Subject: Frontier request for donation for Lauren Silver.

Sally,

Lauren was involved in a horrible motorcycle accident as I am sure most of you have seen on the news. Lauren was found at 9pm the night of the accident and the family was notified at 7am the next morning. As I am sure you could imagine anyone in this situation would be in shock. No one expects to wake up to a call like the Silver family received. As family rushed to be with her in the Surgical Trauma Intensive Care unit, they found her alive and talking.

Lauren suffered from two broken arms, a lacerated eye, a broken pelvis, and her spleen was removed. Her body was covered in road rash along with partial shaving of hair to stitch forehead. The image is nothing of what you could imagine. She successfully has made it through a splenectomy and surgery on both of her arms, all in 16 hour time frame. She will permanently have a plate in her left arm and currently has wires and screws in her hand which will be removed in a few weeks. A plastic surgeon will be working on her face/eyes as well. We will provide updates coming on that surgery. Her next step is recovery and therapy once she is able to transfer out of hospital to a 24/7 rehab facility.

Her recovery will be weeks to months physically, and forever emotionally. I have spared many details for the sake of privacy and comfort.

Lauren is a loving mother to her almost 7 year old son named Bryson. He is an amazingly talented, bright kid who loves his mother very much. Lauren is the most beautiful human being inside and out.

I am putting together a raffle at Frontier and am asking if you have anything you could possibly donate to be added to the raffle. Whether it be concert tickets, event tickets, or other gift cards or radio swag. Anything you can donate to our cause would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you in advance for your support. Have a wonderful weekend!
