Headline	Air Date Reporter	Length	h FCC Category	Story Type		Special	ME 6:04	ME 6:30	ME 6:43	ME 7:04	ME 7:30	ME 8:04	ME 8:30	ME 8:43	Noon	ATC 4:04	ATC 4:32	ATC 4:44	ATC 5:04	ATC 5:32	ATC 5:44	ATC 6:04	ATC 6:32	ATC 6:44
GOP Gubernatorial Candidate					In the lead up to the November election, we're bringing you conversations with both major party candidates for Utah's open governor's seat. This afternoon
Spencer Cox On Local Government Experience And Mental Health Outreach	10/1/2020 Sonja Hutson	04:44	Politics and Government	Two-Way	{Thursday}, KUER's Sonja Hutson talks with Republican Lieutenant Governor Spencer Cox, who's played													16:44						18:44
Democrat For Governor Chris Peterson On COVID-19 Response, Suicide Prevention And Police			Politics and		In the lead up to the November election, we're bringing you conversations with both major candidates for Utah's open governor's seat. This morning (Thursday), KUER's Sonja Hutson talks with Democrat Chris
Reform Winter Is Coming. It May Be Time To	10/1/2020 Sonja Hutson	04:44	Government	Two-Way	Peterson, a law professor at the University of Uta Winter is coming, and with it a new challenge to outdoor socializing. One option is to get exclusive with a small				6:43					8:43
Start A 'Quaranteam' If You Haven't Already	10/1/2020 Rae Ellen Bichell	01:03	Medicine and Health	Wrap	group of people, known to some as a "bubble." Rae Ellen Bichell (bih-SHELL) reports.					7:04			8:30
Why This Washington County Republican Values Foreign And Economic Policy Over Candidate Rhetoric	10/1/2020 Sonja Hutson	01:42	Politics and Government	Superspot	This week, we are bringing you profiles of voters from across Utah. And today, KUER's Sonja Hutson brings you the story of a Republican voter in Washington County who says he may not love the President's rhetoric but supports him because of his policies											16:04				17:32
			Crime and Law		Parole officers in Utah will receive increased training on racial profiling AND how and when to conduct home searches. KUER's Kate Groetzinger reports that's due to a settlement reached yesterday (Wednesday),
ACLU Fourth Amendment	10/1/2020 Kate Groetzinger	00:30	Enforcement	Voicer	between the A-C-L-U of Utah and the Department A bipartisan group of western lawmakers have signed onto a new federal bill that aims to reduce the damages		6:04				7:30)
Fire Suppression	10/1/2020 Madelyn Beck	01:01	Agriculture and Environment		of wildfire. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.														17:04				18:32
Nonprofits Turn To Public For Photo Monitoring Project In Grand Staircase	4040000		Agriculture and		Grand Staircase Escalante is a remote area that is constantly changing. Thanks to photos from researchers, nonprofits like Grand Staircase Escalante Partners can track those changes and now they're
Escalante How Will Latter-day Saint Leaders	10/1/2020 Lexi Peery	01:02	Environment	Wrap	asking the public for help. From KUER's Southwest new This weekend is the October General Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. As Church leaders prepare to speak virtually to members in Utah			6:30)			8:04
Address The Moment In October's General Conference?	10/2/2020 Lexi Peery	00:53	Religion	Wrap	and across the globe, KUER's Lexi Peery reports on how some hope the Church will address the											16:04				17:32
Money And Human Rights Issues Top Of Mind For Young, Unaffiliated Davis County Voter	10/2/2020 Emily Means	01:37	Politics and Government	Superspot	This week, we've brought you stories of voters across Utah. For our last story, KUER's Emily Means talks with an unaffiliated voter from Davis County about the issues that matter to her as a young person.														17:04				18:32	2
More Than 45,000 Call For Closure Of Provo Canyon School In Online Petition	10/2/2020 David Fuchs	01:06	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Earlier this week, Paris Hilton launched an online petition calling for the closure of Provo Canyon School, a youth residential treatment center. And as KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) reports, her call to arms is gaining traction.			6:30				8:04
Grand County Wins Lawsuit, Giving Voters The Option To Keep Current Form Of Government	10/2/2020 Kate Groetzinger	01:05	Politics and Government	Voicer	A two-year-long process to change Grand County's form of government may be coming to an end. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the county won a lawsuit yesterday (Thursday) that will give voters multiple choices on Election Day.		6:04				7:30
COVID Update	10/5/2020 Emily Means	00:39	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Yesterday (Sunday), Utah's Department of Health reported the second highest number of COVID-19 cases in a single day since the start of the pandemic. KUER's Emily Means has more.		6:04				7:30
Solar Credit	10/5/2020 Jon Reed	01:02	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	The Utah Public Service Commission has been hearing a case for the last week that some say could dramatically affect the future of rootlop solar in this state. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, the debate is over how much solar owners get for power they generat		6:04					8:04
			Politics and		Two environmental nonprofits have filed suit in federal court to remove the acting director of the National Park Service. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports, this comes on the heels of a judge
NPS Ouster Disability Rights Organization To Investigate Utah's Youth Residential Treatment Facilities	10/5/2020 Nate Hegyi 10/6/2020 David Fuchs		Crime and Law Enforcement		removing the controversial head of t Utah's Disability Law Center announced late last week that it has initiated an investigation into the state's youth residential treatment facilities. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) has more on what that means for the state's troubled teen industry.	9:04	6:04					8:04	8:30
What Does Hosting The Vice			Politics and		The vice presidential debate starts tonight at 7 at the University of Utah in Salt Lake City. And as KUER's Sonja Hutson explainsIt's even more significant because of both presidential candidates' potential health
Presidential Debate Mean For Utah? 'Civil' And 'Bland': What Some Utah Voters Took Away From The Vice Presidential Debate	10/7/2020 Sonja Hutson 10/8/2020 Emily Means		Politics and Government	Wrap	problems. Last night's (Wednesday) vice presidential debate between Republican Mike Pence and Democrat Kamala (COMMA-luh) Harris was a significant event for the Beehive state. KUER's Emily Means reports on what Utah voters took away from the event.	9:04	6:04	•		7:04		8:04

VP Candidates Sharply Disagree						The candidates for vice president Democratic Senator Kamala Harris and Republican Vice President Mike Pence sparred in a debate last night at the University of Utah in Salt Lake City.
During Debate At The University of Utah	10/8/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:01	Politics and Government	Wrap	KUER's Sonja Hutson was there.	6:04				8:04
		,				Recent internal documents from the White House show most of our region in the "red zone" in terms of new
				Medicine and		coronavirus cases. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports. // Yesterday {Thursday}, Utah
Red Zone	10/9/2020	Beau Baker	00:49	Health	Wrap	health officials announced a record breaking numb				7:04
						The Utah Navajo Water Rights Settlement contains over 200 million dollars for water infrastructure
Utah Navajo Water Rights Settlement						development. It passed the U.S. Senate this summer and now is moving through the House. Reporter Kate
Could Help Get Farmers In San Juan County Back In Business	10/9/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:04	Agriculture and Environment		Groetzinger at KUER's Southeast news Bureau reports th	6:04				8:04
,					-
						The Southwest Utah Public Health Department has reported 362 new cases of COVID-19 in the last week
Outbreaks In Long-term Care						and the region's positivity rate has been 13 point 2
Facilities Cause COVID-19 Cases To Spike In Southwest Utah	10/12/2020	Lexi Peery	00:57	Medicine and Health	Wrap	percent over that time. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on the latest spike						16:04			17:32
						Republican Riverton city Mayor Trent Staggs is
Salt Lake County Mayoral Candidates On COVID-19, Taxes				Politics and		challenging Democratic Salt Lake County Mayor Jenny Wilson for her seat this November. KUER's Sonja
And Olympia Hills	10/12/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:02	Government	Wrap	Hutson reports:	6:04
						More than 100 people flocked to Utah County Friday for a rally to close down Provo Canyon School, a youth
'It's What I've Been Waiting 30 Years						residential treatment center. The event builds on a
For:' Survivors Of Abuse In Troubled	40/40/0000			Crime and Law		recent petition calling for the closure of the school,
Teen Facilities March On	10/12/2020	David Fuchs	01:04	Enforcement	vvrap	which has gathered nearly 134,000 signatur		6:30
						Republican Representative Rob Bishop isn't running for
1st Congressional Candidates On						re-election in Utah's First Congressional District. It's a seat he held for nearly 20 years. Vying to take his place
Their Differences, Health Care And				Politics and		are Republican Blake Moore and Democrat Darren
Abortion	10/12/2020	Emily Means	04:14	Government	Feature	Parry. Moore is a political newcomer President Trump signed landmark legislation over the							16:44					18:44 weekend addressing the crisis of missing and Savannah's Act	10/12/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:56	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	murdered Indigenous people. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports.								17:04			18:32
Odvalitatis Act	10/12/2020	reate riegyi	00.50	Lillordelilett	vviap	In the summer of 1988 Yellowstone National Park was								17.04			10.52
In Yellowstone, America's "First Water Park," Decades-Old Blaze Marked Start Of Megafire Era	10/12/2020	Robyn Vincent	04:21	Agriculture and	Feature	engulfed in flames. TV coverage of the fires captivated the nation for months. After the fire was extinguished, plenty of thorny questions remained like What did those fires mean for the park's			6:43
3						HOST: Republican Rep. Chris Stewart is running for a
Utah's 2nd Congressional Candidates On The Affordable Care Act And The Federal Coronavirus				Politics and		fifth term in Utah's 2nd Congressional Districtand Democrat Kael {kale} Weston is challenging him for the seat. Today, we're bringing you profiles of the two
Response	10/13/2020	Emily Means	03:27	Government	Feature	candidates. KUER's Emily Means started by							16:44					18:44
						Utah Governor Gary Herbert and the state department
Utah Health Officials Issue New						of health announced a new system of COVID-19 health
Mask Requirements And COVID-19				Medicine and		restrictions today {Tuesday}. As KUER's Sonja Hutson reports, they are aimed at curbing a spike in case
Restrictions	10/13/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:03	Health	Wrap	counts the state's been experiencing for more t						16:04			17:32
						Democratic Utah Congressman Ben McAdams and his challenger, former NFL Player Burgess Owens, debated their ideas for healthcare reform Monday evening.
