Operation blessing is providing clean water for those in need around the world. In Peru the residents of OKO had to rely on shallow wells filled with contaminated water for many of their needs and they had to walk more than 40 minutes just to get water that was somewhat suitable for drinking. Then operation blessing provided a way to build a clean water system within the village giving 28 families safe water piped directly to their homes making it possible for them to have bathroom. One villager telling operation blessing I don't have enough words to say thank you.

CBN's operation blessing is helping people around the world support themselves with their own businesses. Apth and his wife ran a small beverage stand in Thailand but it brought in barely enough for them and their nine-year-old daughter to live on. Through operation blessings microenterprise program, they learned how to run a successful mushroom farming operation and they were given the supplies they needed to get started. The father says success at farming has given him and his family hope to serve God and now they also plan to give back to the church so that they can help others.

Apostle J. K. Rodgers, Pastor Luvirt Parker, Overseer Renea Collins, Pastor Ronald Turner, Jr., Bishop Demitius Davenport. Is it okay to send my kids to public school? I would say, not only is it not wrong to send your kid to public school because it is the responsibility of the parent to raise their children in the Lord. Not only is it not wrong, for some families, I encourage them to send their kids to public school. Because they need that representation in public schools.

Former Vice President Mike Pence has suspended his campaign for the Republican Presidential nomination. Pence struggled to raise money and gain traction in the polls. He told the Republican Jewish coalition's annual gathering in Las Vegas this is not my time, adding the decision came after much prayer and deliberation. Pence is the first major candidate to exit the race dominated by his former boss and now rival Donald Trump.

Pastor Timothy Walker, Pastor James Friedman, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor Ricky Holmes, Pastor Nancy Galambos. Is it a sin on the person who participates in someone's execution? This is regarding capital punishment and our justice system. There's nothing sinful about the situation. It's all ordained of God, and we need to understand that so, you know, I wouldn't necessarily participate in that but I wouldn't have a problem if I was asked to participate.

Pastor Tim Walker, Overseer Rena Collins, Pastor Ronald Turner, Pastor David Hughes II, Pastor Ricky Holmes. In Psalms 99:1, does this mean that the Lord causes earthquakes? The term here is not a reference to the shaking of the earth as in a natural earthquake. But look at the first three words of that verse, the Lord reigneth, the Psalm opens with in declaration of God's sovereign rain over the universe and the psalmist goes on to say that because he reigns as king over the universe all of the Earth it should be moved. All of us, both the inhabitants of the earth, even Earth itself should shake and quake in the presence of God's awesome splendor. So, it is not a reference of an earthquake but it is a reference of a shaking and all in wonder over the grandeur of our eternal creator.

Pastor Brandon Hollis, Pastor Melvin Steed, Pastor Tim Sculte, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio, Pastor Jeff Haygood. Why did God put constellations in the sky? What do they represent? You know the first thing I think of is in Proverbs 16:4 it says God has made everything for his own purposes. So, when he initiated creation and we read about the creation account in Genesis that God created everything, right? Including the stars, that's beautiful about it. We look at how God created, he spoke these things into existence in Colossians that nothing was created, apart from Jesus. So, we see the trinity involved in action and God created this expansive universe to display his glory. And as far as why the constellations are there, I don't think I have a good answer personally for that. Although from our vantage point on Earth, we look up and we see the stars, we can start making out and connecting the dots so to speak and see things that might be meaningful to us. So, but nonetheless, it's created for his glory and we could behold his glory every time you go outside and look up on a starry night.

One month after Hurricane Otis struck Mexico many families in small villages are struggling to put food on the table. Before the hurricane, Raquel ran a small business selling corn and plantains in her community but she lost all her equipment in the storm. Without her business she and her children relied on the kindness of neighbors to make ends meet but she still struggled to find food and water. That's when operation blessing stepped in by providing critical food and water supplies. When the ministry brought food and clean water to her village Raquel no longer had to walk long distances to get help for her family. Operation blessing went a step further purchasing all the tools and materials she needed to restart her business. Now Raquel's back to work and able to provide for her family once again.

Pastor Timothy Walker, Pastor Ricky Holmes, Pastor Mark Galambos, Pastor Ronald Turner, Pastor Joe Spence. What is a church? By definition, it means a gathering of individuals. When the Bible references it, it means the Christian church which is the body of Jesus Christ. The church could consist of 2 people or a multitude, the numbers are not important. What is important is that we recognize the church is held dear to the heart of God. God purchased the church with his own blood.

Bishop Samuel Hampton II, Bishop Shannon Truelove, Pastor David Craig, Pastor Steven Perry, Pastor Artie Kassimis. Is it a sin to worship pets or value them more than humans? The answer is yes. I wouldn't worship anything other than the Lord himself, not your own family, not your closest loved ones, not animals. God loves animals. I do believe that for sure. But he certainly died for humans. And so, Jesus paid the price for humanity. So, I would be very careful about value in anything ahead of the shed blood of the lamb of God.

Pastor Tim Walker, Overseer Rena Collins, Pastor Ronald Turner, Pastor David Hughes II, Pastor Ricky Holmes. If the livestock died in Exodus 9:6, the 5th plague, then explain the 6th, 7th, and 10th plagues? One of the things we got to understand when the Bible says livestock, is it just like the cows, that animals that grazed on the grass and then there were other animals? Like what were considered during that time to be livestock? Now I didn't go into a major in-depth study on the different types of animals considered livestock, but I know cows were one of them but does that include sheep, did that include goats that include other farm animals, that that include like, domestic animals that people may have had, like, what did that include? So, we just have to really get into like what was considered livestock at that time.

Pastor Brandon Hollis, Pastor Melvin Steed, Pastor Tim Sculte, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio, Pastor Jeff Haygood. What happens to pets' souls when they die? There's no explicit teaching in scripture about pets or if they have souls or not, but we can look back at Genesis 1:30, where God says that he placed the breath of life into all living creatures. Right? And then you get prophecies from Isaiah talking about how the lamb will lay with the wolf talking about a later time that the kingdom of God. And so, you get this sense, that although there's nothing explicit, I think there's enough content in Scripture that, you know, certainly creates the possibility for animals to be in heaven, but I don't see anything explicitly in the Bible about that.

Pastor Eugene Norris, Pastor Samuel Vicente, Pastor Joseph Colini, Pastor James Friedman, Bishop Demetrius Davenport. Does Ecclesiastes 3:21 prove animals have a spirit? It says, who knows if the human spirit rises upward and if the spirit of the animal goes down into Earth. So, this is not necessarily conclusive statement or a conclusive fact. He's simply asking a question. Who knows if the spirit of an animal goes down or goes to Earth. I would say that it is not realistic or fair to compare a spirit or a soul of an animal to a human being. And by saying that in doing that in no way, devalues the blessings that animals bring to us, the comfort that they bring, the companionship, the value of them.
