46-MILLION AMERICANS SMOKE. AND 70-PERCENT WOULD LOVE TO KICK THE HABIT. NEW RESEARCH FOUND THE KEY TO QUITTING MIGHT HAVE TO DO WITH A FAVORITE SMELL. THE CDC SAYS SMOKING KILLS 480-THOUSAND PEOPLE EVERY YEAR. BUT THE HABIT IS HARD TO BREAK. RESEARCH SHOWS SMOKERS WHO TRY TO QUIT ON THEIR OWN WITHOUT A PROGRAM FAIL 95 PERCENT OF THE TIME. AT THE UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH, THEY'RE TRYING TO IMPROVE THOSE STATISTICS. IT ALL HAS TO DO WITH YOUR FAVORITE SMELL. THE STUDY INVOLVED MORE THAN 200 SMOKERS. THEY LIT A CIGARETTE AND THEN RATED THEIR URGE TO SMOKE. THAT WAS FOLLOWED BY A PLEASANT SMELL. THEY FOUND THE URGE TO SMOKE DROPPED WITH A PLEASANT SMELL FAR MORE THAN WITH A NEUTRAL OR TOBACCO-LIKE ODOR. THEY SAY THEY DON'T SEE THIS AS A TOOL TO STOP SMOKING ALL ON ITS OWN. BUT IT'S POSSIBLE PEOPLE COULD CARRY A NECKLACE OR TOKEN WITH ESSENTIAL OILS ON HAND TO HELP CONTROL THE URGE TO SMOKE AT PEAK CRAVING TIMES UNLIKE THE NICOTINE PATCH.

OUR I-TEAM FOUND THOSE WATER PROBLEMS ARE CONNECTED TO A LACK OF POWER AFTER THE MEMORIAL DAY TORNADO OUTBREAK AND THAT WAS THE SECOND TIME THE CITY'S WATER SYSTEM FAILED IN THE LAST SIX MONTHS. THE I-TEAM'S JIM OTTE TELLS US THE CITY OF DAYTON IS NOW FACING A NEW QUESTION. IS IT PREPARED WELL ENOUGH TO KEEP THE WATER FLOWING IN THE NEXT ROUND OF STORMS? A FAILURE OF THE DAYTON CITY WATER SYSTEM FOR TENS OF THOUSANDS OF CUSTOMERS. COMMISSIONER DARRYL FAIRCHILD IS LOOKING FOR WAYS TO IMPROVE BUT RELUCTANT TO DO IT AT A COST TO OTHER SERVICES. SO THAT THE NEXT TIME A BIG STORM STRIKES, PEOPLE WON'T HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT LOSING THEIR WATER SERVICE. MONTGOMERY COUNTY IS IN THE SECOND YEAR OF A 20-YEAR AGREEMENT WITH THE CITY TO PROVIDE WATER. PLASTIC IN WATER

THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION IS RAISING A RED FLAG ABOUT PLASTIC IN DRINKING WATER. THEY'RE TOO SMALL TO SEE BUT HEALTH EXPERTS SAY TINY PIECES OF MICROPLASTICS ARE BEING FOUND IN TAP WATER. A NEW UN REPORT SAYS EVEN MORE OF THE MINISCULE PARTICLES ARE SHOWING UP IN BOTTLED WATER POSSIBLY FROM THE BOTTLING PROCESS OR PACKAGING SUCH AS PLASTIC CAPS. THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION FOUND CURRENT LEVELS OF MICROPLASTICS POSE A LOW HEALTH RISK. MICROPLASTICS ARE CREATED WHEN MAN-MADE PLASTICS BREAK DOWN INTO PIECES SMALLER THAN ABOUT ONE-FIFTH OF AN INCH. EXPERTS SAY UP TO 90 PERCENT OF MICROPLASTICS ARE USUALLY ELIMINATED THROUGH WATER FILTRATION TREATMENTS. WHILE MICROPLASTICS DON'T APPEAR TO BE A HEALTH WORRY FOR NOW, ENVIRONMENTAL LEADERS ARE CALLING FOR AN URGENT REDUCTION IN PLASTIC POLLUTION TO REDUCE PEOPLE'S EXPOSURE TO POTENTIALLY HARMFUL SUBSTANCES. THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION WILL CONTINUE TO MONITOR LEVELS OF MICROPLASTICS IN WATER. BUT IT SAYS THE HIGHER PRIORITY IS FIGHTING PROVEN RISKS LIKE BACTERIA THAT CAUSE TYPHOID AND CHOLERA.

