Headline	Air Date	Reporter	Length	FCC Category	Story Type FCC Description	ME 6:04 ME 6:30	ME 6:43	ME 7:04	ME 7:30	ME 8:04 ME	E 8:30 ME 8:43	Noon	ATC 4:04	ATC 4:32	ATC 4:44	TC 5:04 ATC 5:3	32 ATC 6:04	ATC 6:32	ATC 6:44
Pendley Aftermath	9/30/2020	Beau Baker	01:02	Politics and Government	The legitimacy of public land use decisions over the are under scrutiny. That's following the removal of director at the Bureau of Land Management during Beau Baker reports.	f the acting	0			8:04
MW COVID Surge	9/30/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:43	Medicine and Health	At least one million people have died worldwide fr novel coronavirus. And as the Mountain West New Nate Hegyi explains much of this region is seei Wrap troubling rise in cases.	ws Bureau's		7:04
Utah Gubernatorial Candidates Differ on How to Increase Education Funding During Debate	9/30/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:55	Politics and Government	While most people were tuning in to the president last night {Tues}, Utah's two major candidates for had their own. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports on o disagreement that arose the best way to increase where the state were tuning in the state were tuning in the president to the	governor one			7:30
As Wilderness Areas Attract More People, Volunteer Rangers Hit The Trail	9/30/2020	Amanda Peacher	04:04	Agriculture and Environment	The U.S. Forest Service has faced budget cuts an underfunding for years. With the agency's blessing conservation groups around the country have creat volunteer wilderness ranger programs to help patribackcountry. But is that effort a go	g, some 200 ated	6:43				8:43
For This New Utahn, Racial Injustice And The Coronavirus Pandemic Reinforce His Democratic Vote	9/30/2020	Emily Means	01:36	Politics and Government	This week, we're bringing you stories of voters in {Wednesday}, KUER's Emily Means talks with a retransplant to the state about how protests again injustice have impacted the way he's thinking all Superspot election.	ecent nst racial bout the							16:04			17:	32
Procurement Audit	9/30/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:40	Politics and Government	The Utah state auditor released a report today {W on the highly scrutinized emergency purchases th made during the first two months of the coronaviru Voicer KUER's Sonja Hutson reports.	at the state						12:00				17:04		18:32
Pendley Aftermath	9/29/2020	Beau Baker	00:44	Politics and Government	The legitimacy of public land use decisions over the are under scrutiny. As the Mountain West News B Beau Baker reports, that's following the removal of University of Land Management during	Bureau's of the acting										17:04	18:04
MW COVID Surge	9/29/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:43	Medicine and Health	At least one million people have died worldwide fr novel coronavirus. And as the Mountain West New Nate Hegyi explains much of our region is seei Wrap troubling rise in cases.	ws Bureau's								16:32				18:32
Candidate Spreadsheets And Morality: How One Undecided Utah Voter Is Weighing His Options	9/29/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:35	Politics and Government	This week, KUER is bringing you profiles of voters across Utah. Today, we hear from an unaffiliated Duchesne County who says his politics moved fur when he moved to Utah. But, as KUER's Sonja Hornson Teports, being raised by immigra	voter in rther right							16:04			17:	32
Vail Resorts Sales	9/29/2020	Sarah Mulholland	00:44	Business, Economics and Finance	Vail Resorts says pass sales are up for the upcom season. Sarah Mulholland of Colorado Public Rad—that doesn't necessarily mean slopes will be colorado. Wrap Vail Resorts owns Park City Mountain Resort here.	dio explains owded. //			7:30

Flu Shot	9/29/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:38	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Public health experts are pushing extra hard to get Americans to get a flu shot this year. But they're up against some dismal numbers typically less than half of the population gets the vaccine. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.	6:04			7:30
Antigen Testing	9/29/2020	Rae Ellen Bichel	I 00:52	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Antigen testing is a potential method for detecting COVID-19. It looks for the virus' surface coating, rather than pieces of its genetic material and is faster than other tests. Mountain West states differ in how they handle the results. Rae Ellen Bichell			7:04			8:30
Census Count Still Far From Complete On The Navajo Nation, As End Date Looms	9/29/2020	Kate Groetzinge	01:06	Politics and Government	Wrap	The 20-20 census count was supposed to end tomorrow {weds}. But a federal judge has told the Census Bureau to continue counting for the time being. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau Kate Groetzinger reports the count is still far from complete on the N		6:30			8:04		12:00
Fracking Emissions	9/28/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:55	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Colorado regulators are now requiring oil and gas operators to monitor fracking emissions earlier and more often, and provide that data to local governments. But some still hope for better monitoring for the state and the region. The Mountain West News Bu			7:04
Some Utah Republicans Say They Felt "Tricked" Into Voting for Sen. Mitt Romney		Sonja Hutson	01:47	Politics and Government	Superspo	Some Utah Republicans feel they were "tricked" into voting for first-term Senator Mitt Romney, and as KUER's Sonja Hutson reports — they say he isn't as conservative as they thought.	6:04				8:04
'Our Whole Democracy Is On The Line': How One Democrat Registered As Republican Feels About This Ele		Emily Means	01:30	Politics and Government	Superspo	There are a lot of races on the ballot for November's election. And a lot of issues that may impact the way people vote. This week, we're bringing you profiles of voters from across Utah. KUER's Emily Means spoke with one voter from the northern part of								16:04			17:32
Flu Shots	9/28/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:45	Medicine and Health	Wrap	It will be especially important to get your flu shot this year. But less than half of Americans typically get the vaccine. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports, that low number could be thanks to misconceptions.									16:32			18:04
Contact Tracing	9/28/2020	Rae Ellen Bichel	I 00:46	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Japan has managed to keep its COVID-19 cases relatively low, without lockdowns. Officials there have said one big reason for their success is a different kind of contact tracing, called "retrospective contact tracing." Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL} report				7:30
Backcountry Fears	9/25/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:48	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	The backcountry is expected to be a busy place this season. And backcountry equipment retailers have the numbers to prove it. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports, that could create dangerous conditions.		6:30
Utah Gubernatorial Candidates Debate Role Of State Government in Coronavirus Response		Sonja Hutson	01:06	Politics and Government	Wrap	The two major Utah gubernatorial candidates debated today {Friday} about the role of state and local governments in the coronavirus pandemic response. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more on the event hosted by the Utah League of Cities and Towns.										17:04			18:32

Candidates For Utah's 1st Congressional District 'Very Civil' In				Politics and		Utah's First Congressional District candidates Republican Blake Moore and Democrat Darren Parry faced off last {Thursday} night in a debate. As KUER's Emily Means reports, it was the first and likely only debate between the
First Debate Before Election	9/25/2020	Emily Means	01:27	Government	Superspot	candidates before November' Republican presidential candidates are usually very popular in Utah but in 2016 many party members rejected nominee	6:04			7:04	8	:04
2020 Election Could Be A Litmus Tes For New, Moderate United Utah Party		Sonja Hutson	04:31	Politics and Government	Feature	Donald Trump and defected to third-party candidate Evan McMullin. The next year, a group of Utahns formed the moderate United Utah Pa			6:43				8:43
Music (And COVID) In The Air: Scientists Model Airflow On The Abravanel Hall Stage To Assess Risk	x 9/25/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:50	Arts and Entertainment	Two-Way	INTRO: When it comes to COVID-19, some activities are riskier than others. Hiking alone in the mountains? Pretty safe. Joining 100 other people to blow spit and air through instrumentsyou might have a problem. Researchers at the University of Utah rece										16:44		TRUE
Zion National Park's Emerald Pools Trail System Reopens After 10 Years	9/25/2020	Lexi Peery	00:54	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Zion National Park's Emerald Pools trails are now open to the public after being partially closed for about a decade. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on the work that went into rebuilding the trails.									16:32		18:04
Wildfires & Asthma	9/24/2020	Beau Baker	00:58	Medicine and Health	Wrap	A new study suggests wildfire smoke is more dangerous than other air pollutants for asthma patients. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau {BO} Baker reports.									16:32		18:04
Virus Manufacturing	9/24/2020	Rae Ellen Bichell	00:45	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Colorado researchers will soon start growing the virus that causes COVID-19. They've contracted with the National Institutes of Allergy and Infectious Disease to help stockpile the virus in case it's needed in the future for a controversial type of study.				7:04
With More Extreme Weather On The				Business.		As warmer temperatures and extreme weather conditions become more common across the west, power companies face greater challenges keeping the lights on.
Horizon, Power Utilities Face Greater Hurdles Keeping the Lights On	-	Jon Reed	01:02	Economics and Finance	Wrap	KUER's Jon Reed has more on what Utah's largest utility, Rocky Mountain Power, is doing to protect it		6:30			8	:04
Utahns Gather Across The State To Honor Breonna Taylor After Only One Officer Charged		Ross Terrell	01:11	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	From Salt Lake City to St. George Utahns gathered to protest and remember Breonna Taylor. KUER's Ross Terrell has more on the events following yesterday's {Wednesday} announcement.	6:04				7:30			12:00
McMullin Voters in Utah Ponder Who to Pick for President This Year		Sonja Hutson	04:53	Politics and Government	Feature	In a state that's usually solid red Donald Trump only got about 45 percent of the Utah vote in 20-16. Many conservative voters turned to independent candidate Evan McMullin, a Utah Republican and member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints	0.04		6:43		7.00		8:43
Climate Action Now 'Essential' For Businesses Going Forward	9/23/2020	Jon Reed	00:56	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Even in a down economy, investors across the country are increasingly looking to support companies with high E-S-G ratings — that is, how environmentally and socially responsible they are. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, Utah businesses are trying to reduce t	6:04			7:04				12:00
Dead Birds	9/23/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:52	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Large numbers of migratory birds have reportedly dropped dead across our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck dug into why this may be happening.						8	:30

Proposed Highway Through Book Cliffs Faces Opposition From Grand County, Again	9/23/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:03	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	A coalition of rural counties is trying to convince the state to build a highway through the Book Cliffs in northern Grand County. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the County Council recently voted to oppose the road.									16:32		18:04
Colorado Researchers Will Soon Grow Coronavirus Strains For National Research Stockpile	9/23/2020	Rae Ellen Bichell	00:56	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Colorado researchers will soon begin growing strains of the virus that causes COVID-19. This is in preparation for the possibility of something called "human challenge studies". Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL} reports.												18:32
With Romney's Support, GOP Likely Has Votes To Move Ahead With Ginsburg's Replacement	9/22/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:07	Politics and Government	Wrap	Republican Utah Senator Mitt Romney says he supports voting on a Supreme Court nominee before inauguration day to replace Ruth Bader Ginsburg. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more.									16:32		18:04
Police Interactions With Homeless People Still Criticized Three Years After Operation Rio Grande			04:23	Crime and Law Enforcement	Feature	In 2017, city, county and state officials launched Operation Rio Grande to address crime and homelessness in downtown Salt Lake. Homelessness is still a big issue and as KUER's Emily Means reports police engagement with people living in encampments has										16:44	.5.0	TRUE
Unemployment in the West	9/22/2020	Beau Baker	00:34	Business, Economics and Finance	Voicer	Two states in our region have some of the country's highest unemployment rates, including Nevada, which tops the nation. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports. // August unemployment rates from the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics are 8.4 nati				7:04			8:30	12:00
Suicide Ethics	9/22/2020	Rae Ellen Bichell	01:01	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Researchers are calling for national ethical guidelines on what to do if middle or high school student surveys show high rates of suicidal tendencies. The Mountain West News Bureau's Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL} reports.		6:04			7:30
Downed Trees Donated By Salt Lake Residents Fills Need For Firewood On Navajo Nation		Kate Groetzinger	01:03	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Salt Lake City residents dropped off nearly 70 semi-trucks' worth of downed trees to the Urban Indian Center last week. We told you yesterday {Monday} some of those were motoring south KUER reporter Kate Groetzinger in our Southeast News Bureau shares			6:30			8:04		12:00
Fall Has Arrived, But What Does That Mean For Utah's Record Breaking Fire Season		Lexi Peery	01:01	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Today {Tuesday} marks the first day of fall. And Utah's fire season could be coming to a close. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on the outlook for autumn.										17:04		18:32
Oil & Gas For Trump	9/21/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:48	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	For the last few weeks, the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi has been cycling along the continental divide speaking with people in small towns and rural communities. He just pedalled through south central Wyoming, where he heard that support for the					7:30
Advocacy Organization Urges Salt Lake City Mayor To Let Homeless Camps Stay Open During Pandemic	9/21/2020	Emily Means	01:25	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspo	On Friday, a national legal advocacy organization supporting unhoused people urged Salt Lake City Mayor Erin Mendenhall to leave homeless camps in place as the coronavirus pandemic continues into winter. KUER's Emily t Means has more.		6:04		7:04				12:00
'How Is It That No One Cares?' Utahns Find Community By Sharing Their Sexual Assault Stories Online	9/21/2020	Sonja Hutson	08:25	Crime and Law Enforcement	Feature	Some Utahns are sharing stories of sexual assault on social media, and compiling lists of alleged perpetrators under the hashtag "UtahRapists." KUER's Sonja Hutson explains the idea is to empower survivors and spread awareness, and	Format breaking: 16:24 and 18:24									16:44		TRUE

