04/07/18 48 HOURS: "Missing Marsha" - a report on the 2009 disappearance of Marsha Brantley, a Cleveland, Tennessee woman who suddenly vanished, with no one, including her husband, Donne Brantley, family, or friends reporting her missing for several months, until her hairdresser, Kelly DeLude, became concerned over a missed appointment and called the police. Her husband immediately became a suspect, but there was no physical evidence of a crime. He claimed she left him, leaving everything behind, including her dogs and her home. In 2013, Brantley was arrested, but prosecutors dropped the charges after deciding they did not have enough evidence for a conviction, even though he pleaded the Fifth Amendment or said he could not remember over 100 times in a civil suit brought against him. Family members believe her husband is responsible for her disappearance. Friends from her book club would not be surprised if she turned up sometime. Following the election of a new District Attorney, Brantley was again charged with police using essentially the same evidence. Then in 2018, two days before the trial, the charges were dismissed. Police cannot prove Marsha was murdered and were afraid the judge would throw out the case. On-screen text graphic: Donnie kept the dogs. They still live with him today. 48 HOURS (continued)

04/14/18      48 HOURS: “Secrets of Waco” (9:00 - 10:00p) – a review, as the 25th anniversary approaches of the deadly 51-day standoff in April 1993 between Branch Davidian cult leader David Koresh and U.S. Government in Waco, Texas. It all began with a shootout between Branch Davidian followers and the ATF (Bureau of Alcohol, Firearms and Tobacco) that left four agents and six of Koresh’s followers dead, ultimately bringing in a large FBI task force to negotiate a peaceful surrender. That did not happen; after 41 days, the compound was destroyed by government tanks ramming into the buildings, as agents fired tear gas. More than 70 followers died, nearly two dozen of them were children. The entire compound was destroyed by fire. Also included: an interview with retired Texas United Parcel Service (UPS) driver, Larry Gilbreath, one of the people regularly to go into the compound, who says he unwittingly delivered military grade guns and ammunition in the weeks before the siege, and who began working with the ATF in an undercover operation. Also other current and former Branch Davidians speak along with a discussion of what occurred within the compound, including unimaginable horror that followed the raid. On-screen text graphic: There were five major investigations. The Justice Department blamed Koresh. The Treasury Department was critical of its own ATF officers. Congress, as well as a seventeen million dollar independent review were critical of both the ATF and the FBI. The Waco tragedy changed the way law enforcement reacts and responds to similar standoff situations. Eleven Branch Davidians, including Clive Doyle, were tried for conspiracy to murder ATF officials. Nine were convicted on lesser charges and served prison time. Clive Doyle was acquitted of all charges. No Branch Davidian was ever charged with arson. Interviewed: Lee Hancock (journalist, CBS News Consultant); Larry Gilbreath (UPS driver) and wife Debra Gilbreath; Marc Breault and wife Elizabeth Breault (friends of Koresh); Sheila Martin (cult member); Grace Adams (sister of cult member); Joann Vaega (child of cult members killed in siege); Clive Doyle (true believer); Robert Cervenka (local rancher) Bill Buford (Special ATF Agent in Charge); and Dick DeGuerin (Koresh’s attorney). 04/14/18      48 HOURS: “The Lost Boy” (10:00 - 11:00p) - a report on the 1979 disappearance of Etan Patz, a 6-year-old New York City boy who was allowed to walk to the school bus stop just two blocks from his home; and the case against Pedro Hernandez, the man charged in 2012 with killing him. The disappearance shocked the city and still haunts law enforcement investigators who have spent decades trying to find Patz. This case changed the way in which parents watch over their children. Police searched for him extensively, but the case grew cold. There was one suspect, a pedophile named Jose Ramos, but the case against him never moved forward because it lacked corroboration. In 2010, new District Attorney Cyrus Vance, Jr. vowed to take a fresh look into Etan’s disappearance. In 2012, the NYPD got a tip from a relative of Pedro Hernandez, who had talked about hurting a boy around the time of the Patz disappearance. Police questioned him and he confessed to the crime. He also took them to locations near the Patz home where he said he disposed of the body. His court-appointed attorney says he’s unreliable because of his psychiatric condition. In 2015, he went on trial, but the jury deadlocked and there was no verdict. At a second trial he was convicted and sentenced to 25- years-to-life. On-screen text graphic: Etan would be 45 years old. His remains have never been found. Pedro Hernandez’s legal team is working on an appeal. Interviewed: Cyrus Vance, Jr. (Manhattan District Attorney); Patrick Eanniello and Bill Butler (former NYPD detectives); Phil Manoney (detective, Missing Persons Squad); Stuart Grabois (federal prosecutor); Brian O’Dwyer (attorney); Chris Zimmerman (lieutenant, Missing Persons Squad); Dave Rameriz (detective); Harvey Fishbein (defense attorney); and Adam Sirois (juror in the first trial). 04/21/18      48 HOURS: “The Clown Did It” – a report on the 1990 murder of Marlene Warren, and the decades long hunt for her killer: a clown bearing balloons, flowers and a gun. At the time, the case rocked the Florida neighborhood where Warren lived and has haunted family members ever since. They hope that technological advances available today will help police to make an arrest. Hours after the shooting, police received an anonymous tip from a caller telling them to look at Marlene’s husband Mike Warren, but he had a solid alibi. The caller also told police about Sheila Keen, an employee of Mike’s. Police learned Keen fit the description of a woman who bought a costume, flowers and balloons. There were also rumors that Mike Warren and Sheila Keen were lovers. No arrest was ever made. Keen quit her job and moved away. Mike Warren battled with Marlene’s son Joe Ahrens over her estate. Warren was investigated, convicted and sentenced on fraud charges and served four