OREGON DISTRICT MASS SHOOTING

THE MIAMI VALLEY MOURNS THE LOSS OF NINE OF ITS OWN AT THE HANDS OF A SHOOTER ARMED TO KILL HUNDREDS. BUT HIS RAMPAGE ENDED THANKS TO THE HEROIC ACTIONS OF 6 DAYTON POLICE OFFICERS WHO RAN INTO THE GUNFIRE. THIS HAPPENED IN THE OREGON DISTRICT JUST OUTSIDE OF NED PEPPERS BAR ON EAST FIFTH STREET. IN THE AFTERMATH, PEOPLE ARE COMING TOGETHER IN GRIEF, STANDING DAYTON STRONG. TONIGHT, INVESTIGATORS ARE LOOKING FOR ANSWERS IN THE INVESTIGATION INTO THE DEADLIEST SHOOTING IN DAYTON'S HISTORY. WE HAVE TEAM COVERAGE ON THE VICTIMS, THE PACKED VIGIL IN THE OREGON DISTRICT, AND THE SHOOTER. THE OREGON DISTRICT IS STILL BUZZING AFTER THE PRAYER VIGIL. OVER THE LAST 22 HOURS POLICE HAVE CONDUCTED AN INTENSE INVESTIGATION INTO WHAT HAPPENED, AND WHY. BUT THERE ARE STILL MANY QUESTIONS LEFT UNANSWERED. POLICE IDENTIFY THE SHOOTER AS 24 YEAR OLD CONNOR BETTS OF BELLBROOK. POLICE SAY HE CAME ARMED WITH AN ASSAULT RIFLE, AS MUCH AS 100 ROUNDS OF AMUNITION, AND HE WAS WEARING BODY ARMOR. IT TOOK 24 SECONDS FOR POLICE TO SHOOT AND KILL BETTS, JUST INCHES BEFORE HE ENTERED NED PEPPER'S NIGHT CLUB. THE BIGGEST QUESTION REMAINING WAS WHY WOULD SOMEONE DO THIS? THROUGHOUT THE DAY POLICE LOOKED FOR ANSWERS. IT INCLUDED AN EARLY-MORNING SEARCH OF THE GUNMAN'S HOME. POLICE BELIEVE HE ACTED ALONE. THEY WERE ABLE TO MAP OUT HIS STEPS JUST PRIOR TO AND DURING THE SHOOTING, SAYING HE WAS TRYING TO ENTER ONE OF THE RESTAURANTS WHEN POLICE INTERCEPTED HIM AND TOOK HIM DOWN. MAYOR NAN WHALEY AND OTHERS CRIEDITED QUICK POLICE ACTION WITH SAVING MANY LIVES. AND FOR THIS CITY, STILL STRUGGLING FROM THE AFTERMATH OF THE MEMORIAL DAY TORNADOES, THE MAYOR SAYS IT'S ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY FOR THE CITY TO SHOW ITS GRIT. AND SO THE INVESTIGAITON CONTINUES. POLICE SAY THE GUN WAS LEGALLY OBTAINED BY THE SHOOTER. MUCH OF THE FOCUS NOW WILL BE ON THE MOTIVE.

