

Quarterly Issues / Programs List

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by Station KBRL-AM, McCook, Nebraska, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period January 1, 2017 to January 31, 2017. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Programs/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
MCC will debut directing talents	News/Print	1-31	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	The McCook Community College Theater Department will debut the directing talents of sophomores Allison Priddy and Joe Anderson-Jaska this weekend. Those thirty-minute plays, "Freak" and "Sam's Funeral" open Friday and continue Saturday at the Weeth Theater on campus.
Influenza Cases Increasing	News/Print	1-24	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Laboratory confirmed cases of Influenza have seen a rapid increase as reported by the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services (NDHHS). Outbreaks are in schools, long-term care facilities, hospitals, clinics and work places. Illness may last several days to a week or more before recovery.
Winter Storm Watch	News/Print	1-13	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Winter Storm Watches have been posted for most of the High Plains Radio listening area until Monday afternoon. Rain, freezing rain, icy conditions, and up to 8-inches of snow is expected within the next three days. Temperatures will remain in the 30's with lows around 20.
Governor Ricketts coming to McCook	News/Print	1-12	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Governor Pete Ricketts announced that he would visit McCook on Wednesday, January 18, 2017 to discuss the state of the State and highlight his legislative priorities. The Governor's visit will take place at the Ben Nelson Regional Airport, starting at 8 a.m.; the Governor invites the public to attend.
Streets, Roads and Highways are icy	News/Print	1-5	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Streets, roads and highways are icy and snow-packed after three inches of snow overnight around the High Plains Radio listening area. A couple of schools are starting classes late this morning, but temperatures are expected to slowly warm up over the weekend, with temps in the 50's by Monday.

Quarterly Issues / Programs List

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by Station KBRI-AM, McCook, Nebraska, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period February 1, 2017 to February 28, 2017. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Programs/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
Work is scheduled to begin	News/Print	2-24	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	The bridge across Red Willow Creek on US-6 will be reduced to one-lane traffic, weather permitting, according to the Nebraska Department of Roads. Temporary traffic signals will be used while joint repair, and sealing the bridge rail, is ongoing; this is projected to last approximately four weeks.
MPCC tuition is increasing	News/Print	2-23	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	It's going to cost students an extra $5 per credit hour to take "for credit" classes through Mid-Plains Community College next year. The MPCC Board of Governors approved a 5.05 percent increase in resident tuition—raising the per credit hour rate from $84 to $89.
Vendor Show Fundraiser for 4-H	News/Print	2-21	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	The Red Willow County 4-H Citizenship Washington Focus (CWF) group is hosting a vendor show fundraiser to be held on Saturday from 9:00 am—3:00 pm at the 4-H building on the Red Willow County Fairgrounds in McCook. Proceeds will be used to help fund the group's trip to Washington, D.C.
MCC Providing Transportation	News/Print	2-7	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	McCook Community College is providing transportation to North Platte for the "must see" management seminar, "They Drive Me Crazy! Managing & Retaining Millennials," at 12:30 pm—2:30 pm on February 22. This presentation will be brought by Cara Silletto, President of Crescendo Strategies.
Public Hearing next Monday	News/Print	2-1	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	To comply with Nebraska State Statute, a Public Hearing will be next Monday in the City Council Chambers in the McCook Municipal Center to outline a six-year proposed program of new construction of roads and/or streets. Local subdivisions must provide local sources 25% of the State Highway user allocation.

Quarterly Issues / Programs List

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by Station KBRL-AM, McCook, Nebraska, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period March 1, 2017 to March 31, 2017. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Programs/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
McCook High School Art Show at MCC	News/Print	3-10	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	The public is invited to view the art pieces at the Wrightstone Fine Arts Gallery on the McCook Community College campus through March 17. The MHS art show kicks off a string of four student-produced shows; other dates include March 27 and April 10, with a final show on May 12, to finish the semester.
Annual inter-high day at MCC	News/Print	3-17	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Students from three area high schools took home the top academic prizes Wednesday at McCook Community College's annual Inter-High Scholastic Day competition, which included 520 academic tests taken by students representing 19 area high schools. McCook High School took first place honors.
Reap will hold office in McCook	News/Print	3-22	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Nancy Flock, central and southwest-bilingual Nebraska Loan Specialist, with the Center for Rural Affairs' Rural Enterprise Assistance Project (REAP), will hold office hours in McCook this Friday. REAP offers technical assistance, educational and networking opportunities, and a loan program.
Scholarships Available	News/Print	3-23	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	The Young Professionals Group of McCook is offering scholarships in the amount of $50 to area College Freshmen or First-Year Students who are attending Mid-Plains Community College (McCook campus), the Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture in Curtis, or the McCook Beauty Academy, in 2017-2018.
Dr. Carlton Williams has passed away	News/Print	3-28	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Dr. Carlton Williams served as the interim president of MPCC. Although his time in the position was short (2002-03), Williams played an important role in several projects, and the McCook Community College and North Platte Community College names, as they exist today, were changed during his leadership.