years in prison. In 2012, Warren and Keen were married. They settled in Tennessee, operating a business there. Rumors about Keen’s past persisted among their employees. They sold their business and retired to their vacation home in Virginia. In 2017, investigators say they finally developed DNA evidence to make their case and Sheila Keen Warren was subsequently arrested and charged with Marlene Warren’s murder. Mike Warren is still a person of interest. On-screen text graphic: Sheila Keen Warren has pleaded not guilty. No trial date has been set. Interviewed: Joe Ahrens (Marlene Warren’s son); Jeannie Pratt (neighbor); Daphne Duret (journalist, Palm Beach Post); Shirley Twing (Marlene Warren’s mother); Deborah Offord and Barbara Castricone (costume store employees); Della Ward (Keen’s co-worker); Ashley Sexton, Cynthia Swafford (employees of Warren’s new business); Brooke Blevins (vacation home neighbor); Paige McCann (lead detective); Dewey Fulton (Washington County Sheriff’s Lieutenant). 04/28/18      48 HOURS: “The Golden State Killer” (9:00 – 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast about true-crime writer Michelle McNamara’s relentless search for answers, and the quest to find the elusive so-called “Golden State Killer”, who terrorized Californians by committing 50 rapes and a dozen murders between 1978-1986, and who was arrested this past week. McNamara died in 2016. Her widower, comedian Patton Oswalt, discusses his late wife’s untimely death which occurred during her investigation and those who are carrying on her work by finishing the book she was writing about the case. McNamara was fascinated with true crime and her on-line quest led her to a serial killer she had really never heard of: the EARS (East Area Rapist Surveillance) Killer, whom she rebranded as the “Golden State Killer”, and pursued clues which she hoped to compile into a book. Her obsession with the case took a toll on her health, and her untimely death devastated Oswalt. Now others are hoping to finish the work she started – by publishing the book and finding the killer. The killer was a man who stalked his victims, blindfolded them, and raped and/or murdered them in Northern California. The rapes ultimately stopped, but after a seven-year hiatus, began again in Southern California. In 2016, the FBI used the 40th anniversary to announce the renewed investigation and a reward for the killer. UPDATE: Michelle McNamara’s book was released in February 2018. Now, almost two years to the date of McNamara’s death, police believe they have cracked the 44-year-old serial murder case. 72-year-old Joseph James DeAngelo, a former cop, was arrested at his home. He was never a suspect, but new technology helped to identify him. Investigators plugged the genetic profile of the Golden State Killer into a genealogical website and got a link to genetic material stored there by one of DeAngelo’s relatives. GEDmatch.com is an open source site that requires no subpoena. Police still needed his DNA to make a positive match, which they did by collecting a sample of his DNA from something he discarded in a public location. Many of his victims voiced their relief. This is what McNamara had always hoped for. DeAngelo was arraigned on two counts of murder in Sacramento County. He is also charged with murder in Ventura County and Orange County and more charges are expected. Original on-screen text graphic: Michelle McNamara’s book is expected to be published in early 2018. The FBI urges anyone with information on the Golden State Killer to call 1-800-CALL-FBI, or go to tips.fbi.gov. No on-screen graphic for this rebroadcast. Interviewed: Patton Oswalt; Billy Jensen (true crime journalist); Paul Haynes (researcher); Larry Crompton (Contra Costa County Sheriff’s Dept.); Anne Marie Schubert (DA, Sacramento County); Paul Holes (cold case investigator); Jane Carson-Sadler (victim); Margaret Wardlow (youngest victim); Debbi Domingo (daughter of victim); Michelle Cruz (sister of victim); Larry Montgomery (1986 investigator); Erika Hutchcraft (Orange County DA’s Sex Crimes Unit) (C: Tracy Smith – P: Susan Mallie, Lourdes Aguiar, Gayane Keshishyan Mendez, Lauren Clark; Producers for the 04/28/18 Updated Rebroadcast: Susan Mallie, Lourdes Aguiar) (OAD: 04/22/17)

04/28/18      48 HOURS: “The Last Ride Home” (10:00 - 11:00p) – an examination of the 2016 case of wealthy lawyer Tex McIver, who shot his wife Diane McIver from the backseat of a car while their friend drove them home. Exactly what led to the gunshot that killed Diane McIver is at the heart of the case against her husband. During the drive home, traffic got bad and Diane told the driver Dani Jo Carter to take the back roads towards the Buckhead section of Atlanta. Tex McIver asked for his .38 caliber handgun, which he kept in the car because he was concerned about the neighborhood they were in at the time, and Diane handed it to him. He told police he fell asleep and the gun accidentally went off, shooting Diane, who was in the front passenger seat, in the back. Carter sped to a hospital four miles away at Tex’s insistence, even though there were closer hospitals. He never called 911. Diane died on the operating table, but not before telling doctors she thought the shooting was an accident. The Atlanta Police Department investigated and decided that it was not intentional. The Fulton County District Attorney charged McIver with involuntary manslaughter and reckless conduct. The District Attorney thought there was more than meets the eye and conducted their own investigation finding out that Tex was broke and even owed Diane money. He also started selling off her belongs with the money going to the estate, not to him, even though the couple kept their finances separate. They charged him with murder, thinking that he killed her because he was desperate for money. The defense says the shooting was nothing but an accident. In March 2018, the trial began in Atlanta and this week, Tex McIver was convicted of felony murder. Interviewed: Anne Schwall (friend of Diane); Linda and Rance Winkler (neighbors); Howard Sills (friend); Dani Jo Carter (friend/driver of vehicle); Bill Rankin (reporter); Vincent Hill (law enforcement analyst/former police officer); Bert Davis (Georgia Bureau of Investigation agent); Bruce Harvey (Tex McIver’s attorney); Paul Howard (Fulton County DA). Though her father was Potawatomi and