07/06/19 “Murder on Red River” (9:00 – 10:00p) – an investigation into the 2002 murder of Jennifer Harris and the search for clues to what happened to her by a former Marine and a filmmaker who believe they can find the person responsible for the murder, which has become one of the coldest cases in the history of Fannin County, Texas. Harris disappeared on May 12, 2002. Six days later her body was found floating in the Red River. Police learned that she had told at least one other person she was pregnant. Suspicion fell upon two men: James Hamilton, her ex-boyfriend and Rob Holman, her ex-husband. Both denied seeing her the night she disappeared, or being involved in her murder. Neither was arrested or charged with any related crime. In 2017, Mark Johnson, the newly elected Fannin County Sheriff, made good on a campaign promise to re-open the case. What he found was limited information and damaged, destroyed or mishandled evidence. Daryl Parker, a former sheriff’s lieutenant and Marine, now a private investigator, is working with the Harris family and with Barry Wernick, a filmmaker married to Harris’ sister, Alyssa. These two men believe that their investigation will yield clues that will solve this case. Wernick says he’s done interviews with people not initially interviewed by police and is following up on any leads he receives. 48 HOURS asked CBS News consultant/private investigator Joe Moura to examine the evidence. He believes the case is unsolvable. Parker and Wernick continue to believe it is. Moataz Azzeh, a former U.S. Army soldier describes how he was hired to complete the plot during an elaborate sting operation the Houston Police Department used to arrest the couple. Dr. Valerie McDaniel and her ex-husband were in the midst of an ugly custody battle; Dr. Leon Jacob was facing felony charges for stalking an ex-girlfriend. Jacob sought out Moataz Azzeh to eliminate the problems. Azzeh initially took the job, but disappeared with Jacob’s money. Jacob turned to a local bail bondsman, who was looking for Azzeh himself, and he called the Houston Police. Azzeh eventually went on to help undercover agents with the case, which included staging the deaths of the intended targets, McDaniel’s ex-husband Marion “Mack” McDaniel and Meghan Verikas. During the sting operation, which included the use of bodycam footage, the couple was arrested. Included are excerpts of the bodycam footage, and of a recorded diary McDaniel started after being released on bail. She took her own life sixteen days later. Leon Jacob has pleaded not guilty. Original on-screen text graphic: Valerie’s daughter inherited her estate and now lives with her father, Mack McDaniel. “Taz” Azzeh, the “Hit Man” accepted a plea deal in his theft case and is currently on probation. 07/13/19 “Hollywood Horror Story” – a report on the brutal murder of Iana Kasian, a woman killed by a perpetrator who left the crime scene like something out of a graphic novel. Kasian, a tax attorney, in what seemed like a charmed life, immigrated to the United States to be a translator. While living in California, she met Blake Leibel, the son of a wealthy Canadian real estate family. He lived a complicated life, but longed to make it big in the Hollywood film industry. Almost a year before he met Kasian he was obsessed with the notion that his family would be harmed by someone tied to his brother Cody, who had big gambling debts. At the time Kasian was killed, Leibel was divorcing his wife, living with Kasian and his newborn daughter Diana. He was also romantically involved with another woman. Kasian’s mother, Olga Kasian, became concerned when she could not reach her daughter. She called the police, who eventually gained access to the home she shared with Leibel -- authorities were shocked by what they found. Leibel was barricaded inside a bedroom and Kasian was discovered dead in the bathroom. Her body covered with a blanket, she was extremely pale, and she was scalped. It was a horrible, sadistic killing, just like a scene in one of Leibel’s movies. Police arrested Leibel. Investigation led to the discovery that Kasian’s body was drained of blood. It took 6-8 hours for her to die. Leibel stood trial and the scenes from his graphic novel and the film he directed took center stage. He was found guilty of first-degree murder without parole. On-screen text graphic: Olga has filed a wrongful death lawsuit against Blake Leibel. Any proceeds would go to Diana. Diana is an American citizen. Olga is still hoping to raise her in the United States. 