QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

The following is a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by Station KIFS Ashland, KZZE Eagle Point, and KLDZ Medford, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period October 1, 2014 to December 31, 2014. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
Education, Child Sexuality	Clear Connections	10/5	600	30	Lori Porter from Parents' Rights in Education. Porter details an amazingly sordid child sex education conference that many state school officials and students attended on the coast. Porter says the state curriculum goes way beyond education, and actually advocates unsafe sex activity.
Government, law, good governance	Clear Connections	10/12 and 11/16/	600	30	Larry Masterman, city of Medford Emergency Management and SOU Professor of Seismology Eric Ditmer conduct a session and answer listener questions about how to best prepare the city, county, and your personal property to survive "The Big One", and 8.0 or above Richter scale earthquake event.
Environmental Policy, Public Lands	Clear Connections	10/19	600	15	Ed Zisler, community activist, makes connections that seem to bear out that the governor's solutions network, administered through the state university system, is an undue influence controlled by environmentalists and their agenda. This could have much to do with proposals to make part of the local Table Rocks, an area of critical environmental concern.
Public Transportation	Clear Connections	10/19	630	15	Julie Brown, general manager from the Rogue Valley Transportation District, and Connie Skillman, board chair. Detailed the need for the passage of Measure 15-128, cuts to come if it fails.
Economic Development	Clear Connections	10/26	600	15	Mark Von Holle explains his plan to help attract businesses to the Rogue Valley. He's been contracted for 3 years by the county commission to do this, and there is a strict set of criteria through which his pay and bonus structure is determined.
State Drug Policy, Law Enforcement	Clear Connections	10/26	615	15	Measure 91 lead petitioner Anthony Johnson promotes the benefits of legalized recreational marijuana. Says passing this will save money currently spent on the criminal justice system incarcerating marijuana users.
Real Estate, Local Economy	Clear Connections	11/2	600	15	Kathy Fettke, CEO and Founder of Real Wealth Network, do low down payments cause defaults? Also, the state of southern Oregon Real Estate both for homeowners, and those wanting to own homes for rental business purposes.
Energy Policy taxes, state government	Clear Connection	11/2	615	15	State Senator Doug Whitsett critiques the ODOT plan for a per mileage tax, and its companion plan, renewing the low carbon fuels standard next year, would cost Oregon Drivers hundreds of million dollars per year in extra fees.

State Government, Elections	Clear Connections	11/9	600	15	Kathryn Hickok with the Cascade Policy Institute analyzes the recent slew of citizen initiatives passed in this week's election.
Environmental Policy, Public Lands	Clear Connections	11/9	615	15	Rob Kremer, documentary film maker, discusses the release of his latest work, "Beyond the Oregon Myth". The basic take on the film is to demonstrate how legislative acts have unintended effects that have been a disaster for rural Oregon communities, especially regarding restrictive environmental policies that killed the timber industry.
Fire Safety, local government	Clear Connections	11/23	600	30	Brad Bennington with the Jackson County Home Builders Association critiques the Medford Fire Department's proposal to require fire sprinklers in all new construction in Jackson County. Bennington claims the 3000 dollar or so extra cost is yet another burden on homeowners trying to purchase a home.
Drug Treatment, law enforcement	Clear Connections	11/30	600	10	Medford Police Lt. Mike Budreau explains a new treatment that officers will carry with them. It's designed to save the lives of heroin overdose victims, which he says is a growing problem in southern Oregon.
Climate Change	Clear Connections	11/30	615	20	Scientist John L. Casey, a former White House national space policy advisor, NASA headquarters consultant and space shuttle engineer, tells the truth about ominous changes taking place in the climate and the sun.. Casey's research into the sun's activity, which began almost a decade ago, resulted in the discovery of a solar cycle that is now re-versing from its global warming phase to that of dangerous global cooling for the next thirty years or more. This new cold climate will dramatically impact the world's citizens.
Law Enforcement, public safety	Clear Connections	12/07	600	10	Lt. Mike Budreau discusses and takes listener questions regarding the investigation of Medford Police Department's latest officer-involved shooting.
Immigration policy	Clear Connections	12/07	610	20	President Barack Obama announces steps he will take to shield up to 5 million immigrants illegally in the United States from deportation, defying Republican lawmakers who say such a step would poison relations with the new GOP led legislature. Clara Del Villar, CEO of the Hispanic Post discusses and wonders how can we expect our public to feel comfortable supporting Executive Action or be assured laws will be respected--if illegal immigration continues far into the future?

Gun control	Clear Connections	12/14	600	30	Independent Institute senior fellow Professor Stephen Halbrook, author of "Gun Control in the Third Reich", examines the historical record of Nazi Germany, and draws parallels to current gun control policies. He says the same reasons for gun control were used in the 1920's and 1930's in Germany, and that these policies were always used to politically punish regime enemies, and here in the U.S. will lead to tyranny.
Firearms and environment policy, wildlife, state government	Clear Connections	12/21	600	10	State Rep Sal Esquivel raises the alarm on an issue important to sportsmen in southern Oregon, that of the push to reintroduce the California Condor to Oregon lands, and it's tied to an environmental agenda to ban all lead ammunition in Oregon.
Free Speech, courts, school policy	Clear Connections	12/21	610	20	Constitutional attorney John Whitehead comments on how his organization, The Rutherford Institute, has asked the U.S. Supreme Court to reject a lower court ruling that declared it unsafe for California public school students to wear American flag t-shirts to school. In asking the Supreme Court to hear the case of Dariano v. Morgan Hill , in which several students were ordered by school officials to cover up their American flag t-shirts on May 5, 2010, allegedly because officials feared that other students celebrating the Mexican holiday Cinco de Mayo would be offended, Rutherford Institute attorneys note that the school should have focused on controlling unruly students and not on stifling patriotic speech protected by the First Amendment.
National Security, energy policy	Clear Connections	12/28	600	15	Frank Gaffney Jr., of the Center for Security Policy writes of the latest North Korea hacks into the Sony studios, and why this type of crime has greater ramifications, such as a hack into the nation's electrical grid infrastructure.
Personal Finance	Clear Connections	12/28	615	15	Liz Peek, experienced financial analyst and Fox News and The Fiscal Times dot com columnist. This was a talk on "Why are Americans so gloomy? Maybe it's because we the people don't trust our government to act in the best interests of average Americans. One data point: the recent Omnibus spending bill, which is riddled with the kinds of special goodies – funds to promote travel to Las Vegas and a national heritage area in Wheeling, West Virginia, for instance – that dull our optimism.
