The London-based non-profit watchdog Global Witness sent an investigator undercover as a representative of a fictitious African government minister who wants to move millions in suspicious funds. Equipped with a hidden camera, the investigator, going by “Ralph Kayser” met with 16 different law firms in New York City to see if they would be willing to assist in concealing the suspicious funds. 01/02/16 48 HOURS: “The Sober Truth” – an investigation into the death of Karla Mendez Brada, a woman struggling with addiction, who sought help in an Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) program in California; the ex-con she fell in love with; and the circumstances that caused police to suspect him in her murder, when she was found dead in 2011, in the condo they shared. Also included is an examination of how judges around the country sentence some criminals to attend AA meetings, and that AA’s own non-disclosure guidelines put them side-by-side with those who are vulnerable in recovery. Brada battled an addiction to alcohol and prescription pills. She entered a program, got her life together, and bought a condo. Then she relapsed and re-entered a program where she was bussed to meetings of Narcotics Anonymous and Alcoholics Anonymous. Brada crossed paths with Eric Earle, who was in a sober living facility that required him to attend AA meetings. They fell in love and he moved in with her. She soon discovered he was abusive. The investigation into what happened to Brada exposes the risks of a recovery system that mixes convicted criminals in with the general population without the knowledge of many of those new to AA. Also included is what some AA members refer to as the secret “13th Step”, where male members take advantage of vulnerable women. In 2014, the case went to jury. Eric Alan Earle was found guilty of first-degree murder. Brada’s parents have filed a lawsuit against Alcoholics Anonymous, the organization they also hold responsible for their daughter’s death because they did not warn attendees that violent criminals could be at the same meetings they attend. Original On-screen text graphic: Alcoholics Anonymous has not filed a response to the Mendez family’s lawsuit. PREEMPTION

01/16/16 48 HOURS: "The Verdict" - an investigation into the 2010 death of Robert Cline in Seminole County, Florida, and the case against Anita Smithey, who was convicted of second-degree murder for killing him, her estranged husband. While the two were in bed, she claims that she was being violently raped and that she feared for her life. Smithey admits she shot and killed Cline, but she asserts it was not murder. Their relationship started out with promise: Cline was a widower with children and Smithey also had kids. After they married, things began to change in their relationship, which Smithey attributed to Cline's addiction to marijuana. He also demanded rough sex. They eventually separated, but continued to meet every Monday for sex. During their last fateful encounter, she says he started to rape her, and then she shot him. She also said he stabbed her with a knife. During a police interrogation, Smithey went from being a victim to a murder suspect when she admitted to stabbing herself. Her attorney maintained that police bullied her into making that statement. The case pitted the couple's extended families against each other, raised questions about their relationship and whether the shooting was justifiable homicide or murder. Prosecutors argued there was no rape and say the knife wounds were self-inflicted. At the trial's end, which many believe was going the way of the defense, Smithey's attorney Rick Jancha, mistakenly opened the door to the jury being able to hear the 911 call that had been forbidden to be used. Smithey was found guilty. Just before sentencing, her attorney suffered a fatal heart attack, and another attorney has stepped in to plan an appeal. The Cline family continues to maintain that Smithey was the abuser. On-screen text graphic for the original and 01/16/16 rebroadcast: Robert Cline's children were adopted by his sister, Belinda. Anita's children are being raised by her first husband. Interviewed: Anita Smithey; Drew Smithey (son); Stephanie Cline (daughter); Belinda Cline (Cline's sister); Jessica Flores (Smithey's best friend); Daniel Mattingly and Matthew DePanics (detectives); Whitney Boan (Smithey's current attorney); Phil Andry, Audie Andry (Smithey's father and brother); Stacey Salmons and Kelly Jo Hines (prosecutors). 