First tanker carrying LNG from US arrives in Germany	SRN News Reports: The first regular shipment of liquefied natural gas from the United States has arrived in Germany. The facility in Wilhelmshaven is one of several such terminals being put in place to help avert an energy supply shortage. Germany has also temporarily reactivated old oil- and coal-fired power stations and extended the life of its last three nuclear power plants until mid-April. The shipment is part of a wide-reaching effort to help Germany replace energy supplies it previously received from Russia. The vessel arrived at the port of Wilhelmshaven where its shipment of LNG will be converted back into gas at a special floating terminal that was inaugurated last month. Germany has rushed to find a replacement for Russian gas supplies following Russia’s invasion of Ukraine.	4 minutes	01/03/23

	Sunday, the first passengers were allowed to fly into China without being quarantined after arrival. China Central Television says U.S. and Chinese airlines are among some 40 carriers that have submitted applications covering some 700 flights per week involving 34 countries. It gave no timeline for when normal flights might resume. China suspended most airline flights and other travel into and out of the country following the outbreak of COVID-19 in 2020.
Don't give up your joy	On today's broadcast of Upwards w/Max Lucado, he covered how on his thirtieth wedding anniversary, a friend shared the secret of their happy marriage. "Early on, my wife suggested that she would make all the small decisions and would come to me for all the major ones. All these years have passed, and we haven't had one major decision." Facetious, for sure, yet there is wisdom in acknowledging the relatively small number of major decisions in life. Don't sweat the small stuff, and you won't sweat much at all. Don't give up your joy—or theirs—over something that's not worth sweating.	1 minute	01/16/23
US economy slowed but still grew at 2.9% rate last quarter	SRN News Reports: The U.S. economy expanded at a 2.9% annual pace from October through December. The housing market, which is especially vulnerable to higher loan rates, has already been badly bruised. The economy ended 2022 with momentum despite the pressure of high interest rates and widespread fears of a looming recession. The Commerce Department estimate showed that the nation's gross domestic product decelerated last quarter from the 3.2% annual growth rate it had posted from July through September. Most economists think the economy will slow further in the current quarter and slide into at least a mild recession by midyear.	4 minutes	01/26/23
A program targeting non-profits is being terminated	SRN News Reports: Since 2013, over one million charities received donations from AmazonSmile, which sent a small portion of a customer's purchase on Amazon to a nonprofit of their choice. Amazon recently announced that the program will end on February 20. Nonprofits are now looking for ways to replace that funding. Some of Amazon's competitors, including Walmart and Target, have community donation programs that are somewhat similar to AmazonSmile.	4 minutes	01/29/23

FBI searches Biden's Rehoboth Beach, Del. home	SRN News Reports: The FBI is conducting a planned search of President Biden's Rehoboth Beach, Delaware home. The search is part of the agency's investigation into the potential mishandling of classified documents. The search follows a 13-hour review of his Wilmington, Delaware home on January 20. At that time, agents located additional documents with classified markings and also took possession of some of his handwritten notes.	4 minutes	02/01/23
Asia set to use half of the world's electricity by 2025	SRN News Reports: The International Energy Agency says Asia will for the first time use half of the world's electricity by 2025. The agency says China's share of global electricity consumption will rise from a quarter in 2015 to a third by the middle of this decade. By contrast, the Paris-based agency said that Africa, which is home to almost a fifth of world's 8 billion inhabitants, will account for just 3% of the global electricity consumption in 2025. The IEA's annual report predicts nuclear power and renewables will account for much of the growth in global electricity supply over the coming three years. It also warned that electricity demand and supply are becoming increasingly weather dependent.	4 minutes	02/08/23

Putin suspends Russia's involvement in key nuclear arms pact	SRN News Reports: Russian President Vladimir Putin says that Moscow is suspending its participation in the last remaining nuclear arms control pact with the United States. Putin made the remarks in his state-of-the-nation address on Tuesday. Putin accused the U.S. and its NATO allies of openly declaring the goal of a "strategic defeat" of Russia. The move to halt Moscow's involvement in the New START treaty sharply ups the ante amid tensions with Washington over the fighting in Ukraine. Putin also says Russia should stand ready to resume nuclear weapons test if the U.S. does so. Such a move that would end a global ban on nuclear weapons tests in place since Cold War times.	4 minutes	02/21/23
China says EU TikTok ban will harm business confidence	SRN News Reports: China says a ban on the use of TikTok by official European Union institutions will harm business confidence in Europe. In the latest salvo in the battle over the Chinese-owned video sharing app, the European Parliament, the European Commission and the EU Council have banned installation of TikTok on official devices. The ban follows similar actions taken by Canada, the U.S. federal government, Congress and more than half of the 50 U.S. states. TikTok is wildly popular among teens, but there are concerns China could use its legal and regulatory powers to obtain private user data or to try to push misinformation or narratives favoring China on the platform.	4 minutes	03/01/23

Critics point to many red flags that had surrounded Silicon Valley Bank. They included its rapid growth since the pandemic, its unusually high level of uninsured deposits and its over-investment in long-term government bonds and mortgage-backed securities, which tumbled in value as interest rates rose.
A federal appeals court has blocked President Biden’s order that federal employees get vaccinated against Covid-19	SRN News Reports: The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans rejected arguments that Mr. Biden, as the nation’s chief executive, has the same authority as the CEO of a private corporation to require that employees be vaccinated. The ruling from the full appeals court — 16 judges at the time — reversed an earlier ruling by a three-judge appellate panel that had upheld the vaccination requirement.	4 minutes	03/24/23

US & Japan reach deal on vital minerals for EV batteries	SRN News Reports: Japan and the United States have reached an agreement on trade in critical minerals for electric vehicle batteries. U.S. Trade Representative Kathryn Tai said the deal with Japan showed the U.S. commitment to “building resilient and secure supply chains.” The deal is expected to make electric vehicles using metals processed in Japan to qualify for tax incentives under President Biden’s Inflation Reduction Act. The two sides have agreed to not impose export duties on trade in lithium, cobalt, manganese, nickel and graphite — all strategically important minerals. The U.S. and Japan have been seeking to diversify their supply chains in such resources to reduce their dependence on minerals sourced from or processed in China.	4 minutes	03/28/23

Drop any unnecessary spending and adjust your lifestyle so you can lower your overhead. This will enable you to build emergency savings and prevent borrowing. Avoid home equity loans, except when absolutely necessary. Same goes for borrowing against your 401(k) or 403(b). Run from risky investments and choose to be optimistic.
Trump indicted, expected to surrender next week	SRN News Reports: For the first time in American history, a former president faces criminal charges. Donald Trump has been indicted by a Manhattan grand jury as the former president seeks re-election and denies any wrongdoing. The specific charges are not yet known, but they stem from payments made during the 2016 presidential campaign to silence claims of an extramarital sexual encounter. Trump called the indictment "political persecution" and his lawyers vowed to "vigorously fight" the charges." Prosecutors said they were working to coordinate Trump's surrender, which could happen early next week.	4 minutes	03/31/23
