Press Release

The Community Services Clearinghouse presents a “Heritage Dinner” on Friday, April 13, kicks off annual Heritage Festival in Fort Smith.

Tickets are now available for the April 13th dinner in Immaculate Conception Church Parish Hall that officially opens the 4th Annual Heritage Festival in Fort Smith.

Samples of food from various cultures will be featured at Heritage Dinner on April 13th in Immaculate Conception Church from 6 to 8pm. Oriental, Hispanic and “soul food” are on the menu, along with traditional American dishes and desserts. The Diamonds Women’s Ministry is helping coordinate this event.

Along with food, the evening will include live entertainment. Popular vocalist, Reggie Moore, will sing gospel songs for diners. Young ladies will demonstrate traditional Laotian dance in beautiful costumes.

A silent auction featuring many unusual and ethnic items will be held during the meal.

The Clearinghouse is still accepting entertainers and groups who wish to offer food items for the event.

A limited number of tickets are available for the dinner. The cost is $10 for adults, and $5 for children between 4 and 12 years of age. Children younger than 4 will be admitted without charge. Tickets are available at Community Services Clearinghouse, 4420 Wheeler. You may order by mail by sending your payment to the Clearinghouse at P.O. Box 1522, Fort Smith, Arkansas... 72902. Please call 782-5074 for more information.

Heritage Festival raises funds for the summer “Meals For Kids” program which operates in Fort Smith public schools.
