WWPR-FM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WWPR-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- 911 Memorial Glade: We (tm)re joined by Michael Frazier " Executive VP of 9/11 Memorial & Museum - to learn more about the 9/11 Memorial Glade. It will be a dedicated space to honor the ongoing sacrifice of rescue, recovery and relief workers, and the survivors and members of the broader lower Manhattan community, who are sick or have died from exposure to toxins at the World Trade Center site in the aftermath of 9/11. It will also recognize the courage, selflessness and perseverance of the men and women of the rescue and recovery effort. The planned completion for the 9/11 Memorial Glade is May 30, 2019, the 17th anniversary of the official end of the recovery effort. For more details, click the link below.
- AA Tobacco Control Leadership: Is an organization that educates the public about the effects of tobacco on African Americans. Phillip Gardiner is the co-chair of the African American Tobacco Control Leadership Council, a group of Black professionals dedicated to fighting the scourge of tobacco impacting the African American community. He joins us Sunday to discuss the predatory practices of tobacco companies in neighborhoods of color. Tune in for this important show and pass it on!
- Black Maternal Health: An organization that helps Black mothers maternal health, rights and justice.
- Bottomless Closet: Bottomless Closet is a nonprofit organization working to reduce the barriers New York City women face in the search for employment as well as provide ongoing support and education so they gain the tools to succeed in their professional careers. Melissa Norden, BC (tm)s Executive Director, joins us today to about the talk needs of women in NYC. Check out this show and learn how you can make a big difference in the lives of women.
- Food Bank of NYC: It (tm)s week 5 of the government shutdown - the longest in America (tm)s history. What (tm)s it costing the state of New York, and how are local families being affected? Margaret Purvis, President and CEO of Food Bank For New York City, joins us at 7am to talk about the services they provide / how you can help with the increased demand of New Yorkers now facing a food crisis (due to the shutdown).

- God's Love We Deliver: A non sectarian non profit that cooks and delivers nutritious and medically taylored meals
- Hudson County Casa: A national organization that finds safe and permanent homes for children in foster care. Tomorrow morning at 7AM we're joined by Beverly Savage of Hudson County CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates). HCC volunteers are everyday people who make a direct impact in foster children's lives. They are trusted, dedicated adults who seek to improve children (tm)s well-being. CASA volunteers get to know their assigned child and his or her circumstances and provide valuable information to the court. Judges rely on the volunteers (tm) recommendations to make the best decisions about the children (tm)s futures. Want to be inspired, or even better, get involved as a volunteer? Tune in to learn more about the work this organization is doing to help create a safe and loving home for every child.
- League of Yes: Is an organization that establishes Baseball programs for people of all ages with disabilities.