Ben McAdams and Burgess Owens Spar on Healthcare Plans In 4th				Politics and		KUER's Sonja Hutson has more on last night's {Monday} event hosted by the Utah Debate
Congressional District Debate	10/13/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:03	Government	Wrap	Commission.	6:04
						Election day is creeping up, and there are still signs that some states in our region may have trouble calling
Voting Day	40/40/0000	Madelyn Beck	00.50	Politics and Government	Wrap	winners on November 3rd. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.								17:04			18:32
voting Day	10/13/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:50	Government	wrap	Major wildfires have charred the Western U-S this year.								17:04			16:32
						This type of fire can have immediate effects on air
Homeowners Who Avoid Wildfire Damage Can Find Themselves In				Agriculture and		quality and nearby homes. And now, people are coming to grips with the lingering danger of wildfires long after
New Flood Zone	10/13/2020	Alex Hager	04:13	Environment		the flames are gone. Today, we			6:43
						For many western communities, water supplies originate from melting snow high up in the mountains. But this
For The West's Drinking Water, Wildfire Concerns Linger Long After				Agriculture and		summer's record-breaking wildfires have reduced some headwater forests to burnt trees and heaps of ash.
Smoke Clears	10/14/2020	Luke Runyon	04:19	Environment	Feature	Today, we continue our in-depth look at whe			6:43
						A write-in candidate is hoping to fill one of Park City
Park City School Board Candidates						School Board's openings this November. KUER's Jon Reed reports, as schools have become a focal point
Discuss Budget, Future Plans And	40/44/05		00.5			during the pandemic, board members are playing an
Address Transparency Concerns	10/14/2020	Jon Reed	00:59	Education	Wrap	outsized role in their communities.	6:04
						A new study from the Princeton Environmental Institute says climate change may reduce sunny days in warmer parts of our region. That could spell trouble for states
Solar Power	10/14/2020	Beau Baker	00:44	Agriculture and Environment		heavily invested in solar power. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports.		6:30
					- T	p

3rd Congressional District Candidates On Healthcare And What				Politics and		Republican Utah Congressman John Curtis is running for his second 'full' term this Novemberand Democrat Devin Thorpe is challenging him for his seat. KUER's Sonja Hutson talked to both of them about the
Inspired Them To Run For Office	10/14/2020	Sonja Hutson	04:00	Government	Feature	federal pandemic response , how to lower healthcar										16:44					18:44
A Tale Of Two Pandemics: Utah's Response To The 1918 Flu and Coronavirus Outbreaks Chronicled	10/14/2020	Jon Reed	01:03	Medicine and Health	Wrap	A new digital exhibit at the University of Utah explores how the state responded to the 1918 Spanish Fluand now the coronavirus pandemic more than a century later. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, historians have been looking back to find a fresh perspectiv								16:04				17:32
				Business, Economics and		Amidst the economic downturn, Idaho and Utah have some of the lowest unemployment rates in the country. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker tries to make sense of why some states in our region have
Job Recovery In Grasslands Plagued By Invasives And Drought, Wildfires Fuel Calls For	10/14/2020	Beau Baker	00:52	Finance Agriculture and	Wrap	recovered jobs better than others // Utah ranks nu Wildfires and drought are hitting the Mountain West especially hard this year, affecting both forests and range. Grasslands starved of moisture and chock full of invasive plants can burn especially big. We continue our									16:32				18:04
New Solutions	10/15/2020	Catherine Wheeler	05:00	Environment	Feature	series on water and fire today fr			6:43			8:4	3
Utah Organizers Push For People Of Color To Vote In The November Election	10/15/2020	Emily Means	01:04	Politics and Government	Wrap	Historically, white people have turned out to vote more than Black and Latino people nationwide. As KUER's Emily Means reports, some Uah organizers have been pushing to get people of color to vote this election.	6:04			7:30)		Noon
4th Congressional District Candidates On Bipartisanship, COVID-19 And Obamacare	10/15/2020	Sonia Hutson	02:55	Politics and	Feature	Utah's fourth congressional district is a battleground for national democrats and republicans. The incumbent, Democratic Representative Ben McAdams won by just POINT 2 percent in 2018 and his seat has become a high pri										16:44					18:44
	10/13/2020	Sorija Hutson	03.33	Government	reature	Officials from the Utah Department of Corrections explained what they're doing to address a COVID-19 outbreak at the state prison.										10.44					10.44
As The Utah State Prison Deals With COVID-19 Outbreak, ACLU Says There's More To Be Done	10/15/2020	Emily Means	01:07	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	KUER's Emily Means has more on today's {Thursday's} announcement.								16:04				17:32
Bundy	10/15/2020	Madelyn Beck	01:01	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	Human rights groups have released a new report on a fast-growing far right movement in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.											17:04			18:32
				Medicine and		As hospitalizations and active COVID-19 cases rise across our region, so does the toll on our mental health. Several studies including a new survey out of Wyoming point to an increase in depression and
COVID Anxiety	10/15/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:50	Health	Wrap	anxiety. The Mountain West News Bureau's Magg A newly published study out of our region found that the		6:30			8:04
Vaccines	10/16/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:44	Medicine and Health	Voicer	higher the perceived risk of a disease, the more likely someone is to vaccinate. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.											17:04			18:32
On 1 O 1 1	4014010000			Agriculture and		Drought, wildfire and record-breaking heat are all part of the current climate landscape in our region. It's a triple whammy that's expected to continue into the coming months. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau
Climate Crosshairs LGBTQ Resource Center 'Encircle'	10/16/2020	Beau Baker	00:53	Environment Medicine and	wrap	Baker reports St. George is getting its own LG-B-T-Q resource center. Encircle already has locations in Provo and Salt Lake City which serve youth and familiesand this will be its third in Utah. From KUER's Southwest news													18:04
Opens Third Location In Utah	10/16/2020	Lexi Peery	01:01	Health Politics and	Wrap	bureau Lexi Peery has more on the grand Political groups fighting for control of the U.S. Senate have spent a record amount of money on one of the country's most hotity contested races — right here in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi									16:32			17:32
Record Spending As Western Fires Burn, Focus	10/16/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:55	Government	Wrap	reports. After decades of trying to get ahead of the problem of the West's big wildfires, it seems we're still behind. The massive fires that have burned this year don't just after		6:30		7:30	0
Narrows On Forest Management. But It's Easier Said Than Done	10/16/2020	Ron Dungan	04:04	Agriculture and Environment		forests, they impact water supplies for people and the environment. But a record-br Here's a scenario you may have found yourself in			6:43			8:4	3
Tips For Talking To The Conspiracy				Race, Identity		recently. You open up Facebook or Twitter, and someone you know is posting about a conspiracy theory. You wonder, do I say something, and is there any convincing them otherwise? The Mountain West
Theorist In Your Life	10/16/2020	Maggie Mullen	04:25	and Culture	Feature	News Bure										16:44					18:44
GOP Rep. John Curtis and Democrat Devin Thorpe Spar on Climate Change During Debate	10/16/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:00	Politics and Government	Wrap	The candidates for Utah's 3rd Congressional District, Republican Representative John Curtis and Democrat Devin Thorpe, both agree with the scientific consensus that human-caused climate change is real. But, as KUER's Sonja Hutson reports, they disagreed d	6:04			7:04	8:04
		Madelyn Beck		Medicine and Health		A newly published study found that the more deadly you think an infection is the more likely you are to vaccinate. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn				704		8:30
Vaccines	10/19/2020	madelyn Beck	01:01		Voicer	Beck Reports. Longtime Utah attorney general, Republican Sean Reyes, has been in the position since 2013, and in this election cycle faces challenger, Democrat Greg Skordas. This (Monday) morning a conversation with				7:04		6:30
Sean Reyes	10/19/2020	Emily Means	04:34	Politics and Government	Two-Way	Sean Reyes — who joined KUER's Emily Means from his			6:43			8:4	3

						After an unsuccessful run for Utah attorney general in 2004, Democrat Greg Skordas (SCORE-duss) is back — challenging Republican incumbent Sean Reyes.
