

During the third quarter of 2019, KMUW focused on the following topics with our robust local news efforts for Wichita and Kansas, and through our partnership with the Kansas News Service. KMUW news staff explored issues in the community for broadcast and online platforms, which has become an excellent way to increase reach and service to our listeners. Our news team is supplemented by interns from the WSU Elliott School of Communicataion, and we had two during this timeframe. Those individuals have provided additional local coverage while learning from our award-winning radio talent.

Ascertainment topics continue to come from community projects addressing the needs of residents on a daily basis. There is a lot of energy around making Wichita better, and KMUW participates in this effort with its Engage ICT event series as well as through other efforts, including conversations with staff. The station continues collecting input on topics relevant to Wichitans in order to best inform them.