SLC Police Chief Says Officer						The Salt Lake City Police Department released footage today
Shooting Of An Autistic Teen Shows Need For Community Partnerships	9/21/2020	Emily Means	01:05	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	{Monday}of its officers shooting an autistic teenage boy. KUER's Emily Means has more.									17:04		18:32
Unemployment in the West	9/21/2020) Beau Baker	00:53	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Two states in our region have some of the country's highest unemployment rates, including Nevada, which tops the nation. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports. // August unemployment rates from the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics are 8.4 nati								16:32		18:04
Vaccine Trial Underway On Navajo Nation And In Salt Lake City	9/18/2020) Kate Groetzinger	01:02	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Doctors are now recruiting volunteers on the Navajo Nation to take part in a COVID-19 vaccine trial. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports it has been proven safe and is now being tested for effectiveness.							16:04		17:	32
Pandemic EBT	9/18/2020) Amanda Peacher	00:57	Politics and Government	Wrap	A federal program called Pandemic-EBT has been a lifeline for many low-income families recently. But it's set to expire by the end of the month. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.			7:04		8:30
Getting Up The Mountain: Stakeholders Divided Over Transportation Plans For Little Cottonwood Canyon) Jon Reed	01:39	Business, Economics and Finance	·	There are currently three main proposals to help manage traffic on Little Cottonwood Canyon Road, which fills up each winter mostly with cars on their way to the Alta and Snowbird ski resorts. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, stakeholders are divided on wh	6:04			8:04		12:00
Extinction Deniers) Maggie Mullen	00:53	Science and Technology	Wrap	Conservation scientists are facing an increasing amount of pushback and misinformation when it comes to warning the public about the planet's biodiversity crisis. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.	0.04			0.04		12.00		16:32		18:04
CVS Testing Voicer	9/17/2020) Beau Baker	00:35	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Retailer CVS announced plans today {Thursday} to double its COVID-19 drive-through test sites at select locations across the U.S. including two states in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports.									17:04		18:32
Sen. Lee Focuses On Forest Management When It Comes To Wildfires, Experts Say It's More Complex	9/17/2020) Lexi Peery	00:57	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Republican Utah Senator Mike Lee tweeted yesterday {Wednesday} that the California wildfires were caused by poor forest management, not climate change. From KUER's Southwest news bureau, Lexi Peery reports on what experts think of Lee's remarks.								16:32		18:04
Utah Logs A Record-Breaking 911 New COVID-19 Cases) Sonja Hutson	01:07	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Utah health officials reported a record 911 new cases of COVID-19 today {Thursday}. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports that means more public health restrictions could be on the way.							16:04		17:
As Pandemic Lays Bare Digital Divide In Indian Country, Senators Prod FCC) Beau Baker	00:53	Science and Technology	Wrap	Senate Democrats are pushing the Federal Communications Commission to expedite progress on broadband connectivity in Native communities. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports online services are increasingly vital during the pandemic.		6:30		8:04
Utah County Coronavirus Spike Linked To Parties, But Are They Completely To Blame?) Lexi Peery	01:38	Race, Identity	Superspo	Yesterday {Wednesday} Utah reported 747 new cases of COVID-19 - the largest single day increase since late July And about 40 percent of those were in Utah County. KUER's Lexi Peery asks how much the college party scene is to	6:04		7:04	5.5	8:30
GOP And Democratic Candidates For Utah Governor Support Online Voting For People With Disabilities		Sonja Hutson	01:03	Politics and Government	Wrap	Both of Utah's major gubernatorial candidates say they support online voting throughout the state for people with disabilities. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more on their conversations with the Center for Persons with Disabilities at Utah State University.	0.04	6:30	7.04	8:04	5.50

Utah Lawmakers Criticize No-Bid COVID-19 Emergency Contracts During Legislative Hearing	9/16/2020) Sonja Hutson	01:02	Politics and Government	Wrap	Utah state lawmakers questioned whether emergency, no-bid contracts the state entered into at the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic were the best use of taxpayer dollars during a legislative hearing yesterday {Tuesday} KUER's Sonja Hutson reports	6:04			7:04				12:00
Utah Cities Required By Law To Address Affordable Housing Are Making Progress But Results Are Yet	9/16/2020) Sonja Hutson	01:04	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	A 2019 law that tackles housing affordability through city planning has entered its quote -toddler stage- but it's still too soon to measure results. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports that's what the Utah League of Cities and Towns told a state legislative comm											17:04			18:32
Climate Change Likely To Keep Hammering Colorado River's Biggest Reservoirs, Model Shows) Luke Runyon	00:51	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	The Colorado River's largest reservoirs are expected to keep struggling over the next five years due to climate change. Luke Runyon of K-U-N-C in Colorado has more.									16:04			17:32
Bison FOIA	9/16/2020) Rae Ellen Bichel	I 00:45	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	New documents released through the Freedom of Information Act show the Interior Department wanted to manage bison like cattle back in 2018. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen explains.					7:30
High Speed Internet Is Coming To Schools And Libraries In Southern San Juan County	9/15/2020) Kate Groetzinge	r 01:03	Science and Technology	Wrap	A project to bring broadband to southern San Juan County will move forward, after receiving permits from the Ute Mountain Ute tribe. From KUER's Southeast Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the fiber optic lines will bring faster internet to Bluff, Montezum										16:32			18:04
Superspreader Rallies	9/15/2020) Beau Baker	99:57	Politics and Government	Wrap	Over the weekend, President Donald Trump held rallies in the region that bucked public health recommendations on inperson gatherings. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports.		6:30	0			8:04
Technical Problems Interrupt Hinckley Institute's Conversations With Utah Congressional Candidates		Emily Means	00:59	Politics and Government	Wrap	The Hinckley Institute of Politics hosted conversations with candidates for Utah's Second Congressional District yesterday {Monday}. KUER's Emily Means has more on the discussion made difficult due to technical issues.	6:04			7:04			8:30
Vax Hesitancy	9/15/2020	Rae Ellen Bichel	I 00:55	Medicine and Health	Wrap	A Colorado poll found that less than half of respondents are "very likely" to get a COVID-19 vaccine once it's available. As Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL} reports, that state is not alone.											17:04			18:32
Superspreading Rallies	9/14/2020) Beau Baker	00:44	Politics and Government	Voicer	Over the weekend, President Trump held rallies in the region that flew in the face of public health recommendations on inperson gatherings. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports.											17:04			18:32
Utah Study Finds Children Bring COVID-19 Home From Child Care Centers	9/14/2020) Rae Ellen Bichel	I 00:59	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Researchers investigated three outbreaks of COVID-19 at child care centers in Salt Lake City. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL} reports their findings help fill a knowledge gap on how younger children might be spreading										16:32			18:04
With The Prison Relocation Drawing Near, All Eyes Are On The Point Of The Mountain	9/14/2020) Jon Reed	01:06	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Planning efforts are ramping up on land that state and local leaders say is Utah's most important development opportunity. KUER's Jon Reed reports the board overseeing the development of the Utah State Prison site in Draper launched a statewide survey tod									16:04			17:32

Ski Season	9/14/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:43	Business, Economics and Finance V	Nrap	Right after Labor Day is usually when skiers and snowboarders start planning their season. But things will look different this year as resorts are adapting to the pandemic. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.		6:30						12:00
Small Businesses Say Masks Policies Cause Big Headaches) Jon Reed	01:35	Business, Economics and Finance		Social distancing and mask policies are now part of everyday operations for businesses across Utah. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, for many small businesses already struggling through the pandemic, it's an added burden that could affect their bottom line				7:04			8:30
Navajo Nation Receives Extension To Renegotiate Lake Powell Agreement With Park Service) Kate Groetzinger	01:01	Agriculture and Environment V		A 50-year-old agreement regarding the co-management of Lake Powell set to expire today {Friday} has been extended by one year. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the Navajo Nation sought the extension in order to renegotiate th									16:04			17:32
With Marching Bands Sidelined, College Campuses Lack The Pomp Of Fall	9/11/2020) Maggie Mullen	04:08	Arts and Entertainment F		College football usually starts about this time of year well, not this year there will be no game days, none of the fanfare that goes along with tailgating. College towns across the region are going to feel different this fall. From the Mountain We			6:43					8:43
Fire Starts	9/11/2020	Amanda Peacher	01:01	Agriculture and Environment V	Vrap	Fires are raging across the region. According to a new study, almost all of the fires that threaten homes are started by humans. From the Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.	6:04				7:30
VP Goes to Qanon	9/11/2020) Madelyn Beck	00:56	Politics and Government V		The Vice President is expected to attend a fundraiser in Montana on Monday that's being led by QAnon supporters. The FBI has labeled that conspiracy theory a possible domestic terrorism threat. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.											17:04			18:32
Community Members Protest Salt Lake Efforts To Clean Up Homeless Campsites	9/11/2020	Emily Means	01:01	Business, Economics and Finance	Vrap	Yesterday {Thursday}, community members protested the Salt Lake County Health Department's efforts to clean up homeless campsites. KUER's Emily Means reports this is the second time in several weeks that has happened.		6:30				8:04		12:00
Northern Corridor Comment Period Closing, Recreationist Shares Concerns About Project	9/10/2020	Lexi Peery	00:54	Agriculture and Environment V		The public comment period for the environmental review of the Northern Corridor closes tonight {Thursday} at midnight. One aspect of Washington County's preferred plan would set aside nearly 7 thousand acres of land as protected tortoise habitat to										16:32			18:04
'Justice For The Survivor': Utah Clears Its Backlog Of Untested Sexua Assault Kits) Sonja Hutson	01:28	Crime and Law Enforcement S		Utah has cleared its backlog of more than 11 thousand sexual assault kits dating back to 2015. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports Utah is now the 8th state to do so spurred by a state law that required all kits be tested by the crime lab.									16:04			17:32
Inmates and Firefighting	9/10/2020) Madelyn Beck	00:42	Crime and Law Enforcement V		A cold front has tempered some of the fires raging around our region. But it's been a tough period for firefighters and this year they're not getting the same backup from one group - inmates. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck explains.		6:30					8:30
Education Amendment		Lexi Peery	00:55		·	This November, Utahns will vote on several amendments to the state constitution including one about funding for public education. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more on Amendment G.	6:04			7:04				12:00

					Six states that rely on the Colorado River are asking the federal government to slow down an environmental review for
LPP Letter	9/9/2020 Luke Runyon	00:40	Agriculture and Environment	Voicer	a controversial pipeline project in Utah. Luke Runyon of K-U-N-C in Greeley, Colorado has more:							16:32		18:04
Ballot Lawsuit	9/9/2020 Paul Boger	00:52	Politics and Government	Wrap	With November's general election weeks away, states are looking for ways to safely expand access to the ballot amid the ongoing novel coronavirus pandemic. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Paul Boger {BOH-ger} reports, some of those efforts are faci							10.32	17:04	10.04	18:32
Housing During COVID	9/9/2020 Jon Reed	01:04	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Housing remains one of the few industries booming in Utah. That's despite a global pandemic, an economic recession and record unemployment. KUER's Jon Reed has more on what's keeping Utah's housing hot.						16:04			17:32
Advocacy Groups Ask Federal Government To Stop Leasing Public Land While Demand For Oil Is Low	9/9/2020 Kate Groetzinger	00:59	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Advocacy groups are calling on the federal government to cancel upcoming oil and gas lease sales until the price of oil recovers. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports almost 700,000 acres of public land in the western United States		7:04		8:30
Homeless Wind Storm	9/9/2020 Emily Means	01:02	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Utah's state and local officials are continuing to assess the damage from today's {Tuesday's} wind storm. KUER's Emily Means has more from a press conference this afternoon.	6:04		7:30		12:00
Census	9/8/2020 Paul Boger	01:03	Politics and Government	Wrap	Nearly twenty percent of the people living in our region have yet to respond to the census. And with the count scheduled to end this month, there are concerns our region may be undercounted. The Mountain West News Bureau's Paul Boger reports.		7:04		8:30
Two Counties	9/8/2020 Amanda Peache	r 00:29	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Two neighboring counties in our region have very different hospitalization rates due to Covid-19. Those two counties also have different policies for containing the virus. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher has more.		7:04
White Mesa Community Holds Modified Bear Dance To Continue Annual Healing Tradition	9/8/2020 Kate Groetzinger	01:38	Race, Identity and Culture	Superspo	Host: Every year, the Ute Mountain Ute community of White Mesa celebrates the Bear Dance over Labor Day weekend. The ceremonial performance usually draws Ute people from Colorado and Northern Utah. But as Kate Groetzinger from KUER's Southeast News Bureau	6:04		7:30
Great Divide	9/8/2020 Nate Hegyi	00:48	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Over the past couple of weeks, Mountain West News Bureau reporter Nate Hegyi has been cycling across the region speaking with people in small towns and rural communities. Today, we check in with him in Dubois [DEW-boyz] Wyoming.							16:32		18:04
Homeless Wind Storm	9/8/2020 Emily Means	01:02	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Utah's state and local officials are continuing to assess the damage from today's {Tuesday's} wind storm. KUER's Emily Means has more from a press conference this afternoon.									18:04
The Science Behind Utah's Big Wind Storm	9/8/2020 Jon Reed	00:58	Science and Technology	Wrap	Hurricane force winds hit Northern Utah this morning, with some gusts up to 99 miles per hour. The wind storm caused mass power outages and uprooted trees and roofs in parts of Davis, Weber and Salt Lake County. KUER's Jon Reed has more on what caused the						16:04			17:32

