot of love in your heart and some time. There are thousands of ways to get involved, every single day in May.
- Discrimination: Join us Sunday at 7AM along with NYC Young Men's Initiative! YMI was created as a public-private partnership to address increasing disparities among black and Latino men between the ages of 16 and 24 in education, employment, health and justice. The mission is to develop and champion policies, programs and partnerships that holistically support the success of young men of color throughout NYC.

- Education: Student Sponsor Partners (SSP) has provided over 7,000 low-income, academically vulnerable students with a college preparatory, non-public high school education. Their uniquely integrated approach provides every student with a sponsor and mentor who provide one-to-one financial support and meaningful mentoring to ensure students graduate high school, succeed in college, and achieve their dreams. Of the 388 students in the graduating class of 2015, 96% were accepted to college.
- Gun Safety: Lucy McBath's son, Jordan Davis, was shot and killed at a gas station in Florida on November 23, 2012 during an argument over loud music. Now, as the national spokesperson for Everytown for Gun Safety, Lucy is on a mission to end gun violence. She joins us tomorrow to talk about her son, the gun lobby, and Everytown for Gun Safety's 3.5 million member strong movement to end gun violence and build safer communities.
- Health: AIDS Healthcare Foundation (AHF), a New York based nonprofit organization, is a global organization providing cutting-edge medicine and advocacy to over 350,000 patients in 36 countries. They are the largest provider of HIV/AIDS medical care in the U.S., and they're currently leading a mass testing initiative to identify and treat the 25 million people who don't know they are infected. Since 1987, AHF has cared for thousands of people living with HIV and AIDS worldwide.
- Literacy: Tomorrow morning we're joined by @AlvinIrby of Barbershop Books! In an increasingly global and knowledge-based economy, poor reading skills among black boys today will produce millions of black men who are unprepared to compete in the workforce of tomorrow " creating a host of negative life outcomes that will cost the U.S. billions of dollars in lost taxes, low wages, crime and incarceration. Barbershop Books is a community-based literacy program that creates child-friendly reading spaces in barbershops for boys ages 4-8.
- Poverty: Tomorrow morning at 7A we're joined by Shambhavi Manglik of the Robin Hood Foundation. Robin Hood is New York's largest poverty-fighting organization, and since 1988 has focused on finding, funding and creating programs that generate meaningful results for families in New York's poorest neighborhoods. Since its founding, Robin Hood has raised more than $1.95 billion in dollars, goods and services to provide hundreds of the most effective soup kitchens, homeless shelters, schools, job-training programs and other vital services that give New Yorker in need the tools to build better lives.
- Professional Mentoring: Tomorrow morning we're joined by Kenny Kane of Young Nonprofit Professionals Network | New York City (YNPN-NYC) The YNPN supports the development of their professional peers to cultivate the next generation of nonprofit leaders by providing opportunities for skill-building, information sharing, and networking.
