

STATION: (KHUT) Reporting for the (2nd) Quarter of (2013)

Description of issue	Program	Date	Time	Duration	Description/Summary of Program
Emergency Management Office	In Touch with Hutch	06/02/13	7:00 a-m	30-minutes	Bill Guy and Todd Strain with the Reno County Emergency Management Office talk about severe weather and what officials in Moore, Oklahoma are dealing with in light of the tornadoes that have struck in that area this spring.
Equus Beds	“”	06/09/13	“”	“”	Tim Baize, who oversees the management of the equus beds in south-central Kansas talks about water issues.
City Building Codes and housing issues.	“”	06/16/13	“”	“”	Trent Maxwell and Ed Bible with the city of Hutchinson talked about the city housing codes and also housing issues in the city.
USD 308	“”	06/23/13	“”	“”	Dr. Shelley Kiblinger and Ray Hemmen with the Hutchinson School District talks about school issues and also the legislative session and its impact on school districts.
Hutchinson Community College		06/30/13			Dr. Ed Berger with Hutchinson Community College talks about issues with the college including enrollment and plans for the future.

Fred W. Gough

07/06/13

Dated: _____

Fred Gough