

On February 1st, 2012 at 5:52pm, WVUA-FM broadcast the following announcement as part of the Post Filing Announcement requirements outlined in 47 CFR Section 73.3580:

“On March 26th, 2004, WVUA-FM was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until April 1st 2012. Our license will expire on April 1st, 2012. We filed an application for license renewal with the FCC on December 1st, 2011. A copy of this application is available for inspection during our regular business hours. It contains information concerning the station's performance over the last 8 years.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application, and to whether this station has operated in the public interest, should file comments and petitions with the FCC by March 1st, 2012. Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at 901 University Boulevard, The Center for Public Television and Radio, Tuscaloosa, AL 35401 or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554, www.fcc.gov.”
