WHIO-TV Local News of Public Interest:

As of June 30, 2019 the Miami Valley has been hit by 24 tornadoes over the past six months. The average for the entire state for the year is 19. The largest outbreak of tornadoes in the Miami Valley occurred on Memorial Day, May 27, 2019, when over a three-hour time frame, the area was hit by 15 tornadoes. An estimated 3,500-4,000 homes were destroyed or damaged with estimated cost of $900 million to $1 billion in total losses. However, only one person died in the storm event. Community officials have thanked the local media for warning residents to take cover, heralding those efforts as the main reason for the limited loss of life during the storms.

On May 27, 2019, WHIO-TV launched continuous severe storm coverage at 9:01PM when severe thunderstorm warnings followed by tornadoes warnings were issued for the area, including a Tornado Emergency for Montgomery county, the highest warning that is issued for severe storms. WHIO-TV stayed on-air from 9PM through 1PM on May 28th. WHIO also provided special coverage on storm damage throughout May 28th--both inside and outside of regular newscasts.

Since that day, WHIO-TV has provided extensive news coverage of the events, the damage, and community outreach initiatives, including providing information on where residents can get help with food, water and other necessities. In addition, WHIO-TV has partnered with The Foodbank and has held numerous food distribution events throughout the Miami Valley, staffed by Foodbank and WHIO-TV employees.

On June 27th, WHIO-TV aired a 1 hour special, "Memorial Day Tornadoes: A Community Rises" on the 1-month anniversary of the tornadoes. This program outlined the events and the damage, but primarily focused on the resilience of the people in our community who have risen above very difficult circumstances to help one another during this difficult time. An encore of the show aired on WHIO-TV on Sunday, June 30th. WHIO Radio also aired the encore, followed by a call-in show that allowed viewers/listeners to share their own stories.

ONE POSSIBLE FACTOR: NICOTINE POISONING. SOME CASE SUBJECTS HAD A HISTORY OF SEIZURE DISORDERS AND SOME WERE USING OTHER SUBSTANCES. THE IMPACT OF NICOTINE AND SOME OF THESE TOXINS CERTAINLY COULD PLAY A ROLE. HERE AT DAYTON CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, I SPOKE TO THE CHIEF OF PULMONARY MEDICINE DOCTOR DANIEL EVANS. THERE ARE SPECIFIC TOXINS WITHIN E CIGARETTES THAT PROMOTE SOME LUNG INJURY AS WELL AS THE EFFECTS ON THE DEVELOPING BRAIN, ESPECIALLY THE ADOLESCENTS. WE REALLY NEED TO ENCOURAGE OUR KIDS TO JUST STAY AWAY FROM THESE.

THIS WOULD AIM TO CURB SMOKING IN YOUNG PEOPLE. CIERRA FLORENCE SAYS SHE THINKS 21 IS THE RIGHT AGE TO ALLOW PEOPLE TO BUY SMOKING AND VAPING PRODUCTS FOR A SIMPLE REASON: "YOU'RE GROWN, YOU CAN MAKE YOUR OWN DECISIONS AND YOU CAN PAY YOUR OWN CONSEQUENCES." THE OHIO HOUSE, SENATE AND GOVERNOR MIKE DEWINE ALL SUPPORT AN EFFORT TO RAISE THE AGE LIMIT FOR BUYING CIGARETTES AND VAPE PRODUCTS FROM 18 TO 21. E-CIGARETTE PRODUCTS, TOO, BECAUSE THE OHIO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH SAYS THAT INDUSTRY IS TARGETING YOUNG PEOPLE WITH THIGHLY ADDICTIVE, FLAVORED PRODUCTS. HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE IN COAL GROVE LOCATED ABOUT 130 MILES EAST OF CINCINNATI, TURNED ON THEIR FAUCETS TO SEE SOMETHING UNEXPECTED -- PURPLE WATER. OFFICIALS SAY THE PURPLE WATER COULD STAIN YOUR LAUNDRY, BUT OTHER THAN THAT, THERE'S NO REAL DANGER. "ONCE IT'S DILUTED OUT, IT'S NOT DANGEROUS AT ALL." HOWEVER, OFFICIALS ARE STILL ADVISING RESIDENTS TO RUN THEIR WATER UNTIL THE COLOR GOES AWAY.