her mother was a non-Native Christian, she was raised in the church, but had little connection to her indigenous identity until now. 05/05/18      48 HOURS: “Don’t Scream” – a report on Tiffany Mead of Davis County, Utah, a young mother who called 911 claiming she had sliced her own throat while her ex-husband and child watched. When first responders arrived, the cut was so deep, police questioned whether it was really a suicide attempt. Medical experts claim there is no physical way she could have committed the act herself. Later, Mead changed her story: it wasn’t suicide, it was her estranged husband Kris Ertmann, who tried to kill her. Mead claimed she met Ertmann in a secluded park to get a child support check. He suddenly grabbed her in a bear hug and slit her throat. Thinking she was about to die, she drove the car to a parking lot which became a second crime scene. An investigation led to Ertman being arrested and charged with attempted murder. He claimed he could not remember anything and had PTSD. Additional investigating revealed Ertmann ultimately trying to arrange a hit on his estranged wife, resulting in an undercover cop posing as a hit man and getting instructions from Ertmann to kill his wife. The case never went to trial. Prosecutors offered a deal to plead no contest, and will spend the rest of his life in prison. Tiffany Mead lives with her new husband and her emotional support dog. On-screen text graphic: Kristopher Ertmann's next parole hearing is set for May 24, 2018. Captain Jen Daley and Lieutenant Bob Thompson will be there with Tiffany. If you or anyone you know needs help, call the National Domestic Violence Hotline 1-800-799-SAFE. 05/12/18      48 HOURS: “Dark Side of the Mesa” (9:00 - 10:00p) - A followup to “Dark Side of the Mesa” (OAD: 10/09/04) a report about the 2004 conviction of Michael Blagg for the murder of his wife and daughter. Blagg and his family have steadfastly maintained his innocence and Blagg’s attorneys have filed appeals which were denied, but in 2014, in a bombshell decision, the conviction was overturned and a new trial began in February 2018. In 2004, Blagg, after being unable contact his wife all day, came home from work to find his wife and daughter gone, and a bloody crime scene. Police were puzzled, as there was no evidence of an attack. Investigators had doubts and Blagg was considered a suspect from the beginning. Investigators learned Blagg and his wife had argued over his addiction to hard-core pornography and he then became the chief suspect. Seven months later, Jennifer’s body was found in a landfill mixed with garbage from her husband’s employer. Abby Blagg has never been located. In 2004, without taking the stand at his trial, he was convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison. Blagg and his attorneys continued to file appeals, and in 2014, the conviction was overturned because of juror misconduct and a new trial was granted. The juror was tried for contempt of court. A new attorney took over Blagg’s case. In February 2018, Michael Blagg stood trial again and was the star witness. His family steadfastly stands behind him, convinced he is innocent. After a five-week trial, Blagg is found guilty of first degree murder. Blagg’s family still believes in him. Fourteen years after the first verdict, he is sentenced to life without parole, the same sentence as the first trial. 05/12/18      48 HOURS: “Lorenzen Wright: No Defense” (10:00 - 11:00p) - an investigation into the life of NBA superstar Lorenzen Wright, a hometown hero to many in Memphis, Tennessee and the circumstances of his 2010 murder. Police were determined to find the killer or killers and the family pushed investigators, but the case went cold, until seven years after the murder, when a key piece of evidence was located. Wright’s last words were recorded on a 911 call, along with gunshots, but the dispatcher was unaware of what was happening or who was on the end of the line. During his thirteen-year career in the NBA, Wright had endeared himself to many with his off-court activities and philanthropy, all the while spending millions on himself and his family. He had married his high school sweetheart and fathered seven kids, but the stress and strain of being a professional athlete contributed to divorce. When he was traded to Atlanta, he moved there, but his ex-wife Sheri and the kids remained in Memphis. Then in 2010, Wright seemed to have disappeared without a trace. The disappearance became one of Memphis’ greatest mysteries, until his body was located nine days later. Police looked to the family for clues and potential suspects. Sherra Wright suggested he was involved in a drug transaction, and mysterious gunmen were stalking Wright. Sherra Wright received a $1 million life insurance payout, remarried, and wrote a novel about a philandering NBA player. Then in 2017, police got a tip that led them to a lake where they found a gun believed to have been used in the murder. The case took a surprising turn: Sherra Wright and a landscaper named Billy Ray Turner were arrested. Police think they both worked together to kill Lorenzen Wright for his money. They have both entered pleas of not guilty and are awaiting trial. On-screen text graphic: Billy Ray Turner’s bond was set at fifteen million dollars. Sherra Wright’s bond will be set at the end of the month. Lorenzen’s younger children are living with family in California. Interviewed: Bill Adkins (pastor, advocate); Marc Perrusquia (journalist, The Commercial Appeal); Phil Dotson (Wright’s best friend and fraternity brother); Gayle Rose (philanthropist, friend); April Thompson (investigative reporter, WREG, Memphis); Toney Armstrong (deputy director, Memphis Police, 2007); Kelvin Cowans (freelance reporter, former husband of Sherra Wright); Paul Hagerman (Shelby County prosecutor); Blake Ballin (Sherra Wright defense attorney); and John Keith Perry, Jr. (Turner defense attorney). 