Public Affairs Director Jon Michaels talks with Eric "Pinapple" Weber and Roechelle Williams of the Sioux Falls United Gospel Mission about the homeless, mental health, veterans and drug problems in Sioux Falls. Eric used to work at the Mission in Los Angeles and Roechelle has herself walked in the shoes of those she helps.

from their website: <https://ugmsiouxfalls.com/>:

History Since 1826

The City Mission Movement goes back to the year 1826, when David Nasmith, a former manufacturer's apprentice, founded the Glasgow, (Scotland) City Mission for the purpose of practical ministry for the underprivileged, proclaiming the Gospel in everyday language. David Nasmith is the spiritual father of the City Mission Movement and founded a number of ministries including the Dublin Christian Mission, London City Mission, as well as 31 other Missions in the United States and Canada.

The first USA, Gospel Rescue Mission opened on Water Street in 1872 in New York City when former alcoholic and ex-con Jeremiah McAuley founded his "Helping Hand for Man" on the site of a licentious dance hall. It was backed by stock trader Alfrederich Smith Hatch, who believed in uplifting those unfit for charity, whom he called the “undeserving or unworthy poor.”

Thomas F. Morse was convicted in Roberts County, SD for the shooting death of a Sisseton man in September of 1893. Morse made a decision in prison to give his heart and life to Jesus Christ, through the ministry of Mother Wheaton, a woman who visited the prison and proclaimed the Gospel. He was granted a full pardon by Governor Andrew Lee in 1898. On March 17, 1900 he became the founder of the Sioux Falls City Rescue Mission.

Spreading The Hope of Jesus Christ

Today, Union Gospel Mission is the largest emergency shelter in the Sioux Falls area, providing shelter and meals for an average of 125 men, women, and children each night, along with a resident addiction recovery program, and an average of 900 food boxes to the community poor each week.

Public Affairs Director Jon Michaels (since 1977) talks to Pastor Jeff Hayes of the Faith Temple Church in Sioux Falls about the need for food in Sioux Falls.

Their Mission Statement from their website:

Our mission is simple; We want to help end hunger in South Dakota.

We believe that we are called to carry out what Jesus said in Matthew 25:35-40.

"For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.' "Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?' "The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'"

Sioux Falls Stadium might be one of the oldest ballparks in the American Association (51 years old), but it still has plenty to offer fans who are looking to experience baseball done right.

Renovations in the late 1990's included new luxury box suites, an expanded picnic area and a new grass berm down the third base line. The ballpark exterior features two ticket entrances and a beautiful brick wall around the outside.

The ballpark has a capacity to seat 4,462 fans, with a walkway splitting two levels of seating, allowing fans to catch every second of the action.
