Agarita

Issue: February events and needs - hosting a Valentine's Day fundraiser dinner for their educational initiative Agarita Inspires! This will be an intimate evening featuring music that evokes love, a 3-course dinner, silent auction as well as a surprise at the end! An interesting tie in to Valentine's Day, Ignacio Gallego and Marisa Bushman who make up of half of Agarita, are married and co-founded Agarita. This could make for an interesting Valentine's Day tie-in. Our next major event will be a ticketed concert and dinner to benefit Agarita Inspires! Agarita San Antonio - At the end of February, Agarita will collaborate with the world-famous Spanish classical guitarist Pablo Sáinz-Villegas on February 25th. (Pablo has been acclaimed by the international press as the successor of Andrés Segovia and an ambassador of Spanish culture in the world.) The last time Pablo was here was at the Tobin Center and he will be here at the San Antonio Botanical Gardens for free!

Issue: <https://www.disabilitysa.org/mcu.html> -

The MCU is the first attendant run, mobile, self-contained, and environmentally controlled changing and toileting facility in the United States. Why it's needed: There are 232,627 individuals within San Antonio with one or more disabilities. Of these people, there are roughly 117,000 who struggle with living on their own or taking care of themselves on a day-to-day basis. Many of these individuals see lack of appropriate changing and toileting facilities as a significant barrier hindering them from community experiences. Accessible toilets do not provide these individuals with the room or equipment needed, requiring them to be physically lifted onto toilets or changed on bathroom floors, backseats of cars, or even the hot pavement. These ill-equipped and unsanitary environments can lead to injury or infection. These risks lead to decisions of non-participation. By offering our disabled community access to the MCU, we have the ability to open up new experiences to you and/or your loved ones to participate and enjoy events and venues not previously available. Imagine this barrier being removed and attending your first Concert, Play, Rodeo, Festival or Museum. That is precisely why we developed the MC
