TIME AND DURATION: 9:02 p.m., :25 sec

PROGRAM: 48 Hours Mystery

DATE AIRED: 04-05-2014

PROGRAM SUMMARY: "Wounded by Love" - an investigation into the death of Phillip Peatross, who was shot in the bedroom of his girlfriend, Caryn Kelley. Kelley claimed Peatross shot himself, but the police suspected foul play. After a night of drinking and arguing, Peatross left Kelley's Orlando, Florida home. Later that night, Kelley, believing an intruder had gained access to her home, drew her gun. She then realized the "intruder" was actually Peatross. Kelley says there was a struggle for the gun, with Peatross telling her "I'm not going to live my life without you," and then he shot himself. He was dead at the scene. Police were initially leery of Kelley's story and interviewed her on cell phone video immediately following the shooting. This video became important to the case when police claimed that she changed her version of what happened days later. Famed Orlando Chief Medical Examiner and reality show star Dr. Jan Garavaglia also had doubts about Kelley's version of events. Kelley was arrested and charged with Peatross' murder. Secrets then came to light regarding Peatross: he was still married, which was one of the reasons a previous girlfriend had left him, something Caryn Kelley was unaware of. Throughout her ordeal, Kelley always said that Peatross was responsible for his own death. In May 2013, the trial began, with prosecutors using what they said were Kelley's different stories, along with autopsy findings to build their case. Kelly's lawyer was able to use the cell phone video and differing forensic opinions to Kelly's advantage, and she was found not guilty. On-screen text graphic: Caryn Kelly's gun was legal in Florida. The State does not require gun owners to register firearms. Interviewed: Caryn Kelly; Tamara Lawton, former girlfriend of Phillip Peatross; Diana Tennis, Kelley's defense attorney; Dr. Jan Garavaglia, Orlando Chief Medical Examiner; and Matt Conway, forensic scientist, Florida Department of Law Enforcement. PROGRAM: 48 Hours Mystery
DATE AIRED: 04-12-2014
PROGRAM SUMMARY: "Power and Passion" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the investigation into the death of Alabama real estate agent Angel Downs, who was found dead from a gunshot wound to the head, by her own weapon, outside her Gulf Shores, Alabama condo in 2010. At the time of her death, she was involved with Stephen Nodine, a well-liked Alabama politician with connections in Washington D.C. Though married and the father of a young son, Nodine dated Downs for six years. Friends and family say Angel wanted him to get a divorce, but he refused to give up his double life. On the night of her death, Nodine says he dropped Downs off, and then left to go back to his wife. Within two weeks, Stephen Nodine was indicted for murder and arrested. The timing raised eyebrows, because District Attorney Judy Newcomb was up for re-election, something which Nodine's attorney says was an opportunity to have some high-profile prosecution immediately before the election. Nodine's problems multiplied: he was charged with a violation of the seldom-used federal statute which prohibits drug users from using guns. Much of the evidence in the case was circumstantial, including alleged stalking and beatings, and a previous suicide attempt by Downs. Even the state's own Medical Examiner Eugene Hart could not settle on the circumstances of death. He called it inconclusive. The Georgia State Medical Examiner was called in; he deemed Downs' death a homicide. Jurors deliberated and a mistrial was declared. Stephen Nodine was a free man for four months; he agreed to plead guilty to the federal gun charge -- possessing a gun while using drugs. After convening a new grand jury, the new District Attorney Hallie Dixon, made the decision that Nodine not be charged again with murder. The family then went over Dixon's head and demanded a Special Prosecutor. Nodine was to be retried for murder. Surprisingly, there was a plea deal and an admission -- the prosecutors did not have proof beyond a reasonable doubt in the case. The state of Alabama dropped the murder and stalking charges. Nodine pled guilty to perjury for lying on a legal form. He also agreed to plead no contest to a charge that he harassed Angel Downs with e-mails and text messages. On Screen Text Graphic: Stephen Nodine is prohibited from having any contact with the family of Angel Downs. After serving his two year sentence, Nodine will be on supervised probation for three years. He says he has no plan to seek public office. Updated 04/12/14 On Screen Text Graphic: Stephen Nodine's wife divorced him in 2010. Nodine lost his work release privileges because he didn't follow the rules of the program. Nodine's two year jail term will end in October 2014. He'll be on supervised probation for three years. Interviewed: Stephen Nodine; Angel Downs' younger sister, Susan Bloodworth, and her mother, Thelma Hinckley; retired Sheriff of Mobile County, Jack Tillman; Angel Downs' best friends Emily Simmons and Kayla King Donald; neighbor Roger Whitehead; neighbor/nurse Ann Myers; Nodine's attorney Denis Knizley; former District Attorney Judy Newcomb; newly-elected District Attorney Hallie Dixon; and Special Prosecutor David Whetstone. TIME AND DURATION: 8:00-9:00 PM, 1 hour

PROGRAM: 48 Hours Mystery
DATE AIRED: 04-12-2014
PROGRAM SUMMARY: "Father and Son" - a report about the 2011 death of Uta Von Schwedler. Her son, Pelle Wall, believes that his father, pediatrician Dr. Johnny Wall, may have been responsible for her drowning death. Von Schwedler, a university research scientist, was found in the bathtub of her Salt Lake City, Utah, home by her then-boyfriend, Nils Abramson. When the autopsy report was released, the cause of death was stated as drowning, but the manner of her death was listed as "undetermined", leaving open the possibility of suicide. Her son, Pelle Wall, believed it was murder and was determined to prove his father was responsible. Investigation revealed long-standing issues between Von Schwedler and Wall, many existing before their 2006 divorce -- involving affairs, allegations of abuse and lingering anger. Pelle Wall, who lived at the time with his father and siblings, was determined to get people to believe him and risked everything, including his relationship with his father and future financial security, by filing a wrongful death suit against his father. Police and prosecutors became interested and the state now believes there was probable cause for murder. Dr. Johnny Wall is awaiting trial. On Screen Text Graphic: Johnny Wall is expected to stand trial for murder by the end of 2014. Tomorrow, April 13th, is Uta Von Schwedler's birthday. She would have been fifty-two years old. Interviewed: Pelle Wall; family friend Klaus Fiebig; Heidi Schubert and Orly Ardon, friends of Uta Von Schwedler; Johnny Wall's sister, Wendy Wall; defense attorneys Howard Lundgren and Fred Metos; Margaret Olson, family friend; Nils Abramson, Von Schwedler's boyfriend; Amy Oglesby, Pelle Wall's family friend; and Assistant Medical Examiner Dr. Erik D. Christensen. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Josh Gelman, Avi Cohen and Bill Kerig)

DATE AIRED: 04-17-2014
PROGRAM SUMMARY: A fifth-grade student was suspended and arrested Thursday after leaving a bomb threat in a bathroom at a Bentonville middle school, according to the school district. The vague bomb threat was written on a girls' bathroom wall at Barker Middle School and brought to the attention of the principal. Police were then called to the school and later arrested an 11 year old in connection with the threat, according to the Bentonville School District.