Utah Unions Advocate For Employee Safety, Aid During Pandemic	9/7/2020	Emily Means	01:33	Business, Economics and Finance	,	Utah has one of the lowest union membership rates in the nation. One reason for that is the state's right-to-work law, which prevents unions from requiring employees to pay membership dues. As KUER's Emily Means explains unions are still working to suppo								16:04			17:32
Utah State Senator To Sponsor Bill Barring Natural Hair Discrimination At Work and School	9/7/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:49	Race, Identity and Culture		Democratic Utah state senator Derek Kitchen is working on a bill to ban race-based hair discrimination in the workplace and schools. KUER's Sonja Hutson tells us more about the CROWN Act.	6:04			7:30			12:00
Two Counties	9/7/2020	Amanda Peacher	00:56	Medicine and Health		Two neighboring counties in our region have very different hospitalization rates due to Covid-19. As the Mountain West New Bureau's Amanda Peacher reportsthose two counties also have different policies for containing the virus.								16:3	2			18:04
Holiday COVID Safety	9/4/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:43	Medicine and Health		Following Memorial Day, there was a spike in coronavirus cases. Now, doctors are worried this labor day weekend will be a repeat of that. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports, here's how you can stay safe.										17:04		18:32
Reno's Arts Economy Dries Up Without Burning Man		Paul Boger	03:55	Arts and Entertainment		If this were a normal year, right now, thousands of people would be flocking to the middle of the northern Nevada desert to watch "The Man" - burn. But it's not a normal year, and this year's Burning Man counterculture outdoor festival has been cancel									16:44			TRUE
Bagley Cartoon Is 'Exactly What The Supreme Court Envisions' First Amendment Lawyer Says	9/4/2020	Lexi Peery	00:59	Race, Identity and Culture		Salt Lake Tribune cartoonist Pat Bagley has been under fire this week from police groups and lawmakers because of a controversial image he drew. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on the role political cartoons play in American society.								16:3				18:04
COVID 5G	9/4/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:43	Race, Identity and Culture		Conspiracy theories seem to be popping up all over the place these days especially when it comes to COVID-19. And according to a new study, that's especially true in this region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.		6:30			8:30
Frequent Wildfires May Prove Too Much For The Threatened Mojave Desert Tortoise	9/4/2020	Lexi Peery	05:02	Agriculture and Environment	,	Two wildfires burned almost 14 thousand acres in Washington County in July. Flames ripped through protected Mojave Desert tortoise habitat And it's not the first time fire has scorched the land. From KUER's Southwest News Bureau, Lexi Peery reports that			6:43			8:43
High School On Navajo Nation Graduates From State Program For Underperforming Schools		Kate Groetzinger	01:01	Education		Whitehorse High School has officially graduated from a Utah program for underperforming schools. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports this is great news for the small high school in San Juan County on the Navajo Nation.	6:04			7:30			12:00
Utah Ranks As Worst State for Teacher COVID-19 Safety By Insurance Website Analysis		Sonja Hutson	00:59	Education		Teachers in Utah have a higher risk of catching COVID-19 than educators in any other state in the nation. That's according to a report from Insurify {in-SHUR-i-fye}} a website where people can compare insurance quotes. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports.	0.04			1.30			12.00	16:04			17:32

BLM Rent	9/3/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:41	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	A new report from the Interior Department's watchdog says top officials misled Congress last year. The investigation centered on the agency's controversial relocation of the Bureau of Land Management headquarters out West. The Mountain West News Bureau's			7:	30	8:30
Utah State Senate Hopeful Wants List Of Write-in Candidates To Be Included In Mail-in Ballots		Emily Means	01:02	Politics and Government	Wrap	The deadline for write-in candidates to qualify for the November election closed this week. As KUER's Emily Means reports, one of those hopefuls wants to make it easier for voters to identify candidates that aren't on the ballot.	6:04		7:04			12:00
Census Workers On The Navajo Nation Race To Catch Up With Less Than A Month To Finish Count	9/2/2020	Kate Groetzinger	00:58	Politics and Government	Wrap	The Navajo Nation's Census response rate is lagging far behind the rate for the rest of Utah. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports that only 18 percent of households on the Nation have filled out the Census so far, compared to 69 p								16:32			18:04
Polling	9/2/2020	Madelyn Beck	01:04	Politics and Government	Wrap	Finding election poll workers is usually a challenge, but it's even harder this year. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.		6:30			8:30
Salt Lake City Mayor Outlines Plan To Address Homelessness As Coronavirus Pandemic Continues		Emily Means	01:08	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Salt Lake City Mayor Erin Mendenhall announced plans yesterday {Tuesday} afternoon to address COVID-19 this winter. As KUER's Emily Means explains, combatting homelessness is a big part of that.	6:04		7:	30		12:00
Skipping Phase 3	9/1/2020	Rae Ellen Bichell	I 00:56	Medicine and Health	Wrap	The F-D-A says it's open to making a COVID-19 vaccine available before Phase Three clinical trials are complete. Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL} reports that could be a double-edged sword.									17:04			18:32
Polling Voicer	9/1/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:49	Politics and Government	Voicer	Finding election poll workers is usually a challenge, but it's even harder this year. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Madelyn Beck reports.								16:32
Dixie Center Will Keep Its Name, Leaders Vote Early In Response To Public Outcry	9/1/2020	Lexi Peery	01:03	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	The Dixie Center board voted today {Tuesday} to keep the name of the convention center in Washington County after all. From KUER's Southwest news bureau, Lexi Peery recounts the back-and-forth surrounding the convention center.							16:04			17:32
New Monument V2		Paul Boger	00:36	Agriculture and Environment	Voicer	A Washington-based conservation group is working with the Fort Mojave Indian tribe to establish a new national monument in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Paul Boger {BOE-gurr} reports.			7:	30		12:00
New Monument V1	9/1/2020	Paul Boger	00:55	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	A Washington-based conservation group is working with the Fort Mojave Indian Tribe to establish a new national monument in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Paul Boger {BOE-gurr} reports.		6:30
Third-Party Candidates For President And VP Make Their Case To Utah Voters	9/1/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:00	Politics and Government	Wrap	Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates from third parties are speaking with Utah voters this week. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports the Green Party presidential and vice presidential candidates met virtually with Utahns last night and the Libertarian	6:04			8:04		12:00
Utah Community Advocates Point To		Emily Means	01:02	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Today {Monday} is International Overdose Awareness Day. U-S data appear to show an increase in overdoses during 2020, but KUER's Emily Means tell us there's not enough local data to know the impact in Utah.							16:04			17:32

Dell Loy Hansen	8/31/2020	Emily Means	00:39	Arts and Entertainment	Voicer	Dell Loy Hansen, owner of Utah's Major League Soccer team, Real Salt Lake, announced yesterday {Sunday} that he will sell Utah Soccer Holdings. As KUER's Emily Means reports that includes the Utah Royals and Real Monarchs.	6:04		7:30			12:00
Washington County School Official Examines COVID-19's Impact On Enrollment	8/31/2020	Lexi Peery	00:59	Education	Wrap	Washington County schools have almost 35 thousand students enrolled, according to preliminary counts. A district official says that's up a bit from previous years and is likely due to more out-of-state residents moving in. From KUER's Southwest news b		6:30		8:04		12:00
COVID Hardships V1	8/31/2020	Amanda Peacher	00:57	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	A new report shows during the coronavirus pandemic households with children face high hardship rates in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher has more.					8:30
Gov August Bills	8/31/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:32	Politics and Government	Voicer	Utah governor Gary Herbert signed 19 bills into law today {Monday}. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports they include rules for November's Election and job requirements for top health officials.									17:04			18:32
Climbing	8/31/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:42	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Americans are embracing the outdoors in a huge way this summer. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Maggie Mullen reports that climbing crags and boulder fields are no exception.									17:04			18:32
COVID Hardships V2	8/31/2020	Amanda Peacher	00:38	Business, Economics and Finance	Voicer	A recent report shows during this pandemic households with children face especially high hardship rates in our region especially with rent and food security. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.			7:04
Utilities Moratorium	8/28/2020	Paul Boger	00:53	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Many states introduced moratoriums to protect residents from having their utilities shut off for not paying during the early days of the pandemic. But those moratoriums are coming to an end. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Paul Boger {BO-gurr} tells u	6:04				8:30
Alone Together: Experiencing The Coronavirus		Jon Reed	01:29	Medicine and Health		Utah has now had more than 50,000 confirmed cases of COVID-19. Some people have recovered quickly — and other people have faced long-lasting health complications. As part of our "Alone Together" series, KUER's Jon Reed asked four to people what it's been lik		6:30		8:04
Want To Help Your Kids Cope During COVID-19? Try Deep Breaths And Listening	1	Caroline Ballard		Medicine and Health		Some Utah schools have just wrapped up their first week back in class and keeping kids safe from COVID-19 outbreaks has been top of mind for most. But what about their mental health? I sat down with Child Psychologist Aaron Fischer and asked him to expla		0.00		0.04					16:44			TRUE
Utahns Gather At State Capitol To Honor 1963 March On Washington		Emily Means	01:45	Race, Identity and Culture		More than a hundred people met at the Utah Capitol building this morning {Friday} to commemorate the 57th anniversary of the March on Washington. KUER's Emily Means has more.							16:04			17:32
MW Masks		Madelyn Beck	00:48	Medicine and Health	Wrap	The Mountain West has seen the largest increase in mask- wearing over the last few months than any other region. That's according to a new Pew Research Center survey. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.								16:32			18:04

Utah Congressional Candidate Burgess Owens Speaks At RNC: 'We Stand At A Crossroads') Sonja Hutson	01:08	Politics and Government	Wrap	Burgess Owens, the Republican candidate for Utah's 4th Congressional District, spoke at the Republican National Convention last {Wednesday} night As KUER's Sonja Hutson reports he talked about the American dream, and how he sees President Trump helping	6:04		7:04
Utility Moratorium) Paul Boger	00:35	Business, Economics and Finance	Voicer	Many states introduced moratoriums to protect residents from having their utilities shut off for non-payment during the early days of the pandemic. But those moratoriums are coming to an end. The Mountain West News Bureau's Paul Boger {BOgurr} explains w								16:32		18:	04
Rural Developer In Boulder, Utah Hopes To Help Young People Stay With Affordable Land	8/27/2020) Lexi Peery	01:33	Business, Economics and Finance	Superspo	Across Utah, homes and lots are expensive pushing some young people to continually rent. That's the case in a town in rural Utah, and one couple is trying to change that. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on developers who want to							16:04			17:32
Asbestos Devastated Libby, Montana. Now COVID-19 Hangs In The Air.		Nate Hegyi	04:35	Medicine and Health	Feature	Libby, Montana was already living with an invisible enemy that attacks your lungs long before COVID–19 reached our shores. For the past century, asbestos has killed hundreds at least in this small town. And as the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate He		6:43			8:43
Lease Sales	8/27/2020) Madelyn Beck	01:00	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	The federal government had its first lease sales on public lands in months this week. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck explains why.									17:04		18:32	2
Utah Outdoor Industry Urges Action On Climate Change, Talk About How To Make Progress	8/26/2020) Jon Reed	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	At a summit for Utah's outdoor recreation industry yesterday {Tuesday}, state and business leaders met to talk about climate change and the economy. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, they say the two are linked.	6:04			8:04		12:00
eDNA	8/26/2020) Madelyn Beck	00:31	Science and Technology	Voicer	A new lab in the region could help track and eradicate invasive species in the U-S. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.			7:04		8:30
Lehi, Logan Back Out Of First-Of-Its- Kind Nuclear Power Plant Project Citing Financial Risk	8/26/2020) Kate Groetzinge	r 01:06	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Host: Two Utah cities have pulled out of a nuclear power plant investment — saying the risks are just too high. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports that 28 other Utah towns and service districts are still involved in the project.								16:32		18:	04
Airline Decline V1) Nate Hegyi	00:48	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	The airline industry won't fully recover from the economic toll of the pandemic until at least 2024. That's according to a report out today {Wednesday} from the industry group Airlines For America. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports											18:32	2
Airline Decline V2		D Nate Hegyi	00:41	Business, Economics and Finance	Voicer	The airline industry won't fully recover from the economic toll of the pandemic until at least 2024. That's according to a report out today {Wednesday} from the industry group Airlines For America. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports									17:04
eDNA	8/25/2020) Madelyn Beck	00:56	Science and Technology	Wrap	A new lab in our region could help track and eradicate invasive species in the U-S. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.									17:04		18:32	2
Utah Congressional Candidate Burgess Owens Accused Of Plagiarism	8/25/2020) Sonja Hutson	00:51	Politics and Government	Wrap	Burgess Owens the Republican candidate for Utah's 4th Congressional Districtplagiarized several passages in his 2018 book. That's based on reporting from the left-leaning watchdog Media Matters for America. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more.							16:04			17:32

Part II, Students Are Returning To						INTRO: Marlon Lynch joined the University of Utah as its Chief Safety Officer in February. It's a new position, tasked with overseeing the campus police force, along with other
Campus And U Safety Leaders Want To Rebuild Trust		Caroline Ballard	05:01	Crime and Law Enforcement	Two Way	departments. He joined KUER's Caroline Ballard to discuss his approach to camp									16:44			TRU
Rural Westerners May Be Changing Their Minds About The Government) Madelyn Beck	00:37	Medicine and Health	Voicer	COVID-19 infections are waning slightly in the rural U.S., but the number of deaths is still climbing. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck explains.			6:30						10.44
Postal Service	8/25/2020) Nate Hegyi	01:04	Politics and Government	Wrap	The postmaster general has been under fire in recent days for cutting costs ahead of the 2020 election. A new analysis reveals there may be political motivations behind those cuts. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports on how that may be play	r			7:04		8:30
Utah Man Worries Missing Immigration Documents May Have Been Destroyed By USPS Worker		Emily Means	00:58	Immigration and Refugees	Wrap	A Salt Lake City postal worker was indicted recently on two counts of delaying or destroying mail. She allegedly threw out immigration documents, like work permits, starting in 2017. And as KUER's Emily Means reports one Utah family believes their pape	t	6:04			8:0	4	12:00
Tribes Call On Trump To Cancel Execution Of Navajo Man	8/24/2020) Kate Groetzinger	01:04	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	Lezmond Mitchell a member of the Navajo Nation is set to be executed by the federal government on Wednesday. But his tribe opposes the death penalty and has asked President Trump to cancel the execution. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groet								16:04			17:32
Climate Change and Wildfires	8/24/2020) Lexi Peery	00:59	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	More than 75 percent of wildfires in Utah have been started by people this year and climate change is making conditions hotter and drier in the west helping any kind of spark spread quickly. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports o			6:30		8:0	4	12:00
Six Utah Republican Delegates In Charlotte For National Convention — Minus The Big Party) Sonja Hutson	01:05	Politics and Government	Wrap	Six Utahns are in Charlotte, North Carolina attending the Republican National Convention today {Monday}. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports because of the covid-19 pandemic, that is a fraction of the usual attendance.		6:04		7	:30
Rural Deaths	8/24/2020) Madelyn Beck	00:57	Medicine and Health	Wrap	COVID-19 infections are waning slightly in the rural U.S., but the number of deaths there is still climbing. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck explains.										17:04		18:32
Rural Westerners May Be Changing Their Minds About The Government	8/24/2020) Maggie Mullen	00:49	Politics and Government	Wrap	Americans living in the rural west largely support government relief spending. That's according to a new survey led by researchers at Yale University. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.				7:04		8:30
Students Are Returning To Campus And U Safety Leaders Want To Rebuild Trust Amid Amplified Scrutiny				Crime and Law Enforcement	Two-Way	INTRO: An independent review of the University of Utah police force's handling of the murder of Lauren McCluskey recently concluded. It found that one of the officers inappropriately showed and commented on explicit photos of	Format breaking: 16:40 and 18:50
Pendley Lawsuits	8/21/2020) Madelyn Beck	00:48	Politics and Government	Wrap	William Perry Pendley's nomination to lead the Bureau of Land Management may be pulled, but he's still effectively leading the organization. Two lawsuits are trying end that. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.										17:04		18:32
Struggling To Survive The Pandemic, Utah's Nonprofits Are Banding Together For Support	8/21/2020) Jon Reed	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Like most businesses, nonprofits have been struggling through the coronavirus pandemic. A recent survey found that about a quarter of Utah nonprofits say they probably won't survive much longer. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, some are starting to find cr								16	6:32			18:04