01/23/16 48 HOURS: "A Vision of Murder" (9:00-10:00p) - an investigation into the 2010 death of Kelly Brennan, and her friend Sheila Trott's dream in which she perceived Brennan to be in danger. Brennan was later found bludgeoned to death near Mark's Landing in Indiatlantic, Florida and Trott was subsequently arrested for her murder. To some, Trott is a clairvoyant who was able to provide information to help the police; to others, she is a killer. The investigation uncovered an alleged love triangle between Trott, Brennan and Trott's estranged husband, Dan Trott. Trott says she encouraged the match to free herself from a bad marriage; prosecutors believe the relationship led to murder. Prosecutors say Trott spoke about the dream to her mother and her sons, making statements that she had hurt someone -- basically confessing to the crime, as her mother related in a 911 call to police. Four-and-a-half years later, Sheila Trott remains behind bars, awaiting trial. Though the case is admittedly circumstantial, prosecutors believe they have a strong case. As the trial is scheduled to begin, Trott has her own problems. Her lawyer has been disbarred and she must rely on a public defender. They plan to point the finger at Dan Trott. In 2014, as the trial progresses, her two sons take the stand against her -- testifying for the prosecution. Sheila Trott then had a new defense - her dream was really an eyewitness account of what had really happened to Kelly. Her attorneys make no mention of this, but try to pick apart the State's case, pointing the finger at Kelly's jealous husband, Gino Rallo. The jurors reach a verdict: Sheila Trott is guilty of first-degree, premeditated murder. Original on-screen text graphic: Creighton and Graham Trott recently visited their mother in prison. They told 48 HOURS "...We unequivocally believe in our mother's innocence and stand by her." On-screen text graphic for the 01/23/16 rebroadcast: Sheila's sons, Creighton and Graham, told 48 HOURS " ...We unequivocally believe in our mother's innocence and stand by her." 01/23/16 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "My Name is Victoria" (10:00-11:00p) – a report about California woman kidnapped, tortured and left for dead, who reveals her extraordinary tale of survival and the 18-year-hunt for her assailants that led to the arrest of an "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery" actor. This is the story of one woman's will to live through a brutal attack, how that night changed her life forever, and the investigation and changing technology that would help police track down her attackers 18 years later. Victoria, whose name was changed for this 48 HOURS broadcast, was just 19-years-old on Christmas Eve in 1990, when two men came out of nowhere as she approached her apartment and attacked her. The force of the attack knocked her out. She came to just as she was being thrown into the back of a car. With sheer will and quick thinking, she survived a series of terrible events, including multiple sexual assaults. Surviving that night was just the start of the investigation and the healing, which continues today. Unfortunately, the case went cold. Eighteen years later, police got the break they needed when DNA taken from Victoria's body the night of the attack matched someone in the system. The suspect, Joseph Son, was an actor in "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery". Son's high school friend Santiago Gaitan was later arrested. Before trial, Deputy District Attorney Eric Scarbrough made a sickening discovery -- the statute of limitations for rape and kidnapping had long expired. Ultimately, Scarbrough found another way to legally prosecute the case. On-screen text graphic: Joseph Son's trial is scheduled for March 2016. Santiago Gaitan could be paroled as early as 2018. Last week, Victoria became a grandmother for the first time. She and her family are excited for a new beginning. Interviewed: "Victoria" (not her real name); Don Howell (Detective, Huntington Beach Police Department); Eric Scarbrough (Deputy DA, Orange County, CA). Correspondent Erin Moriarty and the 48 HOURS team have been investigating the murder and the bizarre circumstances that put Ryan Ferguson in prison for the crime since 2006 and were with Ferguson when he was released from prison. Details of the case, which were presented in the original broadcasts, are interwoven into this report along with past interviews. Also included are new