

“Alabama Public Television does not accept or broadcast political advertising or issue advertising as to political matters, and as a public broadcasting station licensee operating on television channels in the FCC’s reserved band, it is currently prohibited from doing so by the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.”