

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
Quarter 3, 2012

Description	Start Date	End Date	Perceived Need	Group Supported	Description of Action Taken
Tropical Storm Debby Disaster Relief	7/17/2012	7/20/2012	Families and businesses that sustained damage from Tropical Storm Debby need to be aware of federal assistance.	FEMA, SERT, families and businesses in the community	The Morning Cruise highlighted new list of 29 counties that qualify for federal aid and promoted the toll free number and web site for disaster assistance through FEMA.
Books for Christian College Students	8/6/2012	8/7/2012	Recent statistics show an increase in the number of students losing faith in college. Parents need resources for Christian students headed for college.	Listeners . . . especially parents of college students.	Morning show host reviewed and provided web links for several proven spiritual life college-readiness texts.
Pasco County Supervisor of Elections	7/25/2012	9/30/2012	Listeners need to be prepared to vote in the General Elections in November	Pasco County residents	Aired 2 announcements most days asking listeners to get out and vote in the 2012 Primary and General Elections
Pasco County Sheriff's Office	7/30/2012	8/10/2012	Parents need tips to keep their children safe during the summer.	Pasco County residents	Aired 2 announcements most days addressing ideas for keeping children safe.