07/20/19 “Dead Ringer” (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report about former pro boxer Ramon Sosa, the potential victim in a murder-for-hire scheme, who with the help of law enforcement agents, managed to survive -- all the while setting up a sting operation to catch those responsible. Sosa owned the popular Woodlands Boxing and Fitness in Montgomery County, Texas. He had a family and a beautiful second wife who helped him run their booming business. After six years together, things began to sour between Sosa and his wife -- he learned of a divorce attorney and missing money from the business. And then someone wanted him dead. A friend of Sosa’s named Mundo, who worked out at the gym, overheard Sosa’s wife Lulu and was sure she had murder on her mind. They came up with a sting operation to protect the boxer, in which Mundo posed as a hit man. When they had evidence, they contacted the police, who then took over the case. Mundo still played along, agreeing to kill Sosa, and provided photographic proof of the death. Police staged the death scene, with Sosa’s “dead body” photographed in a ditch with a bullet hole in the head. Lulu Sosa was arrested, and claimed she was innocent. She was charged with solicitation of capital murder. After 15 months, she gave up the fight and agreed to a plea deal to reduced charges and twenty years in prison. On-screen text graphic: Lulu Sosa comes up for parole once a year. This past Tuesday, she was denied parole for a second time. Interviewed: Ramon Sosa; “Mundo”; Beth Blair (friend of the Sosa’s); Raul Marquez (former Olympic boxer/friend of Ramon’s); Natasha Flores (friend of Lulu’s); Julio Joglar (Lulu’s divorce attorney); Mike Atkins (Lieutenant, Precinct Three Constable’s Office, Montgomery, County, Texas). 07/20/19 “In the Name Of Hate” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the 2018 murder of Blaze Bernstein, a brilliant Ivy League student. Allegedly slain because he was gay and Jewish, this report examines the rise of hate-fueled crimes in the United States; the influence these hate groups have; background information on the group Atomwaffen Division; and how the Bernstein family has used the death of their son to attempt positive change. Bernstein, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, returned to his California home after finishing the fall semester. He disappeared shortly thereafter. The investigation led to former high school classmate Sam Woodward, who was ultimately charged with his murder. The charges have been elevated to hate crime status, based on information found on Woodward’s personal computer, social media feeds and cellphone. Woodward was a member of Atomwaffen Division, a neo-Nazi hate group whose members praised Bernstein’s murder. Also included is an interview with a member of the group, who provides information on the case of Nick Giampa. Giampa murdered Scott Fricker and Buckley Kuhn Fricker, of Reston, Virginia -- the parents of his girlfriend, who had told their daughter to stop dating Giampa because of his beliefs and support of Atomwaffen Division. The radio legend was heard by millions around the world as host of “American Top 40” and he was also the voice of Shaggy in the cartoon classic “Scooby Doo”. At the time of his death, his estate was estimated to be worth between $80- $100 million. Jean, married to Kasem for 34 years, and the children from his first marriage went to war over the money. Each side accuses the other of hastening his death and both sides have filed wrongful death suits. Jean Kasem claims her husband had cut off the children financially because they were only interested in his money. Kerri Kasem and her siblings blame her father’s death on Jean’s actions, claiming elder abuse. Kasem was diagnosed with Lewy Body Dementia before his death and his condition left him unable to speak during his final months. Jean prevented contact with his children, but they fought to see him, saying they were in charge of his health care. Each side accuses the other of neglect. Nothing was ever proven. 07/27/19 “Lorenzen Wright: No Defense” (10:00 - 11:00p) - an investigation into the life of NBA superstar Lorenzen Wright, a hometown hero to many in Memphis, Tennessee and the circumstances of his 2010 murder. Police were determined to find the killer or killers and the family pushed investigators, but the case went cold, until seven years after the murder, when a key piece of evidence was located. Wright’s last words were recorded on a 911 call, along with gunshots, but the dispatcher was unaware of what was happening or who was on the end of the line. During his thirteen-year career in the NBA, Wright had endeared himself to many with his off-court activities and philanthropy, all the while spending millions on himself and his family. He had married his high school sweetheart and fathered seven kids, but the stress and strain of being a professional athlete contributed to divorce. When he was traded to Atlanta, he moved there, but his ex-wife Sheri and the kids remained in Memphis. Then in 2010, Wright seemed to have disappeared without a trace. The disappearance became one of Memphis’ greatest mysteries, until his body was located nine days later. Police looked to the family for clues and potential suspects. Sherra Wright suggested he was involved in a drug transaction, and mysterious gunmen were stalking Wright. Sherra Wright received a $1 million life insurance payout, remarried, and wrote a novel about a philandering NBA player. Then in 2017, police got a tip that led them to a lake where they found a gun believed to have been used in the murder. The case took a surprising turn: Sherra Wright and a landscaper named Billy Ray Turner were arrested. Police think they both worked together to kill Lorenzen Wright for his money. They have both entered pleas of not guilty and are awaiting trial. Update for the 07/27/19 rebroadcast: On July 25, 2019 Sherra Wright pled guilty to facilitating first degree murder. She was given a thirty-year sentence. On-screen text graphic: Billy Ray Turner's bond was set at fifteen million dollars. Sherra Wright's bond will be set at the end of the month. Lorenzen's younger children are living with family in California. Billy Ray Turner is scheduled to go to trial in mid-September, 2019. NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN’T FORGET