interviews with Ryan Ferguson; his parents, Bill and Leslie Ferguson; his attorney, Kathleen Zellner; his accuser, Charles "Chuck" Erickson; and his new girlfriend Myka Cain. Ultimately, Erickson, even after confessing, believes that he was not responsible for the crime and has a new attorney, the interest of the Midwest Innocence Project and the support of Ryan Ferguson. For now, Ferguson is concentrating on what he will do now: he is thinking about going back to college and may follow his father into the real estate business. On-screen text graphic: Ryan Ferguson has written a book that will be published in 2015. If Charles Erickson's appeals fail, his earliest parole date is March 2026. On-screen text graphic for the 01/30/16 rebroadcast: If Charles Erickson's appeals fail, his earliest parole date is March 2020. 01/30/16 48 HOURS: "Murder 90210" (10:00-11:00p) – a followup to 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "The Bizarre Saga of Robert Durst" (OAD: 03/21/15) - a report on new details in the case of millionaire Robert Durst. In a dramatic and unusual turn in the bizarre story of Robert Durst, next week, the millionaire is expected to agree to a plea deal on a gun charge in New Orleans so he can face trial in California for the murder of his friend Susan Berman, who was shot dead in her California home 15 years ago. Will that trial clear his name in a case that has dogged him for years -- as attorney Dick DeGuerin suggests -- or will he end up spending the rest of his life in jail, where investigators say he should have been all along? The story of Robert Durst includes allegations about his missing wife, his alleged ties to the murder of Berman, and the police who have spent years trying to solve the case. In 2000, Berman was found shot dead in her home. She was the daughter of a well-known Las Vegas mobster, which initially led to speculation that she was a victim of a mob hit. At the time of Berman's death, Durst was hiding in Galveston, Texas, where he took on the identity of a mute woman. Durst and Berman were friends, and she publicly defended him from allegations that he knew more about his wife's disappearance than he had told police. Durst wasn't considered a suspect in Berman's death until nine months later when he was involved with the death of Morris Black in Galveston. Durst maintained he accidentally killed Black in self-defense. He then cut up Black's body. A jury eventually acquitted him of murder. Durst is currently in a New Orleans jail, since he was arrested in 2015 after the HBO documentary "The Jinx" aired and raised questions in the Berman case. On-screen text graphic: Family members of Durst's first wife Kathy have filed a hundred-million-dollar lawsuit against him. The lawsuit claims the family has a right to Kathy's body for burial. Included are new interviews with: Jeanine Pirro (former Westchester DA), Dick DeGuerin (Durst's attorney); and Steve Cooley (former LA District Attorney). Also featured are previous interviews with: Jim McCormack (Kathie Durst's brother); Dr. Alexander Sasha Bardey (forensic psychiatrist); Lisa DePaulo (writer); Paul Coulter (retired Los Angeles Detective); Cody Cazalas (Galveston Detective Sergeant); Emily and Stuart Altman (Durst's friends); Chip Lewis (former Durst attorney); Dr. Milton Altschler; Dr. Lawson Bernstein (forensic psychiatrist); Andrew Jarecki (filmmaker). "Dead or Alive" – a report on the errors of the Social Security Administration's Death Master File. Those who are alive and mistakenly put onto the list, can be cut out of existence by banks, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Medicare, credit agencies and the like. Includes interviews with: living Americans declared dead by the Social Security Administration: Don Pilger, Kristina Pace, Betty Denault, and Judy Rivers; Patrick O'Carroll, Social Security Administration's inspector general; and Sandra Kimbro, who pleaded guilty to accepting her mother's Social Security benefits, but says it was done so unknowingly. 48 HOURS

02/06/16 PREEMPTED