TIME AND DURATION: 9:02 p.m., :25 sec

PROGRAM: 48 Hours Mystery
DATE AIRED: 04-19-2014
PROGRAM SUMMARY: "Decades of Deceit" - a report on the investigation into the 1989 murder of 16-year-old Amy Weidner, a young mother who was beaten, sexually assaulted and killed in the bedroom of her Indianapolis, Indiana, home while she and Emily, her 2-year-old daughter, were home alone. Even though there was a bloody handprint on the bedroom wall, none of the leads led to an arrest and the case grew cold. In 2011, in response to a newspaper article about the case, the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Cold Case Unit called upon Detective Sgt. William Carter, a nuisance abatement officer, to help them to print pages from the "Remembering Amy Weidner" Facebook page. Carter became obsessed with the case, and on his own time, found a lead others had missed. After 24 years, this led to the eventual arrest of someone the family was familiar with: Rodney Denk. In 2012, Denk accepted a plea bargain and pled guilty to the murder and rape of Amy Weidner during a robbery gone bad. On-Screen Text Graphic: In January 2014, Bill Carter received the Indianapolis Police Department Award of Merit. Carter was offered the opportunity to join the homicide unit. He has decided to remain a nuisance abatement officer. On his own time, he is looking into another cold case of a murdered nineteen-year-old woman. Interviewed: Emily Weidner (daughter); Gloria Weidner (mother); Cassie Gardner (sister); Taunya Strauss (sister); John-Paul Weidner (brother); Jody George, (Weidner's teacher); Amy Somers, Angie Moore, and Joy Haney (Weidner's friends); Captain Jack Geilker, (former Indianapolis Police Department member, now with the Marion County Sheriff's Office); Lt. Roger Spurgeon (Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department Cold Case Unit); Detective Sgt. William Carter; and Bruce Kuegel (Kentucky Commonwealth Attorney) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Ruth Chenetz)

TIME AND DURATION: 9:00-10:00 PM, 1 hour

PROGRAM: 48 Hours Mystery
DATE AIRED: 04-26-2014
PROGRAM SUMMARY: "Dangerous Beauty" - a report on the 2003 murder of Russel Douglas on Whidbey Island, Washington, and how the investigation led to the involvement of Peggy Sue Thomas, a one-time Washington beauty queen-turned-high-end limo driver. The investigation determined Douglas' marriage was in trouble, his wife Brenna was in debt, and that Thomas had once worked with Brenna. The case went cold until a tipster called police from Florida, saying that his friend and former bandmate, Jim Huden, who was also from Whidbey Island, had admitted to him that he killed Douglas and that Huden's then-girlfriend, Betty Sue Thomas, was also involved. Huden disappeared in 2004, and it was eventually discovered that Huden's wife, Jean Huden, had helped him to get out of the country. In the meantime, Betty Sue Thomas married Mark Allen, a multi-millionaire oilman and thoroughbred horse owner. The marriage was over in seven months with Thomas becoming a wealthy woman. By 2011, Jean Huden's life eventually fell apart, and she began cooperating with investigators. Jim Huden was arrested in Mexico, returned to the U.S., stood trial and was found guilty of murder. Betty Sue Thomas was also arrested. Just weeks before the trial was about to begin, Thomas was offered and accepted a plea deal on a reduced charge of rendering criminal assistance. She still claims she is innocent, but she wouldn't have gotten a fair trial. On-Screen Text Graphic: Under the terms of her plea deal, even if additional evidence is uncovered, Peggy Sue Thomas cannot be charged with murder. Peggy Sue Thomas is eligible for parole on August 12, 2016. Jim and Jean Huden are still legally married. They have not spoken in years. Interviewed: Betty Sue Thomas; Mark Plumberg, lead investigator; Vicky Boyer, Thomas' former friend; Greg Banks, Island County prosecutor; Bill Hill and Jean Huden, informants; Jorge Mabarak, friend of Jim Huden's and CBS News Consultant; Mark Allen, Thomas' former husband; Craig Platt, Thomas' defense attorney; and Brenna Douglas. TIME AND DURATION: 9:02 p.m., :25 sec

DATE AIRED: 05-03-2014

PROGRAM SUMMARY: "Temptation in Texas" - a report on the investigation into the 2011 shooting death of Greg Williams, as his wife Michele Williams awaits trial for the crime. Williams was shot dead in his suburban Dallas home, but how it happened is up for debate because, when Michele called police, she said an intruder had shot her husband. Investigation revealed that Williams had been shot with his own gun and that the weapon, as well as the wrench used to hit Michele, were wiped clean of fingerprints. There were allegations of affairs and Michele says Greg was into the bondage/domination scene. As the investigation continued, Michele changed her story to say that Greg killed himself and she cleaned up the scene of his death in order to protect her young daughter from the truth. Family tensions were also evident: Williams' first wife said he was a complicated man who could be verbally abusive; Michele's estranged sons from previous relationships said she was not faithful and moved from man to man throughout their lives. Police believed that Michele was the killer. Due to lack of evidence, the District Attorney offered her a plea deal -- plead guilty to tampering with evidence and "deadly conduct," but just before the deal was completed, something happened to keep Michele out of jail: she was pregnant with twins, and the father was her son Lee's former best friend. Sentencing was delayed and she remained out of jail. Then tragedy struck, she lost the babies and the judge ordered her back to prison. Many family members believe that Michele was never really pregnant. Then, while being interviewed by 48 HOURS, Michele changed her story again - contradicting herself. The judge threw out the plea deal and ordered her to stand trial for murder. On screen text graphic: Michele Williams is scheduled to stand trial for murder this September. Makayla, now six, continues to live with family friends, who have filed for legal custody. At Michele's request, Gene Wallis, her fiancé, is filing his own suit to get custody of the child. Interviewed: Michele Williams; Claire St. Amant (journalist/CBS News consultant); Laura Cuisick (Michele's older sister); Andrew and Lee O'Brien (Michele's sons); Gene Wallis (Michele's fiancé); and Kathy and Taylor Williams (Williams first wife and daughter). PROGRAM: 48 Hours Mystery