07/03/19 “Death of a Dream” (9:00 – 10:00p) – Samira Watkins, a 25-year-old mother of a 4-year-old boy, was studying to be a dental assistant when she vanished. Five days after she disappeared, her body washed up in a duffel bag about 200 yards away from the entrance of the Pensacola Naval Air Station in Florida. Working with the Pensacola Police Department, NCIS agents were able to link pieces of circumstantial evidence together to arrest Watkins’ boyfriend at the time, Zachary Littleton, a Navy police officer. He was later convicted of murdering her and was sentenced to life in prison. In his first TV interview, Littleton says investigators got it all wrong – and he admits he lied to them and was with Watkins the night she disappeared. The broadcast features interviews with the agents who painstakingly and methodically tied the evidence together and with Littleton, who explains for the first time what he says happened on the night he and Watkins were last together. (Host: Rocky Carroll – Producer: Asena Basak)

07/03/19 "Never Forget" (10:00 – 11:00p) - NCIS agents take viewers inside the cold case murder of 10-year-old Tammy Welch and look at the separate murder of Ricky Wilttrout. On August 27, 1984, Tammy Welch and her sister, Jennifer, were outside playing in an apartment courtyard the day their family was moving to Navy housing in Jacksonville, Florida. Jennifer went inside to talk with her mother, leaving Tammy alone outside. When she went back out 30 minutes later, Tammy was face down in the grass, dead. She had been brutally strangled and assaulted. NCIS agents were called in immediately after Welch was killed, but the case was cold. In 1999, NCIS' newly formed cold-case team reopened the case, determined to solve it for Tammy's family. The agents traveled across the county seeking DNA from more than a dozen potential suspects. It wasn't until 2012 that agents got their first break when a partial DNA profile from the child's former neighbor, James Jackson, was linked to the crime scene through advanced forensic testing. But would it be enough to convict Jackson of first-degree murder? NCIS agents would need hard evidence, and what they found was a bizarre tattoo on Jackson's back with the victim's name and the year of her murder. It was, they say, a confession written in ink. (Host: Rocky Carroll – Producer: Caroline Sommers)

Dutchman Boyan Slat has proposed a cleanup device that will skim and corral the ocean’s plastic for removal, but it has been met with skepticism and challenges. 48 HOURS

08/03/19 “Fatal Crossing” – an investigation into the mysterious circumstances surrounding the 2008 death of Kadie Major and her 10-month-old daughter River Lynn. Major was found along railroad tracks; River Lynn was found in a nearby pond in Moncks Corner, South Carolina. Rick Ollic, of the Berkeley County Sheriff’s Office, was the original investigator in charge. Ollic believed it was a murder-suicide and said a note found in Major’s pocket was evidence of her delusion. Major’s family never believed she was delusional or that she would take her own life; Major was five months pregnant. Husband Aaron Major reacted oddly to her death and was at one point a suspect. Kadie Major’s mother, Vicky Hall, vowed to get to the bottom of what happened and pressured investigators; Hall started her own investigation. In 2015, a 48 HOURS producer asked about the stalled investigation. Hall hired private investigator Jessica Sanders to help prove the case was not a murder-suicide; she believes there were plenty of clues missed in the original investigation. 48 HOURS approached the new Berkeley County Sheriff Duane Lewis. He asked his newly formed cold case squad to investigate. A decade after her daughter’s death, Hall finally got her chance to talk with detectives about her case. In September 2018, Lewis announced the case had been reopened. (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Liza Finley, Ryan N. Smith) (OAD: 03/02/19)