02/13/16 48 HOURS: "Target Justice" (8:00-9:00p) - an investigation into the murders of Kaufman County, Texas District Attorney Mike McLelland and his wife Cynthia, and Assistant District Attorney Mark Hasse. Following the murder of Assistant District Attorney Mark Hasse, who was shot dead outside the courthouse in 2013, and after McLelland had vowed to find his killer, he and his wife Cynthia were discovered dead in their home. Investigation soon focused on the Aryan Brotherhood, a white supremacist group in Texas, and one of the most violent prison gangs, which had declared it would get revenge against law enforcement. But someone else stood out in the investigation: Eric Williams, a lawyer and justice of the peace. Hasse, under McLelland's guidance, prosecuted a case involving the theft of computer monitors from a county office. Police checked Williams out, and it seemed he had a credible alibi. Weeks later, police received a tip that seemed like a taunt to investigators. Weeks later, Williams was charged with the capital murders of the McLellands and Mark Hasse. In December 2014, Williams went on trial. Prosecutors said Williams murdered the McLellands as an act of revenge after being prosecuted for stealing the monitors. The defense made no opening statement and called no witnesses, stating that the prosecution had not made its case. Jurors had no doubt: Williams was found guilty. The most shocking testimony came during the penalty phase when Eric Williams' wife of 16 years, Kim was called to testify. Kim had also been charged with all three murders and had admitted to driving the getaway car. She confirmed her husband's motive was anger and that there were more potential victims targeted. Eric Williams was sentenced to death. On-screen text graphic: Eric Williams' request for a new trial was denied; he has filed for a stay of execution. It can take more than 20 years of appeals before an execution. Interviewed: Lt. Eric Kasper; Lenda Bush (former police officer); Kelley Blaine (court coordinator); Toby Shook, Bill Wirskye (Dallas attorneys); Lt. Jolie Stewart (lead investigator); Sheriff David Byrnes; J.R. McLelland and Krista Ball (McLelland children); Jack Douglas (KTVT investigative producer); DeWayne Dockery (Texas Ranger); Matt Seymour (defense attorney). 48 HOURS (continued)

02/20/16 48 HOURS: “What Did the Children See?” - A report on the murder trial of former Quincy, Illinois prosecutor Curtis Lovelace for the death of his wife on Valentine’s Day 2006, as prosecutors attempt to prove their case with science and the testimony of the Lovelace’s four children. Lovelace was an All-American high school athlete who went on to become a prosecutor who seemed to have everything including a successful career and a loving family. On Valentine’s Day 2006, Lovelace returned home after dropping his children off at school to find his wife dead. He did not call 911, or try CPR. After an investigation, the cause of death was never determined and the case was closed. Eight years later, in 2014, a Quincy detective reopened the case and the investigation determined the cause of death as suffocation. By this time, Lovelace had remarried for a third time. He was arrested and charged with murder. The case hinged on two things -- science (the death does not seem natural - photos and other information are the basis) and the testimony of the Lovelace children (they were interviewed days after their mother’s death -- did they really see her that morning as they originally said). Three weeks ago, the trial began. Two of the children are 100% certain they saw their mother the morning of her death. The star witness, daughter Lindsey no longer believes she saw her that day. Deliberations begin. The result: a hung jury -- a mistrial is declared. On-screen text graphic: Lovelace’s new trial date is scheduled for May 31st. Curtis Lovelace’s bail was set at five million dollars. He remains in jail. Interviewed: Bob Goush (local journalist); Marty Didriksen (Cory Lovelace’s mother); Steve Belko, Beth Dobrzynski, Bret Schrader (Cory Lovelace’s friends); Lyndsay Lovelace (daughter); Jenny Dreasler (neighbor); Cole Miller (EMT); Jeff Baird (Quincy Police Officer); James Keller (Deputy Coroner); Adam Gibson (Quincy detective); Dr. Jane Turner (Asst. 02/27/16 48 HOURS: “A Student of Murder” - a report about the 2012 murder of Yancy Noll, a Seattle wine steward, who was shot to death at a traffic light, and the subsequent investigation that led to the arrest of robotics engineer Dinh Bowman, a self-taught murderer intent on finding the perfect moment to kill. On his commute home from work, Noll stopped at a red light. A BMW pulled up alongside of him -- shots rang out -- and Noll was killed instantly. At first, it seemed to be a case of road rage and the case grabbed headlines throughout the city. The BMW was distinctive and police went to work. A few weeks later, police got a tip that