05/19/18      48 HOURS: “Murder on Red River” – an investigation into the 2002 murder of Jennifer Harris and the search for clues to what happened to her by a former Marine and a filmmaker who believe they can find the person responsible for the murder, which has become one of the coldest cases in the history of Fannin County, Texas. Harris disappeared on May 12, 2002. Six days later her body was found floating in the Red River. Police learned that she had told at least one other person she was pregnant. Suspicion fell upon two men: James Hamilton, her ex-boyfriend and Rob Holman, her ex-husband. Both denied seeing her the night she disappeared, or being involved in her murder. Neither was arrested or charged with any related crime. In 2017, Mark Johnson, the newly elected Fannin County Sheriff, made good on a campaign promise to re-open the case. What he found was limited information and damaged, destroyed or mishandled evidence. Daryl Parker, a former sheriff’s lieutenant and Marine, now a private investigator, is working with the Harris family and with Barry Wernick, a filmmaker married to Harris’ sister, Alyssa. These two men believe that their investigation will yield clues that will solve this case. Wernick says he’s done interviews with people not initially interviewed by police and is following up on any leads he receives. 48 HOURS asked CBS News consultant/private investigator Joe Moura to examine the evidence. He believes the case is unsolvable. Parker and Wernick continue to believe it is. On-screen text graphic: If you have any information about the Jennifer Harris case, contact the Fannin County Sheriff’s Office at 903-583-2143. 05/26/18      48 HOURS PRESENTS: LIVE TO TELL: "Sophia's Secret" (10:00 - 11:00p) - the story of Sophia Putney-Wilson, a Michigan teenager, and her work to expose the growing dangers of dating and break-up violence, following her own years of mental and physical abuse at the hands of her ex-boyfriend Adam Shigwadja. After meeting in 2011, the relationship between 14-year-old Putney-Wilson and 16-year-old Shigwadja seemed to be a typical teenage romance, but it quickly evolved into something much darker. Shigwadja often threatened to hurt himself or her family as a way to control Sophia, and after one attack, where he held her at knife point, she broke up with him. Despite a court order of separation, they started secretly seeing each other again. In 2014, she broke up with him again. Days later, he broke into her bedroom, held her at knife point and set her room on fire. Putney-Wilson was badly injured: Adam had escaped and was on the loose, and the family was terrified. Shigwadja was arrested the next day. He said that he had gone there with a knife and that his only intent was to harm himself and not Sophia. He was charged with home invasion with the intent to commit assault, and with felonious assault because he attacked Sophia with a knife. Shigwadja opted for a bench trial. Sophia testified that she felt she would only be safe if Adam was locked up. The defense argued he never meant to harm her and that his purpose for the visit was to kill himself. The judge found him guilty on home invasion and arson counts, but did not find that the burden was met for the charges of assault with intent to murder. The community was outraged. At sentencing, the judge surprised everyone, when she sentenced Adam Shigwadja to a minimum of twenty-nine years in prison. When questioned, Judge Pamela Lightroet said the uproar over her verdict had no influence on her ruling. Original on-screen text graphic: Sophia continues to speak with high school students about teen dating violence. 05/29/18      48 HOURS: NCIS: "A Sailor's Honor" (10:00 - 11:00p) - a report about Andy Muns, a young Navy officer who vanished without a trace from a supply ship along with $8600 during the Vietnam War, and was classified as a deserter and thief. This is the NCIS organization's oldest cold case. In 1968, Muns was a payroll officer aboard the U.S.S. Cacapon, stationed in the Philippines, when he mysteriously disappeared. He was never seen or heard from again. His family believed something sinister had happened because there was $51,000 left in the safe aboard the ship. Thirty years after her brother went missing, his sister Mary Lou Taylor tracked down the original naval investigator who admitted he had been haunted his whole life by the case, and also believed something had happened, but could not prove it. He would become part of her efforts to convince the NCIS to reopen the case. NCIS Agents tracked down crew members, eventually focusing on Michael LeBrun, who originally said that Muns had been scuba diving and had drowned. This was odd, because Muns was last seen at midnight. Then, during an interrogation, LeBrun surprised agents with a new theory, one where he might have played a role in Muns disappearance. Through significant forensic analysis and interrogation they were able to prove what had happened. After almost 40 years, his honor was restored and Muns was awarded a military funeral with full honors at Arlington National Cemetery. Interviewed: Mary Lou Taylor (sister); Megan Rose (former national correspondent, Stars & Stripes); Pete Hughes (NCIS Special agent); Jim Grebas (NCIS Special Agent, retired). 06/17/18        "The Whistleblower" –a joint investigation with The Washington Post into how efforts by the DEA and DOJ to curb the opioid epidemic were undermined by Congress, lobbyists, and drug distribution companies; and an interview with Joe Rannazzisi, former deputy administration DEA turned whistleblower. As opioids continue to flood the black market, Rannazzisi extended his investigation from corrupt doctors and clinics to the drug distribution companies responsible for shipping the drugs from manufacturers to clinics and chain drug stores. He accused the distributors of ignoring requisite preventative measures such as halting suspicious and fraudulent orders; retaliation against the DEA after being fined; using influence to pressure DEA lawyers to ease sentencing. This all resulted in fewer prosecutions, as former DEA attorneys were promoted to high-ranking positions within the private drug industry companies. In 2013, the drug industry lobbied Congress for legislation that ultimately stripped authority and agency away from the DEA in an act of diversion. The bill was written by Linden Barber, former DEA agent turned lobbyist, and introduced to Congress by Representative Tom Marino (R-PA) and Marsha Blackburn (R-TN) and passed with no objections. Includes interviews with: Joe Rannazzisi, former DEA deputy assistant administrator, Office of Diversion Control; Jim Geldoff, former DEA; Frank Younker, former DEA; Jonathan Novak, former DEA attorney; Matt Murphy, former DEA agent turned drug industry consultant. 48 HOURS