DATE AIRED: 05-10-2014
PROGRAM SUMMARY: "Ambushed" - a report on the investigation into the 1988 disappearance of David Jackson in Pembroke Pines, Florida; the eventual discovery of his body; and of the efforts of the young man who helped police find his father's killer. In 1988, David Jackson disappeared, but the case grew cold. In 2003, the case was re-opened with Detective Donna Velazquez in charge. By chance, Police Explorer recruit John Wolfe saw a poster and shocked police by stating that the man pictured was his father. Wolfe told investigators that he felt his mother, Barbara Britton, was holding back information about the crime and agreed to work with the police. Their investigation revealed: (1) the couple had married young, divorced and shared custody of their child; (2) Barbara married Michael Wolfe and relocated to Arizona; (3) Jackson fought and won visitation rights; (4) Jackson's father-in-law Harry Britton hated him. Detective Velazquez was convinced that Jackson was murdered and that his ex-wife had something to do with it -- and if she was involved, so was Michael Wolfe. Wolfe was arrested. During the interrogation he said that Barbara's father had wanted Jackson dead and had turned to him for advice about killing him. Both of Wolfe's ex-wives, Nancy Graham and Carole Larson, corroborated this information. Britton could not be arrested because all the information collected was considered hearsay. At trial, Michael Wolfe was convicted of murder. He then promised prosecutors evidence that would put Barbara Britton away. He told a story of how she and her father were deeply involved in the planning of the murder and that he had agreed to kill David Jackson to keep peace in the family. A few months later, Britton left him and filed for child support. Twenty-two years after Jackson's disappearance, Barbara Britton was arrested for murder. To avoid prison, she ultimately accepted a plea bargain to a reduced charge because the District Attorney recognized that they would probably not be able to obtain a first-degree murder conviction. On screen text graphic: Despite the plea deal John Wolfe continues to support his mother, Barbara. He is estranged from his grandmother, Judy. John still hopes to be a police officer. He currently works as a security guard at a Florida shopping mall. Michael Wolfe, who offered to testify about Barbara's involvement in David Jackson's murder, never got the reduced sentence he was hoping for. Interviewed: the brother and mother of David Jackson -- Mark Jackson and Judy Carlsson; former wife/defendant Barbara Britton; Det. Donna Velazquez; the son of David Jackson and Barbara Britton, John Wolfe; former wife of Michael Wolfe, Nancy Graham; defendant Michael Wolfe; Barbara Britton's defense attorney Keith Seltzer. PROGRAM SUMMARY: "A Raging Son" - a report about the investigation into the 2012 death of Weight Watchers executive Danielle Thomas, and the murder case against her boyfriend, Wall Street attorney Jason Bohn, who claimed being neglected by his mother as a child should keep him from spending his life in jail. Thomas was found dead in the bathtub of the Astoria, Queen's apartment she shared with Jason Bohn. Thomas and Bohn had a whirlwind romance and she moved to New York to be with him. Everything seemed to be falling in place for the financial analyst, and while there was talk of marriage, the relationship had become physically and emotionally abusive. Police had been called. Bohn had been arrested for assault. Now, Bohn was arrested and charged with murder. Bohn's defense is that an explosive moment of anger that resulted in Thomas' death was directly connected to his bad childhood. Bohn's attorney asserts he was abandoned by his mother Maureen O'Connell, a wealthy publishing executive, and he experienced profound neglect and abuse that caused a mental illness called Intermittent Explosive Disorder. Prosecutors dismissed his claims and they assert that audio recorded in an accidental phone call made while Thomas was still alive suggest Bohn knew exactly what he was doing. At trial, the Ivy League grad and Wall Street lawyer is found guilty of murder. On screen text graphic: Danielle's mother plans to sue the police department for not responding to her daughter's 911 call. There is a scholarship set up in Danielle's name at her Boyce County, Kentucky high school. Jason's mother has instructed her lawyer to try to get her son into protective custody. Interviewed: Dennis Frawley (NYPD detective); Patrick O'Connor (lead prosecutor); Marilyn Filingeri (Assistant District Attorney); Jamie Thomas Bright (Danielle's mother); Juanita Hardgrave (Danielle's grandmother); Dr. Alexander Sasha Bardey (forensic psychiatrist); Murray Weirs (crime reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Richard Brown (District Attorney); Sherette Corsey (neighbor); Elena Rodriguez and Amanda DeJuto (jurors) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Patti Aronofsky, Elena DiFiore, James Stolz, Gail Abbott Zimmerman)

