Honoring our Veterans
Sponsored by: Massey Foundation

Once you learn the name and the story of Col. Longgear, you will not want to miss the personal appearance of this man of God. After a salvation experience on the battlefield, Col. Longgear dedicated his life to serving his Lord, Jesus Christ. He has served with six churches. He and his wife created and ran a youth camp and served on the mission field in Israel and Ukraine. Col. Longgear has preached in Georgia prisons for 5 years and teaches in a half-way house for young men recovering from alcohol and drug addictions. Currently, he and his wife host weekly Bible studies in their home in Pine Mountain, Georgia where they are deeply involved with the Georgia Military Veterans Hall of Fame.

Col. Longgear's experience is re-told in a documentary titled: "The Man Left Behind". We urge you to view the documentary on YouTube or Prime Video.

Join us on Tuesday, Oct. 6th
The event is free of charge for all!

A Meet & Greet begins at 4:30 with the band, Knot Today. Popcorn and soda will be served for all those in attendance. Retired Col. Longgear will arrive at 5:00 and will begin speaking at 6:00.

All are welcome! Springfield Hall 199 Park Road 35 Groesbeck, Texas

Defending Texas Values 2020

For Texas, For Limestone County

Sponsored by: Massey Foundation of Texas

Pastor Steve Friskup's life turned upside down with a recent viral Facebook post. He was led to post his views and importance of life in rural Texas on August 17th while traveling back home from a horse auction. One thought of his that caught our attention was the important and vital role of rural Texans in the pursuit of Defending Texas Values.

The Massey Foundation traced Mr. Friskup to his home in Muleshoe and he has agreed to share his views and thoughts on the obligations of rural Texans to our state and country in the year 2020. Come to find out, many area folks know Mr. Friskup in the trade of horses and all verify his character. This is truly a privilege for all of us. Please join us:

Thursday, October 8th 6 pm at Springfield Hall 199 Park Road 35 Groesbeck, Texas

Mr. Friskup currently hosts a morning message on Facebook known as "Coffee with the Colonel". Listen in to appreciate the wisdom and words of Steve Friskup.

Please email us if you plan to attend: info@masseyfoundationtx.com

Also, let us know if you are interested in attending a Meet & Greet in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Friskup that begins at 5:00.

Feel free to share the opportunity with your horse trader friends. No charge to attend.

Calvary Fairfield Schedules Revival With Special Music Next Week

By Billy Patterson

Calvary Baptist Church of Fairfield will be holding a revival next week and the local congregation is excited to invite everyone to attend the 'Revive!' services.

At a time when the Corona Virus pandemic has forced churches across our nation to find new ways of reaching not only their congregation but continuing to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ, the deacon body of Calvary decided the time was right for a renewing and focusing on living according to God's word.

The revival service each night will feature a message by Pastor Terry Skinner along with an array of talented artists.

On Sunday night, 'The Sounds of Calvary' will be performing numerous old gospel songs. Members from the original group are Don McLeod, John David Aultman, Hollins Spence, Bud Black and Calvary Music and Education Minister Shelby Race.

Monday night will be a special guest which will be a blessing to all attending. Dr. Stephen Burnaman, a world renown pianist, will be performing. Dr. Burnaman has performed throughout the United States and abroad in such musical centers as Boston, New York, Chicago, Rome, Warsaw, Taipei and Hong Kong. He is currently Professor of Piano and the university's organist at Huston-Tillotson University in Austin, Texas. He is also a former president of the Austin District Music Teachers Association, which named him 'Teacher of the Year' for 2003 and 'Collegiate Teacher of the Year' for 2004 and 2005.

Dr. Burnaman has served churches in Massachusetts and Texas as pianist and organist. From 2006-2011, he performed as a pianist for the Austin Singers, a professional choral ensemble.

Tuesday night revival services will feature another vocal group from Calvary. "Calvary's Ladies Trio" will be performing for those in attendance. The group includes Teresa Black, LaDonna Mullen and Amy Prather.

"We should all be praying diligently for a spiritual awakening within our church, our community and our nation," Calvary Pastor Terry Skinner stated. "We want everyone who attends to leave our services with a new beginning of obedience to God. He can and will fix the problems in our world if we turn back to Him and pray for a spiritual awakening. He has given us the roadmap of how to fix the problems across our country, if we would read His word, apply His teachings to our daily lives and ask Him to bless and heal our country."

The revival services will begin each night at 7 pm at Calvary Baptist Church, located at 220 East Main in Fairfield. For more information for the October 11th-13th revival services, please contact the church office at 903.389.2613.

Hey buzz, I was wondering if you get a chance during the trading post this morning if you could make an announcement that the Fairfield volunteer fire department is looking for new members. We take anyone that is 18 years or older, it doesn't matter how old, we have members that are 70, male or female, and no experience required. Learn everything on the job. It's a great way to serve your community and be involved in helping people. They can send us a message to our fb page or can call chief Baggerly 903-644-6995. We also have a meeting every first and third Tuesday of the month at 7 PM at the fire station. Thank you so much.
