Financial Planning and Budgeting	LifeCon	6-Aug	7am	20min/6min	AM/FM	Neil Stavem talked with Shannon Doyle of Lutheran Social Service Financial Counseling. They discussed the importance of planning a budget and then sticking to it. Also discussed credit scores and the pitfalls of too much credit card debt.
Financial Planning and Budgeting	LifeCon	3-Sep	7am	20min/6min	AM/FM	Brad Peterson talked with South Dakota BBB, Jessie Schmidt talked about recent airline mayhem is creating more openings for online fraud. With staff shortages, high prices and flight cancellations, air travel is an easy target. The Better Business Bureau has issued a warning about a new scam trend they're seeing pop up around the country. They say scammers are cashing in on our flight frustrations, creating third party sites where you can buy tickets at discounted prices. With soaring fares, it sounds too good to be true. It is, and it only gets worse. After you book and pay, BBB says a fake customer service representative may give you a ring or send you an email saying you have to pay an extra charge to complete the booking. In other instances, they're hearing from folks that say a faux customer service rep will reach out and say that the flight you booked just got cancelled, so you need to pay something else to rebook. Schmidt recommended using a travel agent, too. We also discussed texting scams of items purchased and the scammers want you to confirm it was you.

Financial Planning and Budgeting	LifeCon	17-Sep	7am	20min/6 min	AM/ FM	Jeff Rupp talked with Joe Smith of Shift Garage. They discussed their ministry of repairing vehicles for just the cost of parts for the needy and those dealing with poverty in Sioux Falls. Also discussed the incentive of having their clients take a financial planning on budgeting class so they can plan and repair for vehicle maintenance.