OH: WATER SPENDING

LAWMAKERS IN THE OHIO HOUSE HAVE APPROVED CREATING A PERMANENT TRUST FUND THAT WOULD PAY FOR PROJECTS TO IMPROVE WATER QUALITY. IT'S ONE OF SEVERAL IDEAS FOR FUNDING WATER QUALITY INITIATIVES BEING CONSIDERED BY GOVERNOR MIKE DEWINE AND LEGISLATORS. EARLIER THIS YEAR, DEWINE PROPOSED SPENDING NEARLY ONE BILLION DOLLARS OVER 10 YEARS TO CLEAN UP LAKE ERIE AND OHIO'S POLLUTED WATERWAYS. THE "H-2-OHIO" TRUST FUND HOPES TO SET UP A LONG-TERM FUNDING PLAN. IT NOW GOES TO THE STATE SENATE FOR APPROVAL.

APRIL 2, 20196PM*DURATION: :32*BROWN ON WPAFB

THE TRUMP ADMINISTRATION'S DECISION TO REMOVE FUNDING FROM WRIGHT-PATTERSON AIR FORCE BASE AND SEND IT TO PAY FOR DISASTER RELIEF AT ANOTHER MILITARY INSTALLATION HAS TOUCHED A NERVE ON CAPITOL HILL. OHIO US SENATOR SHERROD BROWN IS HEAVILY CRITICIZING THE MOVE SAYING IT SHOULD HAVE NEVER HAPPENED. THE FUNDING SWITCH WILL REMOVE 4 MILLION DOLLARS FROM WRIGHT-PATT AND SEND IT TO TYNDALL AIR FORCE BASE IN FLORIDA. BROWN WANTS THE SENATE TO TAKE UP A DISASTER FUNDING BILL TO PAY FOR CLEAN-UP AND REPAIRS AT TYNDALL AND TO PROTECT THE FUNDS ALREADY APPROVED AT WRIGHT-PATT.

APRIL 6, 20198AM*DURATION: 1:30*P-WPAFB FUNDING

THE MONEY WAS ORIGINALLY APPROVED FOR PROJECTS AT WRIGHT-PATT, BUT JUST THIS WEEK THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED IT'S MOVING THAT 4 MILLION TO A BASE IN FLORIDA, ALL TO FIX FACILITIES AFTER HURRICANE MICHAEL HIT THERE LAST YEAR. THERE WAS MAJOR DAMAGE AT THE BASE THERE AND THE WRIGHT-PATT FUNDS WON'T EVEN BEGIN TO COVER THE COST OF REPAIRS. WHY WAS FUNDING HERE TARGETED? THE HOUSE PASSED A DISASTER RELIEF BILL, BUT THE SENATE WON'T GO ALONG BECAUSE IT INCLUDES MORE FUNDING FOR PUERTO RICO, WHICH THE PRESIDENT OPPOSES, SO THE ALTERNATIVE WAS TO TAKE AWAY PREVIOUSLY APPROVED MONEY FROM OTHER BASES. OHIO-US SENATOR SHERROD BROWN TOLD ME TODAY HE'S AGAINST IT. THERE'S A CONCERN THAT EVEN MORE MONEY COULD BE TAKEN AWAY FROM THE BASE--OUT OF 182 MILLION DOLLARS APPROVED FOR EXPANDING THE NATIONAL AIR AND SPACE INTELLIGENCE CENTER. BROWN IS HOPING TO STOP ANY MORE RE-DIRECTION OF MONEY.

