

KGFF-AM (1450) Community Issues
2012 Fourth Quarter
October 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012

- 1. A to F grading system's effects in Shawnee schools – KGFF News - 7 AM & 8 AM, October 25, 2012 – A to F letter grades reported for schools across Pottawatomie County. Reporting on specific grades for each school and on what the consequences of receiving those grades are. KGFF News – 7 AM & 8 AM, November 2, 2012 – Shawnee school superintendent interprets what the letter grades mean for local schools.
- 2. Local legislative elections, candidates, and issues – KGFF News – 7 AM & 8 AM, October 30, 2012 and 7 AM & 8 AM, November 01, 2012 – Reporting on discussion of issues during PAVE candidate forum by candidates for local legislative offices. – KGFF News – Special reports on November 6, 2012 and 7 AM, 8 AM, and 12 Noon, November 7, 2012 – Reporting local election results
- 3. Disagreement between Shawnee city government & chamber of commerce over CVB – KGFF News – 5 PM, October 31, 2012 – Reporting on finalization of new contract between Shawnee city government and Shawnee Chamber of Commerce over operation of Convention & Visitors Bureau. The contract ends a disagreement over how hotel tax revenue is to be used to promote local tourism.
- 4. Restoration of Benedictine Hall following earthquakes – KGFF News – 7 AM & 8 AM, November 5, 2012 – St. Gregory's University officials announce restoration of four turrets on Benedictine Hall. The turrets were either damaged or destroyed by a pair of five-plus magnitude earthquakes in November 2011.
- 5. Assistance for the homeless and those with needs – KGFF News – 7 AM & 8 AM & 12 Noon, November 6, 2012 – The Shawnee city commission turns down a zoning change proposal to allow for a homeless shelter at the downtown Shawnee Rescue Mission.
- 6. Pressures on the local economy, unemployment, economic development efforts – KGFF News – 7 AM & 8 AM, November 8, 2012 – Tecumseh officials purchase land parcel for use by new retailer, to create jobs. – KGFF News – 7 AM & 8 AM, November 20, 2012 – Shawnee city commission action paves way for a new northside shopping center.