PROGRAM SUMMARY: "The Sweetheart Murders" - a follow-up to "The Sweetheart Murders" (OAD: 01/27/07), the story of sweethearts Sabrina Gonsalves and John Riggins who were brutally murdered in Davis, California, in 1980. Initially, police suspected Gerald Gallego, but he was in jail at the time of the murders. In 1989, police arrested Gallego's half-brother David Hunt, his wife, Sue-Ellen and Richard Thompson and Doug Lainer, calling them The Hunt Group, and charging them creating a copycat murder to call into question Gallego's guilt in other crimes. But, DNA would prove their innocence and the charges were dropped; still questions remained. In 2002, using advanced DNA technology not available at the time of the murders, police were able to match samples stored in a FBI database to Richard Hirschfield, a convicted rapist, who was released from prison in 1980. Police interviewed Hirschfield's brother, Joe -- who committed suicide the day after the interview. Based on information in his suicide note, police assume that Joe helped his brother. Richard Hirschfield was charged in the case. In 2012, 10 years after the DNA hit, and almost 32 years after the murders, the capital murder trial commences. Time has taken its toll: now 63-years-old and confined to wheelchair, Hirschfield is nothing like the menacing figure he once was. David Hunt, suffering from cancer, hopes to live to hear his name cleared, and the families hope to put an end to their suffering. The jury deliberates and the verdict is guilty. Hirschfield is sentenced to death. On-screen text graphic: Richard Hirschfield is appealing his conviction. David Hunt did not live to see his name cleared. He died during the trial. On screen text graphic for the 05/17/14 rebroadcast: Richard Hirschfield is currently on death row in San Quentin Prison. He is appealing his conviction. David Hunt never lived to see his name cleared. He died during the trial. Dawn Bladet received the Sacramento County "Prosecutor of the Year" award for her work on the "Sweethearts Murders." Interviewed: Detective Carol Daly and Investigator Ron Garverick, both from the Sacramento County Sheriff's Department; family members Andrea Gonsalves-Rosenstein (sister); Dr. Richard Riggins and his wife, Kate Riggins (parents); Hunt Group suspects David Hunt and Doug Lanier; prosecutor Dawn Bladet; lead defense attorney Linda Parisi. PROGRAM SUMMARY: "A Daughter, a Mortgage and Two Murders" - a follow-up to "The Mortgage and the Murder" (OAD: 11/22/08), a report on the investigation into the murders of Greg and Bernadette Ohlemacher in 2005. The Albuquerque, New Mexico couple were shot dead in their home. Police immediately suspected their daughter, Renee, was involved. Family members also believed she knew more than she was telling and she was after the $1 million insurance policy. The investigation stalled. In 2006, mortgage loan processor Ron Santiago turned himself in to the Secret Service for a crime unrelated to the murders. Investigation led to a connection between Santiago and the Ohlemachers. A search of his home led to shell casings that matched those found at the Ohlemacher crime scene. Eight years of legal wrangling followed. Before the trial, the District Attorney's office asked Renee to take a polygraph test; results were inconclusive. The test would haunt prosecutors at trial when the jury was allowed to hear the results when she testified. Santiago was found not guilty. Family members still believe both Ron Santiago and Renee Olchmacher were involved in the crime. On-screen text graphic: Renee is working as a dog walker. The family dog "Sammy Jo," passed away a year after the murders. Ron Santiago lives in Albuquerque with his parents and is looking for a job. Interviewed: Renee Ohlemacher; Jessica Montoya and Antoinette Curran (Ohlemacher's aunts) and her grandmother Dora; former Albuquerque Police spokesman John Walsh; Randy Ohlemacher (Greg's brother); Catherine Howard (mortgage client); Brian Nguyen (Secret Service agent); Joseph Riggs (defense attorney); Kari

PROGRAM SUMMARY: 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Redemption Song" - a report on the 1985 death of Natalie Antonetti, a woman who was part of the Austin, Texas music community. She was found beaten at home by her son, Johnny Goodie, and remained in a coma for two weeks before she died. The police investigation at the time focused on Marty Odem, a restaurant manager and sometime male stripper, who had a track record of violence. Police just did not have enough to go on, and he was never charged. He was later convicted of an unrelated rape and sent to prison; police then considered the case closed. In 2007, Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh reopened the cold case when an anonymous call came in naming Dennis Davis, a well-known name in the Austin music scene, as a suspect. Davis had dated Antonetti, and at the time had what seemed like a solid alibi. But now, his wife, Becki Davis, was the one who called the police. Detective Walsh has found several women who have become key players in the investigation: Davis' then-girlfriend Ampour Garcia-Crow is certain he was not with her on the night in question; Linda Bless, who has seen his anger; and an ex-girlfriend Gelinda, who says that Dennis Davis confessed the murder to her. In 2009, 24 years after the murder, Davis was arrested. In April 2011, the case went to trial. Though the prosecution's case was largely circumstantial, they had the phone call that started it all. Dennis Davis was found guilty of the murder. At the sentencing hearing there was another shock: Becki and Dennis Davis had reconciled. He was sentenced to 36 years behind bars. The defense team still insisted they had a solid rebuttal but were unable to present their case. On screen graphic: Dennis Davis will be eligible for parole in 2028. He will be 78. He is appealing the verdict. The 06/09/12 v/o epilogue: A year after the verdict, the DA's office decided to take another look at the physical evidence in this case, and compare it to two similar crimes in Austin from the 1980s. They will search for DNA to see if it matches that of a suspect in those cases. ADA Mark Pryor says he's "happy to have a look" but, he says, he's confident the jury convicted the right man for murdering Natalie Antonetti. Included interviews with: Natalie Antonetti's son and musician Johnny Goodie; Mark Pryor, Austin Assistant District