

KNDN AM – Farmington, New Mexico
Issues & Programs Listing for 2022 QTR 2

October 05, 2022

KNDN-AM provides its listeners in the surrounding areas with items of interest from regional Navajo Nation Chapters, Area Agencies, and Communities. Many announcements of interest are made each broadcast day, here below are listed specific categories that were highlighted during the previous calendar quarter:

Area Announcements of Concern to Navajo Tribal Members

- Northern, Easter Navajo Agency Veteran's Organizations Meetings Aired
- Regular Chapter Meetings continue to be announced.
- Planning Meetings & Local Grazing Permittes's Meetings, Navajo Nation Allottee Information Meeting and (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance) By Navajo Nation were aired daily on KNDN's Program.
- COVID-19 Vaccinations and boosters announcements made continuously through QTR 2.
- Missing Person(s) search effort PSA's provided by FBI Continued through QTR 2.

Community Improvement Programs

- Navajo Nation Food distribution schedules aired.
- Local Chapter Temporary Employment (PEP) by Local Navajo Chapters continue to be aired.
- Navajo Nation Scholarship Application time and dates were aired.

Health, Wellness, and Safety

- COVID-19 Safety practices were announced daily in the Navajo Language All Part of KNDN AM's Daily Broadcast Program.
- Faith Based Counseling on Substance and Alcohol Abuse, and Domestic Violence classes were aired on KNDN AM.
- Just Move It & Navajo Nation Special Diabetes Project schedule were aired.