

WTKM-FM*2021 Quarterly Issues-4TH Quarter

Topic	Program	Description	Date	Time	Duration
Local Economy & Small Businesses	Open Line	Doreen Buntrock, executive director of the Hartford Area Chamber of Commerce, discussed different ways to support local businesses.	10/1/2021	9:40a	20 min
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Resident supervisor of Christian Family Solutions, Julianne Aulenbacher, explained ways to improve mental health and warning signs of depression.	10/4/2021	9:45a	15 min
Improving, Maintaining, & Developing Communities	Open Line	Justin Drew, city and economic development planner for the city of Hartford, talked about city projects scheduled for 2022 and how they will affect local residents.	10/21/2021	9:30a	15 min
Public Education	Open Line	Pastor James Schleif of Warrior's Journey Home discussed the work of local programs providing support for veterans.	10/26/2021	9:40a	10 min
Public Education	Open Line	Commander of the Hartford VFW Post 8834, Ron Schnorenberg, talked about the programs offered to veterans through the VFW Post 8834.	11/5/2021	9:45a	15 min
Local Economy & Small Businesses	Open Line	Dana Osmanski, board president of the Hartford Area Chamber of Commerce, discussed events in downtown Hartford that help support local businesses.	11/10/2021	9:45a	15 min
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Band member from the Hartford City Band, George Raymer, explained that music can help improve mental health.	11/17/2021	9:30a	15 min
Public Health & Education	Open Line	Tyler Meutzal, aquatics and fitness supervisor at the Hartford Recreation Center, talked about the health benefits of regular exercise.	11/19/2021	9:30a	15 min
Public Safety & Education	Open Line	Hartford Police Department's Officer Cori Whipple discussed how the cadet unit helps kids develop character and respect for the law.	12/8/2021	9:45a	15 min
Public Education	Open Line	Sara Cummings, director of the Hartford Special Olympics, talked about the teams offered by special olympics and how it affects special needs children.	12/16/2021	9:30a	15 min
Public Education	Open Line	June Krueger, lead volunteer at the Hartford Food Pantry, discussed the process of visiting the food pantry and how to donate food.	12/22/2021	9:30a	15 min