06/02/18      48 HOURS: "Resident Evil" - a report on a pair of double murders in Omaha, Nebraska, committed five years apart, which were carried out in similar ways, leading investigators to believe that the same perpetrator was responsible for both crimes. In 2008, sixth-grader Thomas Hunter and his family's housekeeper Shirlee Sherman were the first murder victims. They were stabbed to death, with no apparent motive. Five years later, Dr. Robert Brumback and his wife Mary were stabbed to death in their home. The Brumback attack was eerily similar to the Hunter/Sherman murders of five years prior. The investigation revealed a connection between Thomas Hunter's father, a physician at the Creighton University Medical Center, and Dr. Brumback, who was his colleague. The trail led to the hospital and to a medical resident, Anthony Garcia, who had been fired by Hunter and Brumback. In the following years, Garcia finally obtained a medical license in Illinois, but was terminated from numerous jobs. His bad reviews at Creighton followed him. A clue from 2008 led detectives to believe Garcia committed both the 2008 and 2013 murders as an act of revenge. In July of 2013, Dr. Anthony Garcia was charged with four counts of murder. After fifteen days of testimony, a jury found him guilty. On-screen text graphic: Anthony Garcia has stopped communicating with his defense team and his family. A three-judge panel will decide if Garcia will be sentenced to death. A court date has not been set. Interviewed: Todd Cooper (court reporter, Omaha World Herald); Derek Mois, Scott Warner, Ryan Davis (Omaha detectives); Chhandra (sic) and Againdra Bewtra (doctors); Jeff Sherman and Brad Waite (sons of Shirlee Sherman); Jason Peterson (witness); Fernando Garcia, Estella Garcia, Frederick Garcia (brother and parents); Don Klein (prosecutor); Brenda Beadle (deputy prosecutor); Bob Molta, Jr. and Jeremy Jordenson (defense attorneys); and Cecilia Hoffman (exotic dancer). 06/05/18      48 HOURS: NCIS: "A Date With Evil" (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the investigation into the disappearance of a young military wife that takes NCIS agents into the dark world of master and slave role-playing where they uncover the dual life of a Marine sergeant. 22-year-old Brittany Killgore was living alone in San Diego, California while her husband, stationed at Camp Pendleton, was deployed in Afghanistan. Unhappy with her new life, she had filed for divorce and was preparing to move home to Missouri. On the eve of her departure, she reluctantly agreed to go on a dinner cruise with Staff Sergeant Louis Perez, who promised her he'd have some of his Marine pals help her with the move. Within 10 minutes of entering the vehicle, she texted "Help" to a friend and was never seen again. NCIS agents and San Diego County sheriffs formed a joint task force to find Brittany. They soon focused on the bizarre role-playing relationship between Perez and his girlfriend, Dorothy Maraglino, and another woman, Jessica Lopez, who was Maraglino's slave. A search of the dungeon in Maraglino's home, in Perez's car and in a hotel room where Lopez apparently tried to commit suicide led investigators to the location of Brittany's body. Ultimately, all three were convicted of murder, torture, kidnapping and sexual battery. Interviewed: Andrew Traver (NCIS Director); Jeff Kierman (NCIS Special Agent); Patrick Espinoza (Deputy District Attorney, San Diego County); Brian Paterson (Deputy Sheriff, San Diego County Sheriff's Department); Dana Littlefield (Reporter, The San Diego Union Tribune); April Perkins (Brittany's best friend); Michelle and Darryl Wrest (Brittany's parents). 06/09/18      48 HOURS: "The Accidental Husband" (9:00 – 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast about Harold Henthorn, a twice-widowed man from Colorado whose two wives both died in unusual accidents, and whose changing account of events led family members to suspect that he murdered them. In 2012, Harold Henthorn surprised his wife Dr. Toni Henthorn, a successful ophthalmologist, with a weekend hike in Rocky Mountain National Park to celebrate their anniversary -- only to have it end in her death from a fall. Henthorn's version of events to family members changed several times and they began to doubt his account of events and to suspect he was responsible for her death. While reporting on the case, investigative reporter Brian Maass received an anonymous email stating Henthorn's first wife died in a freak accident as well. Maass looked into the accident and discovered first wife Lynn Henthorn had died 17 years earlier in another freak accident. He found: (1) both accidents occurred in very remote locations in Colorado; (2) Henthorn was the only witness; (3) the accidents were extremely unusual; (4) he had told numerous versions of the events; and (5) both wives had large life insurance policies, with him as the sole beneficiary. Federal investigators also discovered that Henthorn had not worked for the past twenty years. He had also taken out a fraudulent policy worth millions on his ex-sister-in-law, Grace Rishell, who now believes she was to be his next target. In 2014, two years after Toni Henthorn's tragic death, federal authorities arrested and charged Harold Henthorn with her murder. His trial is scheduled to begin in the fall. On-screen text graphic: A judge will decide if Lynn's death can be included in Henthorn's trial for the murder of Toni. Henthorn has yet to receive any proceeds from Toni's life insurance. Harold Henthorn declined our request for an interview. 11/21/15 UPDATE: This September, Henthorn's trial began. Prosecutors were confident they would win this largely circumstantial case. The defense rested without calling a single witness. Harold Henthorn was convicted of murder. On-screen text graphic for the 11/21/15 updated rebroadcast: Henthorn will be sentenced on December 8th. He faces a mandatory life sentence with no chance of parole. Harold Henthorn declined our request for an interview. On-screen text graphic for the 06/24/17 and 06/09/18 rebroadcasts: Henthorn received a mandatory life sentence with no chance of parole. 