

WTKM-FM2021 Quarterly Issues-3RD Quarter

Topic	Program	Description	Date	Time	Duration
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Deb Caligaro, event lead for Hartford-Slinger Relay for Life, discussed how support groups help cancer survivors, as well as the schedule for Relay for Life.	7/1/2021	9:45a	15 min
Improving, Maintaining, & Developing Communities	Open Line	Executive director of the Hartford Chamber of Commerce, Doreen Buntrock, explained how the Chamber promotes area businesses.	7/9/2021	9:40a	10 min
Improving, Maintaining, & Developing Communities	Open Line	Kellie Boone, the director of the Washington County Fair, talked about how Hartford, and other 4-H members, are participating and serving as volunteers during fair week.	7/14/2021	9:50a	10 min
Improving, Maintaining, & Developing Communities	Open Line	Tiffany Retler, president of the Hartford Mill, discussed their work with promoting the city of Hartford with volunteers through social events.	7/22/2021	9:50a	10 min
Public Education	Open Line	Tim Michalak, the mayor of Hartford, discussed the labor shortages in the city of Hartford and gave suggestions on different ways to look for a job.	8/6/2021	9:30a	30 min
Public Safety & Education	Open Line	Finance Director for the city of Hartford, Dawn Timm, talked about Hartford's utility bill and how the utility department can help if the power is shut off.	8/19/2021	9:30a	15 min
Public Education	Open Line	Ron Schnorenberg, commander of VFW Post 8834 Hartford, discussed the VFW post's membership drive and how the organization helps veterans.	9/8/2021	9:40a	10 min
Public Safety & Education	Open Line	Paul Stephans, Hartford Fire Chief, explained how the Hartford Fire Department has expanded their services.	9/9/2021	9:30a	15 min
Improving, Maintaining, & Developing Communities	Open Line	Erin Wilk, president of the Pink Pumpkin Run board of directors, discussed how the funds raised during the Pink Pumpkin Run in Hartford go to local families affected by breast cancer.	9/22/2021	9:40a	10 min