

WTKM-FM2021 Quarterly Issues-2ND Quarter

Topic	Program	Description	Date	Time	Duration
Public Safety & Health	Open Line	K-9 Handler and Police Officer for Hartford Police Dept., Nate Dorn, talked about the role and importance of the K-9 unit for the Hartford Police.	4/6/2021	9:30a	10 min
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Debbie Calligaro, event lead for Relay for Life, discussed how the funds raised from Hartford-Slinger Relay for Life are used by the American Cancer Society.	4/7/2021	9:30a	10 min
Public Safety & Education	Open Line	Steve Volkert, Hartford City Administrator, talked about the Hartford Utility Department and discussed some options for someone who has their power shut off	4/15/2021	9:30a	30 min
Improving, Maintaining, & Developing Communities	Open Line	Mayor of Hartford, Tim Michalak, talked about the building of new businesses, such as Starbucks and Festival Foods, in the city of Hartford.	4/21/2021	9:30a	10 min
Improving, Maintaining, & Developing Communities	Open Line	Dana Osmanski, member of the Hartford Business Improvement District, discussed improving downtown store fronts in Hartford. She talked about how grant funds will help downtown Hartford business owners improve their store fronts.	5/7/2021	9:40a	10 min
Public Education	Open Line	Hartford Police Officer, Cori Whiple, talked about the Hartford Police Cadet Unit and how the unit provides opportunities for kids with an interest in law enforcement.	5/13/2021	9:50a	10 min
Improving, Maintaining, & Developing Communities	Open Line	President of the Volunteers for a Beautiful Hartford, Leslie Ashford, talked about the Annual Decorating Program. She dicussed the different parts of Hartford where the club will decorate.	5/14/2021	9:50a	10 min
Public Safety & Education	Open Line	Mike Hermann, Director of Parks and Rec in Hartford, dicussed the rules for the parks and programs available for kids this summer in Hartford.	5/20/2021	9:30a	30 min

WTKM-FM2021 Quarterly Issues-2ND Quarter

Topic	Program	Description	Date	Time	Duration
Public Education	Open Line	Ron Schnorenberg, Commander of the Hartford VFW Post 8834, talked about how the donations received from Poppy Day are used for their programs that support veterans. He also discussed the Memorial Day ceremony in Hartford on May 31st.	5/25/2021	9:45a	15 min
Public Safety & Education	Open Line	Nurse manager with the Gardens of Hartford, Kristy Wilson, talked about bee stings and the best ways to treat them.	6/1/2021	9:50a	10 min
Public Education	Open Line	Kathy Muth, member of Washington County Dairy Promotion Committee, dicussed how the committee promotes and educates schools and the community about the dairy industry.	6/1/2021	9:40a	10 min
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Marketing Director of the Schauer Center, Julie Johnson, talked about how musical and theater dance workshops benefit a child's development	6/8/2021	9:40a	10 min
Public Education	Open Line	Dave Piquett, Sewer Utility Director in Hartford, talked about Hartford's recently finished $2 million utility project, and what not to flush down the toliet.	6/17/2021	9:30a	30 min