04/13/19 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: “The Vendetta” – the story of Texas judge Julie Kocurek who was shot multiple times in 2015 by an unknown man in the driveway of her home. Arriving home on a typical Friday night, mother and son were confronted by Chimene Onyeri, who pulled out a gun and started shooting. She was left critically wounded, put in a medically induced coma, and endured multiple operations to save her life. Authorities believed she was the target of someone planning to shoot a judge. Onyeri’s girlfriend alerted authorities, but the district attorney’s office investigator determined she was not credible and never alerted Judge Kocurek. Onyeri was arrested a few days after the shooting and eventually found guilty. Judge Kocurek discusses the terrifying moments of the shooting, how she found the strength to survive, and her efforts to protect other public officials. On screen text graphic: Other states are now following Texas’ lead, moving to improve judicial security. 04/20/19 48 HOURS: “What Happened In Apartment 4C?” (9:00 - 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast on the 2016 disappearance and murder of Joey Comunale after a night of partying in New York City. While out clubbing, Comunale accepted an invitation to a party at a Sutton Place apartment with people he had just met. That was the last time he was seen. His family’s search led to Larry Dilione who had been with Comunale at the Grand Sutton apartment of James Rackover, an aspiring model and the surrogate son of Jeffrey Rackover, the so-called “Jeweler to the Stars”. Dilione provided information that made no sense to Comunale’s father or his friend Max Branchinelli, who had located Dilione on Instagram. Dilione then provided information about Rackover and Max Gemma, whose father was once the mayor of Oceanport, NJ to the police. The investigation revealed that after the murder, Comunale’s body was dumped out of a window at the Sutton Place address, driven to Oceanport, and left in a hole in the ground in a wooded area behind a florist shop. Rackover and Dilione were charged with the brutal murder of Comunale and other crimes. Max Gemma was charged with hindering prosecution and tampering with physical evidence. After the arrest, police discovered that Rackover, was not really the son of the celebrity jeweler, but an ex-con from Florida named James Beaudin, who Jeffrey Rackover had befriended, explaining he was the son he never knew about. At trial, both Rackover and Dilione said the other was responsible. The primary witness in the case was Louis Ruggiero, the troubled son of popular New York television anchor Rosanna Scotto. Ruggiero, a close friend of Rackover’s, testified about what Rackover told him happened that night, becoming the first witness who directly implicated James Rackover in the crime. On November 2, 2018, the jury reached a verdict: the former James Beaudin, now James Rackover, was convicted on all counts for the murder. Dilione’s trial is set for January, with Gemma being tried at a later date. Original on-screen text graphic: James Rackover will be sentenced on December 5th. Jeffrey Rackover has moved out of the Grand Sutton and has cut ties to James Rackover. On-screen text graphic for the 04/20/19 updated rebroadcast: James Rackover was sentenced to twenty-eight and two-third years to life in prison, the maximum. After his wife died, Corbett hired American Molly Martens to care for his children. Their relationship soon turned romantic and they married, moving to the United States. Tracy Lynch, Corbett’s sister, says that before his death, Jason professed his unhappiness in the marriage. She believes Martens acted in fear of the family’s separation. Both Martens and her father, former FBI agent Tim Masters, maintain Jason had become abusive and they acted in self-defense when he tried to strangle Molly during an argument. The prosecution said it was murder. They were both convicted of second-degree murder in 2017, but have maintained their innocence. Lynch and the children went back to Ireland. In 2019, the state appeals court moved to allow oral arguments in the case. Lynch waits for the appeals court’s decision and has written a book about the case. On-screen text graphic: A wrongful death lawsuit on behalf of Jason’s children was settled by Tom Martens. 04/27/19 48 HOURS: “A Death in Payson Canyon” – a report the 2017 death by suicide of 16-year-old teenager Jchandra Brown and the discovery that her friend Tyerell Przybycian, who had many opportunities to stop her, helped her complete the act instead. After moving from Idaho to Utah, Brown became depressed and started getting into trouble at school. Brown was discovered dead in the woods in Payson Canyon, Utah after not returning home from work one day. The scene initially looked like a clear-cut case of suicide. Then, police found a video on Brown’s cell phone of the suicide, shot by someone else. During the search of the area, Przybycian approached police saying he wanted to explain what happened. He said he was merely helping Brown do what she wanted to do. At the time, there was no law against assisting a person in a suicide. Detectives later discovered new evidence, such as a text Przybycian sent to a friend saying “it’s like getting away with murder,” and prosecutors charged him with first-degree murder. As the trial approached, Przybycian was charged with witness tampering after urging friends not to testify. He asked for a deal and eventually pleaded guilty to child abuse/homicide and received a sentence of 5 years to life. A law was passed in Utah which considers assisting in a suicide to be manslaughter. On-screen text graphic: If you are thinking about suicide or know someone who is, please call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline 1-800-273-8255. They lived in a gated community in Newport Beach, California. That dream life collapsed one day in 2012 when neither of the Chadwicks turned up to pick up their sons from the bus stop. Investigators had little idea that day the search for the couple would lead them on an international manhunt. The next morning, San Diego authorities got a 911 call from Chadwick, claiming a house painter named Juan murdered Q.C. and forced Peter Chadwick to get her body out of the house. He said a man helped Juan and they were planning to cut up his wife’s body and dispose it south of the border. Law enforcement didn’t believe Chadwick, and he was arrested and charged with Q.C.’s murder. He was released on $1 million in bail. Then he vanished. Members of the U.S. Marshals team reveal they’ve had some key clues to where he is. Chadwick is one of the U.S. Marshals’ 15 most-wanted fugitives. 48 HOURS (continued)