		1
Gill on OICI	8/21/2020) Jessica Lowell	00:35	Crime and Law Enforcement	Voicer	A Salt Lake City officer will not face criminal charges after shooting a suspect who investigators say tried to run him over. KUER's Jessica Lowell reports on the findings released today {Friday} from the Salt Lake County District Attorney.										17:32
Why The Supreme Court's McGirt Decision Resonates On The Wind River Reservation	8/21/2020) Savannah Mahe	r 04:32	Politics and Government	Feature	Last month {July}, a landmark ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court found that 3 million acres in Eastern Oklahoma is still the Mvskoke [muss-KOH-gee] Creek reservation. That decision could have ripple effects across the country, and in this region, for the Wi			6:43				8:43
New St. George Police Chief Wants Department To Be 'Advocate' For All	8/21/2020) Lexi Peery	01:32	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspo	St. George has named a new chief of policeKyle Whitehead. He's held the interim spot since the beginning of March but a lot has changed since then with the rise of the Black Lives Matter movement after the death of George of Floyd. From KUER's Southwe	6:04				8:04	1
Federal Government Expands Hunting, Fishing Access At National Wildlife Refuges	8/20/2020) Madelyn Beck	00:59	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	The U-S Fish and Wildlife Service is expanding hunting and fishing access to nearly 150 national wildlife refuges and fish hatcheries around the U-S. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck has more.		6:30				8:30	12:00
A Plan To Bring High Speed Internet Into Navajo Students' Homes Receives Funding From Legislature	8/20/2020) Kate Groetzinger	01:09	Education	Wrap	Many Navajo students in San Juan County don't have internet access at home. But that could change this fall thanks to a new effort by the school district. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the project would cost around 4 million	6:04				8:04	1
Outdoor School	8/20/2020) Amanda Peache	r 00:46	Education	Voicer	As schools across the region continue to weigh how or if to reopen, there's one option that's not being discussed much: moving classrooms outdoors. Amanda Peacher reports. // {OPT: Last week, a STEM-focused charter school in the Salt Lake City district un				7:04
Bill Requiring In-Person Voting And Allowing Outdoor Polling Locations Headed To Gov. Herbert's Desk	8/20/2020) Sonja Hutson	01:00	Politics and Government	Wrap	Utah conducted its June Primary Election this year almost entirely by mail. There was no in person voting except in San Juan County or for people with disabilities. But the state is planning to have polling places in November. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports								16:32			18:04
Wildfire Smoke Especially Problematic During Pandemic	8/20/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:43	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	As wildfires rage across our region, smoke from those fires is all that more dangerous during the pandemic. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.									17:04			18:32
Utah Officials Look To Leadership Over Medical Experience For Deputy Director Of Public Health) Sonja Hutson	01:00	Medicine and Health	Wrap	The Utah state Legislature is considering a bill this week to allow the deputy director of the state's department of health to have minimal experience in public health. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports an interim committee voted today {Wednesday} to recommend									17:04			18:32
COVID Survey	8/19/2020) Nate Hegyi	00:51	Medicine and Health	Wrap	A vast majority of Americans do not believe that reopening schools during the pandemic is safe, That's according to a new survey out yesterday {8/18}. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi explains some in our region are more open to the ide				7:04		8:30
New Plans For Canyon Closures Near Moab Take Climbers And Slackliners Into Account	r) Kate Groetzinge	01:05	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	The Bureau of Land Management has backed down from a plan to close two canyons near Moab to climbers and slackliners. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the closures are meant to protect raptor and bighorn sheep habitat.	6:04				7:30		12:00

Outdoor School	8/19/2020	0 Amanda Peache	r 01:07	Education	Wrap	As schools across our region continue to weigh how or if to reopen, there's one option that's not really being talked about: moving classrooms outdoors. Amanda Peacher reports. // Last week, a STEM-focused charter school in the Salt Lake City district unv								16:32		18:04
COVID Survey		0 Nate Hegyi	00:40	Medicine and Health	Voicer	A vast majority of Americans do not believe that reopening schools during the pandemic is safe. That's according to a new survey out today {Tuesday}. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi explains some in our region are more open to the idea								.0.02	17:04		18:32
Why Did Western Women Gain Voting Rights Earlier Than The Rest Of The Nation? You May Be Surprised		0 Madelyn Beck	00:52	Politics and Government	Wrap	Today {Tuesday} is the 100th anniversary of women's right to vote in the U-S. But that right came much earlier in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck takes a look at the conditions that made it possible.								16:32		18:04
New Oil And Gas Regulations Aimed At Improving Oversight Could Go On Hold During The Pandemic	8/18/2020	0 Sonja Hutson	01:02	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	The state agency that oversees the oil and gas industry in Utah could put a one year pause on new regulations in counties with less than 125-thousand residents. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports a legislative committee gave the proposal a green light today {T							16:04		17:32
Postponed Surgeries Pinch Hospitals And Rural Patients	8/18/2020	0 Maggie Mullen	03:53	Medicine and Health	Feature	At the beginning of the pandemic, elective surgeries at hospitals were by and large suspended. Services have resumed most places, but the delay highlights chronic barriers to healthcare in parts of this region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mulle		6:43			8:43
'Firenado' Takes Off During Recent Wildfire	8/18/2020	0 Noah Glick	00:57	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Over the weekend, a tornado touched down near the Nevada- California border. But this wasn't any tornado. This was a FIRE tornado. The Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick explains.			7:04
With Backlog Of Cases During Pandemic, Utah Courts Request Funding To Get Back On Track	8/18/2020	0 Emily Means	01:01	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	Utah courts continue to experience a major backlog of cases as the coronavirus pandemic continues. As KUER's Emily Means reports, officials requested funding from a state legislative committee yesterday {Monday} to help get back on track.	6:04			8:04		12:00
Heat Wave Harvey? Push To Name Extreme Heat Events Warming Up	8/17/2020	0 Noah Glick	00:56	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Extreme heat is blanketing much of our region and as the Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports, there's now a push to name heat waves, like we do hurricanes.			7:04		8:30
San Juan County Attorney Raises Concerns About 'A Developing Rape Culture' In Local Public Schools	8/17/2020	0 Kate Groetzinger	01:43	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspo	The San Juan County attorney's office is sounding the alarm on what it calls "a developing rape culture" in the county's public schools. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has the story.	6:04			8:04		12:00
Utah Teachers Say They Don't Have Enough PPE, State Says It's Coming	8/17/2020	0 Jon Reed	01:02	Education	Wrap	Most school districts in Utah are planning on resuming in person classes in the next two weeks. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, some teachers are worried they won't have enough protective equipment and cleaning supplies to keep their classrooms safe.								16:32		18:04
Saliva Testing	8/17/2020	0 Maggie Mullen	00:53	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Much of the Mountain West is still not doing enough testing to slow the spread of COVID-19. And the test results can be delayed. As Maggie Mullen reports, recent scientific developments could speed that process up.									17:04		18:32
Immigration Mail		0 Madelyn Beck	00:37	Crime and Law Enforcement	Voicer	A U.S. Postal Service employee from Utah faces jail time after allegedly throwing out critical immigration documents. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.	6:30

Immigration Mail	8/14/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:54	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	A U.S. Postal Service employee from Utah faces jail time after allegedly throwing out critical immigration documents. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.											17:04			18:32
35 Utah Democratic Delegates Head To National Convention - On Their Computers	8/14/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:00	Politics and Government	Wrap	35 Utah delegates and other party leaders are participating in the Democratic National Convention next week. But they won't be getting on a plane, instead they'll just log on to their computers in an effort to prevent the spread of COVID-19. KUER's										16:32			18:04
From One-Star Reviews To A Celebration of America's 'Subpar Parks'	8/14/2020	Daniel Rayzel	04:14	Arts and Entertainment	Feature	It's hot. You're tired. You've just finished a long day at a national park. And maybe it wasn't quite the five-star experience you hoped for. From K-S-J-D in Cortez, Colorado Daniel Rayzel {rye-zell} reports on an illustrator creating park posters fro			6:43					8:43
Researchers Say Rural Culture Affects Use Of Seatbelts (And Maybe				Medicine and		Only about 20% of Americans live in rural areas. But accidents on rural roads account for almost half of our nation's traffic fatalities. The Mountain West News Bureau's			0.40					0.40
Masks, Too) Death Tolls		Madelyn Beck Noah Glick	00:58	Health Medicine and Health	Wrap	Madelyn Beck reports. COVID-19 is set to be one of the leading causes of death across the country this year. The Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick explores how it looks in our region.		6:30		7:04		8:04
Options Improve Utah's Testing, But Supply Issues Still Hinder Progress		Jon Reed	01:06	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Health officials in Utah and across the country rely mostly on coronavirus tests that — while accurate — are slow and expensive. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, a faster test is out there, but not everyone is convinced it's the right approach.	6:04	0.30			7:30	6.04		12:0	00
Police Fatalities V1	8/13/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:56	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	A police department outside of Denver is under investigation following two serious incidents involving people of color. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports.				7:04
In Investigations Of Police Shootings, Utah Counties Are Divided On How To Inform The Public	8/13/2020	Emily Means	01:34	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspo	Utah law requires an outside, independent investigation into a police officer's use of deadly force. But, as KUER's Emily Means reports, there's no statewide standard for how that information reaches the public.	6:04				7:30			12:0	00
Police Fatalities V2	8/13/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:46	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	A police department outside of Denver is under investigation following two serious incidents involving people of color. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports.							8:30	12:0	00
Back To School: Washington County Is First District To Start School In Utah	8/13/2020	Levi Peerv	01:06	Education	Wrap	Students in Washington County returned to school today {Thursday} making them the first to go back in Utah since buildings closed in mid-March. KUER's Southwest news bureau's Lexi Peery caught up with some students and parents.									16:04			17:32
Death Tolls		Noah Glick	00:43	Medicine and Health	Wrap	COVID-19 is set to be one of the leading causes of death across the country this year. The Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick explores how it looks in our region.									10.04	16:32		17.32	18:04
				Business, Economics and		President Donald Trump recently directed federal agencies to explore how they can help avoid mass evictions across the country But it's unclear how or if that will help. Still, people on the state and local level are coming up with solutions. The
Evictions Part II	8/13/2020	Noah Glick	04:00	Finance	Feature	Moun			6:43					8:43

Decline in COVID-19 Testing in Utah Leads To Quicker Results For Some Rural Areas	8/12/2020	Levi Peerv	01:02	Medicine and Health	Wrap	COVID-19 testing has been declining in Utah for the past few weeks which has led to people in rural parts of the state getting test results back faster. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports what it's like to get tested where accessing hea	6:04			7:30			12:00
Navajo Families Await Justice After Utah Settles Gold King Mine Spill Case		Kate Groetzinger		Agriculture and		Host: The Gold King Mine spill released millions of gallons of toxic water into the San Juan River in 2015. Utah settled a lawsuit with the federal government over the spill last week. But, as KUER's Kate Groetzinger reports, Navajo families who live alon	0.04			7.00			12.00			17:04		18:32
Uprooted: The Eviction Crisis Beginning To Unfold		Noah Glick	04:20	Business, Economics and Finance	Feature	President Donald Trump signed an executive order Saturday that directs federal agencies to explore how they can help avoid mass evictions across the country. But as of now the eviction moratorium passed by Congress under the original stimulus bill has e			6:43			8:43						.0.02
Crisis	8/12/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:49	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Our region has the highest suicide rate in the nation. And if someone calls the national suicide hotline – they are connected to a local crisis center. Until yesterday {Tuesday}, there was just one state in the country without that local resource. The Mou		6:30			8:04
Qanon		Maggie Mullen	00:50	Politics and Government	Wrap	Since a handful of congressional candidates won primaries after embracing QAnon {PR: queue-uh-non}, it's possible the baseless conspiracy theory will soon have representation on Capitol Hill including someone in our region. The Mountain West News Burea									16:32		18:04
Hideout HearingHideout Annexation On Hold While Judge Weighs Decision		Emily Means	01:09	Politics and Government	Wrap	After a nearly 12 hour court hearing yesterday {Monday} the future growth of a small town in Wasatch County remains uncertain. KUER's Emily Means has more.	6:04			7:30			12:00
Mask Enforcement	8/11/2020	Amanda Peacher	00:52	Medicine and Health	Wrap	As school districts weigh how or when to reopen, they're grappling with how and when to ask students to wear masks. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports on how they might get kids to follow the rules.		6:30			8:04
Uprooted: The Eviction Crisis Beginning To Unfold	8/11/2020	Noah Glick	04:20	Business, Economics and Finance	Feature	President Donald Trump signed an executive order Saturday that directs federal agencies to explore how they can help avoid mass evictions across the country. But as of now the eviction moratorium passed by Congress under the original stimulus bill has e			6:43			8:43
The Right Hand Woman - Why Female Running Mates Are Everywhere In 2020		Caroline Ballard		Politics and Government		INTRO: Democratic Presidential Candidate Joe Biden announced this afternoon {Tuesday} Kamala Harris is his pick for Vice President. She is the first black woman to be chosen by a major political party for the role. Here in Utah, both candidates for Lieute			0.40			0.40			16:44				TRUE
Competition To Bring Equity To School Reopening Plans Announces Six Winners	8/11/2020	Jon Reed	00:57	Education	Wrap	Utah educators say the pandemic has exposed long-existing disparities between students of color or those from low income backgrounds with their more privileged peers. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, a competition along the Wasatch Front to find innovative								16:04			17:32
MMIW	8/11/2020	Savannah Maher	01:00	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	The Trump administration has launched a new effort to investigate cases of missing and murdered Indigenous people. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher {mar-er} reports.										17:04		18:32