				B 80		KUER's Emily Means spoke with Sean Reyes this
Greg Skordas	10/19/2020	Emily Means	04:23	Politics and Government	Two-Way	morning This afternoon her conversation with Skordas										16:44					18:44
						The state of Utah received over one billion dollars from the federal government through the CARES Act this spring. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate
				Arts and		Groetzinger reports some of those dollars are going to
Artisan CARES Act	10/19/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:05	Entertainment	Wrap	support Native artists in San Juan County.								16:04				17:32
						If you have a Utah driver license or state ID you can register to vote online. But if you recently moved to Utah
				Politics and		or don't have one of those you can register by filling out, and signing, a paper form. KUER's Sonja Hutson
Voter Registration	10/19/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:58		Wrap	takes us through the process									16:32				18:04
						The Bears Ears Monument Advisory Committee met Friday for a third time to discuss the management of the Agriculture and		Monument. KUER's Kate Groetzinger at out southeast
Bears Ears	10/19/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:04	Environment	Wrap	news bureau reports their plans could be moot Americans are relocating during the pandemic in part		6:30			8:04		Noon because they can work remotely. A recent Air B-n-B
				Business,		survey shows four of the top six choices are in the
Relocating West V1	10/20/2020	Kamila Kudelska	00:48	Economics and Finance	Voicer	Mountain West. Kamila (cah-MEE-la) Kudelska (cuh- DEL-ska) has more.		6:30					Noon
						Last (Monday) night, three candidates for Utah's
Candidates For 2nd Congressional District Debate Discuss Health Care,				Politics and		Second Congressional District had what will likely be their only debate before the November election. KUER's
Climate Change And COVID-19	10/20/2020	Emily Means	01:35	Government	Superspot	Emily Means has more.	6:04			7:04	8:04
-
						The sugar beet harvest is now underway across the region, a big industry that depends on accurate weather
				Business,		forecasts and a reliable workforce. Both of those
COVID Beet	10/20/2020	Beau Baker	00:54	Economics and Finance	Wrap	elements are currently impacted by the coronavirus pandemic. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau B		6:30				8:30
COVID Beet	10/20/2020	Deau Dakei	00.54	i mance	vviap	particiliti. The Wouldain West News Bureau's Beau B		0.50				0.50
						A recent Airbnb survey found that 20 percent of Business.		Americans have relocated during the pandemic and the vast majority of respondents are in favor of it. Four of
	40.000.0000			Economics and		the top six relocation choices are in the Mountain West.				7.00
Relocating West V2	10/20/2020	Kamila Kudelska	00:58	Finance	Wrap	Kamila (cah-MEE-la) Kudelska (cuh-DEL-sk If you've already gotten your ballot in the mail, you may				7:30 have noticed thatalong with president, governor, and
How To Judge A Judge: Understanding Judicial Retention On				Politics and		your state representativethere is a list of state judges and justices up for retention. I spoke with Jennifer Yim,
The Utah Ballot	10/20/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:37	Government	Two-Way	the executive director										16:44					18:44
0.0.0						Despite a rocky year, Salt Lake County is projecting a budget surplus for 2021. KUER's Jon Reed has more
SLCo Proposes Optimistic Budget For 2021 As Pandemic Uncertainty				Politics and		on the economic outlook for Utah's most populous
Lingers	10/20/2020	Jon Reed	01:05	Government	Wrap	county.								16:04				17:32
						If elected, Democratic presidential candidate Joe Biden says he plans to protect 30 percent of all land and water
				Agriculture and		in the country by the year 2030. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports, hunting and angling
30x30	10/20/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:43	Environment		groups are also backing the propo											17:04			18:32
						Some 20-plus cities in Utah are trying to build a nuclear power plant in Idaho. The Carbon Free Power Project
Can Nuclear Replace Coal In The				Business,		would replace the energy those towns will lose when
West? Over 20 Utah Cities Are Betting On It Despite The Risks	10/20/2020	Kate Groetzinger	04:58	Economics and Finance	Feature	coal plants shut down. But, as KUER's Kate Groetzinger reports, there's a big financial risk			6:43			8:43
						Scientists say the size and intensity of wildfires that			2.10			0.40
						we're seeing today is alarming because it's what they
				Agriculture and		were predicting would happen 30 years down the road not right now. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau
Megafires	10/21/2020	Beau Baker	00:57	Environment	Wrap	Baker reports											17:04			18:32
						In the run-up to Election Day, some states in this region
				Delision		are preparing for potential voter intimidation and
Election Threat V1	10/21/2020	Beau Baker	01:04	Politics and Government	Wrap	violence following rhetoric from the President. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports.				7:04
			1		· · ·	,				-
Moab, Grand County Pass						Moab and Grand County voted yesterday {Tuesday} to put an indefinite pause on new A-T-V events, as well as Regulations To Curb Noise from All						rental, sales, and tour companies. They also put a new
Terrain Vehicles, In Response To Complaints	10/24/2022	Kate Groetzinger	00:56	Agriculture and Environment		15 mile-per-hour speed limit on the vehicles in neighborhoods. From KUER's Southeast News Bur		6:30			8:04		Noon
Complaints	10/2 1/2020	rate Groetzinger	00:00	Environment	vviap	If elected, Democratic presidential candidate Joe Biden		0:30			0.04		INOUN
						says he plans to protect 30 percent of all land and water
				Agriculture and		in the country by the year 2030. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports, hunting and angling
30x30	10/21/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:21	Environment		groups are backing the proposal.		6:30
Chris Stewart Reintroduces Grand						Republican Representative Chris Stewart recently reintroduced legislation that would create Utah's sixth
Staircase-Escalante Bill, But						national park and solidify the president's boundaries
Supporters Say It Likely Won't Go Anywhere	10/21/2020	Lexi Peery	01:38	Agriculture and Environment		for Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Pe	6:04			7:30
		,								00			-

						More than 11,000 voters in Sanpete County received
Here's What Happens Next After More Than 11,000 Misprinted Ballots						ballots last week that were missing crucial voter affidavits and signature lines. From KUER's Central
Were Sent To Sanpete County				Politics and		Utah News Bureau, David Fuchs (Fox) reports on what
Voters	10/21/2020	David Fuchs	01:03	Government	Wrap	the county is doing to make sure every vote still								16:04				17:32
						Two snowboarders who triggered an avalanche in the backcountry of Colorado in March will face criminal
				Crime and Law		charges. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn
Snowboarders V1	10/22/2020	Madelyn Beck	01:01	Enforcement	Wrap	Beck reports.					8:0	14
						Two snowboarders who triggered an avalanche in the backcountry of Colorado in March will face criminal
				Crime and Law		charges. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn
Snowboarders V2	10/22/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:42	Enforcement	Voicer	Beck reports.		6:30 Campaigning in a normal election year can be difficult even for the most seasoned politicians. But campaigning during a pandemic adds a host of new
Candidates Look For New Ways To Connect With Voters During				Politics and		challenges. The biggest might be how a candidate connects with voters safely. The Mountain West News
Pandemic	10/22/2020	Paul Boger	03:34	Government	Feature	Bu			6:43			8	:43
						The Utah Department of Health reported a record number of new COVID-19 cases today (Thursday), As Hospitals Stretched Thin As Utah						KUER's Emily Means reports, health officials are
Officials Announce More Record-				Medicine and		worried about how a surge in cases will impact the
Breaking COVID Numbers	10/22/2020	Emily Means	01:00	Health	Wrap	state's health care system. Even as more people head outside in the midst of the									16:32				18:04
				Business,		pandemic, the outdoor recreation industry says it needs
Outdoor Aid	10/22/2022	Beau Baker	01:02	Economics and Finance	Wrap	federal aid to stay afloat. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker explains.											17:04			18:32
Outdoor Ald	10/22/2020	DeaU Baker	01:03	rilance	wrap	The University of Utah announced today {Thursday} it											17:04			16:32
						has settled two lawsuits with the family of Lauren McCluskey, a student-athlete who was shot and killed outside her campus dorm.
University Of Utah Settles Lauren						·
McCluskey Case, Acknowledges It Mishandled Her 'Preventable' Death	10/22/2020	Ion Read	01:02	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wran	As KUER's Jon Reed reports, the settlement comes on the two year anni								16:04				17:32
Mishandied Her Preventable Death	10/22/2020	Jon Reed	01:03	Enforcement	vvrap	Two candidates for Utah attorney general Republican								16:04				17:32
						incumbent Sean Reyes and Democrat Greg Skordas
Utah Attorney General Candidates Have Heated Debate Centered On				Politics and		sparred last night (Wednesday) in their only debate before the election. As KUER's Emily Means reports, it
Affordable Care Act	10/22/2020	Emily Means	00:58	Government	Wrap	was a fiery affair.	6:04				7:30		Noon
						It's coming up fastthe election is just 11 days away{OPT for 4:44/ and today {Friday} at 5 p.m. is the voter registration deadline in Utah.} But you like other
Fact Vs. Fiction: Salt Lake County	40 100 100 00	Caroline Ballard		Politics and Government		Utahns might still have questions about turning in your										16:44					18:44
Clerk Answers FAQs About Voting	10/23/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:16	Government	Two-Way	ballot and making sure it coun With less than two weeks until Election Day, political										16:44					18:44
A Sign Of The Times: Utahns Are						tensions are running high. But as KUER's David Fuchs
Frustrated With Disappearing Political Yard Signs	10/23/2020	David Fuchs	01:04	Politics and Government	Wrap	(Fox) reports, Utah politicos are calling for an end to a specific kind of turf war.								16:04				17:32
						The Northern Arapaho (uh-RAP-uh-ho) Tribe is the Business, Economics and		latest in our region to venture into sports betting. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher
Sports Betting	10/23/2020	Savannah Maher	00:52		Wrap	[pronounced like Bill Maher] reports.											17:04			18:32
						A new phone app is launching in our region Sunday that helps people see if they've come in contact with
COVID Teaching	40/00/0000	Madaka Daak	00.07	Medicine and	V-:	anyone who's tested positive for COVID-19. The									16:32				18:04
COVID Tracking	10/23/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:37	Health	Voicer	Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports. Even as more people head outside in the midst of the									16:32				18:04
				Business,		pandemic, the outdoor recreation industry says it needs
Outdoor Aid	10/23/2020	Beau Baker	00:40	Economics and Finance	Voicer	federal aid to stay afloat. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker explains.				7:04	8:0	14
Culabor riid	TO/EU/EU/EU	Dodd Dato	00.40	T III COLO	V 01001	Voters in Denver will decide on a sales tax meant to				7.04	0.0
				Agriculture and		fight climate change. As the Mountain West News
Climate Tax	10/23/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:52	Environment	Wrap	Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports, many are calling the approach a potential blueprint for other cities.		6:30			7:30	8:30
						Both candidates for Utah's Lieutenant Governor say they're proud of the state's universal vote- by-mail system. But, as KUER's Sonja Hutson reports
Where The Candidates For Utah						Republican Senator Deidre Henderson and Democrat
Lieutenant Governor Stand On Voting Issues	10/23/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:53	Politics and Government	Wrap	Karina Brown, want to pursue changes that would make it r	6:04			7:04	8:0	и
Total g locator	TO/LO/LOLO	Conju i rationi	00.00	Covoninion	TTTOP		0.01			7.04	0.0
						Red flag warnings are issued by the National Weather
'Above Average' Red Flag Warnings						Service when the forecast could lead to critical fire conditions. This year there's been 46 warnings issued in
Issued In Utah This Year As State	10/20/202	Lovi Boor	00:50	Agriculture and	Mror	Utah which is "above average." From KUER's		6:30			7:30	8:30	Noon
Sees Record-Breaking Fire Season	10/23/2020	Lexi Peery	UU:56	Environment	vvrap	Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has more. We are living through a pandemic, which means we're		6:30			1.30	6:30	Noon used to thinking of viruses like COVID-19 as threats.