Attorney; Mark Hallman, Antonetti's friend; Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh; Dennis Davis, the suspect; Davis' former girlfriends, Amparo Garcia-Crow and Linda Bless; and defense attorneys Wade Russell, Efrain De La Fuente. The 05/24/14 Epilogue: an appeals court overturned Davis' conviction and ordered a new trial. The reason: Davis' lawyer was ineffective. In April 2014, Dennis Davis walked out of prison, a free man. PROGRAM SUMMARY: 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Cold as Ice" - a report on a 55-year-old cold case, in which a childhood memory of a friend's murder was the key to solving the case of the death of 7-year-old Maria Ridulph, from Sycamore, Illinois. In 1957, while playing in the snow with Maria Ridulph, eight-year-old Kathy Chapman went home for mittens. When she returned, Maria was nowhere to be found. Both girls had been talking to a man who called himself "Johnny"; a frantic search failed to locate Maria. The FBI took over the case but when her body was found five months later, the Illinois State Police took over the case, but it went cold. Almost fifty years later, Jeanne Tessier's mother, a Sycamore neighbor, made a shocking deathbed confession: her son, John Tessier, was Maria's killer and she urged her daughter to contact the authorities. Jeanne Tessier contacted the FBI and the Sycamore Police. Her brother appeared to have had an alibi and had passed a polygraph test. Both agencies chose not to investigate. Ten years later, Jeanne contacted the Illinois State Police. During the course of the investigation, long buried sexual secrets of the Tessier family came to light. Maria's playmate, now a 61-year-old grandmother, identified a photo of John Tessier as "Johnny", who is now a 72-year-old former policeman from Seattle, Washington, and now known as Jack McCullough. He was arrested and charged with murder. There was little or no physical evidence in the crime; prosecutors chose to charge McCullough with a different crime: the rape of his sister, fifty-five years ago. They felt they had a better chance of conviction. But the prosecutor had promised Jeanne Tessier that he would never pursue a rape trial without her consent. With no physical evidence to back up her story, Jeanne Tessier felt betrayed by prosecutor Clay Campbell and feared her word would not be enough for a conviction. McCullough was found not guilty. Five months later, the murder trial commenced. Jack McCullough felt confident he would be acquitted in this mostly circumstantial case too. When both sides rested, the judge delivered his decision: guilty. McCullough was sentenced to life in prison. On-screen text graphic: Clay Campbell won the case, but in November 2012, he lost his bid for re-election. On-screen text graphic for the 05/24/14 rebroadcast: Jack McCullough is appealing his conviction. McCullough claims the judge allowed unreliable evidence, including his dying mother's statement accusing him of the murder of Maria Ridulph. Interviewed: Maria Ridulph's childhood friend Kathy Chapman; Maria Ridulph's brother Chuck Ridulph; Patrick Solar, retired Sycamore Police Lieutenant; the sisters of suspect John Tessier/Ray McCullough: Jeanne Tessier and Jan Tessier; Special Agent Brion Hanley; suspect Jack McCullough (a.k.a. John Tessier); Prosecutor Clay Campbell; Seattle cold-case detectives Mike Ciesynski and Cloyd Steiger; McCullough's step-daughter Janey O'Connor; Tacoma bartender/former 14-year-old runaway Michelle Weinman; defense investigator Crystal Harrole. PROGRAM SUMMARY: "End of The Trail" a report on the investigation into the 2008 murder of educator/artist Carol Kennedy, who was brutally beaten in her home outside Prescott, Arizona. Kennedy's ex-husband, stockbroker Steven DeMocker, became the chief suspect. Police investigation revealed a man who was a serial philanderer, who was struggling with a heavy financial burden, and had a toxic relationship with his ex-wife. Police arrested DeMocker, saying that they had a strong circumstantial case, but legal maneuvers, court delays and the death of a judge prolonged the case for five years. DeMocker's girlfriend, Renee Girard, then revealed critical information about DeMocker's activities after Kennedy's death: he lived in fear of being arrested for a crime and revealed information about an insurance policy. His large family, including his two daughters Charlotte and Katherine, believe he is innocent. Prosecutors believe he killed Kennedy to avoid paying alimony and to gain access to an estimated $750,000 life insurance payout. After five years, and nearly $2 million in taxpayer money, the trial commences. Steven DeMocker is found guilty of first-degree murder; he is sentenced to life in prison without parole. On-screen text graphic: Charlotte graduated from college this month with a degree in finance. Katherine will finish law school next year. She hopes to pursue a career as a federal prosecutor. Interviewed: Steven DeMocker; Jan Wheeler, Barb Willis, Betsy Petit (friends of Carol Kennedy); Michael, Mary and Sharon DeMocker (brother and sisters of Steven DeMocker); Rich Robertson (defense team investigator); Larry Hammon (defense attorney); Renee Girard (DeMocker's girlfriend); Joseph Moura (private investigator/48 HOURS consultant); Jim Knapp (friend of DeMocker's); Julie Corwin (ex-girlfriend of Knapp's); Craig Williams (new defense attorney); Tricia Greer and Kathy Reay (jury members) (C: Maureen Maher - P: Sara Ely Hulse, Clare Friedland, Asena Basak)