		I
What Postponed College Sports				Business,		The Pac 12, Mountain West and Big Sky Conferences have all called off their fall football seasons. And that affects
Seasons Could Mean For Schools				Economics and		universities in Utah. KUER's Jessica Lowell has more on the
And Local Businesses	8/11/2020	Jessica Lowell	01:08	Finance	Wrap	financial impacts of a fall without college sports.							16:32			18:04
And Local Businesses	0/11/2020	J Jessica Lowell	01.00	Tillalice	ννιαρ								10.52			10.04
						College football was postponed Friday for some towns in our region due to the pandemic. The Big Sky conference says it will push the football season to the spring of 2021. The decision affects some big colleges including the University of Montana, the University of Idaho, Idaho State and Northern Business,		Colorado. Many towns such as Greeley, Colorado and
				Economics and		Moscow, Idaho rely on college football games to help boost
Football Cancelled	8/10/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:58	Finance	Wrap	the economy	6:30		7:30
		3,				Rural hospitals face major challenges, like a shortage of specialists and healthcare workers in general. That's Spurred By A Preventable Death, One	,					becoming especially acute during this pandemic. But an
Project Has Become A Major Tool To				Medicine and		established program born in our region has some of the
Combat COVID-19	8/10/2020	Madelyn Beck	04:12	Health	Feature	answers. The Mountain West News B		6:43			8:43
						President Donald Trump says his executive orders funds a $400 weekly supplement to unemployment benefits. But it likely won't be as helpful as it seems. The Mountain West
				Politics and		News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports // In a press release
Budget	8/10/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:51	Government	Wrap	today {Monday}, Utah republ							16:32			18:04
						As school districts weigh how or when to reopen, they're grappling with how and when to ask students to wear masks.
	0/40/0000		20.40			The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports								47.04			10.00
Mask Enforcement	8/10/2020	Amanda Peache	r 00:42	Education	Voicer	on how they might get kids to follow the rules.								17:04			18:32
						Host: As COVID-19 continues to spread across Utah, some Diametra Novacia a Llavas Cata Lla						nursing homes are converting to COVID care centers. From
Blanding Nursing Home Sets Up COVID-19 Care Unit As Need Across				Medicine and		KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the centers serve hospitals and other facilities that need to
State Grows		Kate Groetzinger	r 00:58	Health	Wrap	discharge patients.	6:30			8:04
State Grows	0/10/2020	Trate Grocizinger	00.00	ricatir	Wiap	distriction distri	0.00			0.04
						It's been more than 2 years since shared electric scooters hit
Salt Lake City Council May Roll				Business,		the streets of Salt Lake City. As KUER's Sonja Hutson
Forward With Scooter Solutions After				Economics and		reports, the city council could vote tomorrow night {Tuesday}
Two Years		Sonja Hutson	01:04	Finance	Wrap	to finalize a permanent ordinance to regulate them.						16:04			17:32
		,			'
						As many Utah schools get set to reopen this month, teachers
Worried About COVID In Classrooms,						along the Wasatch Front are voicing concerns about returning
Some Teachers Write Wills, Consider						to districts with plans they feel aren't safe. KUER's Jon Reed
Quitting	8/7/2020	Jon Reed	01:00	Education	Wrap	reports that's pushing some to extreme measures.						16:04			17:32
						A decades long project involving scientists around the world has produced a new 3D map of the universethe largest ever
3D Map Of Universe Gives Scientists						created. To find out more, I spoke with cosmologist Kyle
A Clearer Picture Of The Cosmos				Science and		Dawson of the University of Utah. He's the principal
And New Questions	8/7/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:12	Technology	Two-Way	investigator, and says								16:44			TRUE
						Grand Teton National Park announced yesterday {Thursday}
						it will invite volunteers to cull invasive mountain goats that
Grand Teton National Park Will Use				A soul so II		have been causing problems for the native bighorn sheep
Volunteer Culling To Remove Non-	0/7/0000	NA maia NA Ma	00.50	Agriculture and	Mag	herd. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen			7.00
Native Goats	8///2020	Maggie Mullen	00:53	Environment	Wrap	reports.			7:30

						Concerts and music festivals around the region have been
				Arts and		canceled due to COVID-19, but not all of them. The Mountain
EDM	8/7/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:43	Entertainment	Voicer	West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.					7:30
Interest In Utah's Paragliding Scene Soars As People Look For Alternative Activities	8/7/2020	Jon Reed	04:22	Arts and Entertainment	Feature	The coronavirus pandemic has forced major shifts across society, from where and how we work and go to school, to daily face-to-face interactions. And as KUER's Jon Reed reports it's also spurred some people to get outside and try new things like paragli			6:43				8:43
Some Utah Lawmakers Worry About Police Safety With Proposed Deadly Force Reforms	8/7/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:00	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	Some Utah state lawmakers are questioning whether suggestions to restrict when law enforcement can use deadly force could put those officers in more danger. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports the Salt Lake County District Attorney's office presented the prop		6:30	0		8	:04	12:00
EDM		Madelyn Beck	00:56	Arts and Entertainment	Wrap	Concerts and music festivals around the region have been canceled due to COVID-19, but not all of them. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.								16:32		18:04
St. George Ironman May Be One Of The First In North America Since Pandemic Began		Lexi Peery	01:02	Arts and Entertainment	Wrap	The Ironman is usually one of the biggest events in St. George with world class athletes across the country participating. It's been rescheduled from May to September and for now, it's going forward as planned. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peer	6:0	04			7:30		12:00
Prison Calls Amendments	8/6/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:38	Crime and Law Enforcement	Voicer	A Utah state lawmaker is pursuing a bill that would encourage a state regulator to cap the cost of phone calls in correctional facilities. KUER's Sonja Hutson has the details.		6:30	0		8	:04
Rental Assistance	8/6/2020	Noah Glick	01:01	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Millions of renters nationwide are at risk of eviction. In our region, one program is trying to help, and has already seen a surge of interest in its first two weeks. The Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports. Utah's Housing and Community Develop				7:04		8:30
Utah Legislators Discuss Policing Challenges For Operation Rio Grande	8/6/2020	Emily Means	01:01	Crime and Law Enforcement		It's been nearly three years since Operation Rio Grande launched, in an effort to address homelessness and drug use in a Salt Lake City neighborhood. As KUER's Emily Means reports, Utah lawmakers received an update on the initiative today {Thursday} durin									17:04		18:32
Rural Colorado Shows How Vaccination Messaging Is A Science				Medicine and		A vaccine against the virus behind COVID-19 offers the only certain return to normalcy. Even so, misinformation and conspiracy theories already abound and a vaccine hasn't been developed yet.
In Itself	8/6/2020	Rae Ellen Bichel	l 04:12	Health	Feature	It's an issue people have been trying to combat for other vac			6:43				8:43
Census Curtailed	8/5/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:47	Politics and Government	Wrap	The U.S. Census Bureau has announced it's ending the 2020 count a month early. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports, this will have a big impact on Indigenous communities in the region.									17:04		18:32
Environmental Lawsuit Says $30 Million Uinta Basin Railway Is A Misuse Of Oil And Mining Royalties	8/5/2020	Kate Groetzinger	r 01:04	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Environmental groups are suing a Utah state board that distributes oil and mining royalties to communities impacted by natural resource extraction. From KUER's southeast news bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the lawsuit involves a proposed railroad that c								16:32		18:04

UAMPS	8/5/2020 Kate Groetzing	ner 00:56	Politics and Government	Wrap	The Utah Taxpayers Association is asking members of a utility cooperative to pull out of a nuclear energy project that's been underway since 2008. KUER's Kate Groetzinger reports:		6:30			8:04
Cottonwood Heights City Council Discusses Police Response To Weekend Rally	8/5/2020 Emily Means	00:58	Politics and Government	Wrap	The Cottonwood Heights City Council held a work session last night {Tuesday} where they discussed the city's police response to protests over the weekend. As KUER's Emily Means reports, external and internal investigations of how police handled the event	6:04	0.50	7:04		0.04		12:00
Tourists Have 'Meaningful Impact' On Case Counts In Montana Counties Bordering Parks	8/4/2020 Nate Hegyi	00:53	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Tourism to Yellowstone and Glacier National Parks is humming along this summer despite the pandemic. But it appears out-of-staters are bringing more than just their money with them. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports.				7:30
Campus Testing	8/4/2020 Madelyn Beck	00:34	Education	Voicer	Several college campuses around the west plan to at least partially re-open in a few weeks. But a recent analysis finds they'll need a lot of testing to do that safely. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.		6:30				8:30	12:00
SLC Police Policy	8/4/2020 Emily Means	01:02	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	Salt Lake City's police department will operate a bit differently starting next month, after the city's mayor and police chief announced seven changes to policing policies yesterday {Monday} afternoon. KUER's Emily Means reports on the updates.	6:04		7:04				12:00
In Some Rural Utah Schools, 'Cowboy Up' Culture Clashes With COVID Concerns	8/4/2020 Jon Reed	01:05	Education	Wrap	Keeping students socially distant in school is one of the many challenges Utah districts face as they're set to reopen. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, it's easier for smaller districts to do so for them, the bigger issue will be tackling the culture around								16:04			17:32
Trump Signs Landmark Public Lands Bill	8/4/2020 Maggie Muller		Politics and Government	Wrap	President Trump signed the Great American Outdoors Act today {Tuesday}. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports, the bill will help pay for overdue maintenance on public lands in our region.								10.04		17:04	17.52	18:32
School HVAC	8/4/2020 Amanda Peac	ner 00:32	Education	Voicer	This month {August} the Mountain West News Bureau is curating community questions from across the region about COVID-19 and schools. One listener wondered: can school H-VAC systems transmit the virus? The News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.									16:32		18:04
As Rural Public Health Officials Face Criticism Over COVID-19 Measures, Some Call It Quits	8/4/2020 Nate Hegyi	04:28	Medicine and Health	Feature	From grocery store workers to nurses to E-M-Ts There are a lot of tough but necessary jobs to do during this pandemic. That includes public health officers, who are often in charge of coronavirus response at a local level. But since April, a wave of pu			6:43			8:43
Utah State Rep. Looks To Increase Special Education Funding — Again	8/3/2020 Sonja Hutson	01:05	Education	Wrap	After failing to get additional funding for special education in Utah earlier this year, a state lawmaker is trying again. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more.		6:30			8:04		12:00
Food Assistance Program Open For Eligible Utah Students Five Months After It Was Offered Federally	8/3/2020 Lexi Peery	01:12	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Federal Pandemic - E-B-T food assistance is now available in Utah. And state officials expect to send out around 50 million dollars. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on what this could mean for families that are experiencing food inse									16:32		18:04

