Joe Monahan KANW Election Coverage for KANW, New Mexico Politics with Joe Monahan Blog. Split Decision: Ronchetti Takes Crime And MLG Corners Abortion In First TV Guv Debate, Plus: More From The Face-Off; Lost Opportunities And The Optics Watch The first of two televised gubernatorial debates was scheduled for one hour but in reality it was over after 25 minutes. That's the amount of time it took to dispose of crime and abortion, the two major topics that are shaping voter opinion in the '22 campaign. On crime Republican Mark Ronchetti took the win. She effectively pooh-poohed his effort to avoid a decision by proposing a constitutional amendment that would have voters decide the matter. She also noted his changing positions with an indirect reference to what could be the key moment of the campaign--the assertion by ABQ Pastor Steve Smothermon that Ronchetti told him he was was in fact against all abortions, an assertion Smothermon later tried to walk back. MLG's one-liner that the former TV weatherman has changed positions on abortion "more than the

New Mexico Culture Author Bernard Ewell	Report from Santa Fe	9/26/2022	9:30AM	0:28:36	This week’s guest on REPORT FROM SANTA FE is Bernard Ewell, veteran appraiser of Fine Arts, art detective, THE recognized expert on artist Salvador Dali, and author of "Artful Dodgers: Fraud & Foolishness in the Art Market." This fascinating interview explores the myths that drive the art market and offers a pathway for education for collectors. In his book, Ewell offers an introduction to connoisseurship for collectors. There is a huge gap in the art market – there is no training for collectors, and dealers rarely educate. So where do people go who want to know more about art? “Artful Dodgers...” is one of the first books that really takes the reader through the art market -- the world's most unregulated market, which doesn't even follow the rules of economics. Ewell explores the myths about the art market, among them: art has value, art values always go up, art is a good investment, and when an artist dies, the value of his/her work goes up. As Ewell explains, “The art market is where the intent to deceive meets contributory negligence and willful ignorance, and most of those who have been defrauded don’t even know it.” In response to the question, “What does give art its value?” Ewell answers “Perception. It's only because people think art has value. You know, most people think that art has value because it was owned by princes and popes and traded back

New Mexico's current legislative culture and operations derives its structure from 1912, when the NM Constitution spelled out the idea of a citizen legislature. Many feel that now is the time to modernize the legislature. This would make it look more like the present-day New Mexican citizenry (becoming more representative and younger), make it more effective (more powerful vis a vis the Governor and executive agencies), make it more accessible and transparent, and decrease conflicts of interest, and the power of lobbyists. Important modernization efforts will focus on salaries, staff, and the length of the session. The benefits of modernization would also include: more constituent services, more diversity in age, occupation, lifestyle, and ethnicity of lawmakers, and in longer sessions where there would be more time and the means to develop policy expertise. At present, there are only 2 states with unpaid legislators and the length of the NM session is the third shortest in the nation. New Mexico staffing levels for legislative support are also among the lowest in the country. Senator Dede Feldman served in the NM Senate for 16 years, representing District 13 in Albuquerque's North Valley. Randall, who lives in Albuquerque, recently received the Creative Bravo Award from the City of Albuquerque. In 2019, the University of New Mexico awarded her its Doctor Honoris Causa in Letters. Two of Randall's photographs are in the Capitol Collection at the Round House in Santa Fe, New Mexico. In 2017 she was awarded a medal for Literary Achievement by the state of Chihuahua, Mexico, in 2019 Poesía en Paralelo Cero gave her its "Poet of Two Hemispheres Prize", and Casa de las Américas in Cuba gave her its prestigious Haydée Santamaría medal. In 2020 she won AWP's George Garrett prize and Chapman University's Paulo Freire distinction. She grew up in New Mexico until she was 18, at which point, she went to New York for several years and then to Latin America (Mexico, Cuba, Nicaragua) where she lived for almost a quarter of a century. She adds, "But New Mexico is my home, it is my home place, the land especially. The landscape is very central to my work." In that quarter century in Latin America, she lived in Cuba for some time. As a feminist author and activist, she wanted to understand what a socialist world and a socialist revolution meant for women's issues. She discovered that Cuba's socialist revolution affected women in many positive ways, healthcare for all, equal education for women, and more women entering the workforce. The aging process has been an inspiration for Randall and she writes about how growing old is something that we have learn how to do. And it's a steep learning curve. Randall comments, "We lose so many abilities, so much agility and so forth.