PROGRAM SUMMARY: LIVE TO TELL: "One Last Hug" - a report on growing dangers of dating and breakup violence, focusing on Melissa Dohme, who agreed to meet a former boyfriend, Robert Murton, for one last hug before they broke up forever. The decision nearly cost her life: in an instant, she was stabbed 32 times and left for dead. Their relationship had started out lovingly, but Burton told her if she ever broke up with him, he would kill her. The couple eventually split up and Burton began calling her. He woke her up on the night of January 24, 2012 and begged her for one last hug. She agreed to meet him in front of her Clearwater, Florida home. After the attack, a police officer responding to the scene did not believe Dohme would survive. Melissa Dohme, police, EMS, doctors and Dohme's family describe their learning of the attack, Melissa's treatment, the hunt for Murton, her recovery, facing her attacker in court...and how this event led her to find a solid relationship and a new purpose in life. Also included is an interview with Audrey Mabrey, herself a victim of a domestic attack. Her husband, Chris, an NYPD officer, bludgeoned her with a hammer and set her on fire. Epilogue: the men who attacked Melissa Dohme and Audrey Mabrey will spend the rest of their lives behind bars with no chance of parole. Melissa and Audrey believe they were spared to help themselves and others. Both are advocates at Hands Across the Bay, an organization founded by philanthropist Julie Weintraub, whose goal is to prevent domestic violence and help families in crisis. Interviewed: survivors Melissa Dohme and Audrey Mabrey; Melissa Harris (Clearwater Police Department officer); Vincent Supernor and Cameron Hill (Clearwater Fire & Rescue); Joanne Dohme (mother of Melissa); and Dr. Jeffrey Johnson (Bayfront Health Medical Center). PROGRAM SUMMARY: "The Lost Daughter" - a report on the investigation into the 1989 disappearance of college student Tiffany Sessions, a case which at the time generated one of the largest manhunts in the history of Florida -- and whether the Alachua County Sheriff's office has solved the mystery. What is known is that Tiffany Sessions left her home for her daily walk and never returned. A massive search was launched, driven in part by her father Pat Sessions, a marketing executive. It turned up nothing. In 2013, Alachua County Sheriff Sadie Darnell charged Detective Kevin Allen with the cold case investigation. Allen learned that three years after Sessions disappeared, Elizabeth Foster, another student, was found murdered and buried less than a mile away from where Sessions lived. Paul Rowles, the man convicted of killing Foster, denied having anything to do with the Sessions case. After his death in 2014, police found a phone book among his belongings, which included enough cryptic references to Sessions to name him a suspect in her disappearance and presumed murder. The Alachua County Sheriff's Office excavated an area where Foster was found, hoping to find a clue to Sessions' fate, but it produced no results. The belief of both the family and the sheriff's office is that Rowles murdered Sessions, even though they have not found her remains. On-Screen text graphic: Tiffany Sessions would be 45 years old. PROGRAM SUMMARY: "Hollywood Secrets" - a report on the investigation into the 2008 murder of Juliana Redding, an aspiring actress and model and the subsequent trial. Redding was found dead in her Santa Monica, California home. According to authorities, the killer hoped to erase any evidence of the crime; trying to blow up the entire crime scene by leaving the gas on and a candle burning. This did not happen, and there was plenty of DNA evidence remaining at the scene. A sometime boyfriend, John Gilmore, who had a history of violent behavior had an alibi and was cleared. Further investigation led to the discovery that Redding had recently broken up with her wealthy boyfriend, Dr. Munir Uwayda after learning he had a wife and children in Lebanon. Investigators also learned of a lucrative business deal offered to Redding's pharmacist father. Less than week after the deal fell apart, Redding was dead. Inside the home, police found evidence of a struggle and DNA evidence that led to a woman: Kelly Soo Park. Park was in the employ of Dr. Uwayda. She was arrested and within days Uwayda had vanished. Five years later, the trial commenced. While authorities thought the case was a slam dunk, the defense, with the help of jury consultant, Lee Meihls, presented a bold argument of DNA transference. The eventual outcome: Park was found not guilty. On-screen text graphic: The fraud investigation of Doctor Munir Uwaydah continues. His California Medical license has been canceled. Kelly Soo Park is living in southern California managing a restaurant. On-Screen text graphic for the 06/07/14 rebroadcast: In January, Kelly Soo Park sued the lead detective on the case for violating Park's civil rights by intimidating a witness. PROGRAM SUMMARY: "The Trials of Cal Harris" - a follow-up to "A Time to Kill" (OAD: 11/10/07), which detailed the disappearance of Harris' estranged wife, Michele Harris, during the night of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. Harris has been tried and convicted twice of murdering Michele. Both convictions have since been overturned on appeal; now he is facing a third trial. Cal Harris sits for his first-ever interview and speaks with 48 HOURS Correspondent Erin Moriarty about his case. Cal and Michele were nearing the end of a bitter divorce when she vanished. Prosecutors arrested Harris in 2005 and felt they had a good circumstantial case. He was tried and convicted. While awaiting sentencing, a new witness emerged; the conviction was overturned. In 2009, he was tried again and convicted. That verdict was also overturned on appeal. This fall, Harris will go to trial for the third time. Prosecutors will argue Harris killed his wife to protect his wealth; the defense team maintains police never looked closely at other potential suspects, including some of the men in Michele's life at the time. On-Screen text graphic: Cal Harris' third trial is scheduled to begin this September, thirteen years after his wife, Michele, disappeared. PROGRAM SUMMARY: "The Devil's Twin" - an investigation into the July 24, 2003 disappearance and murder of Heather DeWild, who was never seen again after a visit with her children to her estranged husband Dan DeWild's house, and how