Commercial Limits in Children's Programming

2020 Q2

This is to certify that the network programs designed for children 12 years of age and younger identified in the attached certification were broadcast on KADO-CD during quarter noted. As a standard practice, each program is formatted by our network to allow no more than 10.5 minutes of commercial time per hour on weekends and 12.0 minutes of commercial time per hour on weekdays. There were no occasions during this period on which these limitations were exceeded.
