Re: CBS Public Affairs Broadcasts December 2018

The attached document was timely prepared by the January 10, 2019, deadline.

As a result of the federal government shutdown that started on December 22, 2018, the FCC's online public file (OPIF) system was inaccessible and nonfunctioning from January 3, 2019, until January 27, 2019.

Consequently, the attached document was not uploaded until after the January 10 quarterly filing deadline, after the federal government re-opened and the FCC's OPIF system was put back into service.

48 HOURS: “Defending DJ” - a report about Danroy “DJ” Henry and the dedication and struggles his family endured trying to restore their son’s reputation after he was shot dead in Pleasantville, New York, by police officer Aaron Hess in 2010. This event triggered a seven-year journey for the family as they searched for answers about what really happened. During a night out with his teammates, a fight broke out among other restaurant patrons and police were called to the scene. DJ and his friends decided to leave. They were waiting in his car in a fire lane prior to their departure. Police approached the vehicle and told DJ he should move; his friends said DJ started to slowly move away. The police claim that DJ tried to mow officers down with his car when Officer Hess approached and that was how Officer Hess ended up on the hood of the car, shooting his weapon and fatally injuring DJ as he sat behind the wheel. The police claimed Officer Hess shot because he feared for his life. DJ’s friends painted a far different version of the incident. Witnesses agreed, also saying that medical attention was slow to respond. The Henry family vowed to learn the truth – even it was bad. They wanted to know what happened to their son and filed a lawsuit. Four years after the shooting, the family was still hopeful. In 2016, the Henry family accepted the decision in a wrongful death suit against the Village of Pleasantville and Aaron Hess and were awarded $6 million. In 2017, they settled a wrongful death suit with the town of Mount Pleasant for an undisclosed amount and something more valuable to them: a public apology. Seven years after DJ’s death, they cleared his name. No criminal charges were brought in the case. Today, Aaron Hess works in private security. The Henry family has founded the DJ Henry Dream Foundation to honor their son’s memory. On-screen text graphic: Chief Louis Alagno retired in 2013. In 2015 New York State law changed. 12/08/18