08/10/19 “Out of Reach” (9:00 - 10:00p) – a report on the investigation of the 30-year-old murder of Carolyn Abel, an American teacher, living and working in South Korea at the time of her death. A loophole in American laws may have allowed the prime suspect in her murder to avoid punishment. In 1988, Abel, an English teacher, was found murdered in her apartment in what looked like a robbery gone bad. John Boatwright, a chief of detectives from the Army’s Criminal Investigation Division was asked to help the South Korean investigators. He received a tip to interview the two Americans who found the body: Sandra Ames and Kathy Patrick. Ames told him Patrick had confessed to killing Abel, as there may have been an unreciprocated romantic angle, and that the two of them returned to the crime scene to make it look like a robbery. Ames pleaded guilty to several crimes tied to the cover-up. Patrick left South Korea before investigators could question her. Investigators in the two countries are certain Patrick murdered Carolyn Abel. South Korean officials issued a warrant for Patrick’s arrest, but U.S. officials were powerless to enforce it because the two countries lacked an extradition treaty at the time. Kathy Patrick now works as a student advisor at Western Washington University. When approached, she denied any wrongdoing. Thanks to the Abel family’s lobbying efforts, in 1994, Congress passed a law which allows the U.S. prosecution of U.S. nationals who kill other Americans in foreign countries. But in the Abel case, a trial seems highly unlikely; in South Korea the statute of limitations has expired and there is no evidence. On-screen text graphic: The law that Carolyn Abel’s family helped pass has led to three successful murder prosecutions. Interviewed. Tamara Doak, Nancy Bercau (friends/colleagues); Sandra Ames (work college/suspect); Kathy Patrick (work colleague/suspect); Wanda Abel (Carolyn’s sister); Tomoyuki Ayagaki (Carolyn’s boyfriend); John Boatwright (Chief of Detectives, Army Criminal Investigation Division); Steven Schroeder (retired Assistant U.S. Attorney). 08/10/19 “Peter Chadwick: Caught” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a reedited, updated rebroadcast of “#FindPeterChadwick” (OAD: 05/11/19): the investigation into the search for – and eventual capture of – a multimillionaire real estate investor accused of killing his wife and staging a kidnapping plot. 48 HOURS gained exclusive insight into the U.S. Marshals’ search for Peter Chadwick, who was charged with killing his wife and then jumped bail. Chadwick and his wife, Q.C. Chadwick, were college sweethearts, married for 21 years and had three sons. They lived in a gated community in Newport Beach, California. That dream life collapsed one day in 2012 when neither of the Chadwicks turned up to pick up their sons from the bus stop. Investigators had little idea that day the search for the couple would lead them on an international manhunt. The next morning, San Diego authorities got a 911 call from Chadwick, claiming a house painter named Juan murdered Q.C. and forced Peter Chadwick to get her body out of the house. He said a man helped Juan and they were planning to cut up his wife’s body and dispose it south of the border. Law enforcement didn’t believe Chadwick, and he was arrested and charged with Q.C.’s murder. He was released on $1 million in bail. Then he vanished. That was 2015. Chadwick was one of the U.S. Marshals’ 15 most-wanted fugitives. U.S. Marshal Craig McCluskey tells 48 HOURS that a previous edition of the broadcast that focused on the case caused Chadwick to alter his life on the run and ultimately helped lead to his capture. Updated on-screen text graphic for 08/10/19 rebroadcast: Peter Chadwick has been denied bail. No date has been set for his trial. (See also: 48 HOURS: “#FindPeterChadwick”, OAD: 05/11/19) (C: Tracy Smith – P: Chuck Stevenson, Gayane Keshishyan Mendez)

08/17/19 “In Jason’s Name” (9:00 - 10:00p) – a report on the 2015 death of Jason Corbett, an Irish businessman, killed by his American au-pair-turned-wife and her father. After his wife died, Corbett hired American Molly Martens to care for his children. Their relationship soon turned romantic and they married, moving to the United States. Tracy Lynch, Corbett’s sister, says that before his death, Jason professed his unhappiness in the marriage. She believes Martens acted in fear of the family’s separation. Both Martens and her father, former FBI agent Tim Masters, maintain Jason had become abusive and they acted in self-defense when he tried to strangle Molly during an argument. The prosecution said it was murder. They were both convicted of second-degree murder in 2017, but have maintained their innocence. Lynch and the children went back to Ireland. In 2019, the state appeals court moved to allow oral arguments in the case. Lynch waits for the appeals court’s decision and has written a book about the case. On-screen text graphic: A wrongful death lawsuit on behalf of Jason's children was settled by Tom Martens. There was no admission of wrongdoing by Tom or Molly. Interviewed: Tracy Lynch (Jason’s sister); Wayne Corbett (Jason’s twin brother); Lynn Shanahan (Jason’s long-time friend); Mike Earnest (Molly’s uncle); Paul Dillon (Jason’s best friend); Keith Maginn (Molly’s former fiancé); Connor Martens (Molly’s brother); Alan Martin (Assistant District Attorney). 