REFLECTION

10 The Law of Moses is like a shadow of the good things to come. This shadow isn't the good things themselves, because it cannot free people from sin by the sacrifices offered year after year. <sup>2</sup> If there were worshipers who already have their sins washed away and their consciences made clear, there would not be any need to go on offering sacrifices. <sup>3-4</sup> But the blood of bulls and goats cannot take away sins. It only reminds people of their sins from one year to the next.

<sup>5</sup> When Christ came into the world, he said to God, “Sacrifices and offerings are not what you want, but you have given me my body.

<sup>6</sup> No, you are not pleased with animal sacrifices and offerings for sin.”

<sup>7</sup> Then Christ said,

“And so, my God,

I have come to do
what you want,

as the Scriptures say.”

<sup>8</sup> The Law teaches that offerings and sacrifices must be made because of sin. But why did Christ mention these things and say that God did not want them? <sup>9</sup> Well, it was to do away with offerings and sacrifices and to replace them. This is what he meant by saying to God, “I have come to do what you want.” <sup>10</sup> So we are made holy because Christ obeyed God and offered himself once for all.

<sup>11</sup> The priests do their work each day, and they keep on offering sacrifices that can never take away sins. <sup>12</sup> But Christ offered himself as a sacrifice that is good forever. Now he is sitting at God's right side,<sup>[a]</sup> <sup>13</sup> and he will stay there until his enemies are put under his power. <sup>14</sup> By his one sacrifice he has forever set free from sin the people he brings to God.

<sup>15</sup> The Holy Spirit also speaks of this by telling us that the Lord said,

<sup>16</sup> “When the time comes,

I will make an agreement with them.

I will write my laws
on their minds and hearts.

<sup>17</sup> Then I will forget about their sins

and no longer remember their evil deeds.”

<sup>18</sup> When sins are forgiven, there is no more need to offer sacrifices.

REFLECTION I Am the True Vine

15 “I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. 2 Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it August bear more fruit. 3 Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. 4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. 5 I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. 6 If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. 7 If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. 8 By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. 9 As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. 10 If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. 11 These things I have spoken to you, that my joy August be in you, and that your joy August be full.

<sup>23</sup> So Jesus got into the boat, and his disciples followed him. <sup>24</sup> All of a sudden a great storm blew up on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves. Jesus, however, was asleep. <sup>25</sup> They came and woke him up. ‘Help! Master! Rescue us!’ they shouted. ‘We’re done for!’ <sup>26</sup> ‘Why are you so scared, you little-faith lot?’ he replied. Then he got up and told the wind and the sea to behave themselves, and there was a great calm. <sup>27</sup> They were all astonished. ‘What sort of man is this,’ they said, ‘that the winds and the sea do what he says?’