Ancient Viruses Benefitted Human Biology. They Can Also Help Us				Science and		But sometimesthese microorganisms can actually be beneficial to human biology. Nels Elde is an
Understand The Current Pandemic.	10/26/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:35	Technology	Two-Way	evolutionary geneticist at the University of Utah a										16:44					18:44
						Amendment G is one of seven constitutional changes
						Utah voters can decide on this November. It's also one
A Deeper Dive Into Amendment G:						of the most controversialand could have some of the most far-reaching impacts. KUER's Jon Reed has more
What It Does And Who's Behind It	10/26/2020	Jon Reed	01:36	Education	Superspot	on what it would do and who's in support.	6:04				7:30
						A new phone app launched in our region yesterday {Sunday} that helps people see if they've come in Medicine and		contact with anyone who's gotten COVID-19. The
COVID-19 Tracking	4010	Madelyn Beck		Health	Wrap	Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.		6:30			8:0		Noon

						Legal challenges and accusations of fraud are just a														_
Election Doubt	10/26/2020	Beau Baker	00:47	Politics and Government	Voicer	couple of issues seeding doubt about a clear winner on election day. Beau Baker reports										17:04			18:32	2
						With little being done on the climate at the federal level, local governments have made emission reduction limate Cities	10/26/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:52	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	pledges. But a new report says this "bottom up" approach may not cut it. Maggie Mullen reports.										17:04			18:32	2
						Mail-in ballots in Utah must be postmarked by November 2nd for them to count. But in Southern Utah eople In Southern Utah Should Mail Their Ballots Sooner Rather Than ater, Election Officials Say	10/26/2020	Lexi Peery	00:56	Politics and Government	Wrap	mail isn't always postmarked in the region. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports THAT has officials telling voters to send their ba									16:32			18:)4
fore Than 1,500 Utahns Have oined Ammon Bundy's Anti-Federal						As of September 1, more than 15-hundred Utahns have joined the group "People's Rights." KUER's David
Sovernment Movement, New Report Finds	10/27/2020	David Fuchs	01:05	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	Fuchs {Fox} reports, it's a part of anti-government activist Ammon Bundy's latest effort.	6:04			7:30			Noon
				Politics and		Legal challenges and accusations of fraud are just a couple of the issues seeding doubt about a clear winner on election day. The Mountain West News Bureau's election Doubt	10/27/2020	Beau Baker	00:56	Government	Wrap	Beau Baker reports		6:30				8:30
Cash Contributions In Utah's 1st Congressional District Pale In Comparison To 4th District	10/27/2020	Emily Means	01:39	Politics and Government	Superspot	The race for Utah's Fourth Congressional District is bringing in A LOT of money with $8.9 million dollars in contributions as of two weeks ago. But as KUER's Emily Means explains, the state's FIRST congressional district rarely sees that kind of cash.									16:32			18:	04
lospitals Around The Mountain Vest Reach COVID-19 Breaking	40.007.0000			Medicine and		Hospitals around the region are at a breaking point with COVID-19 patients filling beds. Now protocols that transfer patients to Utah from out-of-state hospitals could be on the line. The Mountain West News										47.04			40.00
Point	10/2//2020	Madelyn Beck		Health	Wrap	Bureau's Madelyn Beck explains. Republican Utah Congressional Candidate Burgess Owens has accepted more than 130-thousand dollars in campaign contributions above the legal limit, the New										17:04			18:32
Burgess Owens Money	10/27/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:34	Politics and Government	Voicer	York Times is reporting. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more.								16:04					18:32	2
Dell LeFevre, Garfield County Cowboy Known For Working With People Different Than Him, Dies At 10	10/28/2020	Lavi Paanu	10:37	Race, Identity and Culture	Superenet	Long-time Garfield County Commissioner and rancher Dell LeFevre (La-FEE-vurr) passed away Sunday at the age of 80. In an era where political divisiveness seems like the norm Lexi Peery at KUER's Southwest News Bureau reports on the life of one cowboy wh	6:04			7:30
10	10/28/2020	Lexi Peery	10:37	and Culture	Superspot	President Trump is finding ways to continue reaching	6:04			7:30										+
rump Rallies	10/28/2020	Beau Baker	00:58	Politics and Government	Wrap	voters in our region through rallies, even as Covid-19 cases climb and state restrictions limit crowds. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports									16:32			18:)4
Salt Lake County Increases Election Day Voting Locations, But Still Worries About Overcrowding	10/28/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:02	Politics and Government	Wrap	Salt Lake County has added 17 more Election Day polling locations since 2016 to accommodate its increase in registered voters and make social distancing easier. But, as KUER's Sonja Hutson reports, there are still concerns about overcrowding.										17:04			18:32	2
Pandemic Puts Teletherapy To The				Medicine and		With lockdowns across the country, telehealth boomed a few months ago and that unprecedented growth is expected to continue. But when it comes to mental health treatment over a screen, it's getting mixed
Test — Reviews Are Mixed	10/28/2020	Madelyn Beck	04:13	Health	Feature	reviews. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madely			6:43			8:43	3
Digital Divde	10/28/2020	Savannah Maher	00:57	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	The Federal Communications Commission says it's taken an unprecedented step towards closing the digital divide on tribal lands. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (PR: MAR) reports.				7:04	8:04		Noon
				Medicine and		Hospitals around the region are at a breaking point with COVID-19 patients filling beds. Now protocols that transfer patients to Utah from out-of-state hospitals could be on the line. The Mountain West News
Hospitals	10/28/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:38	Health	Voicer	Bureau's Madelyn Beck explains. 325 thousand people in Utah have lost their jobs during the coronavirus pandemic. And not everyone will be		6:30				8:30								-
Some Jobs May Not Be Coming Back. For Many Utahns, That Means	40/00/005	les Desd	04.50	Business, Economics and		able to get them back. KUER's Jon Reed has more on the journey some are taking to rebuild their careers from
Starting Over. Protesters Target State	10/29/2020	Jon Reed	04:40	Finance	Feature	scratch. A group of protesters gathered outside the home of			6:43			8:43	5							+
pidemiologist Angela Dunn's Home – Allege She's Not Listening To Jtahns	10/20/0000	David Euch	00:50	Crime and Law	Wron	state epidemiologist Dr. Angela Dunn this morning. KUER's David Fuchs {Fox} has more on her and her								16:04			17:32
nanns	10/29/2020	David Fuchs	00:59	Enforcement	vvrap	neighbors' responses. Community members are mourning the loss of Margarita Satini, an activist from Cottonwood Heights when the died from COVID 10 complications carried this								16:04			17:32
Itah Pacific Islander Community Mourns The Loss Of 'Unapologetic' Activist Margarita Satini	10/29/2020	Emily Means	01:04	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	who died from COVID-19 complications earlier this week. As KUER's Emily Means reports, her friends and family organized a memorial in her honor yesterday even		6:30			8:04		Noon
	. SrEGEDEO	, mount	01.04			A female inmate at the center of a federal discrimination lawsuit against the Wyoming Department of Corrections has lost her appeal after a ruling in the Tenth Circuit		0.30			0.01		143011
Bootcamp Ruling	10/29/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:56	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	Court. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.				7:04		8:30								-
COVID-19 Testing Is Up In Utah — But It's Still Hard To Get One Without Symptoms	10/20/2022	Kate Groetzinger	00:52	Medicine and Health	Wrap	The spike in COVID-19 cases in Utah has coincided with an increase in testing for the virus, according to the state health department. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports getting a test is sometimes more complicated than it sounds.									16:32			18:	M

				Politics and		President Trump is finding ways to continue reaching voters across the West through rallies, even as Covid-19 cases climb and state restrictions limit crowds. The
Trump Rallies	10/29/2020	Beau Baker	00:30	Government	Voicer	Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports Utah health officials announced 2,292 NEW COVID-19		6:04		8:	04
				Medicine and		cases today {Friday} just a week after setting its previous high mark. KUER's Ross Terrell has more on
COVID Update	10/30/2020	Ross Terrell	00:36	Health	Voicer	the record setting day.							16:04				17:32
				Race, Identity		Utah announced a record breaking number of COVID- 19 cases today (Friday). And 23 of the state's 29 counties are in the high transmission level for the virus and masks are required. But tomorrow (Saturday) is Halloween. While some people are
Alone Together: Halloween Plans	10/30/2020	Ross Terrell	01:16	and Culture	Superspot	deciding to Yesterday {Thursday} the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service								16:32				18:04
Wolves	10/30/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:55	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	removed protections for the gray wolf under the endangered species act in the lower 48 states. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck explains what that means for the West.				7:04	8:30	Noon
Schools Struggle To Keep Up With						Schools across Utah have faced many challenges in trying to stay open for students. AS KUER's Jon Reed reports one of the biggest obstacles has been finding out who has COVID-19 and who might have been
Contact Tracing	10/30/2020	Jon Reed	01:03	Education	Wrap	exposed.			6:30	8:	04
Early Voter Turnout Is Higher Than Ever Before In Utah: Here's Why It Matters To Voters	10/30/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:32	Politics and Government	Superspot	More than 750-thousand ballots have been processed so far in Utah. That's 44 percent turnout 5 days before the election. Here are KUER reporters Sonja Hutson and Kate Groetzinger on why voting early is important to people throughout the state.		6:04		7:30
Stressed About The Election? Here				Medicine and		2020 has been a stressful year for many people. And with a contentious political climate, the election and its aftermath could add to that stress. KUER's Jon Reed has more on the resources and strategies Utahns can
Are A Few Ways To Feel Better	11/2/2020	Jon Reed	01:01	Health	Wrap	use to feel better.										17:04			18:32
Adventures Of A Mail-in Ballot: From				Politics and		Most Utahns will be voting by mail this election and more than 950 thousand ballots have already been processed as of yesterday (Sunday). KUER's Emily Means takes us behind the scenes to explain what
Your Hand To Final Tally	11/2/2020	Emily Means	01:05	Government	Wrap	happens to your form after you mail it back or drop it		6:04		7:30		Noon
Unrest	11/2/2020	Beau Baker	00:56	Politics and Government	Wrap	Americans bought a record number of guns this year. Meanwhile, law enforcement agencies in our region are mobilizing for potential civil unrest around the Election. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker reports			6:30	8:	04
Election Roundup	11/2/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:44	Politics and	Wrap	Election day is tomorrow (Tuesday), and there are several races and states to keep an eye on in our region. The Mountain West News Bureauis Madelyn Beck reports. // Here in Utah The Fourth Congressional district is being called a toss-up by the Cook Po								16:32				18:04
Litah's Partisan Divide Has Widened	11/2/2020	Wadelyll Deck	00.44	Politics and	wiap	Election Day is tomorrow {Tuesday} and in the time since the last presidential election, Republicans and Democrats in Utah have become more ideologically divided. That's according to a new report from the Utah								10.32				10.04
Since The 2016 Election	11/2/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:49	Government	Wrap	Foundation. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more.							16:04				17:32
