

Master

Date	Time	Issue	News Story Regarding
03/07/18	7am / 8am / 9am	Marijuana	Vassar Township officials – and others – had more than a couple questions Friday for several men who hope to open a medical-marijuana store along M-15 in a vacant building.
02/28/18	7am / 8am / 9am	Bullying	On Monday, Tom Thelen, a youth motivational speaker and author, spent time at Vassar Central Elementary School, Vassar Middle School and Vassar High School talking about bullying.
02/21/18	7am / 8am / 9am	Literacy	In January, all school districts in Tuscola County joined the statewide initiative – the Reading Now Network (RNN) – as a way to strengthen literacy skills of elementary students.
02/14/18	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Three members of the Juniata Township Board of Trustees have filed an appeal with the Tuscola County Clerk’s Office to stop recall proceedings against them.
02/07/18	7am / 8am / 9am	Marijuana	A public hearing takes place at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Vassar Township Hall for what could be Tuscola County’s first – and largest – medical-marijuana grow operation.
01/31/18	7am / 8am / 9am	Poverty	Peggy Barnes believed area residents would nourish the struggling Vassar Food Pantry with a large helping of generosity, and they didn’t let her down.
01/24/18	7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	A scam involving a popular marketing company has made its way to Tuscola County.
01/17/18	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	On Jan. 8, a petition to recall four members of the Juniata Township Board of Trustees was denied by the Tuscola County Election Commission.
01/10/18	7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	With the approval of an August Tuscola County Sheriff’s Office millage proposal, Sheriff Glen Skrent indicated that the additional funding would be used to hire more road officers.
01/03/18	7am / 8am / 9am	Recovery	In October, A Chance to Change opened its doors at 302 N. State St., offering services for individuals wanting to recover from drug and alcohol addiction, and needing court-ordered drug and alcohol testing.
03/29/17	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	The Denmark Township Board of Trustees rejected a proposed contract for fire and rescue services from Reese Fire Rescue on Monday night, and also declined to help pay for an $8,700 thermal imaging camera recently purchased by the Reese department.

Master

03/22/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Government	A second lawsuit has been filed with connections to the proposed $200 million Tuscola III Wind Energy Center in Tuscola County.
03/15/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	Police said they discovered a mobile methamphetamine lab inside a vehicle in rural Sanilac County's Marlette Township on Tuesday after pulling over a 36-year-old Sandusky man
03/08/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Marijuana	Caro City Council plans to hold a special meeting to discuss medical marijuana-related businesses and any potential role they might have in Tuscola County's seat.
03/01/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Schools	Feedback from a recent roundtable discussion at Cass City Elementary School guided conversation toward planning and change at Monday night's Cass City Public Schools Board of Education meeting.
02/22/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Economy	Officials from Tuscola, Huron, Sanilac and four other counties are intent on increasing the area's tourism business, and doing more than just talking about it.
02/15/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Economy	In this Tuscola County farm town with locally-owned restaurants growing on the vine, the first Vassar Farm-to-Table Dinner is planned for this summer — with ticket purchasers eating locally-sourced food
02/08/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Change has been aplenty lately in Indianfields Township, but one thing is certain: William Campbell remains out of the picture — at least in an official capacity.
02/01/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Schools	Enrollment in school districts in Michigan's Thumb area generally has declined for years, but some districts buck the trend or even increase numbers by attracting students from other districts
01/25/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Tuscola County commissioners are discounting over a year of contentious meetings, legal wrangling, and turnover of two township boards as a matter of personality differences
01/18/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Economy	Star of the West Milling Co.'s expansion at its Richville Plant Food Division in western Tuscola County will bring in thousands of tons of additional blending ingredients to make fertilizer
01/11/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Marijuana	Village of Reese council members discussed medical marijuana — including at least two entrepreneurs interested in setting up shop in town — but took no action Monday.

Master

01/04/17 7am / 8am / 9am

Government

The Almer Township Planning Commission is required to make a recommendation today about an application for a special land-use permit, exactly 100 days since NextEra Energy Resources L.L.C. filed the paperwork for a $200 million wind turbine project.