06/09/18      48 HOURS: "Blood in the Sand" (10:00 – 11:00p) - an investigation into the murders of two teenage girls, Barbara Nantais and Claire Hough, who were found dead on the same California beach, six years apart; the incredible similarities between the two killings; and the new technology that would lead police to ultimately investigate one of their own. In August 1978, 15-year-old Barbara Nantais was murdered on Torrey Pines State Beach, where she had gone camping with her boyfriend, Jim Alt. She was sexually assaulted, beaten, strangled and mutilated. Then in August 1984, 14-year-old Claire Hough was found murdered on the same beach - sexually assaulted, beaten, strangled and mutilated in a similar way. Police had few clues to go on, but believed the cases were connected. Both cases were never solved. The cases went cold until 2012, when through improved technology, DNA hits from Hough's crime scene led to two suspects. The first was Kevin Brown, a criminalist who had worked for the San Diego Police Department crime lab and was well-known for his kinky behavior. The second was Ronald Tatro, a convicted rapist. Tatro died in a 2011 boating accident. Brown denied knowing Tatro. He took and failed a lie detector test. In 2014, as the case dragged on, he committed suicide. His wife Rebecca Brown and her attorneys say Kevin Brown was a man wrongly accused, and that his suicide was not an admission of guilt. After his death, San Diego Police publicly named Brown as one of two suspects in the Claire Hough murder case. For the Nantais family, there is no closure. Police had initially believed a suspect named William Wheeler was responsible, but have ruled him out as the killer, and the case remains unsolved. Original on-screen text graphic: Barbara Nantais' case remains open. The San Diego Police Department considers the Claire Hough case solved. Rebecca Brown's lawsuit against the City of San Diego is expected to go to trial in 2017. On-screen text graphic for the 06/09/18 rebroadcast: Barbara Nantais' case remains open. Rebecca Brown's lawsuit against two San Diego police detectives is pending while the City of San Diego appeals to a higher court to limit the case against them. Interviewed: Jim Alt (Barbara Nantais' boyfriend); Rick Selga (friend of Jim Alt's); Ralph and Sue Nantais (parents); Judy Nantais (sister); Paul Ybarrondo (Sergeant, San Diego Police Department); Kim Jamer (Claire Hough's best friend); Penny and Sam Hough (parents); Rebecca Brown (Kevin Brown's widow); Jim Stam and John Durina (retired criminalists); Rocky Forgyson (photographer); Gretchen Von Helms and Gene Iredale (Brown family attorneys) (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Lourdes Aguiar, Cindy Cesare) (OAD: 04/30/16)

06/12/18      48 HOURS: NCIS: "The Marine's Wife" (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the 2004 disappearance of Marine wife Erin Corwin, and the search for her that took investigators into the Joshua Tree National Park, revealing a secret affair and the devastating aftermath for all involved. Nineteen-year-old Erin Corwin told her husband she was heading to Joshua Tree National Park to scout hiking trails; that was the last time she was seen alive. Investigators turned to her husband, John Corwin for answers: he passed a polygraph, and was never considered a suspect. A search of the park, where temperatures sometimes reached 115 degrees, yielded nothing. Investigators eventually learned Erin was having a secret affair with a married neighbor, Corporal Chris Lee. She had befriended Lee's family, even becoming a babysitter for his young daughter while both volunteered at a horse rescues farm, near Twenty Nine Palms, California. After Erin suffered a miscarriage, investigators believe Lee manipulated her into a torrid love affair, during which she became pregnant with his child. Lee made plans to move his family back to Alaska after his tour was completed. He then took Erin to the Joshua Tree National Park, strangled her and dumped her body in an abandoned mine. Eventually he was arrested and he admitted to an emotional affair with Erin. Two months after the disappearance, the continuing search located the body in one of the thousands of abandoned mines at the park. Chris Lee and his family had disappeared after his enlistment ended, but he was located in Alaska and arrested. Two years later, at trial, he was convicted of first degree murder. Interviewed: Andrew Traver (NCIS director); Clifton Randolph, Jr. (NCIS Special Agent); Bill and Lore Heavillin (Erin's parents); Beth Ford Ross (NPR journalist); Isabel Megli (owner, White Rock Horse Rescue); Shawn Nash (NCIS Special Agent); Doug Billings (Mine Expert); Sean Daugherty (Supervising Deputy, District Attorney's Office) (Narrator: Rocky Carroll - Producer: Paul LaRosa)

06/16/18      48 HOURS: "The DNA of a Killer" (9:00 – 10:00p) – a updated rebroadcast on the 1996 death of Angie Dodge; the unusual circumstances in which Michael Usry, Jr., a filmmaker and producer of a short film about a brutal death, became a suspect in the case; and the approach police took to try to find a DNA match through a public database that had been bought by Ancestry.com -- this same method was used recently to capture the Golden State Killer in California. In 1996, Idaho Falls teenager Angie Dodge was brutally murdered. The killer left behind semen which police tested against the DNA of men she knew, including Christopher Tapp. His DNA did not match, but after 28 hours of interrogation over 23 days, Tapp confessed to being there when she was killed, and stated that one of the participants was a man named Mike. Christopher Tapp was convicted of killing Dodge, but the case remained open because Tapp's DNA did not match the man whose semen was left at the crime scene. In 2014, police searched a public database that had been bought by Ancestry.com, hoping to find a match through familial searching. The search resulted in a partial match. Police got Ancestry.com to reveal the name of the anonymous man behind the sample - Michael Usry, Sr. - which ultimately led to his son, Michael Usry, Jr. Despite the close DNA match and the matching first name, Usry Jr. had nothing to do with the death and was officially cleared. His story raised serious questions about what happens when police use publicly available DNA databases to solve cases -- and what happens when an innocent man is tagged as a suspect. Michael Usry decided to make a documentary and was joined by Angie's mother, Carol Dodge, who had an agenda of her own: to find the killer. Their search has led them to believe that Christopher Tapp was innocent. Their combined efforts led to a review of the case and Tapp being able to accept a plea deal, which led to his release from prison after twenty years. Original on-screen text graphic: Carol Dodge met with detectives this week and continues to push them to find her daughter's killer. Chris Tapp says he has many job offers since his release last month and is happy to be weighing his options. On-screen text graphic for the 12/16/17 rebroadcast: Shortly after being released, Chris Tapp was married. After a fight with his wife, he was arrested and charged with misdemeanor domestic battery. 