BalletWest Revamps Policies To Make It More Equitable For Black And Brown Dancers	11/2/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:57	Race, Identity and Culture	Two-Way	This fall, BalletWest announced policy changes intended to make it a more equitable place for its black and brown dancers. Jazz Bynum is a Black dancer in BalletWest's second company. She told me about some of the lengths dancers of color have to go to just to fit in to the ballet world.									16:44					18:44
Cox Acceptance Speech	11/3/2020	Caroline Ballard	10:00	Politics and Government	Two-Way	21:15, Spencer Cox delivers acceptance speech, reporters respond with analysis.	21:15
Evening Wrapup	11/3/2020	Caroline Ballard	05:00	Politics and Government	Two-Way	21:55, A wrap up of Utah races and what comes next	21:55
				Politics and		19:35, 20:20 will set records for turning out more voters than ever in Utah. One group with a spotlight on it has been young voters. KUER's Caroline Ballard spoke separately with two young organizers in the state to hear
Young Republican Weighs In	11/3/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:30		Two-Way	their perspectives. Gibson Green is 21:35, Analysis of Amendment G and other	19:35
Amendment G and Others	11/3/2020	Caroline Ballard	05:00	Government Politics and	Two-Way	amendments on the ballot 20:55, Update on 4th congressional district and other	21:35
Update on CD4	11/3/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:30	Government Politics and	Two-Way	local races 20:35, Update on local races and analysis of Utah	20:55
Results Update, AG	11/3/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:30	Government Politics and	Two-Way	attorney general race. 20:15, Updates on Utah races with polls just closed,	20:35
Results Update	11/3/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:30	Government	Two-Way	Governor's race called.	20:15
Young Democrat Weighs In	11/3/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:30	Politics and Government	Two-Way	19:55, 2020 will set records for turning out more voters than ever in Utah. One group with a spotlight on it has been young voters. KUER's Caroline Ballard spoke separately with two young organizers in the state to hear their perspectives. Gibson Green is	19:55
Families Of Inmates Worried After New Outbreak At Utah State Prison			04:00	Crime and Law	Mean	The families of people incarcerated at the Utah State Prison met yesterday (Monday) to protest the Department of Corrections' handling of COVID-19 outbreaks. KUER's Emily Means has more on their list of demands.			6:30	8:	04	Noon
New Outpreak At Utan State Prison	11/3/2020	Emily Means	01:00	Enforcement	vvrap	or demands.			6:30	8:	U4	Noon

					It's election day, and there are several races and states
Election Roundup	11/3/2020 Madelyn Beck	00:33	Politics and Government	Voicer	to keep an eye on in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.	6:04	7:04
			Crime and Law		A new sign in Colorado recognizes a Black teenager who was lynched there 120 years ago. Denverite's Kevin Beaty (BAY-tee) was there for its unveilling // In Utah, a Black coal miner named Robert Marshall was
Lynching	11/3/2020 Kevin Beaty	00:40	Enforcement	Wrap	lynched in Carbon County in 1925. He was accused Voter turnout in Utah has already surpassed its total from 20-16. People still have nearly four more hours to			7:30	0	8:30
Election Day: Hear From Voters Around The State	11/3/2020 Ross Terrell	00:47	Politics and Government	Pinwheel	get to the polls. As part of KUER's Election Day coverage our reporters talked with voters around the state to hear what issues are on their min							16:04
White Mesa Mill	11/3/2020 Kate Groetzinger	00:42	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Engineers at a uranium mill in San Juan County have figured out how to produce a concentrate of rare earth elements from North American ore. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports that's a big deal, since the U-S currently relies on China for the elements.								16:32
What We're Watching Tonight	11/3/2020 Rate Groeizinger		Politics and		5:18, run down of election night local race coverage	17:18							10.32
Result Of Utah's 4th Congressional District Race Could Impact The Future Of How Districts Are Drawn	11/3/2020 Caroline Ballard	04:29	Politics and Government	Two-Way	19:15 Utah's 4th Congressional District race between Republican Burgess Owens and incumbent Democrat Ben McAdams is projected to be close. In fact, the Cook Political Report has rated it a "toss up." Leah Murry, a political scientist and Academic Director	19:15
What Utah's Presidential Vote Can			Politics and		6:15 Trump is predicted to win Utah relatively easily, but how much of the votes he can come away with could
Tell Us At The Polls	11/3/2020 Caroline Ballard 11/3/2020 Caroline Ballard		Politics and	Two-Way	offer insights into how voters are thinking. Round up of what KUER reporters saw at the polls across the state.	18:15
			Business, Economics and		A number of cities in Utah will move forward with a nuclear power project, despite its high cost and the recent departure of some key investors. From KUER's	10.00
UAMPS Update	11/3/2020 Kate Groetzinger	00:37	Finance Agriculture and	Voicer	Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger has more A recent study finds many of the West's biggest cities have been able to keep growing, while using less water.		7:04			8:30
Urban Water Use Down	11/4/2020 Luke Runyon	00:37	Environment	Wrap	Luke Runyon of KUNC in Colorado has more. Utahns voted in record numbers this election. KUER's									17:04			18:32
Voter Turnout	11/4/2020 Emily Means	00:42	Politics and Government	Voicer	Emily Means has more on how many people cast ballots.	6:04	7:04			8:30
Race For Utah's 4th Congressional			Politics and		The contentious race for Utah's 4th Congressional District is still too close to call. As of midnight last night, Democratic incumbent Ben McAdams had a slight lead with nearly 50 percent of the vote. His republican
District Too Close To Call Republican Sean Reyes Wins Another Term As Utah Attorney General	11/4/2020 Sonja Hutson 11/4/2020 Emily Means		Politics and	Voicer	challenger Burgess Owens had 46 percent Republican incumbent Sean Reyes has a strong lead in his re-election campaign for Utah's attorney general. KUER's Emily Means has more.		6:30		8:04
Waiting For Election Results Is An Exercise In Patience, As Ballots Remain To Be Counted	11/4/2020 Emily Means		Politics and	Wrap	The Hinckley Institute of Politics hosted a forum this afternoon (Wednesday) breaking down the results of the election so far and their potential impacts. As KUER's Emily Means reports, the panelists' big takeaway was patience.		6.30		8:04			16:04			17:32
Utah Business Owners Breathe	11/4/2020 Entity Means	00.34	Business,	wrap	Last night, business owners in Utah and across the country boarded up their windows in anticipation of election night unrest. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox)							10.04			17.32
Easier After Bracing For Election Night Unrest	11/4/2020 David Fuchs	00:57	Economics and Finance	Wrap	reports some Utahns could breathe a little easier this morning after a quiet night along the Wasatch Fro Republican Lieutenant Governor Spencer Cox will be Utah's next governor, according to the Associated Press. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports Cox won by								16:32			18:04
Republican Lt. Gov. Spencer Cox Wins Utah Governor's Race	11/4/2020 Sonja Hutson	01:07	Politics and Government	Wrap	more than 30 percent of the vote and the race was called just a minute after polls closed.						Noon
Fractured Mountain West	11/5/2020 Nate Hegyi	01:21	Politics and Government	Superspot	Voter turnout was at an all-time high across our region. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports, election results show stark political divides.	6:04		7:30	o
Scientific Rebuke	11/5/2020 Maggie Mullen	00:59	Medicine and Health	Wrap	It's been a grueling eight months for public health officials trying to persuade the public of the seriousness of COVID-19. But election exit polls suggest millions of voters are more concerned with other issues. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggle Mul								16:32			18:04
A Lot Has Changed In Healthcare. What's Likely To Stay?	11/5/2020 Jon Reed	01:04	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Lots of changes have hit the healthcare industry over the last year. KUER's Jon Reed looks at how providers have adapted to the pandemic and which changes might stick around after it's over.		6:30		8:04
Indigenous Wave	11/5/2020 Savannah Maher	01:00	Politics and Government	Wrap	A record 14 Indigenous candidates ran for U-S Congress this year, including six in our region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports most were unsuccessful.		7:04			8:30
Utah Democrats Could Pick Up Three Seats in State House, What		01:39	Politics and		At least three Utah state House seats in central Salt Lake County could flip blue this year. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more on the races where Democrats are ahead and could pull off a victory.		1.54			2.50				17:04			18:32

						The entire staff of a county health department in Montana resigned this week. They say they had little support from local officials in their efforts to protect the Health Expertise	11/6/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:55	Medicine and Health	Wrap	public from COVID-19. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Madelyn Beck reports.			6:30		8:04
,		,				1
						St. George has already canceled events like the Snow Canyon Half Marathon and the Turkey Trot. City
				Business,		officials say they're trying to limit the number of people
0.0 5	441010000			Economics and		coming to the area. From KUER's Southwest news
St George Fall/Winter	11/6/2020	Lexi Peery	00:53	Finance	Wrap	bureau, Lexi Peery reports on their message for S It's been a grueling eight months for public health				7:04	8:30	Noon officials who are trying to convince the public of how serious COVID-19 really is. Still, some polls suggest Scientific Rebuke	441010000			Medicine and Health	Voicer	that millions of voters are more concerned with other issues. From the Mountain West News Bure				7:04	8:30
Scientific Reduke	11/0/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:34	nealth	voicer	For the second time in as many days Utah has set				7:04	6:30
						ANOTHER single day, COVID-19 case record. KUER's
00/48 11 11	441010000	Ross Terrell		Medicine and Health	Voicer	Ross Terrell has more details on today's {Friday}							16:04				17:32
COVID Update	11/6/2020	Koss Ferrell	00:43	Health	Voicer	numbers.							16:04				17:32
						Engineers at a uranium mill in San Juan County have
A Uranium Mill Near Blanding May						figured out how to produce a concentrate of rare earth
Begin Processing Ore For Elements Used In iPhones And Military				Business, Economics and		elements from North American ore. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports
Weapons	11/6/2020	Kate Groetzinger	00:58	Finance	Wrap	environmental groups say it could increase pollution a								16:32				18:04
-
						President Trump's accusations of widespread voter fraud are based on no evidence. Still, they are gaining Disinformation Campaign About						some traction in the region. The Mountain West News
Voter Fraud Gains Some Traction In				Politics and		Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports // {OPT: Utah's Governor-
Mountain West	11/6/2020	Nate Hegyi	01:05	Government	Wrap	elect Spencer Cox has asked people not to be										17:04			18:32
						Utah saw its highest number ever today (Friday) of COVID-19 cases and deaths. Governor Gary Herbert has said he is considering new action by the state to Considering COVID Response	11/6/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:42	Medicine and Health	Two-Way	limit the spread of the disease and will announce those plans early next week. One infectious disease									16:44					18:44
Considering COVID (Cesponse	11/0/2020	Caroline Dallard	04.42	i idalu i	1 WO-VVay	Here's a scenario you may have found yourself in									10.44					10.44 recently. You open up Facebook or Twitter, and someone you know is posting about a conspiracy theory. You wonder, do I say something, and is there
Tips For Talking To The Conspiracy				Race, Identity		any convincing them otherwise? The Mountain West
Theorist In Your Life	11/7/2020	Maggie Mullen	04:25	and Culture	Feature	News Bure											17:32
						Joe Biden has secured the nomination as the next president of the United States, according to the Associated Press. Across the country people took to the Utahns React to Presidential Election				Politics and		streets to protest or celebrate including here in Utah.