48 HOURS: “Dear Savanna” - a report on how Dorothy Lee Barnett (“Lee Barnett”) eluded the FBI for over two decades after fleeing the United States with her daughter Savanna, after losing custody of the child. Their 1994 disappearance launched an international search for Barnett and Savanna that did not end until she was arrested in Australia. Lee Barnett was in the midst of a bitter divorce with then-husband Harris Todd. Barnett had married him even though he said he did not want children. Problems began after she became pregnant. They went to counseling, and during this period a doctor diagnosed her as having hyperthymic temperament, a form of bipolar disorder. After Savanna was born, she filed for divorce. Harris counter-sued. The judge sided with Todd. Barnett then started to make plans to leave with 11-month-old Savanna. She obtained fake documents (birth certificates and passports) and disappeared. An FBI manhunt ensued. She was vilified in the press. In 1999, Harris Todd told 48 HOURS that she was mentally ill. Barnett countered with her side of the story: she cut off all contact with her family and headed to Europe, then Malaysia, Singapore, South Africa, Botswana and Australia. Along the way, she met and married Alex Geldenhuys, and had another child, Reece. Unbeknownst to Savanna, she became Samantha Geldenhuys. While they were on the run, Barnett also kept a secret diary for her daughter, planning one day to tell her the story of her life. In 2011, the FBI got a tip that Barnett was living in Australia. Samantha learned about her past from the agents. In 2013, Barnett was extradited to the United States. Samantha has read all the transcripts and the diaries and has a new understanding of her mother. Barnett pled guilty to all charges and spent 21 months in prison. Samantha eventually met her father and described it as a surreal experience. She remains open to a relationship, but stands behind her mother. Original on-screen text graphic: Samantha graduates college in Australia next year. Reece is attending Auburn University in Alabama. Lee is living with friend in Charleston. On-screen text graphic for the 07/16/16 rebroadcast: Samantha is studying nursing and criminology in Australia. Reece is attending Auburn University in Alabama. Lee is living with friends in Charleston. On-screen text graphic for the 12/08/18 rebroadcast: Samantha works as a nurse now. She’s getting married this summer. Reese will graduate from Auburn University in Alabama in May. Lee has written a memoir which will be published this spring in Australia. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 12/15/18      48 HOURS: “Don’t Scream” (9:00 - 10:00p) - an updated rebroadcast on Tiffany Mead of Davis County, Utah, a young mother who called 911 claiming she had sliced her own throat while her ex-husband and child watched. When first responders arrived, the cut was so deep, police questioned whether it was really a suicide attempt. Medical experts claim there is no physical way she could have committed the act herself. Later, Mead changed her story: it wasn’t suicide, it was her estranged husband Kris Ertmann, who tried to kill her. Mead claimed she met Ertmann in a secluded park to get a child support check. He suddenly grabbed her in a bear hug and slit her throat. Thinking she was about to die, she drove the car to a parking lot which became a second crime scene. An investigation led to Ertman being arrested and charged with attempted murder. He claimed he could not remember anything and had PTSD. Additional investigating revealed Ertmann ultimately trying to arrange a hit on his estranged wife, resulting in an undercover cop posing as a hit man and getting instructions from Ertmann to kill his wife. The case never went to trial. Prosecutors offered a deal to plead no contest, and will spend the rest of his life in prison. Tiffany Mead lives with her new husband and her emotional support dog. Original on-screen text graphic: Kristopher Ertmann's next parole hearing is set for May 24, 2018. Captain Jen Daley and Lieutenant Bob Thompson will be there with Tiffany. 12/15/18 Update: Four years after Ertmann’s plea he appears before the parole board. Tiffany reads her victim impact statement. On-screen text graphic for the 12/15/18 updated rebroadcast: If you or anyone you know needs help, call the National Domestic Violence Hotline 1-800-799-SAFE. - 12/15/18      48 HOURS: “FindJodi” (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report on new information in the search for Iowa television anchor Jodi Huisentrui, who disappeared on her way to work on June 27, 1995. When Huisentrui did not arrive at the station for her morning assignment, police were alerted. Outside her apartment, they found signs of a struggle, but her car was still at the scene. An extensive search was conducted, but she was never seen again and her body has never been found. An investigation led authorities to information that Jodi had reported a possible stalker nine months before her disappearance. Several people became suspects, including close friend John Vansice, who some of her friends suspected wanted a romantic relationship, despite their 22-year age difference. Another was Tony Jackson, a serial rapist who lived nearby at the time of Jodi’s disappearance. Throughout the years, friends and family members have kept up the search for Jodi, despite her family declaring her dead in 2001 as a means to settle her estate. In 2003, a group of journalists created a website to keep the story alive and to crack the case. As of 2017, John Vansice, living in Phoenix, is still considered a suspect. Mason City police believe they are close to solving the case. On June 5, 2018, which would have been Jodi’s 50th birthday, four billboards were unveiled in Mason City, Iowa, keeping her memory alive with the hope of solving her disappearance. On-screen text graphic: FindJodi. Are you someone who can crack the case? Please call the Mason City Police Department at 641-421-3636. 48 HOURS: “Cold-Blooded Killer” – an updated rebroadcast about Mike Williams, a missing Florida man who was believed to have been eaten by alligators in December 2000, and his mother’s belief that something sinister happened. Williams, a successful real estate appraiser, left home to go duck hunting on Lake Seminole on his sixth wedding anniversary. When he did not return home, his wife Denise started looking for him. A massive search ensued. It ended after 44 days with Williams listed as “still missing.” People wondered if he had run off. After six months, his waders, hunting license and a flashlight were discovered at the lake and another explanation was offered: he was eaten by alligators. Mike’s mother, Cheryl Williams, always believed there was more to the story. For nine years, she wrote to the governor of Florida urging him to re-open the case. She even contacted wildlife experts, who told her that alligators do not feed in cold winter months. In the meantime, Denise Williams moved on with her life, cashed in life insurance policies and completely cut off contact with Mike’s mother. She eventually married Mike’s best friend Brian Winchester. Seven years later, the re-opened investigation led to suspicions that both Cheryl and Brian were involved, but police could do nothing because they were married to each other. Soon after, their marriage disintegrated. Police saw an opportunity when Brian cracked after assaulting and kidnapping Denise, to which he pleaded guilty and cut a deal with prosecutors: he finally admitted to killing Mike Williams. Brian revealed the location of the body, with the understanding he that would not be charged with murder. He said it was all Denise’s idea -- she was not willing to be divorced, but wanted to be with Brian. She was arrested and charged with murder. Original on-screen text graphic: Denise Williams is scheduled to stand trial for the murder of her husband on December 10, 2018. Mike and Denise’s daughter is nineteen and in college. She is said to be close with Denise’s sisters. 12/22/18 Update: The trial began in December 2018. The prosecution’s star witness, Brian Winchester, admitted he killed Mike Williams. Defense attorney Ethan Way was so confident the state had no hard evidence that he did not want the jury to consider any charges less than murder one. The jury took eight hours to reach a verdict: Denise Williams was guilty on all counts. Mike Williams’ mother can now lay her son to rest. On-screen text graphic for the 12/22/18 updated rebroadcast: Denise Williams is scheduled to be sentenced in February. She is facing life in prison. Brian Winchester will be eligible for release in 2033. He will be 63-years-old. Interviewed: David Arnette and Alton Ranew (Florida Department of Law Enforcement officers); Scott and Anessa Dungey (Mike’s high school friends); Clay and Pattie Ketcham (Mike’s real estate appraiser/co-worker and wife); Brett Ketcham (high school friend); Jennifer Portman (48 HOURS Consultant/journalist, Tallahassee Democrat); Matt Aresco (alligator expert); Derrick Webster (Jackson County Sheriff’s Office); Tim Jansen (Winchester’s attorney); Ethan Way (Denise Williams’ attorney) (C: Richard Schlesinger – P: Josh Gelman, Jaime Hellman) (OAD: 10/20/18)