06/16/18      48 HOURS: "Storm of Suspicion" (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the investigation into the disappearance of Crystal McDowell, a divorced mother of two, who disappeared in Baytown, Texas, just as Hurricane Harvey hit the Houston, Texas area in August 2017. As police and emergency first responders struggled to keep up with the damaging storm, a team of police investigators gathered to track McDowell's disappearance. The historic flooding from the hurricane forced all available first responders into rescuing people, leaving it difficult to conduct a missing persons case. However, a dedicated team of police investigators gathered to track every clue left behind. The break in the case was the discovery of McDowell's car, found in a flooded motel parking lot. Police interviewed family and friends. The investigation led to the discovery of fractured relationships and hidden family secrets. Because of the storm, much of the physical evidence was washed away in the flood, but authorities focused on the ex-husband, Steve McDowell, certain that he had killed Crystal. Ultimately, police got their man: Steve McDowell admitted he strangled his ex-wife and disposed of the body in a densely wooded area near his house. Without his co-operation and because of the storm, her body would never have been located. He was charged with murder. Original on-screen text graphic: Steven McDowell has not entered a plea. The couple's young children are living out of state with a family friend who is in the process of obtaining full legal custody. On-screen text graphic for the 06/16/18 rebroadcast: Steven McDowell has not entered a plea. 06/19/18      48 HOURS: NCIS: "Deadly Lies" (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the search for Justin Huff, a missing Marine, the discovery of a relationship built on lies, and an ill-fated case of mistaken identity. When Marine Justin Huff failed to show up for roll call at the Navy Marine intelligence training center at a base near Virginia Beach, Virginia, friends and co-workers knew something was wrong. The NCIS investigation led to Cooper Jackson, a Navy intelligence specialist and to a connection to Huff they could never have predicted. Cooper Jackson was smitten with a woman who called herself Samantha, who he had never met in person, and who claimed to have been sexually assaulted by a Marine. In reality, the relationship was built on lies, where someone pretends to be someone else. Jackson, completely unaware of this, continued to press her for information, which ultimately led him to believe that Huff was the person she described. Agents discovered Jackson, posing as an NCIS agent, contacted Huff, wanting to talk to him about a sexual assault. The team collected evidence and arrested Jackson, who then led them to the scene of the crime where Jackson, even though he admitted to himself that he might have had the wrong man, slit Huff's throat because he realized he had gone too far to stop. He pled guilty, avoiding a jury trial, and at the sentencing, upon realizing Samantha was nothing like what he thought she would be, apologized to Huff's family and the Marine Corps. The woman pretending to be Samantha, though never involved in the crime, was never charged. Interviewed: Bill Elflein (NCIS Special Agent); Maureen Evans (NCIS); Don Marcari (attorney); Andrew Traver (NCIS Director); Steve Stelter, Richard Zabka, PJ McGrath, TJ Murphy (friends); and William Richard (Marine). (Narrator: Rocky Carroll – Producer: Alec Sirken)

06/23/18      48 HOURS: "Serial Confessions" (9:00 - 10:00p) - a followup to "Buried Truth" (OAD: 11/12/16) - a report on the investigation into the case of Todd Kohlhepp, a South Carolina real estate broker, now a confessed serial killer. His violent history was discovered after a missing woman named Kala Brown was found chained inside a shipping container on his property. This led to information that potentially solved a well-known 2003 South Carolina cold case, known as the Superbike Murders. The police investigation into Brown's missing person case led to Kohlhepp's property. Brown, who had once worked for Kohlhepp, told police that Kohlhepp had shot her boyfriend Charles David Carver dead, and that she had been a hostage for two months. Kohlhepp was arrested. While in custody, he asked for three things before starting to talk; then he told police more than they had ever suspected. He admitted to killing a young couple, later identified as Johnny Coxie and Meagan McCraw last December. In the most shocking twist of all, he revealed information known only to police in the 2003 South Carolina cold case of four murders at a Spartanburg motorcycle shop. Kohlhepp confessed to the killings and asked that, in exchange for pleading guilty to the seven murders, the kidnapping and the rape charges, he would not receive the death penalty. He was given seven consecutive life sentences plus 60 years. He showed no remorse. Also examined are: (1) the life of the self-confessed killer, who on the outside, seemed to be a model citizen, but who after a troubled childhood, moved to Arizona to be with his father. While there, he sexually assaulted a 14-year-old girl at gunpoint and had then served a 15 year sentence in prison. Includes an interview with his mother Regina Tague; (2) excerpts of Kala Brown's interview on the Dr. Phil Show; (3) the Superbike case and the feelings of the victim's relatives upon hearing the news and the sentencing; and (4) the discovery of the bodies of Johnny Coxie and Meagan McCraw on Kohlhepp's property. Original on-screen text graphic: Todd Kohlhepp was not allowed to attend his mother's funeral. Kala Brown will receive a twenty-five thousand dollars reward for helping investigators solve the four Superbike murders. On-screen text graphic for the 06/23/18 rebroadcast: Todd Kohlhepp was not allowed to attend his mother's funeral. In a letter to a local newspaper Kohlhepp claims he killed more than seven people. The FBI says they're investigating. 