12/04/2022 WHQT/HOT105FM HOT TALK WITH JILL TRACEY

Jill Tracey interviews CEO Dee Brown of the Brown Foundation creator of the annual #HBCyou Holiday Yacht Party which gathers generous executives and entrepreneurs annually to raise money to fund scholarships of their college alumni and other HBCUs (Historically Black Colleges and Universities)

Last year, Jackson State University received a $150,000 endowment Fund - The Brown Foundation and created with an event – along with The P3 Group which provided a one-time donation $10,000 donation to Florida A&M University. Year -Round the organization raises funds to provide scholarships to students enrolled full time and who demonstrate a financial need that can't be met by other scholarships and financial aid.

12/15/2022 WHQT/HOT105FM HOT TALK WITH JILL TRACEY

Jill Tracey interviews Human Rights activist Rachel Johnson - The Faces of HUD Housing and the Urban Development problems of Miami's inner-city neighborhoods – a lack thereof. Miss Johnson's mission is to help those in underserved communities not only find housing but avoid the fraud and violations of the Fair Housing Act and how to maneuver a system quite often set up to take advantage of residents. Her current program is designed to teach residents of Public Housing their rights with HUD housing for Tenants' and owners, What investors are doing when they take over HUD properties, Tenants rights and most importantly the Dark Side of Public Housing. WE also discuss how Housing Authorities contribute to the homeless and the displacement of people.