television crime dramas may have given her killer enough information to keep police from quickly solving the case. Police immediately suspected Dan DeWild, but there was no murder weapon, no fingerprints, and no blood. His identical twin, David DeWild quickly married his girlfriend, Roseanne. Heather's body was found one month later, bound and buried on a canyon road. Police came to the realization that Dan DeWild and his identical twin brother David were most likely responsible for her murder, but the case grew cold due to lack of evidence. In 2009, Russ Boatright was assigned full-time to the circumstantial case. Investigation led to a sex tape, and Dan's fascination with bondage and rope. Heather was found bound in a similar manner. In 2011, Dan DeWild, David DeWild and his wife Roseanne were arrested and charged with murder. David DeWild broke down and admitted that his brother Dan had killed Heather and that he had participated in the crime. Prosecutors then learned that the brothers had been watching television crime dramas and forensic shows. They believed that Heather had gone to the house to retrieve the sex tape and then was killed. David DeWild took investigators to the crime scene and re-enacted what happened. David had to pass a polygraph test in order to secure a plea deal. Roseanne's charges were dropped due to lack of evidence. Dan DeWild's trial hinged almost entirely on his brother's testimony and with the lack of physical evidence, prosecutors hoped it was enough. In the end, it wasn't. Jurors deadlocked on the first degree murder charge, but agreed on the lesser charges. Plans were started for a retrial, but a month after the conviction, Dan DeWild pled guilty to second degree murder in a plea deal. On-screen text graphic: The identical twins have been separated...they are housed in different prisons. David DeWild will be eligible for parole in less than four years. PROGRAM SUMMARY: "The Perfect Family" - Bernie Pyne returned home one day in May 2011 with his young daughter to find his wife Ruth in the garage, brutally beaten and stabbed to death. To outsiders, the Pyne's appeared to be an all-American family. Bernie Pyne was a successful auto engineer who, with his wife, had raised a seemingly happy family in Highland Township, a suburb of Detroit, Michigan. They had two children, the oldest, Jeffrey, was his high school's valedictorian and on his way to college. After Ruth was murdered, police learned the Pyne's were not as perfect as portrayed. The investigation immediately turned to those who lived with Ruth, and they learned Ruth had some psychiatric issues, including arguments and confrontations about taking her medications. Investigators also learned Ruth and Bernie's marriage was fractured, and Bernie had had an affair. They also found Ruth's relationship with their son, Jeffrey, was strained. Ruth's sister Linda Jarvie thought Bernie was responsible for the murder, and given his affair, Bernie understood the suspicions, but he had an ironclad alibi backed by his boss and four witnesses, ruling him out as a suspect. Five months into the investigation, Jeffrey Pyne was charged with his mother's murder. Police had circumstantial evidence against Jeffrey -- blisters on his hands, lies about gardening at his neighbor's home and his detached demeanor when authorities told him what had happened to his mother. In addition, there was no sign of Ruth being sexually assaulted and no sign of a break-in. Before the case went to the jury, Prosecutor John Skrzynski asked the judge for another option for the jurors; a charge of second-degree murder, rather than the original charge of first-degree murder. Skrzynski believed it would make it easier for the jury to convict him. Jeffrey's defense attorney, James Champion, argued against it, but the judge granted the motion. After three days of jury deliberations the verdict was announced, and Jeffrey Pyne was found guilty of second-degree murder. On Screen Text Graphics: Jeffrey Pyne will be sentenced on January 29th. Under Michigan law, he could receive as much as life in prison with parole or as little as a year. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/10/13 rebroadcast: Bernie Pyne and his daughter Julia regularly make the five hour round trip to visit Jeffrey in prison; A new attorney is working on Jeffrey's appeal. PROGRAM SUMMARY: "Relentless" - a report on the murder of Nicole Pietz, and how Gael Schneider, the victim's mother, waged a one-woman campaign of psychological warfare on her daughter's alleged killer. In January 2006, Nicole Pietz disappeared from her suburban Seattle, Washington home. Nine days later her body was discovered in a wooded field near the airport. The investigation into the murder revealed that Nicole's life was not as perfect as it appeared. She suffered from painful medical issues and had been addicted to medication. Her husband, David Pietz, told police he suspected she was possibly abusing drugs again. David was also unfaithful. Police had few clues and the case went cold. From the beginning, Gael Schneider believed David knew more than he was saying and started a six-year campaign of harassment: she confronted David at work, left messages at his home and continued to urge investigators take another look at the case. Eventually, two new detectives pieced together enough evidence to arrest David Pietz for murder. They were convinced David strangled her. He was charged with second-degree murder. In September 2013 the case went to trial: David Pietz was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: On Thursday, David Pietz will be sentenced. He faces ten to eighteen years in prison. Gael and her husband plan to move back to Seattle to be close to her daughter Tonia. On-Screen text graphic for the 06/21/14 rebroadcast: David Pietz was sentenced to eighteen years, four months, the maximum under Washington state law. Pietz has filed an appeal. In July, Gael and her husband plan to move back to Seattle to be close