PROGRAM & ISSUES
REPORT
2022: Second Quarter

Special Programming: Classical:

On the NWPB Classical Service, every Saturday at 8:00PM, we air an episode of The Sound of 13, a musical exploration of abolition.

All January 6th committee hearings and special coverage of the overturning of Roe v. Wade by the supreme court were carried on this service.

Aired a 2-hour special Juneteenth programming An African American Requiem on June 20th at 8PM (Juneteenth observed holiday).

News:

On NWPB News, every Saturday at 6PM, Traverse Talks with Sueann Ramella explores cultural topics around the Northwest. Guests include activists, artists, authors, professors, poets, non-profits and more.

All January 6th committee hearings and special coverage of the overturning of Roe v. Wade by the supreme court were carried on this service.

Aired a special Juneteenth program on June 20th at 7PM from the producers of show Living On Earth.

“Fresh Air” items listed in “NPR” category only aired on the NWPB News Service.
