

Issues and programming

All shows run in the 11 a.m. hour unless otherwise noted. Shows are all locally produced and discuss items of interest to our local community.

Jan. 2- Wes Bradley-Nelson County School Supt.—continued plans to redesign the district’s schools. Discusses issues in front of the KY Legislature.

Jan. 8 Chaplain Ray Johnson on grief during the holidays and details upcoming grief sessions.

Jan. 10-Todd Spalding—Bardstown Fire Chief on the development of new procedures of Fire Department.

Jan. 17—Discussion of proposed legislation in the Kentucky Legislature

Jan. 24-Dr. Ryan Clark & Wes Bradley-Superintendents of two local school districts, discuss proposed Ky. Const. Amendment schools

Jan, 31—Angela Conway –Zero V Sr. Communications Specialist

Feb. 7—Tim Hutchins Nelson County Judge Ex. Talk about year in review

Friday-Feb. 9—extra show—Michael Vittitow and Gigi Sahn-re' discuss possible impacts if Bardstown sells its cable and internet business

Feb 14—Aaron Coles—City Administrator for Bardstown—provides some details and reasons for the proposed cable sale

Feb. 21—Kim Huston, Nelson County Economic Development Director—Retirement and review of accomplishments

Feb. 28—Amey Bensenshaver—Discussion of transparency in government laws as the KY Legislature discusses bills that might impact it.

March 6—Jessica Hogue & Jamie Miracle—Nelson County Forward – Nelson County School Board lawsuit initiated by them.

March 13—Nelson County Sheriff Raymond Pineroa –danger and cost of scams on the public

March 20-Jeanette Sidebottom Nelson County Clerk, & Cathy Marks— KAVIS & Election info

March 27—Dr. Chris King--Jewish Heritage Fund Initiative project