						Federal leadership is cutting costs at the U.S. Postal Service in a way that could be backing up mail around the country. And now there are concerns about the effect that could have
LIODO and Mail In Dallata	0/0/0000	Madak va Daak	00.50	Politics and	Maria	on the November election. The Mountain West News						0.20		10.00
USPS and Mail In Ballots	8/3/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:59	Government	Wrap	Bureau's Madelyn Beck re Several college campuses around our region plan to at least						8:30		12:00
Campus Testing	8/3/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:51	Education	Wrap	partially re-open in a few weeks. But a recent analysis finds they'll need a lot of testing to do that safely. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.										17:04	4		18:32
Morgan County Election		Sonja Hutson	01:16	Politics and Government	Postcard	A month after the election, the Republican primary winner for a Morgan County Council seat was decided last night. They didn't get any new votes or do a recount it came down to chance. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports this hasn't	6:04			7:30									.000
As Coronavirus Pandemic Lets Up On Navajo, Food Assistance Needs		Conju Hateon	01.10	Business, Economics and	- Cottoura	The number of new coronavirus cases on the Navajo Nation is beginning to decrease, but the need for food assistance has not. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the Utah Navajo Health System is still	5.01			1.00
Remain	7/31/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:08	Finance	Wrap	providing groceries to hundreds		6:30			8:04
In Colorado, Your Stool Is a Tool In The Fight Against Coronavirus	7/31/2020	Luke Runyon	04:01	Medicine and Health	Feature	Right now there is no good way to predict where the next potential coronavirus outbreak will be. So far, testing relies on nasal swabs and, in some cases, a long wait for the results. But many states in the west are looking to get a handle on the disease			6:43				8:43
Purple Politics		Madelyn Beck	00:34	Politics and Government	Voicer	Democrats are pushing to turn the Senate blue this November, needing just four more seats. And two key races are in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.			0.10	7:04		8:30	0.10	12:00
School Ventilation		Nate Hegyi	00:49	Education	Wrap	This week {Thursday}, Colorado's governor said it's — quote — reasonably safe to reopen schools this fall. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Nate Hegyi finds out whether COVID-19 spreads more easily in poorly ventilated schools.				7.04		8.30		12.00		17:04	4		18:32
Triple Digit Temperatures In Utah Pose Health Risk For People Who Have More Trouble Beating The Heat	7/31/2020	Lexi Peery	01:08	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	The National Weather Service has issued excessive heat warnings and advisories for most of Utah — we're expecting triple digits temperatures through the weekend. From KUER's Southwest news bureau, Lexi Peery tells us how this affects people who may not ha									16:	.2		18:04
Teton Investigation		Maggie Mullen	00:51	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Grand Teton National Park is looking for more information about 50 or so people illegally riding dirt bikes through the park that destroyed fragile habitat. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.									16:	2		18:04
2020 Census: The Effort To Reach The FLDS Community	7/30/2020	Lexi Peery	00:59	Politics and Government	Wrap	The 2020 Census is wrapping up in three months. But traditional ways of gathering data have changed making some communities more difficult to reach without face-to-face interactions. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on the effort t		6:30			8:04
Yellowstone Positives Short		Amanda Peache	r 00:40	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Three visitors and two concessions employees at Yellowstone National Park have tested positive for COVID-19. National Parks are taking precautions against the virus, but it's not easy. Yellowstone National Park reported an increase in visitation over 2019				7:04		8:30

						There's more than one way to fight for racial justice While
How Black Republicans In Utah Weigh Party Politics Vs. Racial				Politics and		the liberal demand to defund the police has become a rallying cry in many recent protests in Salt Lake City and around the nation, some Black Republicans are taking a different tact. As
Equality	7/30/2020	Sonja Hutson	04:49	Government	Feature	KUER'			6:43					8:43
Fewer Juveniles Are Entering Utah's Justice System, But Racial Disparities Are Growing		Jon Reed	00:59	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	Utah has made a number of major reforms to its juvenile justice system over the last few years that have helped to divert children from detention centers to social programs. But as KUER's Jon Reed tells us a report released today {Thursday} says th											17:04			18:32
Top Utah Politicians Don't Support Trump's Suggestion To Delay November Election	7/30/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:08	Politics and Government	Wrap	Several Utah members of Congress along with Governor Gary Herbert are speaking out against President Donald Trump's call to delay November's presidential election. As KUER's Sonja Hutson reportsit's a debate about mail-in ballots.									16:04			17:32
Fake News	7/29/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:53	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Fake news and misinformation about the pandemic runs rampant these days. One of the culprits is the Sinclair Broadcast Group, which owns more than a dozen television stations across the region. Our Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports.										16:32			18:04
Yellowstone Positives	7/29/2020	Amanda Peache	00:31	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Three visitors and two concessions employees at Yellowstone National Park just tested positive for COVID-19. National Parks are taking precautions against the virus, but it's not easy. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.											17:04			18:32
Community Advocates Want Utah Lawmakers To Keep Affordable Housing A Priority During Pandemic		Emily Means	01:02	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Utah's housing advocates are gearing up for a rise in evictions with the end of federal pandemic assistance programs this month. As KUER's Emily Means reports community advocates are hoping the state uses lessons from the past to keep the issue of housin									16:04		17.04	17:32		10.02
As Prisons Cancel Visitation, The Phone Line Becomes A Life Line		Amanda Peache		Crime and Law Enforcement	Feature	Prison systems around our region are adapting policies to make it easier for inmates to stay in touch while visitations are off-limits during the pandemic. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.			6:43					8:43	10.04			17.52
Cell Phone Data	7/29/2020	Rae Ellen Bichell	00:48	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Public health officials in Southwest Colorado are using cell phone data to pin down which tourists are the most dangerous to their community when it comes to spreading COVID-19. Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL} reports.				7:04			8:30
Cowboy Up, Mask Up	7/29/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:41	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Despite overwhelming evidence to the contrary, wearing a mask is still controversial within some conservative, Western communities. That's prompted one doctor to write an op-ed telling libertarian-minded folks to 'cowboy up and mask up.' The Mountain West	6:04				7:30
Film Production In Utah Has Begun To Crawl Back		Jon Reed	01:03	Arts and Entertainment	Wrap	With big crews and lots of moving parts, film production has been one of the hardest hit industries during the coronavirus pandemic and one of the slowest to return. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, in Utah it's beginning to show signs of life.		6:30				8:04
Arts Adapt		Amanda Peache	00:31	Arts and Entertainment	Voicer	Across our region, theater and live gigs are offering virtual events, highlighting past performances, and engaging with the community in lieu of in-person gatherings. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.	6:04							12:00

Meat	7/28/2020	0 Madelyn Beck	00:58	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Meat-packing plants across the country and our region are under intense scrutiny as they continue to face COVID-19 outbreaks. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.			7:04		8:04
Portable Restrooms Installed Near Salt Lake City Ballpark Have Some Residents Worried About Safety	7/28/2020	0 Sonja Hutson	01:08	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Two portable restrooms opened yesterday {Monday} for people experiencing homelessness across the street from Smith's Ballpark in Salt Lake City. But, as KUER's Sonja Hutson reports, some residents are worried the restrooms will lead to more crime.	6:30			7:30		8:30
Border Town Pt 4		0 Bob Keating	04:01	Race, Identity and Culture	Feature	Covid -19 continues it's deadly march across much of the United States. And yet in Canada the virus seems to be under control. Could our attitudes as people play a role in that? The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and the Mountain West News Bureau have		6:43				8:43
Advocacy Groups Say Undocumented Utahns Excluded From $154 Million In Assistance During Pandemic		0 Emily Means	01:02	Immigration and Refugees	Wrap	A report released today {Tuesday} from two Utah advocacy groups says undocumented people in the state have been excluded from 154 million dollars in emergency assistance during the pandemic. As KUER's Emily Means reports, that has had a negative financ							16:04	1		17:32
Which Tourists Pose Greatest COVID- 19 Risk? Southwest Colorado Is Using Cell Phone Data To Find Out		0 Rae Ellen Bichell	00:49	Medicine and Health	Wrap	A Utah-based company called Domo {DOE-moe} is selling COVID-19 tracking services to public health agencies in the Mountain West. As Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL} reports, it shows where the greatest risk of COVID-19 may be coming from.									11	7:04		18:32
Physical Stress	7/28/2020	0 Jenny Brundin	00:26	Medicine and Health	Voicer	A new study from Colorado State University says that physical stress related to employment can accelerate brain aging and memory loss. Jenny Brundin of Colorado Public Radio has more.	6:04
Social Justice and Environmentalism: How Activists Say They're Connected	7/27/2020	0 Sonja Hutson	00:58	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Environmentalists in Utah are examining how conservation and social justice issues impact each other. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports on Latino Conservation Week, which wrapped up yesterday {Sunday}.	6:30)		7:30		8:30
Arts Adapt	7/27/2020	0 Amanda Peache	00:50	Arts and Entertainment	Wrap	Across our region, theaters and live gigs are offering virtual events, highlighting past performances, and engaging with the community in lieu of in-person gatherings. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.								16:32			18:04
Moab's Unemployment Numbers Are Down For Now, Along With Housing And Food Assistance Needs	7/27/2020	0 Kate Groetzinger	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Over a quarter of Grand County workers lost their job this spring because of the coronavirus pandemic. But as KUER's Kate Groetzinger reportscounty residents are starting to return to workand the need for food and housing assistance has declined.							16:04	1		17:32
Businesses In A Montana Border Town Suffer Without Traffic In And Out Of Canada	7/27/2020	0 Nate Hegyi	04:10	Race, Identity and Culture	Feature	The line that separates Canada and the U.S. is the world's longest international border and it is closed due to the pandemic. It's also separating two very different cultural approaches to COVID–19. Canadians are largely listening to their political le		6:43				8:43
Cat Of Garidaa				Medicine and	. Catale	There's a high demand for contact tracers across the nation. One university in our region is going to have 85 college students fill the gap once classes resume in the fall. The Mountain West News Bureau's Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL}		0.40				0.40
College Contact Tracers	7/27/2020	0 Rae Ellen Bichel	00:53	Health	Wrap	reports.	6:04				8:04

Mont Litab Dublic Cabania Diagnica In						Litab mubile selections inchine also at the start of a new
Most Utah Public Schools Planning In- Person Classes For This Fall, With	-					Utah public schools are inching closer to the start of a new year. Most of them have at least a rough plan for how that
Some Exceptions	7/2//2020	Jon Reed	01:06	Education	Wrap	might look. KUER's Jon Reed tells us what they're thinking.	6:0	4		7:30	1		12:00
Some Exceptions	1124/2020	Johneed	01.00	Luddation	vviap	The longest international border in the world has been closed	0.0	T		7.50			12.00 for four months and there's no reopening in sight. On both
				Business,		sides of the U-S - Canada border, the closure is crippling
Closed Border Leaves Fernie, B.C.'s				Economics and		communities that rely on travel and tourism from their
Tourism Economy Adrift	7/24/2020	Bob Keating	04:06	Finance	Feature	international nei			6:43				8:43
, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,		3			1	Experts are expecting a surge of mail-in ballots this
				Politics and		November due to the pandemic. Madelyn Beck reports on
Mail-In Wrap	7/24/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:48	Government	Wrap	how the Mountain West is prepared.		6:30			8:04
						"Wall of Moms" groups are now popping up all over the country. It's a response to the Trump administration's plan to send federal agents to Albuquerque and other U-S cities.
				Crime and Law		From the Mountain West News Bureau, Amanda Peacher
Wall of Moms	7/24/2020	Amanda Peacher	r 00:35	Enforcement	Voicer	reports.				7:04		8:30
						Almost everyone has had to change the way they live during
While Many Utahns Return To Usual						the pandemic. But as some people return to more normal
Activities, Disabled People Still				Medicine and		activities KUER's Emily Means reports many people with
Limited During The Pandemic	7/24/2020	Emily Means	01:05	Health	Wrap	disabilities can't.								16:04			17:32
						In 2019, there wasn't a single human injury caused by a grizzly bear throughout the Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem.
				Agriculture and		But that number is already to eight this year. The Mountain
Grizzly Attacks	7/24/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:47	Environment	Wrap	West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.									16:32			18:04
						There's a high demand for contact tracers across the nation.
						One university in our region is going to have 85 college
				NA adiata a anal		students fill the gap once classes resume in the fall. The
College Contact Tracers	7/24/2020	Rae Ellen Bichell	00.30	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Mountain West News Bureau's Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL}										17:04
College Contact Tracers	1/24/2020	Rae Ellen bichell	00.36	пеаш	voicei	reports.										17.04
20 Doonlo Evnorionaina						Throughout the pandemic, Utahns have heard the message
29 People Experiencing Homelessness Have Connected With				Business.		"stay safe by staying home." So what if you don't have a home? KUER's Emily Means tells us about a program that
Housing Through Salt Lake Pandemic				Economics and		provides temporary — and in some cases permanent —
Program		Emily Means	00:59	Finance	Wrap	shelter to people who are experiencin		6:30			8:04		12:00
			00.00			ononce to people time and on people time		0.0			0.0		.=.00
						The Bureau of Land Management named a new director for
New State BLM Director Has Close						Utah this week. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate
Ties To Local Officials And Wildlife				Agriculture and		Groetzinger reports Greg Sheehan has close relationships
Managers In Utah	7/23/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:30	Environment	Superspo	with local officials and wildlife managers in the state.										17:04			18:32
						Mounds of trash and debris have been appearing more often on public lands in Utah. KUER's Jessica Lowell tells us how Agriculture and		the state's Division of Wildlife Resources is trying to put an Extreme Littering	7/23/2020	Jessica Lowell	01:02	Environment	Wrap	end to it.	6:0	4		7:30)
						In mid-March, the Canadian and U-S governments agreed to essentially shut down their shared land border in an effort to Businesses In A Montana Border				Business,		stop the spread of COVID-19. Commercial trucks can still
Town Suffer Without Traffic In And	7/00/000	 	00.40	Economics and		pass through, but almost everyone else can't. And as this
Out Of Canada	//23/2020	Nate Hegyi	03:42	Finance	Feature	shutdown drags on, s			6:43		-		8:43
				Business,		The economy may be on life support due to COVID-19, but
Haveing Oaks Os say	7/00/0000	Nata III !	00:50	Economics and	14/	housing sales across the West are soaring. The Mountain							40.00
Housing Sales Soar V1	1/23/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:52	Finance	Wrap	West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi explains.							12:00

