Mr. Rossi,

I am very disturbed by the content of the program "Family Guy" FOX aired Sunday night. It is entirely inappropriate for broadcast television in general, and young viewers, specifically. I filed a formal complaint with the FCC moments ago. Below is a copy of that complaint.

Federal Communications Commission
445 12th St, S.W.
Complaints and Political Programming Branch
Enforcement Division, Mass Media Bureau
Washington, DC 20554

This is a formal COMPLAINT of indecency on broadcast television. My complaint concerns the PROGRAM ON:

NETWORK: Fox
PROGRAM TITLE: Family Guuy
BROADCAST DATE: March 8, 2009
BROADCAST TIMES: 9:00 PM ET/PT, 8:00 PM CT/MT

Documentation of the indecent material on which my COMPLAINT is based is provided below. PLEASE KEEP ME INFORMED OF THE PROGRESS AND RESULTS OF YOUR INVESTIGATION INTO THIS MATTER.

Documentation -----

In one scene, husband Peter lies in bed, his naked rear exposed. A horse enters and licks Peter's rear, as Peter moans in pleasure. "Mmm, what made you come around, Lois? I love you so much. I love you so much, Lois," Peter groans. The FCC has the DUTY to enforce the law and fine Fox for this gross violation of broadcast decency standards.

Among other atrocities in the episode, Peter warns his family that "some of the milk in the fridge is not milk, it's horse sperm," whereupon Baby Stewie eats cereal covered with the "milk"; Peter's gay lover greets him with news that he has arranged a gay "eleven-way" orgy; and Peter helps his son Chris with math homework:

"One trick I used to use is turning things into a word problem. For example, if there are three glory holes in the bathroom at the club and 28 guys at the circuit party. How many rotations of guys will it take before everybody's had a turn? Nine, with a remainder of Brent...Brent can't fit in the glory hole, and that's why we all like Brent."

End Documentation -----

I sincerely request that you consider removing "Family Guy" from your schedule.

Sincerely,

Kristi Hazelrigg