Results V1	11/7/2020	Ross Terrell	01:02	Government	Pinwheel	Here are reactions from some Uta	15:04									17:04
						Joe Biden is President-elect of the United States, according to the Associated Press. And across the
				L		country people took to the streets to protest or
Utahns React to Presidential Election Results V2	11/7/2020	Ross Terrell	01:30	Politics and Government	Pinwheel	celebrate including here in Utah. Here are reactions from some Utahns following this morning's {Saturday							16:04
Utah Health Order Creates Statewide	11///2020	TOOD TOTON	01.00	COVORMINOR	i ilimilooi	Utah Governor Gary Herbert announced a new state of							10.04
Mask Mandate, Restricts Social						emergency last night (Sunday) in response to rising
Gatherings To Curb COVID-19 Surge	11/0/2020	Emily Means	01:02	Medicine and Health	Wrap	COVID-19 cases throughout the state. KUER's Emily Means has more.		6:04		7:04		Noon
Utah's Blue Wave: Some Areas	11/3/2020	Ellily Wealis	01.03	пеаш	vviap	In 2016, Grand County went for Trump. But in 2020, it		0.04		7.04		NOOH
Reveal Changing Demographics And				Politics and		flipped for Biden. As KUER's Emily Means reports,
Tastes	11/9/2020	Emily Means	01:11	Government	Wrap	other areas of Utah went Democratic, too.			6:30		8:04
						There's dramatic increase in COVID-19 cases across the region And that's making it difficult for public health departments to keep up with their contact tracing
	441010000			Medicine and		efforts. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie								16:32
Contact Tracing	11/9/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:32	Health	Voicer	Mullen reports. Indigenous voters in our region played a key role in the								16:32				18:04
				Politics and		2020 election. The Mountain West News Bureau's
Native Voices	11/9/2020	Savannah Maher	00:50	Government	Wrap	Savannah Maher reports.										17:04			18:32
						Utah has new COVID-19 requirements — including a mask mandate and a two-week ban on social Medicine and		gatherings. As KUER's Sonja Hutson reports they will
COVID Restrictions	11/9/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:11	Health	Wrap	mostly be enforced by local authorities.							16:04				17:32
New Bules Bearing Weekley 7						New statewide restrictions to curb the spread of COVID-
New Rules Require Weekly Testing In Utah Colleges, But Allow Classes				Medicine and		19 in Utah require people to limit social gatherings. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, schools and colleges can
To Continue In Person	11/10/2020	Jon Reed	01:03	Health	Wrap	stay open.		6:04		7:30		Noon
						,
						The news of a promising COVID-19 vaccine from Pfizer and BioNTech {pr:BY-yon-tech} is generating optimism this week. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's
5				Medicine and		Beau Baker reports, there will be significant challenges													40
Rural Vax	11/10/2020	Beau Baker	-	Health	Wrap	in storing and distributing this type of v President-elect Joe Biden has promised to restore										17:04			18:32
						President-elect Joe Biden has promised to restore Bears Ears National Monument as soon as he's inaugurated. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau,
Despite Promises From Biden, Future Of Bears Ears Is Still				Agriculture and		Kate Groetzinger reports that would make some people
Future Of Bears Ears Is Still Uncertain	11/10/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:32	Agriculture and Environment		happy But the monument would not be permanently protecte								16:32				18:04
		, J. J.	1															-
						Since the spring, contact tracing has been a crucial way to limit the spread of the coronavirus. However, the current surge of cases across the region has health
				Medicine and		departments struggling to keep up. The Mountain West
Contact Tracing	11/10/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:52	Health	Wrap	News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.			6:30		8:04

				Medicine and		The Infectious Diseases Society of America held a briefing today (Wed) on the many challenges we are facing as the pandemic surge continues. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports,
MW COVID	11/11/2020	Noah Glick	00:56	Health	Wrap	things are looking dire in many parts of our region.										17:04			18:32
Salt Lake Homeless Providers Stumble While Working To Get Emergency Shelters Running For Vinter	11/11/2020	Emily Means	01:04	Medicine and Health	Wrap	The first snow has fallen in Salt Lake County And as KUER's Emily Means reports, a group of homeless service providers and government officials are still trying to open emergency facilities to house people this winter.									16:32			18:04
	11/11/2020	Lifting Wiedins	01.04	Tieditii	vviap	Utah is home to nearly 140 thousand veterans. KUER's									10.32			10.04
tah Veterans Have Lower Rates Of OVID-19, But VA Healthcare roviders Still Face Pandemic lurdles	11/11/2020	Jon Reed	01:02	Military, War and Veterans	Wrap	Jon Reed reports, while less than 1 percent of them have caught COVID-19 veteran healthcare providers in the state have still faced a lot of the same challenges as others.								16:04			17:32
						The popularity of public lands has been growing for years and geotagging plays a significant role. That means posting a photo on social media with the Geotagging	11/11/2020	Maggie Mullen	03:51	Agriculture and Environment	Feature	geographical information included. The trend coupled with subsequent curious crowds have fed a geotag			6:43			8	:43
				Agriculture and		President-elect Joe Biden plans to move the U-S away from fossil fuel development, but he may face some challenges. The Mountain West News Bureau's
Clean Energy	11/11/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:51	Environment	Wrap	Madelyn Beck reports.		6:30		7:3	0
Bar Managers Question COVID-19				Business,		Utah's emergency COVID-19 orders require bars and restaurants throughout the state to stop selling alcohol after 10 p.m. for the next two weeks.
Restrictions That Limit Alcohol Service Throughout Utah	11/11/2020	Emily Means	01:31	Economics and Finance	Superspot	KUER's Emily Means reports that some managers are struggling to understand why.	6:04			7:04		8:30	Noon
Utah's Mask Mandate Sparks Anti-				Medicine and		About 100 people marched around St. George yesterday (Wednesday) protesting Governor Gary Herbert's latest health orders and mask mandate. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery has
Government Protests In St. George	11/12/2020	Lexi Peery	01:02	Health	Wrap	more on why some people still refuse to wear a mask.								16:04			17:32
Denmark Nearly Killed 17 Million Minks Due To COVID-19. What's That Mean For Fur-Farming Utah?	44/40/0000	David Fuchs	00.50	Agriculture and Environment	More	The Danish government recently walked back a plan to kill the country's 17-million farmed mink following reports that a mutation of COVID-19 had jumped from the animals to humans. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) reports on what that means for Utah. which is t		6:30			8:04		Noon
nat weari For Fur-Farming Otan?	11/12/2020	David Fuchs	00:58	Environment	wrap	On the campaign trail, President-elect Joe Biden		6:30			8:04		NOON
Tribal Platform	11/12/2020	Savannah Maher	00:55	Politics and Government	Wrap	released an ambitious platform on tribal issues. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (MAR) has more on what this could mean for indigenous communities in our region.				7:04		8:30
Carbon Meadows		Noah Glick		Agriculture and Environment		Researchers in Nevada recently found that it's not just trees that can help in the fight against climate change. Meadows also provide an efficient way to keep carbon out of the atmosphere. The Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports.									16:32			18:04
Carbon meadows	11/12/2020	NOAH GILK	00.33		wiap	The Infectious Diseases Society of America held a briefing yesterday (Wednesday) on the many challenges of the continued pandemic surge. The Mountain West News Bureau's Noah Glick reports,									10.32			18.04
MW COVID	11/12/2020	Noah Glick	00:37	Medicine and Health	Voicer	things are looking dire in many parts of our region. // A state of	6:04			7:3	0
NPS Lawsuit	11/12/2020) Beau Baker	00:51	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Allegations of negligence are part of a $270-million- dollar wrongful death claim against the National Park Service. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Beau Baker reports on an accident that happened in Utah's Arches National Park earlief this year.										17:04			18:32
Hospital Transfers) Madelyn Beck		Medicine and Health	Wrap	As hospitals run out of space, some people are fleeing to states that have stricter COVID-19 policies. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Madelyn Beck reports.									16:32	17.04		18:04	10.32
Northern Corridor's Final Environmental Review Released,	11/13/2020	Madelyll Deck	00.34		Wiap	The final environmental impact statement came out today (Friday) for the proposed Northern Corridor in Washington County, and final decision on the project could come as soon as January. From KUER's									10.32			10.04
Conservation Group Says It Ignores Concerns	11/13/2020	Lexi Peery	01:00	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery tells us about the ne Yesterday {Thursday} the U-S Geological Survey								16:04			17:32
r - 0 - 11				Agriculture and		released a much anticipated tool that maps wildlife migrations in the region. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports, the tool is the first of
Migration Corridors	11/13/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:55	Environment	Wrap	its kind.				7:04		8:30
Utah Minorities Make Up Smaller Share Of COVID-19 Cases Than In Spring, But Disparities Persist	11/13/2020) Sonja Hutson	01:03	Medicine and Health	Wrap	At its peaks in April and June, nearly 60 percent of new COVID-19 cases came from Latino Utahns, even though they make up only 14 percent of the state's population. As KUER's Sonja Hutson reports, they now make up about 20 percent of new cases, but health	6:04			7:3	0		Noon
Makes & CMD	4440:00) Danie Del	04.01	Agriculture and	14/	Early research out of Yellowstone National Park backs up a working theory that wolf populations may be an effective way to control the spread of chronic wasting disease. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau									40.0-
Volves & CWD Jtah Ski Resorts Determined To	11/16/2020	Beau Baker	01:01	Business,	Wrap	Baker reports. The COVID-19 pandemic brought last ski season to an early close. But Utah resorts say it won't stop skiers from hitting the slopes this winter. KUER's Jon Reed									16:32			18:04
Open — And Stay Open — This Vinter	11/16/2020	Jon Reed	01:06	Economics and Finance	Wrap	has more on what they're doing to stay open during the pandemic.								16:04			17:32

Online Tool Gauges How Risky It Is To Visit Local Bar Or Restaurant				Medicine and		A peer-reviewed online tool now allows people to assess the risk of going out to a restaurant, a bar or a dinner party during the pandemic. As our Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyl reports, the numbers across our
During Pandemic	11/16/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:51	Health	Wrap	region don't look good.			7:04	8:04
Grand County Says It Will Report Employers Who Defy Statewide Mask Mandate	11/16/2020	Kate Groetzinger	00:54	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Grand County has announced it will crack down on businesses that defy the statewide mask mandate that went into effect last week. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports businesses must require all employees to wear masks and post	6:04		7:30			Noon