08/17/19 “Widow’s War” (10:00 – 11:00p) - an investigation into the 2008 death of decorated Marine Colonel Michael Stahlman in Iraq and his wife’s decade-long quest to have it labeled a homicide. Stahlman was found in his quarters with a gunshot wound to his head and died two months later in the hospital. Though his death was ruled a suicide, his wife Kim Stahlman and her daughter MacKenna were suspicious about the findings and believed authorities rushed to judgement. In the course of her investigation, she made several important alliances: Cilla McCain, an author and advocate for bereaved military families; Stuart Bowen, who had been George W. Bush’s special inspector general for Iraq reconstruction; and Michael Maloney, a forensics expert who prepared a report on the case. Kim Stahlman believes investigators never did a full forensic analysis. More than three years after the shooting, authorities brought in blood stain analysis expert Mark Reynolds to examine the case, including Michael Maloney’s report. He saw no evidence of homicide in the material provided to him, though Maloney stands by his conclusions. In a statement to 48 HOURS, authorities maintained they thoroughly investigated the case and stand by the military medical examiner’s suicide finding. McCain and Stahlman are writing a book. On-screen text graphic for the 03/30/19 broadcast: Stuart Bowen says the medical examiner has agreed to meet with him again at the end of April. Update for the 08/17/19 rebroadcast: Bowen’s meeting has been postponed and he hasn’t released his opinion yet. Interviewed: Kim Stahlman (widow); MacKenna Stahlman (daughter); Suzanna Andres (teenage friend of Michael’s); Gary Morell (former marine); Dave Fuentes (Army medic/responded to shooting); Cilla McCain (author/advocate); Michael Maloney (forensics expert); Dr. Mark Reynolds (forensic consultant); Stuart Bowen (former inspector general for Iraq reconstruction). (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Josh Yager) (OAD: 03/30/19 as 48 HOURS: “Widow’s War”)

08/17/19 “Death After Midnight” - a followup to “Death After Midnight”, (OAD: 04/11/15), a report on the 2012 death of Ashley Fallis, a married mother of three who was found with a single gunshot wound to the head in the bedroom of her Evans, Colorado home. What is unknown is whether it was suicide, as her husband Tom Fallis maintains, or was it murder, as Ashley’s parents insist. Tom Fallis maintains that his wife killed herself with a gun she kept hidden beneath the mattress. Police interviewed him that night, noting he was agitated, gave various versions of events and had scratches on his chest. The coroner ruled Ashley’s death a suicide and the police closed the case within days. Her parents were convinced their son-in-law had killed their daughter. Fallis moved to Indiana with the children to go to graduate school. In 2014, a local TV reporter began his own investigation after receiving a tip that something was not right. His investigation led to the case being re-opened and handled by a larger police department in the area. Two years after Ashley’s death, Tom Fallis was indicted for murder and arrested in Indiana. In March 2016, the trial began with Fallis’ defense team putting on a vigorous defense, often using many of the prosecutions own witnesses to make their case. Also, a family history of suicide was made known. Ultimately the reliability of many witnesses was put in doubt by the defense. The jurors quickly decided the verdict: not guilty. Two jurors agreed to speak and explain their verdict. They are adamant they made the correct decision. Ashley’s parents maintain their daughter did not commit suicide. Tom Fallis declined to be interviewed. Original on-screen text graphic: Ashley’s parents are fighting for custody of their grandchildren. They have also filed a federal lawsuit against the Evans Police Department, alleging police misconduct. Authorities found no evidence to bring criminal charges against Evans Police Officer Michael Yates for the alleged discrepancies in his report. The court has not yet set a date for Tom Fallis’ trial. On-screen text graphic for the 10/22/16 follow-up: The three children remain in Tom Fallis’ custody in Indiana. Jenna Fox and Joel Raguindin are fighting in court for visitation rights. Updated on-screen text graphic for the 08/24/19 rebroadcast: Jenna Fox and Joel Raguindin now have visitation rights. Interviewed: Jenna Fox and Joel Raguindin (parents of Ashley Fallis); Chief Rick Brandt (Evans, Colorado Police Chief); Justin Joseph (KDVR-TV reporter). New interviews for the 10/22/16 followup: Dillon Pierce and Davana Mijares (jurors). Not appearing in the 10/22/16 followup: Bryce Fox-Raguindin (brother); Scott Roder (forensic recreation specialist). 08/31/19 “Killer App” (9:00 – 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast on how social media has changed society, the attraction of so-called “parent proof” apps, which have become enormously popular with millennials and teenagers, and the hidden dangers of connecting online with strangers. The broadcast focuses on two families whose daughters were involved in online relationships that ultimately became matters of life or death. (1) The January 2016 disappearance and murder of 13-year-old Blacksburg, Virginia teenager Nicole Lovell, whose social media posts revealed a lonely and sadly typical teenage story. Nicole went missing after sneaking out to go on “a date”. The investigation revealed she had regularly used the popular social media app Kik, which allows communications to be anonymous, and was communicating with 18-year-old Virginia Tech freshman David Eisenhower. Her body was found 90 miles away. Eisenhower and his accomplice, fellow Virginia Tech student Natalie