						The LLC Consus is underwest. The Mountain West Name
				Politics and		The U-S Census is underway. The Mountain West News
POC Census	7/23/2020	Noch Cliek	00:32		Voicer	Bureau's Noah Glick reports that communities of color are			7:04		8:30
POC Census	112312020	Noan Gilck	00.32	Government	voicei	particularly vulnerable to under-representation this year.			7.04		6.30
						Utah is consistently above the national average for jail deaths per capita. In fact, in 2016, Utah had the third most of any Accounts Of 'Cruelty' And						state. While officials say they've made improvements,
'Indifference' At Salt Lake County Jail				Crime and Law		KUER's Emily Means reports activists and former inmates
Have Some Calling For Reform	7/22/2020	Emily Means	04:38	Enforcement	Feature	want more.			6:43			8:43
						A bill to permanently finance the federal Land and Water
				Agriculture and		Conservation Fund received final congressional approval
Great American Outdoors Act	7/22/2020	Elaine Clark	00:47	Environment	Voicer	today {Wednesday}. KUER's Elaine Clark has more.								1	6:32			18:04
						The races in Utah's June primary election have been decided for more than a week. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports that Politics and		counties across the state finalized the results yesterday
Election Results Certified	7/22/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:36	Government	Voicer	{Tuesday}.			7:04
						Public health agencies across the country are widely underfunded, according to a recent report from Kaiser Health
Limited Public Health Funding						News. KUER's Jon Reed reports that's true in Utah, too,
Hampered Coronavirus Response,				Medicine and		where COVID-19 cases have begun to surge in record
	7/22/2020	Ion Dood	01:36		Cuparana		6:04			7:30		1	2:00
Paused Normal Operations	112212020	Jon Reed	01.30	Health	Superspo	numbers.	0.04			7.30		I	2.00
						Fifteen conservation groupsfrom across the Mountain
						West have sent a letter to federal agencies asking them to Conservations Ask Agencies To Dela	y					pause the environmental review for the proposed Northern
Northern Corridor Environmental				Agriculture and		Corridor. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery
Review Due To Nearby Wildfires	7/22/2020	Lexi Peery	00:56	Environment	Wrap	reports on environmental							16	:04			17:32
						While races in Utah's June primary election have been decided for more than a week, counties across the state are
				Politics and		finalizing the results today (Tuesday). KUER's Sonja Hutson
Election Results Certified	7/21/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:36	Government	Voicer	has more.													18:32
						62-percent of households in Utah have completed the 2020 census. But that number drops below 10-percent on the
Census Officials Blame COVID-19 Fo	r					Navajo Nation. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate
Navajo Nation's Low Response Rate,				Politics and		Groetzinger reports that COVID-19 is partially to blame for
Which Is Under 10%	7/21/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:00	Government	Wrap	that low response rate.										17:04		18:04
Timorrie Criadi 1070	172172020	rate crost_inger	01.00	Covernment	map	Nationally, the domestic abuse hotline has seen an uptick in										11.01		10.01
						calls since the start of the coronavirus pandemic. That trend
				Medicine and		that is reflected in our region. The Mountain West News
Domestic Violence	7/21/2020	Amanda Peacher	00:47	Health	Wrap			6:30			8:04
Domestic violence	1/21/2020	Amanua Peacher	00.47	пеаш	vviap	Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.		0.30			0.04
Little Otata D						A Utah state representative is pursuing a resolution to honor
Utah State Representative To				Outro		law enforcement and first responders.
Introduce Resolution Honoring Law				Crime and Law		At the same time, protests against police brutality continue
Enforcement And First Responders	7/21/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:05	Enforcement	Wrap	across the country. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports.	6:04			7:30		1	2:00
						President Trump's nominee for head of the Bureau of Land Management is facing renewed pushback and a lawsuit. The Agriculture and		Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck has more on
Pendley Nomination	7/21/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:59	Environment	Wrap	the new pick.							16	:04			17:32
Tourism Towns Weigh The						Since June, tourist towns in Utah have been attracting
Importance Of Health And The				Business,		summer vacationers looking to get out of the house.
Economy During Summer Months In				Economics and		KUER's Jessica Lowell has more on what that means for one
A Pandemic	7/20/2020	Jessica Lowell	01:04	Finance	Wrap	town's health and economy.	6:04			7:30
	===			1 12		,,	-

Utah Ranks Third In Nation For Acreage Burned In 2020 Due To Wildfires, 82% Human Caused	7/20/2020	Lexi Peery	01:07	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Utah is ranked third in the country in the number of acres burned in 2020 due to wildfires, according to stats recently released by the National Interagency Fire Center. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on a concerning trend for this						16:04			17:32
Domestic Violence	7/20/2020	Amanda Peache	or 00:37	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Nationally, the domestic abuse hotline has seen an uptick in calls since the start of the coronavirus pandemic in early March. And that trend is reflected in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.								17:04		18:32
Testing Delays		Madelyn Beck	00:40	Medicine and Health	Wrap	COVID-19 cases are still increasing around the region, and the wait times for getting test results are getting longer for many. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.						16:32		17.04		18:04
BYU Researcher Says The Science Is Crystal Clear: Wear A Mask		Caroline Ballard	04:53	Medicine and Health	Two-Way	A research team at Brigham Young University has put together a guide to make sense of the science behind masks. Spoiler alert - you should be wearing them. Assistant professor of ecosystem ecology Dr. Ben Abbott told me he had his lab put together the fi							16:44			TRUE
Park Privatization	7/20/2020	Noah Glick	00:37	Politics and Government	Voicer	The Department of Interior is proposing a rule change that could open the door for more private companies to operate within national parks. The Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports.	6:30		8:04
Salt Lake Protests Continue With Calls To Repeal State Law Limiting Police Review	7/20/2020	Jon Reed	01:05	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	Demonstrations for police reform continued Saturday night in Salt Lake City, as more than 100 people gathered at the state Capitol. KUER'S Jon Reed reports activists are demanding the repeal of a state law that limits police review boards.	6:30		8:04		12:00
More Rural Utahns In Mental Health Crises Can Get Responses from Social Workers Instead Of Police	7/20/2020	Sonja Hutson	04:18	Medicine and Health	Feature	Utah lawmakers were faced with some tough choices last month they had to cut 850 million dollars from the state budget to make up for lost tax revenue due to the coronavirus pandemic. Most new funding was cut But KUER's Sonja Hutson reports on a rura		6:43		8:43
Salt Lake County DA Says When It Comes To Use-Of-Force, Change Should Start With The Law		Caroline Ballard		Crime and Law Enforcement		In his decade in office, Salt Lake County District Attorney Sim Gill estimates he has reviewed nearly one hundred uses of deadly force by police officers. That includes clearing the officers who shot and killed Bernardo Palacios-Carbajal on May 23rd. He h							16:44			TRUE
Park Privatization	7/17/2020	Noah Glick	00:52	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	The Department of Interior is proposing a rule change that could open the door for more private companies to operate within national parks. The Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports.						16:32				18:04
Trump's Overhaul Of Environmental Protection Law Could Have Big Impacts In Utah, If It Stands	7/17/2020	Kate Groetzinge	r 01:03	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Host: Moab businesses and elected officials are calling on the Bureau of Land Management to cancel a controversial oil and gas lease sale in Utah this fall. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the sale could also be subject to less								17:04		18:32
				Medicine and		Utah is one of 18 states identified as a coronavirus "red zone." The White House Coronavirus Task Force made this designation in a report. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports Utah received the designation for both its case counts and test
COVID Red Zone	7/17/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:37	Health	Voicer	positivity rates.					12:00	16:04			17:32

RV Business Booms As The 'Pandemic Demographic' Hits The Road	7/17/2020	Maggie Mullen	03:45	Business, Economics and Finance	Feature	U-S air travel is down, and hotel occupancy remains low. However, one part of the tourism economy is attracting new customers even amidst a pandemic. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports, more Americans are looking to RVs and trailers			6:43					8:43
Colorado Mask Mandate		Rae Ellen Bich	ell 00:54	Medicine and Health	Wrap	About half of our region now mandates masks in public, as Colorado came on board yesterday. A large and ever-growing body of evidence shows masks can dramatically reduce the spread of COVID-19. The Mountain West News Bureau's Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL}		6:30				8:04
With San Juan County Split Over Back To School Preferences, School District Creates Flexible Plan		Kate Groetzing	er 01:07	Education	Wrap	Host: School will likely look very different in the northern and southern regions of San Juan County this year. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the county's school district surveyed parents to come up with a flexible plan, whic	6:04				7:30		8:30
Legal Aid V1	7/16/2020	Amanda Peach	er 00:51	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	One law group in our region is the latest to join a national effort to provide free legal advice and resources for business owners navigating the COVID-19 crisis. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.		6:30					8:30
Why COVID Data Doesn't Always Show The Full Picture	7/16/2020	Jon Reed	01:01	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Throughout the pandemic, state and local health departments have been keeping close track of coronavirus patients. The data is needed to get a better sense of who is contracting the virus and why. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, Utah and other states aren	6:04			7:04		8:04
Legal Aid V2	7/16/2020	Amanda Peach	er 00:24	Business, Economics and Finance	Voicer	One law group in our region is the latest to join a national effort to provide free legal advice and resources for business owners navigating the COVID-19 crisis. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.					7:30
After GOP Primary, Campaign Cash In 4th Congressional District Race Incredibly Lopsided	7/16/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:05	Politics and Government	Wrap	Following the Republican primary, the race for Utah's 4th Congressional District is QUITE lopsided when it comes to campaign donations. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports on the candidates' latest filings with the federal election committee.										16:32			18:04
COVID Numbers	7/16/2020	Ross Terrell	00:46	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Utah's health department announced 954 new cases of COVID-19 today {Thursday}. But as KUER's Ross Terrell reports, that number isn't quite as bad as it seems.											17:04			18:32
Outdoor Investment	7/16/2020	Noah Glick	00:51	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	As the pandemic wears on, leaders across the country are exploring ways to recover economically. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports, some senators in our region are calling for more outdoor recreation spending.									16:04			17:32
Despite Local Church Leaders' Pleas, Some Latter-day Saints Refuse To Wear Masks		Lexi Peery	01:02	Religion	Wrap	Utah leaders for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints sent a letter to members last week urging them to wear a mask and to be good citizens. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on how it may not have done much to change member									16:04			17:32
Pandemic Complicates Tribes' Quest				Medicine and		COVID-19 has hit Indigenous communities hard. It's also bringing up a big question: Who owns health data when it comes to tribes? As the Mountain West News Bureau's Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL} reports, the answer is complicated									10.04			17.02
For Data Sovereignty	7/15/2020	Rae Ellen Bich	ell 04:31	Health	Feature	// OUTRO: In Utah, the			6:43					8:43

Mortages	7/15/2020	Noah Glick	00:58	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	The number of Americans falling behind on their mortgage payments is on the rise. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports, that includes many in our region // {OPT: In April, 3 point 7 percent of borrowers in Utah were behind on their mortga			7:04			8:30
Bill Prohibiting Campaigns From Collecting Sealed Mail-In Ballots Proposed In Utah	7/15/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:55	Politics and Government	Wrap	A Utah lawmaker plans to sponsor a bill that would prohibit organizations, like political campaigns, from turning in voters' ballots for them. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports it could be considered in a special session of the state Legislature next month.		6:30			8:04		12:00
Parents Protest Preview		Jessica Lowell	01:05	Education	Wrap	Some parents in Salt Lake City plan to gather tonight {Wednesday} to push back against remote learning for their children this fall. KUER's Jessica Lowell reports on why parents are trying to get their kids back in school.	6:04			7:30			12:00
CDC Data	7/15/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:53	Medicine and Health Business,	Wrap	The Trump administration started re-routing hospital COVID-19 data today {Wednesday} away from a public C-D-C database to a closed Health and Human Services one. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck got reaction in our region: As local newspapers decline across the region, partisan								16:32		18:04
Partisan News	7/14/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:44	Economics and Finance	Wrap	online news sites are popping up. Our Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports on the trend. The number of Americans falling behind on their mortgage payments is on the rise. As the Mountain West News									17:32
Mortgages	7/14/2020	Noah Glick	00:42	Business, Economics and Finance	Voicer	Bureau's Noah Glick reports, that includes many in our region. // {OPT: In April, 3 point 7 percent of borrowers in Utah were behind on their mortg								16:32			18:32
More Control, Lower Costs — Why Some Salt Lake Communities Are Leaving The Unified Police Department	7/14/2020	Emily Means	01:02	Politics and Government	Wrap	The Midvale City Council recently stalled on a decision to pull out of the Unified Police Department and Taylorsville has voted to exit the organization. KUER's Emily Means explains what the U-P-D is and why cities are leaving.	6:04	ı	7:04			8:30	12:00
New Report Shows Growing Gap Between Rent And Wages In Utah	7/14/2020	Emily Means	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Utah renters would need to make almost 20 dollars an hour to afford an average two-bedroom home. But the average renter makes about five dollars less than that. KUER's Emily Means reports, the coronavirus pandemic has put extra attention on the need for a								16:32		18:04
CDC Tribal Data	7/14/2020	Rae Ellen Bichell	I 00:51	Medicine and Health	Wrap	A group of senators including some from the Mountain West region are calling on the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to explain why it appears to be withholding COVID-19 data from tribal epidemiologists. The Mountain West News Bureau's Rae		6:30			8:04
Bison	7/13/2020	Kamila Kudelska	00:33	Agriculture and Environment	Voicer	The National Park Service is reevaluating how it manages Yellowstone's Bison. It hasn't conducted a management review since the early 2000's. The Mountain West News Bureau's Kamila {cuh-MEE-luh} Kudelska {coo-DELL-skuh} takes a look at what's at stake.				7:30			12:00
So You Became A Republican For The June Primary. What Now?	7/13/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:59	Politics and Government	Wrap	In the two months leading up to the June Republican primary election, more than 73-thousand Utahns registered with the party. Some voters even temporarily switched their affiliations to participate. KUER's Sonja Hutson explains what voters need to know ab		6:30			8:04

