Constructive evaluations are vital for growth in any individual...something Derek will continue for himself and the entire staff to ensure the department is always at its best. Derek: HARD WORK is another pillar of my platform. I believe a leader can be evaluated by simply looking at the organization they represent. As a current Deputy Sheriff, Hard Work is a characteristic I demonstrate every day. If elected, I will continue this as an active Sheriff who is in touch with the department and communities we serve. Along the way I will listen, be transparent and committed to safety.