06/23/18      48 HOURS: "Taken Away" (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report on the 2016 disappearance and death of 27-year-old Jessie Bardwell, who vanished from the Texas home she shared with her boyfriend Jason Lowe. Jessie Bardwell lived in Alabama where she met Jason Lowe and fell in love. To the surprise of her family, she picked up and moved to Texas. It turned out she was following Lowe, who had gotten a job there. Eventually, she uncharacteristically lost touch with them. The family had a bad feeling, believing Lowe was a fault. Suddenly, she disappeared. Her father filed a missing persons report, as did Lowe. After many days, everyone was desperate, except for Lowe. Detectives suspected him, but he stuck to his story, claiming she just drove off. In time, Lowe was arrested on drug charges and charged with murder, even without a body. Investigators searched the fields of a ranch in Richardson, Texas, which led to the discovery of a body found under a sheet, covered with debris. They would not tell the Bardwell family what led them to that place. Police were confident Bardwell was responsible, but it took seven days to identify the body. Lowe later claimed Bardwell's death was an accident. His attorney put together a mock trial to test the defense theory. The result -- Lowe was innocent. Prosecutors maintain it was murder and Lowe tried to hide the body. At the trial, prosecutors were confident they would be able to convict Lowe. On the stand, he claimed it was all an accident. It is ultimately revealed that it was Jason Lowe who told police where to find the body and had cut a deal. If convicted, the most he would serve would be half of a 99-year sentence. The jury's verdict: guilty of murder as charged. He is sentenced to the negotiated deal. On-screen text graphic: Jason Lowe is appealing his murder conviction. He will be eligible for parole in May of 2041. He will be fifty-two years old. Gary Bardwell has set up a scholarship to help students achieve their dreams in Jessie's name. Interviewed: Gary Bardwell, Brandon Bardwell, Kitty Bardwell (father, brother and grandmother); Kimberly Asbury, Terri Ellis (Jessie's friends); Chiron Hale and Eric Willardsen (detectives); Regina and Tommy Jordan (friends of the couple); Andy Farkas (defense attorney); Wes Wynne, Cynthia Walker (prosecutors); and Jason Lowe. 06/26/18      48 HOURS: NCIS: "Trail of Fire" (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the search for a military nurse who failed to show up for work, and the investigation to learn if she was the victim of a serial killer targeting military women, or if something else happened. When Army nurse Holley James Wimunc failed to show up for work at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, her friends began to worry, and headed to her apartment, where they found the smoldering remnants of a fire – but no sign of Amy. NCIS agents were called to the scene and began the investigation. At the time, there were fears of a serial killer who claimed to be inspired by the Zodiac killer from decades ago and was targeting military women. Investigators searched for a connection to the murder of Sergeant Megan Touma. Suspicion also fell upon her husband Marine Corporal John Wimunc, a combat engineer based at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, two hours east of Fort Bragg. The more they learned about the couple's marriage, the more suspicious they became. It seemed that a volatile relationship existed and Wimunc couldn't handle Holley's superior rank. Investigators wondered if the relationship had become violent. They were led to Kyle Alden, a fellow Marine. For three days, they pressed him for answers. Then a surprising call came during the questioning about a suspicious fire near Camp Lejeune, and beneath the smoldering ash, firefighters discovered human remains – eventually identified at Holley's. Alden then told them everything, including how he helped John Wimunc to dispose of the body. They then arrested John Wimunc. There was no serial killer, but three female soldiers were murdered during that 2008 summer in Fayetteville, North Carolina. Wimunc reached a plea agreement to first-degree murder, arson, and conspiracy to commit arson and would serve time without the possibility of parole. Alden also served time as an accessory. Both men were dishonorably discharged. Interviewed: J.C. 48 HOURS (continued)

06/30/18      48 HOURS: "Reality Kills" – a report on the 2013 shooting death of Will Carter Jr. and the potential impact a television show had on an Atlanta detective's investigation into the case. The report raises questions into the investigative process when television cameras are around, and the flaws in a relationship that ended in the death of a young man who overcame addiction to become a success in the business world. In 2013, Victoria Rickman called 911 to report she had repeatedly shot her boyfriend, Will Carter Jr., saying he raped her. Detective Summer Benton thought the case was going to be self-defense when she arrived on the scene with a camera crew for a true-crime series, "Inside Homicide". She immediately thought something was not right. When contacted, Carter's family maintained that it would never be self-defense. Several hours after the shooting, Victoria Rickman was arrested and charged with murder. Prosecutors maintained Rickman made up the rape to cover for shooting Carter. Amanda Clark Palmer, Rickman's defense attorney, claimed Detective Benton made mistakes during the investigation and was guilty of a rush to judgement because she was being tailed by a TV crew. She cited several points Benton made on camera that were not true and that it was clearly domestic violence. Benton countered that the crew had no impact into her investigation and that the case was clearly murder; she believed the information on the television program would not affect the jury's decision. The verdict: Rickman was guilty on every count. At the sentencing, she offered no apology. The sentence: life in prison without parole. On-screen text graphic: Will Carter's daughter is being raised by the child's mother. Victoria Rickman's son is being raised by her ex-husband.