05/18/19 48 HOURS: “What Happened to Rachael?” – a report on the investigation into the murder of Rachael DelTondo, a popular teacher who was gunned down outside her home in Aliquippa, Pennsylvania. It is the ninth unsolved murder in a city with an underfunded and understaffed police department, leaving many to wonder if the case will be solved. The investigation has led to several potential leads for the police to follow, including the actions of DelTondo’s ex-fiance Frank Catroppa and her friendship with Sheldon Jeter, a young Aliquippa High School athlete. Before the murder, Catroppa, was allowed access to a police report about DelTondo with a lot of sensitive personal information, but he denies showing it to anyone. Jeter, through his attorney, also denies anything to do with the murder. There is also the belief, that Sheldon Jeter was obsessed with DelTondo and there may have been some sort of inappropriate relationship. Her mother, Lisa DelTondo, also says her daughter told her she was cooperating in an ongoing investigation by state police, into alleged corruption in the Aliquippa Police Department, and had received death threats. It has been a year since the murder: her parents distrust the police, the authorities not saying anything, and a consultant believes if things were not the way they were in Aliquippa, Rachael DelTondo would still be alive. On-screen text graphic: Anyone with information on Rachael DelTondo's murder should call the Beaver County Detective Bureau at 724-773-8569. Interviewed: John Paul (investigative journalist/CBS News Consultant); Lisa and Joe DelTondo (parents); Frank Catroppa (ex-fiance); Jen Glovan (once Rachael’s best friend); Joe Perciavalle (Assistant Police Chief); Michael Santicola (Sheldon Jeter’s attorney); Jackie Belcastro (Rachael’s aunt); Lauren Watkins (17-year old friend/former student of Rachael’s); Steve Colafella (Frank Catroppa’s attorney) (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Judy Rybak and Stephanie Slifer)

