Education First Responders Public Health Parenting Public Safety	HON/LOC	The Holidays are experienced differently by our community's First Responder and their families. They are working and sacrificing so that safety and emergency services are available. The book, "Santa's Special Schedule" explains to children of First Responders, Military, Doctors, Nurses and Dispatchers personnel why their Christmas is different - and illuminates the energies and efforts that are the gift that First Responders and Emergency Safety personnel give to the community during the Holidays. A conversation with author, Lara Ondruch.	Lara Ondruch	12/19/2021 - 11:05:00 AM	6:00
Employment Opportunities Government Careers Private Sector Careers	HON/LOC	After almost two years of pandemic, many are choosing to change jobs and careers. Opportunities and listings are accessible thru the internet and the spectrum of offerings are explored through government opportunities as well as private sector.