Thanksgiving	11/16/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:32	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Case numbers of COVID-19 are spiking across most of the country, including here in our region. Still, it seems that won't stop some people from attending or hosting traditional Thanksgiving dinners. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.									17:04			18:32
Apartment Complex With Affordable Units For Older Adults Opens In Salt Lake City	11/17/2020	Emily Means	01:06	Business, Economics and Finance	l Wrap	A new housing complex for low-income seniors opened recently in Salt Lake City. As KUER's Emily Means reports, older adults can face challenges in accessing affordable housing.	6:04			8:04
		Maggie Mullen		Race, Identity	Wrap	A significant number of Americans say theyli likely attend a gathering with more than 10 people on Thanksgiving day. That's according to a national survey by the Ohio State University Wexner Medical center. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen r	0.04	6:30	7:30	0.04
Thanksgiving	11/17/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:44	and Culture	wrap	The Mountain west News Bureau's Maggie Mullen'r A Utah legislative committee approved two bills this morning {Tuesday} that would change the state's policies around consequences for riots and protests. As		6:30	7:30
Utah Legislators Show Support For Increased Penalties For Protesters	11/17/2020	Emily Means	01:00	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	KUER's Emily Means reports, the proposals would strengthen penalties for protestors.							16:04			17:32
Moderna Vaccine's Long Shelf Life, Small Doses Makes It Ideal For Rural West	11/17/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:53	Medicine and Health	Wrap	The pharmaceutical company Moderna announced yesterday (Monday) that its coronavirus vaccine can last up to thirty days in a regular freezer. As our Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports, this is good news for small towns and rural communities in									17:04			18:32
201/10.0				Medicine and		With COVID-19 cases and hospitalizations still climbing in the region, some states are opting for curfews instead of stricter lockdown measures. How effective are they? The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker								40.00
COVID Curfews	11/18/2020	Beau Baker	00:31	Health Agriculture and	Voicer	reports. The Interior Department is facing criticism for making changes to the Great American Outdoors Act a celebrated piece of bipartisan legislation that permanently funds the land and water conservation fund. The Mountain West News Bureau's Cooper								16:32			18:04
Outdoors Act	11/18/2020	Cooper McKim	00:57	Environment		McKim has									17:04			18:32
Utah Health Officials Plan Phased Rollout Of COVID-19 Vaccine, Starting Mid-December	11/18/2020	Sonja Hutson	00:58	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Utah health officials say five hospitals in the state could start vaccinating workers for COVID-19 by the second week of December. But the general public with low risk jobs shouldn't expect a vaccine until next summer. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more on the							16:04			17:32
Rural Vaccine	11/18/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:30	Medicine and Health	Voicer	The pharmaceutical company Moderna announced this week (11/16) that its coronavirus vaccine can last up to thirty days in a regular freezer. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyl reports, this is good news for small towns and rural communities.			7:04		3:30
		Madelyn Beck		Politics and		A voting machine company in the region has become the center of a unfounded conspiracy theory shedding doubt on the presidential election. The Mountain West		6:30			3:30
Voting Machines Republicans Gain An Expanded Majority On Salt Lake County	11/18/2020	madelyn Beck	01:02	Government	Wrap	News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports. Republicans now hold a 6 to 3 majority on the Salt Lake County Council after Laurie Stringham unseated democratic incumbent Shireen Ghorbhani. KUER's		6:30			5.30
Council. But What Does It Mean For Policy?	11/18/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:36	Politics and Government	Superspot	Sonja Hutson has more on what that means for county policy and the council's relationship with the newly	6:04		7:30
Utah Agriculture Department Pledges To Improve Integrity And Transparency After Critical State Audit	11/19/2020	David Fuchs	01:01	Politics and Government	Wrap	Utah's Office of the State Auditor released a scathing report yesterday (Wednesday), detailing misspending and impropriety at the state's Department of Agriculture and Food. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) reports on what led to the report and how the departm							16:04			17:32
COVID Curfews		Beau Baker	00:56	Medicine and Health	Wrap	With COVID-19 cases and hospitalizations still climbing in our region, some states are opting for curfews instead of stricter lockdown measures. How effective are they? The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker has more	6:04				3:30
'Just too late': Missing And Murdered Indigenous Women Task Force Gets Off To Slow Start	11/19/2020	Kate Groetzinger	00:55	Crime and Law Enforcement		Native American Utahns shared stories of losing family members last night (Wednesday) with a state task force. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the group formed to study the missing and murdered indigenous women crisis has only		6:30		8:04		Noon
Hospitals		Madelyn Beck		Medicine and Health	Wrap	Hospitals continue to fill up across the region, and that means some patients may have nowhere to go. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.		0.30		0.04		NOOT			17:04			18:32

			_		1	T.									1
Mental Health	11/20/2020) Maggie Mullen	00:48	Medicine and Health	Wrap	More Americans are seeking treatment for anxiety and depression right now. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Maggie Mullen tells us more about the new report from the American Psychological Association.		6:30		8:04
Dixie State Doesn't Currently Have		35-				As part of the governor's health orders issued earlier this month, college students must be tested for COVID-19 EVERY WEEK starting no later than January 1st.
Enough COVID Tests To Enforce Governor's Orders	11/20/2020	Lexi Peery	01:05	Education	Wrap	From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports Dixie State University says testing will	6:04		7:30			Noon
It's Always Been Hard For Teachers To Stay Home When Sick — COVID Has Only Made It Harder	11/20/2020	lon Read	01:36	Education	Superenot	COVID-19 outbreaks at schools across the Wasatch Front are causing major disruptions to public education. But what happens when teachers get sick? As KUER's Jon Reed reports, it's always been a challenge for them to stay home, but now they have to. And it							16:04				17:32
nas Only Made it Haldel	11/20/2020	JUIT Reed	01.30	Education	Superspor	Almost all legislative sessions across the region are slated to begin in January but COVID-19 is surging.							10.04				17.32
Legislatures	11/20/2020	Maggie Mullen		Politics and Government	Wrap	Right now, experts advise against large indoor gatherings. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports going fully online ma New findings from the CDC reinforce the growing body										17:04			18:32
Mask study	11/23/2020) Beau Baker	00:56	Medicine and Health	Wrap	of evidence that wearing a mask slows the spread of the coronavirus. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Beau Baker reports.								16:32				18:04
Utah State Senator To Propose Bill Aimed At Helping Local Governments Subsidize Affordable Housing	11/23/2020) Sonja Hutson	01:10	Politics and Government	Wrap	Republican Utah state Senator Jake Anderegg is pursuing a bill meant to help local governments subsidize the construction of affordable housing. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports.							16:04				17:32
Camping Thanksgiving	11/23/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:39	Medicine and Health	Wrap	As the pandemic surges across our nation, experts advise against families and friends gathering for Thanksgiving. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports, there is one potentially safe way to see relatives and celebrate the holiday.						Noon
			00.00		,ap	Almost all legislative sessions across the region are slated to begin in January. The COVID-19 surge may change things – but as the Mountain West News						NOOTI
Legislatures	11/23/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:33	Politics and Government	Voicer	Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports going fully online may not be an option everywhere // The Utah Legis Utah health officials reported more than 3-thousand new cases of COVID-19 on both Saturday AND Sunday.		6:30	7:30		8:30
Weekend COVID	11/23/2020	Ross Terrell	00:35	Health	Voicer	KUER's Ross Terrell has more. Line crews on the Navajo Nation are rushing to connect		6:30	7:30		8:30
Navajo Tribal Utility Rushes To Connect Over 500 Homes Before CARES Act Funding Deadline	11/23/2020) Kate Groetzinger	01:01	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	over 500 homes to power before the end of the year. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the project is funded through the Tribe's federal CARES Act funds.	6:04		7:04	8:04		Noon
				Medicine and		New findings from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reinforce the growing body of evidence that wearing a mask slows the spread of novel coronavirus. The Mountain West News Bureau's Beau Baker
Mask Study	11/24/2020	Beau Baker	00:27	Health	Voicer	reports. Utah Governor Gary Herbert's "two week pause" on extracurricular activities and certain social gatherings ended yesterday (Monday). He also extended a		6:30			8:30
It's Still Not Clear How Effective Utah's Recent COVID-19 Restrictions Were	11/24/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:04	Medicine and Health	Wrap	statewide mask mandate through early December. KUER's Sonja Hutson explains it's not clear yet if thos							16:04				17:32
Salt Lake Company Working On Mask That Can Inactivate COVID-19 Virus	11/24/2020) Jon Reed	01:03	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Health experts say masks are one of the most effective tools for controlling the spread of COVID-19But not perfect. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, one Salt Lake City company is working to improve them.	6:04			8:04		Noon
What The Black 14 Philanthropy & LDS Church Partnership Says About Racial Justice In The Church) Caroline Ballard		Race, Identity and Culture		In 1969, 14 Black football players at the University of Wyorning wanted to wear black armbands during their game against Brigham Young University. The idea was to protest the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints' policy at the time that barred Black									16:44					18:44
				Agriculture and		A private developer's plan to pipe water from Utah to Colorado has been denied again. From KUNC, Luke									10:44					16:44
Million's Pipeline	11/24/2020	Luke Runyon	00:32	Business,	Voicer	Runyon has more: Ranch sales are booming across the west according to some regional realtors but that doesn't mean the										17:04			18:32
Ranch Sales	11/24/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:52	Economics and Finance	Wrap	prices are rising, too. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports. Now, Utahns find themselves on the eve of			7:04		8:30
				Business,		Thanksgiving tinged by a pandemicwith more than 800 Utahns dead and health officials warning of superspreader holiday meals.