05/25/19 48 HOURS PRESENTS: “Pvt. Needham’s War” - a report on the case of Pvt. John Needham, a decorated soldier diagnosed with traumatic brain injury (TBI) and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and who investigators say beat his 19-year-old girlfriend Jacque Villagomez to death with his bare hands in September 2008. Needham took responsibility for the murder, but remembered little of the crime, recognizing only that something inside him had snapped. After serving in Iraq, Needham returned home, shattered physically and emotionally. He suffered from combat injuries and was prescribed drugs which he downed with alcohol. He knew Villagomez, who had also struggled with drug addiction, for only a few months when she moved in with him. His drinking escalated. After his father, Mike Needham Sr., told Jacque that she had to move out and she had agreed, an old girlfriend came to the house upsetting Villagomez. An argument between the two women broke out, resulting in his ex’s departure and a call to 911. When police arrived, they found Jacque Villagomez battered and near death, with John Needham naked, crying, and smeared in blood. There was no evidence that anything other than Needham’s fists were used to beat Villagomez. Released on bail, his father sought to get his son the care he believed he needed and insisted that the crime was not murder. The father argued that if not for Needham’s war injuries, Villagomez would be alive today. Mike Needham Sr. allowed investigative reporter Michael de Yoanna and a team of filmmakers to document the unraveling of his son’s life. Before his trial, John visited his mother in Tucson, AZ in 2010 for additional back surgery. His brother, Mike Needham Jr., came to visit from California. Shortly after his arrival, Mike found his brother unresponsive -- he was dead at the age twenty-six. His death was determined to be from an overdose of painkillers, but the question remains as to whether it was an accident or suicide. The prosecutors in the Villagomez case says that John Needham may have been a good soldier, but he needed to be held accountable for what he did. Original on-screen text graphic: 48 Hours Mystery reached out repeatedly to the Army for a response to John Needham’s story. The Army declined to comment. On-screen text graphic for the 06/26/12 rebroadcast: On the anniversary of Jacque’s death, the Savino sisters tossed flowers in the ocean in her memory. This investigation, in collaboration with the Newport News Police Department – led agents on the trail of twisted relations, lies, and secret double-lives. Investigators learned that everyone had nothing but good things to say about Voss himself. They learned his wife, Cat, made up many stories about herself and took up with various men while Voss was away at sea. She went on a spending spree using almost all of a $100,000 death benefit she received on vacations, jewelry and restaurants. They came to suspect her friend, Michael Draven, spending months listening to wiretaps and conducting around-the-clock surveillance on their suspects. They ultimately learned a third party involved in the murder. Eight months after Voss was killed, his wife and two men were arrested and charged with murder. Includes interviews with Gregory Ford, Executive Assistant Director of NCIS Criminal Investigations; NCIS team members Dana Shutt, Maureen Evans, Larry Rilee, Jim Grebas, and Sandra Barrow; Ashley Doyle, a friend of Cat; Carol Wiggins, Cat's aunt; Steve Larson, Cat's ex-husband; Barbara Wilson, Cory Voss' mom; and Draven's mom Juanita Harper. Lee Hartley, who fell mysteriously ill while serving aboard the USS Forestal while deployed in the Mediterranean Sea. Lt. Hartley was airlifted to a Naval hospital where his illness baffled doctors. Months later he died. His autopsy revealed he died of acute arsenic poisoning. Toxicology tests indicated he was poisoned while on duty aboard the ship. After a year, with no obvious suspects, the case went cold. Nearly thirteen years later, the NCIS cold case squad reopened the old casefile. Family, friends, and potential witnesses were re-interviewed before investigators discovered information which led them to the killer. His wife, Pamela Hartley, was unhappy in her marriage and sent homemade food to the ship which Lt. Hartley consumed. She says she didn't want to hurt him with a divorce and thought death would be a better option. She pled guilty and was sentenced to 40 years in prison. She was released six-and-a-half years later. Thirty-six years later, his daughter and her former step-mother met again. Includes interviews with retired NCIS Special Agents Pete Hughes and David Early; Gregory Ford, Executive Assistant Director of NCIS Criminal Investigations; NCIS Investigative Review Specialist Lou Eliopoulos; NCIS team member Jim Grebas; Hartley's wife Pamela; and Hartley's daughter Stephanie. 06/01/19 48 HOURS: “Don’t Scream” (9:00 - 10:00p) - an updated rebroadcast on Tiffany Mead of Davis County, Utah, a young mother who called 911 claiming she had sliced her own throat while her ex-husband and child watched. When first responders arrived, the cut was so deep, police questioned whether it was really a suicide attempt. Medical experts claim there is no physical way she could have committed the act herself. Later, Mead changed her story: it wasn’t suicide, it was her estranged husband Kris Ertmann, who tried to kill her. Mead claimed she met Ertmann in a secluded park to get a child support check. He suddenly grabbed her in a bear hug and slit her throat. Thinking she was about to die, she drove the car to a parking lot which became a second crime scene. An investigation led to Ertman being arrested and charged with attempted murder. He claimed he could not remember anything and had PTSD. Additional investigating revealed Ertmann ultimately trying to arrange a hit on his estranged wife, resulting in an undercover cop posing as a hit man and getting instructions from Ertmann to kill his wife. The case never went to trial. Prosecutors offered a deal to plead no contest, and will spend the rest of his life in prison. Tiffany Mead lives with her new husband and her emotional support dog. Original on-screen text graphic: Kristopher Ertmann's next parole hearing is set for May 24, 2018. 06/01/19 48 HOURS: “FindJodi” (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report on new information in the search for Iowa television anchor Jodi Huisentruit, who disappeared on her way to work on June 27, 1995. When Huisentruit did not arrive at the station for her morning assignment, police were alerted. Outside her apartment, they found signs of a struggle, but her car was still at the scene. An extensive search was conducted, but she was never seen again and her body has never been found. An investigation led authorities to information that Jodi had reported a possible stalker nine months before her disappearance. Several people became suspects, including close friend John Vansice, who some of her friends suspected wanted a romantic relationship, despite their 22-year age difference. Another was Tony Jackson, a serial rapist who lived nearby at the time of Jodi’s disappearance. Throughout the years, friends and family members have kept up the search for Jodi, despite her family declaring her dead in 2001 as a means to settle her estate. In 2003, a group of journalists created a website to keep the story alive and to crack the case. As of 2017, John Vansice, living in Phoenix, is still considered a suspect. Mason City police believe they are close to solving the case. On June 5, 2018, which would have been Jodi’s 50th birthday, four billboards were unveiled in Mason City, Iowa, keeping her memory alive with the hope of solving her disappearance. 06/01/19 Update: On June 5, 2018 on what would have been Jodi’s fiftieth birthday the findjodi.com team officially unveiled four billboards around Mason City. On-screen text graphic: FindJodi. 