Dinh Bowman, a young man described as a genius who had entered college at age 12 and now was a robotics engineer with his own business, owned a vehicle that matched the lead. Police investigation led to information that Bowman had a fixation with James Bond, was an expert marksman, and just wanted to kill someone for the thrill of it; and his wife, dentist Jennifer Bowman, may have had knowledge of the crime and possibly have been an accomplice. Bowman was arrested and held on $10 million bond. At his 2014 trial, a portrait of pre-meditated murder was described to the jury by the prosecutors. Bowman, his appearance changed dramatically, claimed he was the victim: he had fired in self-defense, then threw out evidence and did not call police because he panicked. The verdict: guilty of first degree murder. On-screen text graphic: After the verdict, Dinh Bowman attempted suicide. Jennifer and Dinh are now divorced. Interviewed: Adrienne McCoy and Kristin Richardson (prosecutors); Alison Grande (KIRO-7 reporter); Brad Kenny (friend of Yancy Noll); Kevin Watts, Angjelo Rama, Patricia Schulmeister (witnesses); Frank Clark and Dana Duffy (detectives); Jesson Matta (Bowman friend); Jeff Shields (repairman); John Henry Brown (defense attorney). 48 HOURS

03/05/16 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Sole Survivor" (9:00–10:00p) - a report about Robin Doan, who as a young girl in 2005, played dead to live through the murders of her entire family as they slept in their beds. Before that night, the now 20-year-old Doan was a typical 10-year-old girl in a hardworking family of farmers in Pampa, Texas. They became the targets of an intruder who enjoyed killing just for the thrill of it. The immediate investigation yielded few clues. Doan, however, had a remarkable ability to recall the details of that traumatic night. Investigators would later learn that the gunman who killed Doan's family had killed before, hundreds of miles away in Missouri. A day before the Pampa shootings, Orlie McCool and his daughter-in-law Dawn were killed and the family pickup stolen. Levi King was later found behind the wheel of the stolen vehicle in El Paso, Texas. He also told law enforcement that there were four more bodies in Texas. King told law enforcement officers that the feeling he got from killing the McCools was better than any drug he had ever done. This was the lead needed to solve the Pampa murders. Robin Doan was willing to help by testifying about the night her family was gunned down while they slept. King took a plea deal in Missouri -- to avoid execution he agreed to two consecutive life sentences without the possibility of parole. In Texas, he also took a guilty plea, but the DA refused to take the death penalty off the table. Robin testified at the trial. There was one holdout for the death penalty; King received a life sentence. He will serve his time in Missouri. Robin Doan is satisfied. Original on-screen text graphic: Robin has decided to leave Pampa. She plans to visit often. On-screen text graphic for the 03/05/16 rebroadcast: Robin Doan is working towards a career in law enforcement. 03/05/16 48 HOURS: "Trail of Tears" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the 2009 death of Rhonda Casto, who went hiking in Oregon's Columbic River Gorge with her boyfriend, Stephen Nichols, only to never return home. Before Rhonda Casto headed out on her hike, she joked to a friend that Nichols was either - "going to propose or kill me" - and she did not return alive. Somewhere along the trail, she slipped or fell, falling 150 feet to her death. An autopsy seemed to support Nichols' version of events, but authorities declined to declare the death an accident, and Nichols was never charged with a crime. Nichols moved to China, and began a new life with his daughter by Casto. Julia Simmons, Casto's mother never believed he was innocent. In 2014, a secret grand jury heard evidence and indicted Nichols for murder. He was arrested during a trip home and pleaded not guilty. Defense attorney Mike Arnold maintains Casto's death was an accident. When she died, she was the fourth fatality in the Gorge trails in six months. Casto's mother is certain Nichols killed her. Arnold says the physical evidence and science shows it was an accident. He believes that the prosecutor, Carrie Rasmussen, was pressured into indicting Nichols by true crime writer John Whaley, who could not finish his book until the crime was solved. Current investigation has revealed several tawdry elements, including insurance policies, a potential love triangle involving Rhonda's younger sister and theft of Social Security payments by Rhonda's mother. Last week the defense motion to dismiss was denied. On-screen text graphic: Later this month, the judge will consider reducing Nichols' $2 million bail. No date has been set for Nichols' trial. Interviewed: Julia Simmonds (Rhonda's mother); Stephen Nichols (suspect); Stephen Nichols, Sr. (father); Mike Arnold (defense attorney); April Meads (hiker, who herself fell in the Gorge); Jessica Coleburn, Brandi Arneson, Jen Sconce (friends of Rhonda's). 