Prior to submitting its application to the FCC for renewal of broadcast licenses for WRVO, WRVD, WRVN, WRVJ and WRVH in 2014, the following pre-filing announcement was aired on these stations:

On May 26, 2006, WRVO, WRVD, WRVN and WRVJ were granted licenses by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until June 1, 2014. On March 16, 2012, WRVH was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until June 1, 2014. Our licenses will expire on June 1, 2014. We must file an application for license renewal with the FCC on February 3, 2014. When filed, a copy of this application will be available for inspection during the station's regular business hours. It contains information concerning the station's performance over the last eight years. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application, and to whether this station has operated in the public interest, should file comments and petitions with the FCC by May 1, 2014. Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at WRVO, Oswego, New York, 13126, or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, DC, 20554, or at fcc.gov.
