

WIRK-hd3 / WWNN - The True Oldies Channel

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

January 2023

Description of Programming

The Talk Of The Palm Beaches - A 60 minute, weekly, public affairs program featuring local and state level officials, business owners, law makers, and other important people in the community. It is hosted by Penny Pompei who interviews different guests every week to discuss issues facing South Florida , Palm Beach County, and the Treasure Coast.

January 7, 2023 - 6am to 7am Subject: A local landscape architect explains the value that can be raised in your home by increasing and improving your landscaping as well as Palm Beach County's policies for commercial businesses and how they work together to keep our area looking fresh and beautiful. Guest: Jennifer Morton

January 14, 2023 - 6am to 7am - Subject: The Florida Oceanographic Coastal Center is here with their Director of Research and Conservation as well as their Director of Education to discuss our local waterways and how they are important to both our local environment and economy. Guests: Lorae Simpson and Zack Jud

January 21, 2023 - 6am to 7am - Subject: The Palm Beach County Inspector General is here to teach us about workforce housing audits and other projects they have underway to eliminate waste in the local government. Guest: John Carey

January 28, 2023 - 6am to 7am - Subject: Morikami Gardens Curator of Education and Curator of Japanese Art discuss the Gardnes projects in the community and how they continue to offer educational programs to both schools and adults. Guests: Wendy Lo and Carla Stansifer