06/08/19 48 HOURS: “The Lost Boy” (9:00 - 10:00p) - a report on the 1979 disappearance of Etan Patz, a 6-year-old New York City boy who was allowed to walk to the school bus stop just two blocks from his home; and the case against Pedro Hernandez, the man charged in 2012 with killing him. The disappearance shocked the city and still haunts law enforcement investigators who have spent decades trying to find Patz. This case changed the way in which parents watch over their children. Police searched for him extensively, but the case grew cold. There was one suspect, a pedophile named Jose Ramos, but the case against him never moved forward because it lacked corroboration. In 2010, new District Attorney Cyrus Vance, Jr. vowed to take a fresh look into Etan’s disappearance. In 2012, the NYPD got a tip from a relative of Pedro Hernandez, who had talked about hurting a boy around the time of the Patz disappearance. Police questioned him and he confessed to the crime. He also took them to locations near the Patz home where he said he disposed of the body. His court-appointed attorney says he’s unreliable because of his psychiatric condition. In 2015, he went on trial, but the jury deadlocked and there was no verdict. At a second trial he was convicted and sentenced to 25- years-to-life. On-screen text graphic: Etan would be 45 years old. Jayme Closs’ story captured the world’s hearts when she disappeared from her family’s home in Barron, Wisconsin on October 15, 2018. She fled her captor 88 days later. The report focuses on the heroism Closs showed in outwitting her kidnapper, Jake Patterson. Closs was discovered missing after police responded to a strange 911 call from her family home. There, police found both of her parents dead. The search for Closs made national headlines. She was found alive on January 10 when she approached a woman walking her dog in a Wisconsin town about 70 miles from her home. 06/15/19 48 HOURS: "Portrait of a Killer" - a report about a new controversial California law that could free Daniel Marsh, who was convicted of the murders of Oliver "Chip" Northrup and Claudia Maupin. Both the victims were savagely stabbed to death as they slept inside their Davis, California home. Police found no physical evidence. Investigation had ruled out family members and police were running out of clues. Then two months after the April 14, 2013 murders, the police received a phone call from a teenager who said his best friend, the then 15-year-old Daniel Marsh, had bragged about the murders. In an interview with police, Marsh told them what happened. Experts diagnosed him as a psychopath and said he killed for pleasure. Marsh was tried as an adult - convicted and sentenced to 52 years to life. Four years after the conviction, a new California law, Proposition 57, has thrown his sentence into jeopardy. His lawyers are arguing that he should be re-sentenced as a juvenile. If successful, Marsh, now 21, might be able to be released from prison on his 25th birthday. At a hearing, a judge listened to the evidence to determine if Marsh should be re-tried as a juvenile and receive a lighter sentence. The prosecution continued to maintain he is a psychopath. In a surprise move, Daniel Marsh took the stand. In the decision, the judge found the evidence and Marsh's testimony to be credible, but determined it was not a chance worth taking. Marsh will remain in prison. In 2018, a new law was signed into effect, saying that anyone younger than 15-years-old would never be tried as an adult. His lawyers want Marsh included retroactively. On-screen text graphic: In California, there are at least three other pending cases where juveniles have been convicted of murder and sentenced as adults. On-screen text graphic for the 06/15/19 rebroadcast: Daniel Marsh's lawyers appealed the Court's ruling and were denied. 06/22/19 48 HOURS: "Defending DJ" - a report about Danroy "DJ" Henry and the dedication and struggles his family endured trying to restore their son's reputation after he was shot dead in Pleasantville, New York, by police officer Aaron Hess in 2010. This event triggered a seven-year journey for the family as they searched for answers about what really happened. During a night out with his teammates, a fight broke out among other restaurant patrons and police were called to the scene. DJ and his friends decided to leave. They were waiting in his car in a fire lane prior to their departure. Police approached the vehicle and told DJ he should move; his friends said DJ started to slowly move away. The police claim that DJ tried to mow officers down with his car when Officer Hess approached and that was how Officer Hess ended up on the hood of the car, shooting his weapon and fatally injuring DJ as he sat behind the wheel. The police claimed Officer Hess shot because he feared for his life. DJ's friends painted a far different version of the incident. Witnesses agreed, also saying that medical attention was slow to respond. The Henry family vowed to learn the truth – even it was bad. They wanted to know what happened to their son and filed a lawsuit. Four years after the shooting, the family was still hopeful. In 2016, the Henry family accepted the decision in a wrongful death suit against the Village of Pleasantville and Aaron Hess and were awarded $6 million. In 2017, they settled a wrongful death suit with the town of Mount Pleasant for an undisclosed amount and something more valuable to them: a public apology. Seven years after DJ's death, they cleared his name. No criminal charges were brought in the case. Today, Aaron Hess works in private security. The Henry family has founded the DJ Henry Dream Foundation to honor their son's memory. On-screen text graphic: Chief Louis Alagno retired in 2013. In 2015 New York State law changed. 06/29/19 48 HOURS: "Missing Marsha" (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report on the 2009 disappearance of Marsha Brantley, a Cleveland, Tennessee woman who suddenly vanished, with no one, including her husband, Donne Brantley, family, or friends reporting her missing for several months, until her hairdresser, Kelly DeLude, became concerned over a missed appointment and called the police. Her husband immediately became a suspect, but there was no physical evidence of a crime. He claimed she left him, leaving everything behind, including her dogs and her home. In 2013, Brantley was arrested, but prosecutors dropped the charges after deciding they did not have enough evidence for a conviction, even though he pleaded the Fifth Amendment or said he could not remember over 100 times in a civil suit brought against him. Family members believe her husband is responsible for her disappearance. Friends from her book club would not be surprised if she turned up sometime. Following the election of a new District Attorney, Brantley was again charged with police using essentially the same evidence. Then in 2018, two days before the trial, the charges were dismissed. Police cannot prove Marsha was murdered and were afraid the judge would throw out the case. On-screen text graphic: Donnie kept the dogs. They still live with him today. To call in a tip, contact the Bradley County Sheriff's Office at (423) 728-7336. On-screen text graphic for 06/29/19 rebroadcast: To call in a tip, contact the Bradley County Sheriff's Office at (423) 728-7336. 06/29/19 48 HOURS: "Knock" (10:00 – 11:00p) - an investigation into the murders of two beloved grandmothers, Betty Jones and her friend Kathryn Crigler, who were brutally attacked in 1990 after answering a knock on the door at Crigler's Starkville, Mississippi home; and how a driven detective and cutting-edge technology helped to solve the nearly three-decades old murder and rape. The intruder forced his way into the house and immediately killed Betty. He then raped Kathryn, who died months later of complications from her injuries. The leads went nowhere and current lead Detective Bill Lott struggled for years to solve it. Jason B. Jones, a Nashville album designer and step-grandson of Betty, wanted to know what happened. He knew little about the case, but in 2005, a chance meeting between Jason's mother and Kathryn's granddaughter Juky Holt led to his renewed interest. In 2017, he launched a podcast as a way to work through his own questions about the incident and perhaps uncover new information. Jason subsequently learned that Betty had sponsored a family who escaped the Khmer Rouge regime in Cambodia and the family named their daughter after Betty. In 2018, as his podcast was coming to an end, there was no finality, because no one knows who killed Betty and Kathryn. However, Detective Lott's quest led him to Parabon NanoLabs in Reston, Virginia. Parabon NanoLabs has developed technology called genetic genealogy, which can predict what someone looks like through their DNA. The results led to a name, Michael Wayne DeVaughn, and his DNA was a match to the DNA taken from Crigler the night of the attack. Twenty-eight years after the crime, the suspected attacker was charged with Betty's murder and the rape and sexual battery of Kathryn Crigler. All may now know who knocked on the door that night, but the storyteller in Jones still needs to know how this tale ends. On-screen text graphic: Prosecutors are presenting their case against Michael DeVaughn to a grand jury. To date, there has been no indictment and DeVaughn has not entered a plea. Sergeant Bill Lott has been promoted to Lieutenant. On-screen text graphic for the 06/29/19 rebroadcast: Michael DeVaughn pleaded not guilty in January 2019. He is awaiting trial. Sergeant Bill Lott has been promoted to lieutenant. NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET

