WWPR-FM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WWPR-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Crime: A joint initiative between Roc Nation and the NFL to unveil PSAs that raise awareness about the need to come together to create change in our communities and promote respect for one another. Angella and Danroy Henry (parents of DJ Henry), Allisa Findley (sister of Botham Jean), and Michelle Kinney (mother of Antwon Rose Jr.) are family of people killed by police. They also discuss how to build a stronger bridge between police and community.
- Education: Prepares high achieving Black & Latino students for success at independent schools and colleges. She speaks about the benefits of having inclusion and diversity in schools that all students with different types of backgrounds can experience.
- N/A: NATIONAL COMMERCIALS THAT WERE PART OF JESSE JACKSON'S SHOW
- Outreach: Commissioner of NYC Department of Small Business, Greg Bishop, talks about Black Entrepreneurs NYC (BE NYC) which is a first-of-its-kind model in a major American city to help create equity of opportunity by empowering Black entrepreneurs. BY NYC works together with community leaders, local organizations, and Black entrepreneurs to design and tailor programs and help Black entrepreneurs start and grow thriving businesses across the five boroughs.
- Personal Finance: Stacey Tisdale introduces a young couple who she will be helping for 8 weeks to teach them about the importance of saving and financial wellness. The married couple discuss their communication about their finances and how they support one another as they raise a family on one income. The CEO of The Honey Pot, Beatrice Dixon, talks about how she became an entrepreneur, the trials and tribulations that she faced and overcoming a controversial Target ad that she was featured in. She also gave advice to young women who aspire to be entrepreneurs.
- Public Health: Ryan Gorman talks with experts about what is known now about COVID-19 as far as symptoms, a timeline of the disease (tm)s progression, how to protect yourself while out shopping or getting takeout food from a restaurant, the American Red Cross efforts to help those who are suffering during this time and a need for blood, plus meeting the demand for medical and protective tools to combat this disease.

- Reproductive & Sexual Health: Planned Parenthood an organization that provides comprehensive educational programs about sexual health . The VP of Education and Training speaks about the services young women and men need before making serious decisions. She discusses the educational programs they provide about sexual health.
- Voter's Rights: Stacey Abrams discusses Fair Fight 2020, which is an initiative that educates voters about their rights and ensures all eligible citizens can register, vote, and have their votes counted. She talks about her experience with voter suppression when she ran for office.
- Youth Outreach: Tonya Lewis Taylor and Sanchez Tuitt discuss the impact of the "I Will Graduate" Youth Development Program. They also speak on how students can enroll in the program and the importance of celebrities being involved. Erica Ford and Khepera Kearse discuss how they're stopping the violence in the city of NY, the creation of Life Camp's Mobile RV and how it's used to teach youth meditation, yoga, conflict resolution, music, and heal gun related trauma.