to her daughter, Tonia. Interviewed: Gael Schneider, Nicole's mother; Tania Zurcher, Nicole's sister; Tamara Van Der Heyden and Dave Tilzer, Nicole's friends; Sabrina Strieck, David Pietz's girlfriend; Jake Pavlovich and Mike Mollis, detectives, King's County Sheriff's Department . PROGRAM SUMMARY: "The War in Chicago" - a six-month investigation into Chicago's problems with drugs, gangs, guns and the deadly connection between street violence and drug trafficking. Segments include: (1) the story of Hadiya Pendleton, the unintended victim of a gang battle, who died just a week after attending President Barack Obama's second inauguration. Interviewed: her parents Anthony Pendleton and Cleopatra Cowley-Pendleton. (2) An interview with Jack Riley, head of the Chicago DEA, who says there is a direct connection between drugs and guns: and the drug of choice is heroin. Mexico's Sinaloa Cartel is the main source of the heroin and the leader of the cartel, Joaquin "Chapo" Guzman, is specifically targeting Chicago. Now, a multi-agency task force is vowing to take down the gangs that do his bidding. (3) Heroin is making its way out of the inner city in suburbia. This is the story of the "Heroin Highway" where street gangs give safe passage to those from the suburbs into the city to purchase heroin. Interviewed: Paula Nixon, an addict; her mother P.J. Newberg; Pat O'Neil, Will County Coroner; James Lindbloom, former suburban drug dealer. (4) The story of one man's fight to rid his street of drugs: for about a year, David Muhammad risked his life by videotaping heroin and crack sales on his street and posting them on to YouTube. His goal was to clean up his street. He did, but most of the dealers have just moved to another location. (5) Tragedies like Hadiya Pendleton's always attract attention. That is not the case in the murder of another murdered teen, Porshe Foster, who was also the victim of gun violence. Interviewed: Garry McCarthy, Chicago Police Superintendent; Porshe Foster's mother Bonita Foster and aunt, Demitria Rogers. (6) Combating this war comes with a price: almost $1 million a week in police overtime. A spokesman for Mayor Rahm Emanuel says that this surge will continue. The DEA has seized millions of dollars of heroin but had yet to execute the type of big-time bust that will cripple the cartel's hold on Chicago. Meanwhile, Paula Nixon completed rehab again, but is back on the streets. On-screen Text Graphics: the two men charged with the killing of Hadiya Pendleton have pleaded not guilty. No trial date has been set. There has still been no arrest in the killing of Porshe Foster. PROGRAM SUMMARY: "Love, Hate & Obsession" - a report on the investigation into the 2011 murder of one-time millionaire Lanny Horowitz, who was shot nine times while taking a shower in the bathroom of his upscale Jupiter, Florida home. Only three people were in the home at the time: Lanny Horowitz, his ex-wife Donna Horowitz, whom he had divorced twice, but had reconciled with, and his son, Radley, who also resided there. Both had strained relationships with Lanny. The investigation led investigators to the knowledge that theirs was a deeply troubled family. Both Radley, a former gun dealer, who also served a stint in prison, and his mother Donna, who was bothered by her ex-husband's close relationship with female business partner Francine Tice, were considered suspects. Eventually, Donna was arrested and charged with first-degree murder. At the trial, the defense ultimately blamed her son, Radley. The jury made a quick decision: Donna was guilty. Radley Horowitz has mixed feelings about her defense, but forgives her. On-screen text graphic: Lanny Horowitz had a $500,000 life insurance policy. He left $200,000 to Francine Tice. Radley sued Francine for her share of the insurance payout. Francine settled for $90,000. As part of the settlement, both have agreed never to speak badly about each other publicly. PROGRAM SUMMARY: CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL: "A New Calling" - an interfaith special that explores the motivation behind why some mature adults decide to leave successful secular careers and choose instead to work in their respective Christian, Jewish or Muslim faiths. This program highlights the choices made by four individuals who made the successful move into the world of religion. (1) Mike McCurry, best known as the former press secretary to President Bill Clinton in the mid-1990s, discusses his time in the White House and what led him to attend Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C., where he now teaches a course in religion and politics. (2) Cathy Abbott was a successful energy executive whose career brought her to the upper echelons of management at the Enron Corporation, among other corporations. Abbott shares what led her to, in 2003, to enter the Wesley Theological Seminary. She went on to serve as pastor for seven years at Arlington Temple United Methodist Church in Roslyn, VA. Currently, she is the Arlington District Superintendent for the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church. (3) Samsiah Abdul Majid recently retired from the United Nations after more than thirty years as a public information officer and human resources manager. Originally from Malaysia, Majid is a practicing Muslim who attends the Hartford Seminary in Connecticut. While fulfilling a hospital chaplaincy requirement, she decided to pursue a second career as an Islamic chaplain and will graduate in May. Also includes comments from: Heidi Hadsell, Ph.D., President, Hartford Seminary; and Feryal Salem, Ph.D., Co-Director, Islamic Chaplaincy Program, Hartford Seminary. (4) David Daniel Klipper, a former investment banker, explains his decision to leave behind a lucrative Wall Street career for one in hospital chaplaincy. He is now a rabbinic pastor and supervisor of Stamford Hospital's clinical pastoral education program in Connecticut. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke.
