3. (v) Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.

Internship Program

WLFD Fox 32 & WPWR My 50 continues to offer an academic credit internship program for college/university, junior, senior and graduate students. Generally, internships are available in the following departments: News & Sports (Summer Only), Sales, Programming, Research and Creative Services (including Promotions and Marketing).

The objectives of the internship program are to:

- Provide students majoring in journalism, communications, and media & related disciplines the opportunity to receive on-site exposure to and training from experienced television broadcast professionals who are in job positions to which students aspire.
- Provide students majoring in journalism, communications, and media & related disciplines the opportunity to garner practical application experience and exposure to a work environment in their desired field.
- Identify graduating students for the Stations' job applicant pool for employment opportunities.

Eligibility Criteria:

- College juniors, seniors, and graduate students.
- Receipt of academic credit.

The internship program is overseen by the Director of Human Resources. In this reporting year, we had a total of 18 unpaid interns:

News: 12 students (Summer Semester 2013); 1 student (Winter Semester 2013/2014); 5 students (Summer Semester 2014)

We accepted students from Columbia College, Illinois Center for Broadcasting, Northwestern University, Arizona State University, Illinois State University, Miami University, University of Florida, Elmhurst College, Chicago State University, Hillsdale College, Duquesne University, Syracuse University, Wartburg College, University of Illinois – Urbana, Loyola University – Chicago.

4. (vi) Participation in job banks, Internet programs, and other programs designed to promote outreach generally (i.e., that are not primarily directed to providing notification of specific job vacancies).

Job Shop at www.myfoxchicago.com is an ongoing initiative that allows employers to post jobs on the stations' website at no cost. The station will profile a job of the day on air and online. In addition to the job listings, reporters have aired stories regarding job interview techniques, helpful resume tips and interviews with local area recruiting experts.

5. (vii) Participation in scholarship programs designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting.

Work Study Scholarship Programs – Emma L. Bowen Foundation for Minority Interest in Media, Inc.

Established in 1989, the Emma L. Bowen Foundation for Minority Interest in Media is a non-profit organization whose mission is to create career opportunities in the media industry for minority youth through a program that focuses on scholastic achievement, direct work experience and professional development. Students in the program work in media companies each summer and during school breaks, from high school through college. The students earn both salaries and matching scholarship funds to be used for college tuition and related expenses. Over a period of up to five years, the students experience numerous aspects of corporate operation and develop professional and practical skills that will help prepare them for their careers, many of which begin at the companies where the students interned. Fox Television Stations have been a corporate partner in this program since its inception and two of the Company's executives are on the Foundation's Board.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Good academic standing and record
- Recommendation from principal, teachers and guidance counsels
- Interested in pursuing a career in media

Emma L. Bowen Intern for the summer 2013 and Summer 2014

Tracy Woodley – University of Illinois Champaign-Urbana
Troy Lewis – Northwestern University

Benjamin L. Hooks Fellowship Award

Fox Television Stations, Inc. in conjunction with the New York University Tisch Scholl of the Arts provides an annual monetary award to eight minority students who are majoring in a media-related field. This grant is used towards cost of tuition.

6. (viii) Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.

The station encourages employees to apply for promotions for which they are qualified. In an effort to increase internal promotions, the station offers many internal cross-training opportunities. This enables employees to acquire the necessary skills and experience needed to be considered for advancement opportunities. In this reporting period, the station has trained (3) employees to prepare for the following positions:

- Production assistant to web producer.
- Newsroom Administrator to General Manager's Administrative Assistant.
- Line Producer to Sr. Producer.

Fox Stations Sales, an in-house national sales organization, maintains a program to train new sales account executives. This program consists of both coursework and hands-on training. At the end of the program, individuals are assigned to the Company's Television Stations and Sales offices throughout the United States.

On Air Notice: Organizations that regularly distribute information about employment opportunities to job seekers or refer job seekers to employers may request WFLD/WPWR to provide them with information about full-time openings at the station. Such requests must include the organization's name, mailing address, e-mail address if applicable, telephone number and contact person, and identify the category or categories of job openings for which it requests notices. Requests should be directed to Human Resources Director, 205 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL. 60601. We appreciate your organization's help in publicizing our job openings! WFLD/WPWR is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