06/05/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "Shattered Glass" (9:00 – 10:00p) - Naval Criminal Investigative Service agents bring viewers inside the investigation into the attack on a marine stationed in Kuwait, which at first looked like terrorism but led them on an unexpected trail to something else. Chief Warrant Officer James "Houston" Glass was nearly killed when a grenade exploded in a guard shack in Kuwait. He barely survived the blast, suffering severe wounds to his neck, back and legs. NCIS agent Matt Timmons was stationed in Kuwait and immediately responded. The agent reveals they soon had doubts about it being a terror attack. As they dug in, they found the secret double lives of those closest to Glass, which turned the case in an unexpected direction. NCIS agents take viewers inside the case, which took shrewd detective work, including mind games on potential suspects, to find out who would want Glass dead. The case took them back to the United States, where investigation revealed a shocking conspiracy; Larry Framness, who was having an affair with Glass' wife, admitted to throwing the grenade. (Host: Rocky Carroll – Producer: Kim Kennedy)

06/12/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "Unbreakable" (9:00 – 10:00p) - Naval Criminal Investigative Service agents take viewers inside the emotional investigation into the brutal attack, torture and murder of Marine Corps Sergeant Jan Pawel Pietrzak and his wife, Quiana Jenkins-Pietrzak. Sgt. Pietrzak was known as a tough disciplinarian. It was also known around the base that he had gotten a $30,000 bonus months earlier and had told some people he had kept the money at their home, which was near Marine Corps Air Station Camp Pendleton in California. Whoever attacked the couple also tried to burn their home down. NCIS agents, who worked with the Riverside Sheriff's Department on the investigations, reveal the shrewd detective work that went into the case. Early clues, including different footprints at the crime scene, led investigators to believe they were looking for more than one suspect. The investigation took a turn when agents learned someone used Quiana Jenkins-Pietrzak's card at an ATM right outside the gate of Camp Pendleton, which helped lead them to unraveling the ties that bound the four suspects and the victims together. It was later found out that four Marines entered the Pietrzak home, sexually assaulted Jenkins-Pietrzak and tortured the couple before killing them. Two of the four accused Marines worked under Pietrzak's command. Riverside County authorities maintain the motivation was robbery, and the pending murder with special circumstances and sexual assault charges do not include an assertion that the crime was racially motivated. All four of the accused plead not guilty to murdering Pietrzak and his wife. After meeting with the families of the deceased, District Attorney Rod Pacheco decided to seek the death penalty on January 22, 2009. The preliminary trial hearings to determine whether the four assailants would stand trial occurred on March 26, 2009, and April 3, 2009 in San Diego. On 24 June 2013 a jury rendered a verdict of death for two of the four assailants and life in prison without parole for a third. The fourth assailant was later also sentenced to death. (Host: Rocky Carroll – Producer: Elena DiFiore)