Keepers, were arrested on abduction and murder charges. (2) In 2013, Branden Syrotchen of Spokane, Washington, found out that Elizabeth, his 15-year-old daughter, was communicating with a 30-year-old man she had also befriended on the Kik app. The two were planning to run away together. Because the police were not able to act without actual evidence of a crime, Branden hatched a plan to save his daughter. The man, Jason Richards, tried to turn his crime into a love story, but he eventually pleaded guilty to child rape and luring charges. Also featured in the broadcast is an interview with an online predator who details how easy it is to lure children using social apps. Ted Livingston, CEO of the billion-dollar social app Kik, was asked questions regarding the safety of children using the app during a recent conference and claimed his app is as safe as the competition. Original On-screen text graphic: David Eisenhower and Natalie Keepers are scheduled to be tried separately next March. If convicted, they could face life in prison with no parole. Jason Richards is scheduled to be released from prison on June 3, 2017. On-screen text graphic for the 06/03/17 rebroadcast: David Eisenhower is scheduled to be tried in November 2017. Natalie Keepers is scheduled to be tried in February 2018. If convicted, both could face life in prison with no parole. 02/23/19 Update: In February 2018, Eisenhower went on trial and after four days of testimony, changed his plea from not guilty to no contest. He was ruled guilty. In September 2018, Keepers was also found guilty. Neither is eligible for parole and both were ordered to apologize to Nicole’s family. Interviewed: Tammy Weeks and David Lovell (Nicole’s parents); Pamela Casey (Blunt County District Attorney); Dorothy Callahan (Eisenhower’s former classmate); Jeremy Basdeo (Eisenhower’s former college roommate); Mark Jenkins (Keepers’ former boyfriend); Graham Atkinson (Surry County Sheriff); Bryce Dustin (Eisenhower’s Internet friend); Elizabeth Syrotchen (victim); Brandy and Branden Syrotchen (Elizabeth’s parents); Elise Robertson (Spokane, Washington Detective); Ted Livingston (CEO of Kik); and “Steve” (Internet predator). 08/31/19 “The Vendetta” (10:00 – 11:00p) – the story of Texas judge Julie Kocurek who was shot multiple times in 2015 by an unknown man in the driveway of her home. Arriving home on a typical Friday night, mother and son were confronted by Chimene Onyeri, who pulled out a gun and started shooting. The gunman was armed with bullets which shattered into fragments upon impact, leaving the judge with hundreds of wounds. She was left critically wounded, put in a medically induced coma, and endured multiple operations to save her life. Authorities believed she was the target of someone planning to shoot a judge. Onyeri’s girlfriend alerted authorities, but the district attorney’s office investigator determined she was not credible and never alerted Judge Kocurek. Onyeri was arrested a few days after the shooting and eventually found guilty. Judge Kocurek discusses the terrifying moments of the shooting, how she found the strength to survive, and her efforts to protect other public officials. On screen text graphic: Other states are now following Texas’ lead, moving to improve judicial security. Judge Kocurek is more determined than ever to seek re-election. Updated on-screen text graphic for the 08/31/19 rebroadcast: Judge Kocurek plans to seek re-election in 2020. As police and emergency first responders struggled to keep up with the damaging storm, a team of police investigators gathered to track McDowell’s disappearance. The historic flooding from the hurricane forced all available first responders into rescuing people, leaving it difficult to conduct a missing persons case. However, a dedicated team of police investigators gathered to track every clue left behind. The break in the case was the discovery of McDowell’s car, found in a flooded motel parking lot. Police interviewed family and friends. The investigation led to the discovery of fractured relationships and hidden family secrets. Because of the storm, much of the physical evidence was washed away in the flood, but authorities focused on the ex-husband, Steve McDowell, certain that he had killed Crystal. Ultimately, police got their man: Steve McDowell admitted he strangled his ex-wife and disposed of the body in a densely wooded area near his house. Without his co-operation and because of the storm, her body would never have been located. He was charged with murder. Original on-screen text graphic: Steven McDowell has not entered a plea. It is the ninth unsolved murder in a city with an underfunded and understaffed police department, leaving many to wonder if the case will be solved. The investigation has led to several potential leads for the police to follow, including the actions of DelTondo’s ex-fiancé Frank Catroppa and her friendship with Sheldon Jeter, a young Aliquippa High School athlete. Before the murder, Catroppa, was allowed access to a police report about DelTondo with a lot of sensitive personal information, but he denies showing it to anyone. Jeter, through his attorney, also denies anything to do with the murder.
