INTERNSHIPS

KAIR has been host to an Independent Study student from Benedictine College. She is working with the news department receiving hands on training to achieve her goal of having a firm grasp and understanding of the day-to-day operations of a small-market radio station and what is required for entry-level radio job.

Assignments include news writing and reporting, commercial production, and on-air participation.

All interns begin by job shadowing each department of the radio broadcasting business at KNZA, Inc. They observe various music genres, maintaining music libraries, play-by-play sports, news people and positions, as well as traffic, sales, copywriting, billing, reception and dealing with the public, remote broadcasts, accounts receivable and payable, operations, voice tracking, production, updating web sights, and on-air announcing. They are provided opportunities to try various jobs they have specific interest in.

MENTORING PROGRAM

The KNZA, KMZA, KAIR Traffic Director mentors the new KTNC, KLZA Traffic Director as she learns all aspects of processing orders, producing logs, and billing.

KNZA, Inc. News Director mentors the July 1st hire in the news department in all areas of news gathering, writing and reporting on-air and on the website.

Greg Buser, General Manager & Sales Manager continues mentoring the person who took on the additional duties of Business Manager in November 2015.
