

2nd Quarterly Issues Report

April 1, 2022 – June 30, 2022

*KSLU over-the-air broadcast signal went silent May 27, 2022 under STA # 0000190921. Program operations continue online at KSLU.org until Hurricane Ida-related repairs are made to broadcast facility.

4/1/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Michael Brothers, Director of Jazz and Percussion Studies at Southeastern, discusses spring concerts and previews the Bill Evans Jazz Festival
4/7/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Michael Brothers (Director of Jazz and Percussion Studies at Southeastern Louisiana University), guest artist Lisanne Lyons (Director of Jazz Voice at Florida International University) & adjudicator Robert Keating (Performing Arts Chair at Gulliver Academy) discuss the Bill Evans Jazz Festival.
4/8/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Director Anne-liese Fox and freshman theater major Keeley Slaton discuss the upcoming production of Mrs. Whitman's Words for Women. The show will run April 7-9, 2022, at Reimers Theater in Hammond.
4/14/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Annette Newton-Baldwin, Assistant Director of the LION UP Recovery Program (Collegiate Recovery Program) and Intervention, stops by to chat about the Merry Market to be held Nov. 12, 2022, at Southeastern's Pennington Student Activity Center.
4/15/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Kelli Knight, the Outreach Coordinator at the Louisiana Foundation Against Sexual Assault (LAFASA), stops in a myriad of topics concerning sexual assault.
4/21/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Participants in Leadership Tangipahoa drop in to discuss their experience with the criminal justice system.

4/28/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Michelle Hall and Olivia Graziano with the SLU Alumni Association stop by to discuss an upcoming networking event to educate the Southeastern community on cryptocurrency.
4/29/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Paige Moody & Marcela Spicuzza with the University Counseling Center talk about mental health following the pandemic and the rise in suicide rates. It's important to notice the signs and realize that there is help. The number for the National Suicide Hotline is 800-273-8255.
5/5/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Amber Narro visits with Alexis Stirling from OPTIONS. Based in Hammond, La., OPTIONS is a local and private nonprofit agency providing various services to people with developmental disabilities and their families who live and work in the community.
5/6/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Amber Narro chats with Akeem Robinson, North Oaks Sports Performance Supervisor and a nationally certified strength and conditioning coach, about the new North Oaks Sports Performance program that mentally and physically prepares athletes to compete at the next level.
5/12/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Dr. Jason Landrum, SLU professor and coordinator of the Southeastern Writing Center, reflects on the 50th anniversary of the American film classic – The Godfather.
5/13/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Debi Menasco of Northshore Media and Whitney Wallace of the LSU Ag Center discuss economic development in Tangipahoa Parish.

5/19/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Southeastern graduate Jana Adams drops in to discuss hurricane preparedness.
5/26/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Participants in Leadership Tangipahoa drop in to discuss their experience with state government.
5/27/2022	30 Minutes	Topic – Kim Melancon from the Ponchatoula Chamber stops by to discuss all the exciting things happening in Hammond’s neighboring community.
6/2/2022*	30 Minutes	Topic – A representative from the Louisiana Foundation Against Sexual Assault (LAFASA) and SLU’s Antoinette Phillips (interim department head – Management and Business Administration) discuss resources available through Southeastern’s Campus Assault Awareness and Education (CARE) team.
6/9/2022*	30 Minutes	Topic – Executive Director Christina Cooper, along with fellow team members Emily Gaines and Casey Cousins, from the Global Wildlife Center in Folsom, Louisiana discuss summer activities, the visitor’s center and job opportunities at the free-roaming wildlife preserve.
6/10/2022*	30 Minutes	Topic – A member of SLU’s Department of Kinesiology and Health Studies, Kristen Morgan discusses KHS camp for children with autism. CHAMP is designed for children ages 6 - 12 years old with autism spectrum disorder, language, learning, and mild intellectual disabilities.

6/16/2022*	30 Minutes	Topic – Dr. Ryan Green and Dr. Kirsten Cunha drop by to discuss the addition of a new master’s program at SLU in athletic training, including the creation of the program, their backgrounds and the actual degree program.
6/23/2022*	30 Minutes	Topic – Jim Winter, the artistic director at SLU’s Columbia Theatre, discusses the upcoming season of productions and how the public can get involved.
6/24/2022*	30 Minutes	Topic – Casey Rudolph and Alexis Sterling stop by to offer a preview of the Ballin’ for OPTIONS event coming up on September 24th, a fundraiser for OPTIONS. Based in Hammond, La., OPTIONS is a local and private nonprofit agency providing various services to people with developmental disabilities and their families who live and work in the community.
6/30/2022*	30 Minutes	Topic – Dr. Corey Majors, an endocrinologist with over 10 years of experience, shares information about osteoporosis and how to prevent the disease.