St. George Resident Calling On Mayor To Help Latino Population By Mandating Masks	7/13/2020	Lexi Peery	01:05	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Over 40% of COVID-19 cases in Utah are in the Latinx community but they only make up about 14% of the state's population. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on how it's affecting Latinx people in Southwest Utah.	•	i:04		7:04		8:30	12	.00
Coronavirus Outbreak At Blanding Nursing Home Raises Questions About Facility's Mask Policy	7/13/2020	Kate Groetzinger	r 00:57	Medicine and Health	Wrap	At least 50 people at a nursing home in Blanding have tested positive for COVID-19, after an employee contracted the virus in June. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the outbreak has raised questions about the facility's mask pol										17:04		18:32
Pacificorp Inquiry	7/13/2020	Cooper McKim	00:50	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	One state in our region is balking at Pacificorp's {hard p} 20 year plan to transition away from coal and towards renewables. The Mountain West News Bureau's Cooper McKim reports Wyoming is holding hearings on the move this week // TAG: Pacificorp's Hunti											17:32
Wildfire Study	7/10/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:41	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Lots of wildfire smoke in the summer can lead to more flu outbreaks in the winter. That's the conclusion of a new study published in the peer-reviewed journal Environment International. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi explains.					7:30
DA's Ruling On Salt Lake Police Shooting Sparks Protests, State Of Emergency	7/10/2020	Ross Terrell	01:10	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	Governor Gary Herbert has declared a state of emergency until July 13thafter protests in Salt Lake City turned volatile last night {Thursday}. KUER's Ross Terrell has more on what led to the civil unrest.	•	5:04		7:04		8:30	12	:00
Prison Calls	7/10/2020	Amanda Peache	er 00:43	Crime and Law Enforcement	Voicer	Most prisons and jails have stopped allowing visitors because of the coronavirus pandemic. But some prison systems in theregion are adapting policies to make it easier for inmates to stay in touch. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.					8:04
Humpback Chub 'Alien Abductions' Help Frame the Future of the Colorado River	7/10/2020	Judy Fahys	04:05	Agriculture and Environment	Feature	Field research in the Grand Canyon is just restarting after being banned all spring as a coronavirus precaution. Reporter Judy Fahys {FAZE} of InsideClimate News visited last year, before the pandemic, and discovered why this data-gathering is crucial for			6:43				8:43
The Role Black Homeownership Plays In Wealth And Voter Turnout		Caroline Ballard	04:43	Business, Economics and Finance	Two-Way	Home ownership among Black Americans is at its lowest level since 1968. That's according to a new study out of Brigham Young University published in the journal Race and Social Problems. As of last year, just 41 percent of Black Americans owned homes,										16:44		TRUE
Bishop Opposes Automatic Funding For Popular Conservation Program, Slows Passage Of Legislation	7/10/2020	Kate Groetzinger	r 01:01	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Republican Congressman Rob Bishop has temporarily blocked passage of the Great American Outdoors Act which would guarantee annual funding for a popular conservation program. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the bill is still										17:04		18:32
Testing Shortage		Nate Hegyi	00:54	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Some communities in the Mountain West are facing testing delays and shortages as the number of COVID–19 cases reach record highs across the country. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports. // {OPT OUTCUE: Utah reported its largest single day i									16:32			18:32

Lake Powell Pipeline Route Runs						The draft environmental impact statement for the Lake Powell Pipeline is currently under public review. But the Kaibab {KYE-bab} Band of Paiute Indians live on the land where it's
Through Sacred Land, Says Southern Paiute Tribe		Lexi Peery	01:02	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	supposed to be built. As KUER's Southwest news bureau's Lexi Peery reports		6:30			8:04
Salt Lake City Police Use Of Force Ruled Justified In Killing Of Bernardo Palacios- Carbajal		Emily Means	01:10	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	Salt Lake County District Attorney Sim Gill ruled this morning {Thursday} that police officers were justified in their use of deadly force against Bernardo Palacios-Carbajal. KUER's Emily Means has more.		3.00			0.0 .			16:04			17:32
WR Renewables		Cooper McKim	00:56	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	A large western utility is officially asking developers for proposals to fulfill an ambitious scaling-up of its renewable capacity. It's part of Pacificorp's {PR: hard p on end} 20-year energy plan. Cooper McKim reports.				7:30
Prison Calls	7/9/2020	Amanda Peacher	00:56	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	Most prisons and jails have stopped allowing visitors because of the coronavirus pandemic. But some prison systems in our region are adapting policies to make it easier for inmates to stay in touch. The Mountain West News Bureau's Amanda Peacher reports.										17:04		18:32
COVID Move		Noah Glick	00:46	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Millions of Americans have relocated due to the coronavirus pandemic. That's according to a recent survey from the Pew Research Center. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports, most movers are young adults.				7:30						11.01		10102
Airborne	7/8/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:38	Medicine and Health	Voicer	There's significant evidence that the novel coronavirus can spread through tiny particles that linger in the air. And now there's a free tool to measure those risks. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.						8:30
As State Reopens, Some Large Events Are Coming Back. Others Might Take A While.	7/8/2020	Jon Reed	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Big events were one of the first things to go as the coronavirus pandemic took hold. But now, as Utah begins to reopen, some events are coming back. KUER's Jon Reed has more on how that can happen.								16:04			17:32
Nez CARES Act	7/8/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:06	Politics and Government	Wrap	The Navajo Nation is asking Congress for a one year extension to use its federal CARES Act funding. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more on today's {Wednesday} request.									16:32		18:0	4
Trump Support		Nate Hegyi	00:47	Politics and Government	Voicer	Nearly two-thirds of residents in the Mountain West believe Trump isn't doing a good job handling the pandemic. That's according to a new survey from researchers at Harvard, Rutgers, Northeastern and Northwestern Universities. The Mountain West News Burea												18:32
Local Residents Call For Price Police						Price and Helper city residents have revived calls for the Price City police chief to step down. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger
Chief's Removal, Three Years After Racist Facebook Comments	7/8/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:32	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspor	reports that calls for his resignation first came in 2017, after the officer posted derogatory comments o	6:04		7:04				12:00
		j		Politics and		Nearly two-thirds of residents in the Mountain West believe Trump isn't doing a good job handling the pandemic. That's according to a new survey from researchers at Harvard, Rutgers, Northeastern and Northwestern Universities. The
Trump Support	7/8/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:27	Government	Voicer	Mountain West News Burea										17:04

					The U.S. Military could gain control over a huge swath of land
				Military, War and	in our region. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports, that comes at the expense of the largest wildlife
Military Expansion	7/7/2020	Noah Glick	00:56	Veterans Wrap	refuge in the lower 48.				7:30
Little Cottonwood Canyon Traffic Plan Public Comment Period Closes This Week	7/7/2020	Jon Reed	01:02	Business, Economics and Finance Wrap	Plans are moving forward to tackle traffic on one of Utah's most crowded ski roads — Little Cottonwood Canyon. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, the public comment period for the proposals ends this week.			7	:04		8:30	12:00
Elections		Emily Means	00:47	Politics and Government Voicer	Utah Lieutenant Governor Spencer Cox has won the Republican primary for governor, according to the Associated Press. KUER's Emily Means has an update on election	6:04				8:04	0.00	12.00		16:32
Utah Gubernatorial Candidates Set Their Campaign Focus on Coronavirus Pandemic, Education	7/7/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:52	Politics and Government Wrap	Utah Republicans have selected Lieutenant Governor Spencer Cox as their nominee for Utah Governor. Cox will now face Democrat and University of Utah Law Professor Chris Peterson in the general election KUER's Sonja Hutson has more on what to expect from										17:04		18:32
Airborne	7/7/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:54	Medicine and Health Wrap	There's significant evidence that the novel coronavirus can spread through tiny particles that linger in the air. And now there's a free tool to measure those risks. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.											17:32	18:32
AG Race	7/6/2020	Emily Means	01:06	Politics and Government Wrap	The Associated Press has declared Sean Reyes the Republican nominee for Utah attorney general. As KUER's Emily Means reports, the Democratic candidate for the office says Reyes motivated him to run.								16:04	L		17:32
Military Expansion	7/6/2020	Noah Glick	00:35	Military, War and Voicer	The U.S. Military could gain control over a huge swath of land in our region. But, as the Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports, that comes at the expense of the largest wildlife refuge in the lower 48th.										17:04		18:32
Biz Extension	7/6/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:48	Business, Economics and Finance Wrap	Small business owners now have until August 8th to apply for relief loans, also known as the Payroll Protection Program. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.										17:04		18:32
Kroger Health Gets FDA Approval For At-home COVID-19 Tests. But What Are The Risks And Benefits?		Jessica Lowell	01:00	Medicine and Health Wrap	The FDA has approved an AT-HOME COVID-19 test from Kroger Health. Owned by the same Company that owns the Smith's grocery chain. The test will be available to Utah companies and organizations by the end of the month. KUER's Jessica Lowell has more on the		6:30			8:04		12:00
Family Members Say More Should Have Been Done To Prevent Washington County Jail COVID-19		230.03. 20.001	333	Crime and Law	Over 90 inmates at Washington County's jail have tested positive for COVID-19. Concerned family members held a candlelight vigil outside Purgatory Correctional Facility Friday night.		3.30			5.51		12.00
Outbreak	7/6/2020	Lexi Peery	01:06	Enforcement Wrap	From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports	6:04		7	:04
Tribal Voting (Short)	7/3/2020	Noah Glick	00:31	Politics and Government Voicer	Historically the voting process has been especially difficult for tribal communities. The Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports that this election year, senators in the region are asking the federal government to do more.						8:30
Tribal Voting (Long)		Noah Glick	00:39	Politics and Government Voicer	Historically the voting process has been especially difficult for tribal communities. The Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports that this election year, senators in the region are			7	:04		5.55

As Stressors Mount, Video Games Can Offer A Healthy Escape,				Medicine and		Between a global pandemic, the economic downtown and civil unrest across the country, Americans are facing high levels of stress and uncertainty. And many are turning to video games for relief. The Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick
Researcher Says	7/3/2020	Noah Glick	04:02	Health	Feature	explores whether t			6:43				8:43
Not Everyone Is Celebrating Freedom And Equality This Fourth Of July - Part I Utah Black Activists		Jon Reed	01:00	Race, Identity and Culture	Pinwheel	July 4th is often seen as a day to reflect on American values and celebrate freedom. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, some of this year's celebrations are complicated								16:32			18:04
Not Everyone Is Celebrating Freedom And Equality This Fourth Of July - Part II Navajo		Kate Groetzinger		Race, Identity and Culture		Like Black Americans, some Native Americans have a tense relationship with Independence day. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger brings us one perspective from the Navajo Nation.								16:32			18:04
Radicalization Guide		Rae Ellen Bichell		Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	Researchers have released a new guide for parents in this time of unrest both from the pandemic and protests. It's about how to keep their kids from being recruited by extremists online. The Mountain West Bureau's Rae Ellen Bichell {bih-SHELL} reports.								10.32	17:04		18.04	18:32
Pandemic Conditions Are Forcing Some Teachers To Reconsider The Profession	7/3/2020	Jon Reed	01:38	Education	Superspo	The coronavirus pandemic has fundamentally changed education in Utahas it was thrown from the classroom to the computer. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, that along with other challenges teachers face are making some question if they can stick to it.	6:0)4			8:04
Tribal Voting	7/2/2020	Noah Glick	01:01	Politics and Government	Wrap	Historically the voting process has been especially difficult for tribal communities. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports this election year senators in our region are asking the federal government to do more.									17:04			18:32
Irish Myth	7/2/2020	Nate Hegyi	01:10	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	As Black Lives Matter rallies happen across the region, some counter protesters and militia members are giving new life to an old myth. Mountain West News Bureau reporter Nate Hegyi explains.				7:04		8:30
Parents And Kids Choose Between Summer Camp Through A Screen Or From Six Feet Apart		Jessica Lowell	04:32	Education	·	School is out for the summer but that's after half the semester got moved online due to the COVID-19 pandemic. And with cases soaring in Utah, the health crisis has affected summer plans. KUER's Jessica Lowell has more on how some parents are handling			6:43				8:43
Federal And State Officials Try To Better Understand Missing And Murdered Indigenous Women Cases	7/2/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:31	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspo	State and federal officials are launching new efforts to address the issue of missing and murdered Indigenous women in Utah. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports this comes after a nationwide study called attention to the issue.	6:0	14			8:04		12:00
With Thousands Of Ballots Left, Primary Election Totals Likely Won't Come Until At Least Next Week		Emily Means	01:10	Politics and Government	Wrap	County clerks in Utah are still counting ballots from Tuesday's primary election and, as KUER's Emily Means reports, they probably will be until at least next week.	0.0				0.01		12.00	16:32			18:04
Primary Results V2	7/1/2020	Diane Maggipinto	05:27	Politics and Government	Two-Way	Shortened Update on Utah Primary Results							8:43
				Race, Identity		As Black Lives Matter rallies continue across our region, Some counter protesters and militia members are giving new life to an old myth. Our Mountain West News Bureau's Nate									,			10.00
Irish Myth	//1/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:41	and Culture	Voicer	Hegyi explains.									17:04	•		18:32

Hazardous Prayer	7/1/2020) Madelyn Beck	00:56	Religion	Wrap	Churches were among the first places to welcome people back as our region reopened. And that could have dire consequences. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports. // The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is doing a phased reopening									16:32		18:04
Anthropause	7/1/2020) Maggie Mullen	00:53	Science and Technology	Wrap	Human activity in much of the world has slowed down thanks to the pandemic. Wildlife scientists say it's created a unique opportunity to study how we affect animals. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.		6:	30			8	30
Burgess Owens Wins 4th Congressional District GOP Primary. Governor, AG Races Still Undecided.	7/1/2020	Diane Maggipinto	07:09	Politics and Government	Two-Way	Update on Utah Primary Results	Format breaking: 6:50		6:4	13
Grand County Council Is Seeking Permission From Governor To Require Masks In Moab	7/1/2020) Kate Groetzinger	01:00	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Visitors to Moab may have to start wearing masks. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the Grand County Council voted last night {Tuesday} to ask the governor for permission to implement the new rule.		6:04		7:0	04	3:04	12:00
Hillyard Ousted) Sonja Hutson	00:55	Politics and Government	Wrap	In a stunning upset, it appears that Republican state senator Lyle Hillyard has been ousted by a political newcomer after nearly 40 years in Utah's legislature. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports the senator trails businessman Chris Wilson by about 25%.								16:04		17:32	