- 12/29/18      48 HOURS: “Breaking Point” (9:00 – 10:00p) – the first hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. At the time of his death, Ryan Poston was a young successful attorney with a bright future ahead of him. Shayna Hubers’ family and friends also thought she would be successful in all she did. The couple met on Facebook and dated on and off for 18 months. Ryan was busy with his career and not ready to settle down, but found it hard to let go of Shayna. According to Ryan’s friends, Shayna’s behavior became obsessive. He told her he was not seeing her on the weekend of October 12, 2012, but did not tell her that he had a date with another woman. He did not make the date: a 911 call to police was made by Shayna, telling police she had shot her boyfriend in self-defense. Police were suspicious from the start. She had shot him six times. Shayna also talked endlessly during the 3-hour interrogation video and then, when alone, she danced and sang songs. Friends said Ryan was not an abuser. She was charged with murder. Investigation revealed that, after the shooting, she waited 10 minutes to call 911. She also texted endlessly; there were thousands of text messages to Ryan, most of which he did not answer. Yet, because of Kentucky laws, he could not get a restraining order. Prosecutors believe that Shayna could not deal with Ryan’s rejection and that her rage sent her over the edge. She believed it was over for good and would have none of it. Now it is 2014, and she has been jailed since 2012 awaiting trial. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston’s: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley and his assistant Lori Zimmerman; Shayna’s friend, Sarah Robinson; Ryan’s neighbor, Nikki Carnes; Lieutenant Dave Fornash; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhour; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna’s mother, Sharon Hubers ; and neighbor Doris West. - 12/29/18      48 HOURS: “Obsessed” (10:00 – 11:00p) - the revised second hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. In 2014, two and a half years after the crime, the trial is set to begin. Central to the trial is what Shayna told police. Prosecutors believe the only person in danger that night was Ryan Poston, and that Shayna acted out of hate. Ryan did not want to see Shayna anymore. There were no signs of a violent struggle, as Shayna had suggested happening. Shayna’s mother, Sharon Hubers, cannot comprehend what is happening to her daughter. The defense must convince the jury that Ryan was the aggressor. A verdict is reached: guilty of murder. The court re-convenes for sentencing. Shayna Hubers, who has been diagnosed as a narcissist, addresses the court, but never apologizes to Ryan’s family. Shayna Hubers is sentenced to 40 years. 07/15/17 Epilogue: One year later, a surprising development: a new trial is ordered. The verdict was overturned due to a problem with the jury. Shayna will be tried all over again, in about a year. Ryan’s family is ready. 12/29/18 Update: In August, 2018, newly married Shayna Hubers is prepared. She now claims that Ryan was abusive and she suffers from a borderline personality disorder. Her stories about that night have changed as well, and the prosecutor hones in on that. The jury finds her guilty. The next day, after the victim impact statements, the jury calls for life in prison -- more time than Shayna received in the original trial. Original on-screen text graphic: Shayna Hubers’ appeals attorney is asking for a new trial. A convicted felon served on the jury and should have been disqualified. On-screen text graphic for the 07/15/17 rebroadcast: Shayna Hubers remains in jail without bond. On-screen text graphic for the 12/29/18 rebroadcast: Judge Dan Zalla upheld the jury’s life sentence. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston’s: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhour; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna’s mother, Sharon Hubers; and Ryan’s cousin Carissa Carlisle. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIALS

- 12/02/18      “Deconstructing My Religion” – an interfaith special looking at what happens when people have doubts about the faith tradition in which they were raised, and how the sharing of personal stories can be a means to heal from spiritual trauma. Featured: (1) Linda Kay Klein is the author of Pure: Inside the Evangelical Movement that Shamed a Generation of Young Women and How I Broke Free. While sexual shame is not exclusive to evangelical Christian culture, Klein’s experiences are based on her formative years in the movement. Her book explores how this culture of shame had an impact on her understanding of herself, and why it eventually led to her leaving evangelicalism. (2) Blake Chastain and Christopher Stroop grew up in conservative evangelical homes and experienced a crisis of faith in their youth. In 2016 they created an online movement in response to white evangelicals’ support for President Trump during and after the election. Chastain popularized the term “exvangelical”. Self-described “exvangelicals” reject evangelicalism. Some are in various stages of “deconstruction,” a process that describes the act of reconciling what they learned growing up in a religious household with how they experience life today. Also featured is Julie Ingersoll, Ph.D, professor of religious studies at University of North Florida in Jacksonville and author of Building God’s Kingdom: Inside the World of Christian Reconstruction. Ingersoll sees the “exvangelical” movement as an important development because not only does it paint a more complete picture of white evangelical subculture, but also it spotlights stories that are compelling and need to be heard. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Yuti Joshi. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in Consultation with Interfaith organizations, clergy, and Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic, and Sikh scholars.)
- 12/24/18      “A Bold New Love: A Christmas Eve with Middle Collegiate Church” – a Christmas Eve special from Middle Collegiate Church, a 1,200-member, multiracial congregation in Manhattan’s East Village. The Middle Collegiate Church was founded in 1628 by Dutch immigrants, and is now co-affiliated with the United Church of Christ and Reformed Church in America. This Christmas Eve celebration features gospel and classical music, four choirs, two dance companies, and a spoken word artist. Tituss Burgess conducts the Art & Soul Chorus and the church’s 50-member gospel choir is joined by dancers from Dendy/Donovan Projects, Rod Rogers Dance Company, and the children of Middle Collegiate Church. The Rev. Dr. Jacqui Lewis, the senior minister of Middle Collegiate Church, offers a powerful sermon: “A Bold New Religion Called Love”. (Executive Producers for CBS: Elizabeth M. Kineke, John P. Blessington. Executive Producer: The Rev. Jacqueline J. Lewis, Ph.D. Director: Charles Randolph-Wright. Producer: Michael Hanna.)