03/12/16 48 HOURS: "Playing by the Rules?" - a followup to "The Guessing Game" (OAD: 12/06/08), a report on the 1999 murder of Belinda Temple and her unborn child in Katy, Texas. With little evidence to rely on (no DNA, no murder weapon, no fingerprints) linking her husband David Temple to the crime, the case stalled. After years of delays, in 2004 prosecutors got some forensic evidence and pursued the case. Temple was arrested for the murder of his wife. He was convicted in 2007 in a trial that pitted two of the biggest names in the legal world against each other: renowned defense attorney Dick DeGuerin and prosecutor Kelly Siegler, who now stars in her own television series. At trial, prosecutors portrayed Temple as an unfaithful husband who wanted out of his marriage. The defense suggested Belinda Temple was killed in a robbery gone bad. Five years later, a new witness came forward and longtime Harris County DA investigator Steve Clappart was asked check it out. The outcome of the investigation led Temple's new attorneys, Casie Gotro and Stan Schneider, to allege that Siegler withheld crucial evidence from the defense. Siegler insisted Dick DeGuerin got all the evidence he was entitled to see. In July 2015, a hearing was held to determine if David Temple had received a fair trial. Judge Larry Gist ruled in Temple's favor; he listed 36 facts favorable to the defense that he said the state should have disclosed, but didn't or disclosed too late to be of any use. The prosecution stands by its decisions. Now the decision is in the hands of a higher court. On-screen text graphic: The decision is in the hands of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. The court may rule at any time. Interviewed: Steve Clappart (former investigator, Harris County DA's office); Kelly Siegler (former prosecutor); Dick DeGuerin (former defense attorney); Casie Gotro and Stanley Schneider (Temple's current attorneys). 03/19/16 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Eliminating the Threat?" - a report on the case against FBI agent Arthur Gonzales, who shot and killed his estranged wife, Julie Gonzales in 2013. Gonzales claimed he fired in self-defense, just like he was trained to do. Two previous trials resulted in hung juries and he now faces a third trial. Gonzales was a top FBI agent, holding positions in California, Texas and New Mexico. In 2010, he was promoted to the FBI's Training Academy in Quantico, Virginia. His personal life was not as successful -- the couple was estranged and headed for divorce. Friends and family of Julie Gonzales maintain that Art's version of events is completely out of character for Julie. And the police investigation uncovered that Gonzales was having an affair with a co-worker, Cara Kast, who was also involved with another FBI agent. Due to the outcome of the two previous trials, both the prosecution and defense agreed to a bench trial. During the proceedings, prosecutors suggested Art Gonzales relied on his FBI training to stage a crime scene to cover up a murder, while the defense maintained the evidence backed up Art's claim of self-defense. In the end, the judge reluctantly declared Gonzales not guilty of manslaughter. The FBI fired Gonzales for what it said was a "lack of candor" during the murder investigation. On-screen text graphic: Carla Kast married the other FBI agent she was involved with. The couple now have a child. Interviewed: Todd Nosal (detective); Maryetta and Ray Serna (Julie Gonzales parents); Kim Scott (Julie Gonzales boss); Lea Lucero (Julie Gonzales co-worker); Teresa Smith (neighbor); Doug and Jen Merel (Art Gonzales supervisor and wife); Eric Olsen (Stafford County Commonwealth Attorney); Mark Gardner (defense attorney); Kristin Bird (Prosecutor); Mary McDonald and Paul Brastrom (jurors); Janet Johnson (FBI agent who worked with Gonzales in New Mexico).
