CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING CERTIFICATION

This is to certify that the Univision Network (hereinafter referred to as "Univision"), as a standard practice, has formatted and aired the following children's programs and series so that the total amount of commercial matter (including local ad avails and non-exempt program promotions or website displays) is 10.5 minutes per hour or less on weekends, and 12 minutes per hour or less on weekdays, in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990, and with the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission:

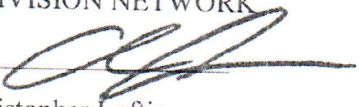

Pocoyo
Mickey Mouse Clubhouse
Handy Manny
Sesame Amigos

There were no occasions on which the commercials limits of 12 minutes per hour were exceeded. Univision notes that, on 49 occasions, from June 2016 until March 2017, it aired an educational capsule from Mundo Lanugo highlighting Hispanic heritage and language, immediately following the closing credits of the program Pocoyo. This capsule included a URL for the Mundo Lanugo web site, <https://mundolanugo.com>. Most of these capsules were an average of 40 seconds long with a URL of 3 seconds. Two of these capsules, which aired in December of 2016 and highlighted the Hispanic Christmas heritage, were an average of 3 minutes long with a URL of 23 seconds. While that site contains a substantial amount of bona fide non-commercial content, the landing page contains a link to the Mundo Lanugo app, which may be purchased from the App Store and Google Play by means of another click. In order to ensure strict compliance with the FCC's children's television website rule, Univision has now separated this capsule from the closing credits of Pocoyo by a bumper.

This certification pertains to the third calendar quarter (July 1 - September 30, 2017), with the exception of the information reported with respect to the Mundo Lanugo capsule, which pertains to the past three calendar quarters.

Executed this 9th day of October 2017.
