Unshackled!	10/11/2020	10:00 PM	Alcoholism	Paul was impacted by his dad's alcoholism at an early age. Not only did he lack an intimate relationship with his dad because of it, but Paul was driven to drink and do drugs himself as a young kid. He became a rebel amongst his friends and seemed to cause damage wherever he went. When he moved away to Houston, he heard the gospel several times, but it didn't land on him. He met and married Paula and they moved home where they took care of his parents in their final years. The loss of Paul's mom and dad began a chain of losses that took a toll on their marriage. They had a baby to try and save things, but Paul couldn't get over his drug use. After an invitation to attend church with a colleague, Paul heard the gospel and was saved. His wife soon followed. He went onto become a pastor and missionary.	28:00
