| Arts/Culture | Dakota Life/Wagner   | 1/11/2024      | 8:00pm CT         | 30 min   | Dakota Life is a monthly magazine show that travels to different towns in the state and talks to local residents to learn what is unique about their community. In January: Purpose is powerful, and the town of Wagner shows how its citizens use that purpose to come together and create a welcoming community – from the local coffee shop to the Boys and Girls Club..  |
| Arts/Culture | Dakota Life Detours:Prayers, Painters &Scattered Joy | 1/11/2024      | 8:30pm CT         | 30 min   | “They can take your home. They can take your money. But they can never take your education.” West of Onida in Sully County, the Blair Colony was established by former slaves. Using the Homestead Act and their new-found freedom, former slaves established a community in South Dakota away from their former owners, where they could build for the future and establish success for future generations. Near Pierre, a group of cyclists come together to form a club and develop a trail system that’s open for all along the shores of Lake Oahe. |
| Arts/Culture | Elevate  | 2/1/2024       | 8:00pm CT         | 30 min   | A captivating short film that follows the journey of four BIPOC artists and creatives based in South Dakota as they engage their communities through expressive works rooted in culture, heritage, and locality. Witness how their art amplifies their voices and creates a platform for visibility, unity, and artistic expression, breathing life into neighborhoods and cultures that deserve recognition. Produced under the auspices of the Sioux Falls Arts Council.   |