06/19/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "The Enemy Within" (9:00 – 10:00p) - When Naval Criminal Investigative Service agents and their counterparts from the Air Force Office of Special Investigations probe the murder of an Air Force sergeant in Japan, they are led on a dark, twisted trail of deception, fraud, and witchcraft. Air Force Technical Sergeant Curtis Eccleston was found brutally stabbed to death in his apartment off base in Okinawa, Japan. The respected airman had no known enemies and a career on the rise. His death shocked the Japanese island. Agents Lindsay Temes and Heather Bellar from Air Force Office of Special Investigations were among the first to arrive at the gruesome crime scene. Air Force OSI agents called in NCIS to help solve murder. NCIS and Air Force OSI agents were initially concerned because Eccleston's wife Barbara was nowhere to be found until hours after his body was discovered. Investigators soon learned Barbara was cheating on her husband. At the time of his death, the couple had been in the process of getting a divorce. She told them he had been dealing drugs and she was concerned he was killed because of a drug deal gone bad. But as agents began to look into the drug angle, something just didn't seem right. When those leads ran cold the agents went back to the scene of the crime. What they uncovered through digital forensics would reveal that the cover-up and diabolical premeditation was almost as brutal as the crime itself. Evidence revealed another airman, Nicholas Cron, murdered Eccleston because he was having an affair with his girlfriend. Both Cron and Barbara Eccleston were charged with murder. In January 2012, Cron pleaded guilty to 3 charges in an attempt to avoid the death penalty; he received life without parole. At Barbara's trial in April 2012, Cron was a witness. She was sentenced to 20 years of hard labor in a Japanese prison. (Host: Rocky Carroll – Producers: Matt Goldfarb, Lucy Craft)