Turkey Sales	11/25/2020	David Fuchs	01:54	Economics and Finance	Superspot	As COVID-19 dominates the conversationKUER's David Fuchs {Fox} set out to find w									16:44					18:44
Salt Lake's Rescue Mission Delivers An Early Thanksgiving To City's				Business, Economics and		For the past 15 years, the Rescue Mission of Salt Lake has served about a thousand meals to Utah's homeless and low-income families two days before Thanksgiving. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, this year, they've had
Homeless	11/25/2020	Jon Reed	01:33	Finance		to change things up, boxing up food fo	6:04		7:04	8:04		Noon

As Lake Powell Recedes, River Runners Race To Document Long- Hidden Rapids	11/25/2020	Molly Marcello	03:57	Agriculture and Environment		The level of Lake Powell, one of the Colorado River's biggest reservoirs, is dropping. The decline means trouble for the region's ongoing water scarcity issues while also presenting a singular opportunity for a group of passionate Utah river runners. K-Z-			6:43				8:	43
Regional COVID	11/25/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:29	Medicine and Health	Voicer	The Utah Department of Health recorded just over 27 hundred new cases of COVID-19 Monday along with eleven more deaths. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi has more on the numbers throughout the region.		6:30					8:30
Southern Utah's 'Turkey Empire'						Nearly 60 years ago a national tragedy near Thanksgiving led to personal tragedy for the head of what's been dubbed Southern Utah's "turkey empire."
Started To Fall After One Somber Thanksgiving Almost 60 Years Ago	11/25/2020	Lexi Peery	01:23	Race, Identity and Culture	Superspot	From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery tells the story of a booming business that is said to h											16:44					18:44
Alone Together: Stories Of Social Distancing — Celebrating		Ross Terrell		Race, Identity	Wrap	Utah has been in the midst of a COVID-19 surge though new cases over the past four days have decreased just in time for Thanksgiving. But as KUER's Ross Terrell reports some Utahns are still heeding the advice of medical professionals for the holiday.									16:04				17:32
Thanksgiving				Medicine and		Nevada just hosted its annual rural health conference. The main focus was the many challenges rural health care is facing across the region amidst the pandemic. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano									16:04				17:32
Cross Fit	11/25/2020	Stephanie Serrano	01:00		Wrap	{sur-AH-no} has more. A number of controversial historical monuments were taken down by racial justice protesters or removed by authorities this year, including some in our region. The												17:04			18:32
New Monument	11/25/2020	Robyn Vincent	00:41	Race, Identity and Culture	Voicer	Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has the story of one of them As of this week Nine out of every ten rural counties										16:32				18:04
Rural Red Zone	11/25/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:32	Medicine and Health	Voicer	As or uns week Where our of every lent rura countees in the nation have dangerously high COVID-19 infection rates. As the Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports, the numbers are even more grim in our region.					7:30
Cross Fit	11/27/2020	Stephanie Serrano	00:32	Medicine and Health	Voicer	Nevada recently hosted its annual rural health conference. The main focus was the many challenges rural health care is facing across the region amidst the pandemic. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano (sur-AH-no) has more.				7:04		8:04
New Monument	11/27/2020	Robyn Vincent	00:54	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	A number of controversial historical monuments were taken down by racial justice protesters or removed by authorities this year, including some here in the region. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has more.		6:30				8:04		Noor
Worsening Healthcare Crisis Forces Hospitals To Look Across State Borders		Madelyn Beck		Medicine and Health	Feature	The mountain west is facing a hospitalization crisis. COVID-19 patients are flooding ICU's, adding to an already busy time of year. To tackle it effectively, nospitals and states need to work as a team. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck			6:43				8:
COVID Shopping	11/27/2020	Maggie Mullen	03:38	Business, Economics and Finance	Feature	Black Friday usually marks the official start of the holiday shopping season. For obvious reasons, this year has been very UN-usual. Store dosures and fears of catching COVID-19 have lead many people to shop online. That's not so good for local businesse											16:44					18:44
Utah House Speaker Says He Wants to Balance Gov's Emergency Powers, Not Override Order	11/27/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:05	Politics and Government	Wrap	The Utah state Legislature plans to consider several bills early next year to place limits on the governor's emergency powers during the pandemic. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports that leadership has decided NOT to call a special session to override COVID-19 r										16:32				18:04
'Pink Pistols' Seeks To 'Empower'						A group in Salt Lake City is working to teach L-G-B-T-Q people how to defend themselves. As KUER's Emily Means reports, they're also trying to
LGBTQ Communities To Defend Themselves	11/27/2020	Emily Means	01:03	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	change the narrative of victimhood around their community.	6:04				7:30		8:30
"We just want what was promised": Utah Tribal Leaders Impressed By Biden's Plan For Indian Country	44/07/00000	Kate Groetzinger	04:04	Politics and Government	S	A month before the election, president-elect Joe Biden released a 15-page plan to help tribal nations. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports tribal leaders in Utah say it shows a desire to									16:04				17:32
COVID Aid		Madelyn Beck		Politics and Government	Superspot	fulfill treaty obligations and give them a s States only have a few weeks left to spend federal COVID-19 relief funds. That's spurring lawmakers in our region to pass major aid deals now. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.									16:04			17:04	17:32		18:32
Salt Lake Airport Sees Slight Bump In Holiday Travel, But Still Far From Normal	11/30/2020	,		Business, Economics and		The Salt Lake City Airport saw a slight bump in travelers over the holiday weekend compared to previous months. But as KUER's Jon Reed reports, the number of travelers during the pandemic are still far below what they usually are.									16:04				17:32
Shame And Illness Have A Long History — Pulling Them Apart Could Make It Easier To Tackle COVID-19	11/30/2000	Carolina Pollord		Medicine and Health		If you come down with COVID-19, there's a chance you could end up blaming yourself for getting sick. Or, you may feel judged by others. Did you do enough to keep yourself safe? Were you masking properly? Washing your hands enough? Gretchen Case is Chief o											16:44					18:44

						The coronavirus pandemic is leading to a spike in hunting license sales as more people head into the forests and mountains. The Mountain West News
Hunting Mistakes	11/30/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:53	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Bureau's Nate Hegyi reports that's also led to a spate of poaching cases.						7:30
State Lawmaker To Propose Bill		0,				Democratic state Representative Angela Romero is pursuing a bill that would give more survivors of sexual
Expanding Options For Sexual Assault Prosecutions	11/30/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:00	Politics and Government	Wrap	assault an opportunity to prosecute their perpetrators. KUER's Sonja Hutson explains.					7:04			8:30
						The fire season in Utah has officially ended and it's been a historic one. Humans caused a record-breaking
Utah's Historic Fire Season Is Closed — What Made It A Record-Breaking Year?	11/30/2020	Lexi Peery	00:57	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	78 percent of fires and that was likely influenced by more people recreating outdoors. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on wha			6:30				8:04		Noon
				Medicine and		New daily COVID-19 cases have plateaued in Utah in recent days. Yesterday (Monday) the state reported 1,897 new cases — down from over 3,000 just over a week ago. And most of the region saw a drop in
COVID Down	12/1/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:42	Health	Wrap	confirmed cases over the holiday. But as the Mountain Americans are not doing a good job when it comes to			6:30			7:30
				Medicine and		social distancing and as the Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher {mar} reports that's especially true in our region. // Utah ranked number 26
COVID Behavior	12/1/2020	Savannah Maher	00:57	Health	Wrap	for mask-wearing and number 46 for social dist												17:04			18:32
'You Can't Treat Us Like Animals': Former Inmate Describes Experience At Utah Prison During COVID-19	40/4/0000	Emily Means	04-00	Crime and Law	S	The Utah Department of Corrections has reported nine COVID-19 related deaths at the State Prison as of last Wednesday. Officials say they're doing all they can to keep inmates safe during outbreaks at their facilities. KUER's Emily Means spoke with Jerom		6:04					8:04		Noon
At Otah Prison During COVID-19	12/1/2020	Emily Means	01:29	Enforcement	Superspot	The Utah Geological Survey has released its annual		6:04					8:04		NOON
Utah's Mining Industry Saw Modest Growth In 2019, UGS Reports	12/1/2020	David Fuchs	00:59	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	report for 2019, which offers a year-end look-back at mining activity in the state. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) has more on the key trends that emerged and how they've affected 2020.										16:04			17:32
Growin in 2010, GGG Reports	12/1/2020	David F doi:0	00.00	Business,	тар	States only have a few weeks left to spend federal COVID-19 relief funds. That's spurring lawmakers in										10.04			17.02
COVID Aid	12/1/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:40	Economics and	Voicer	our region to pass major aid deals now. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports.					7:04			8:30
Utah Still Needs To Allocate And Spend $2 Million Of CARES Act Funding Before January	12/2/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:03	Politics and Government	Wrap	The state of Utah still has to allocate about 2 million dollars of federal coronavirus aid. As KUER's Sonja Hutson reports it must be spent by the end of the year.										16:04			17:32
Housing Advocates Worry About				Business,		Programs designed to keep people in their houses during the coronavirus pandemic are ending as 2020 comes to a close. KUER's Emily Means reports on how
Spike In Evictions As Pandemic Support For Renters Ends	12/2/2020	Emily Means	01:06	Economics and Finance	Wrap	rental assistance and eviction moratoriums have impacted Utah tenants.		6:04					8:04		Noon
				Medicine and		Americans are not doing a good job when it comes to social distancing and as the Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (mar) reports that's especially true in our region. // Utah ranked 26th in the
COVID Behavior	12/2/2020	Savannah Maher	00:44	Health	Voicer	nation for mask-wearing and 46th for social COVID-19 contract tracers continue to be in short supply. That's especially true for bilingual ones. The			6:30			7:30
Bilingual Tracers	12/2/2020	Stephanie Serrano	00:55	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano has more.					7:04			8:30
More Than A Number: Remembering Sione "Ray" Tuineau	12/2/2020	Caroline Ballard	01:48	Medicine and Health	Superspot	More than 900 Utahns have died of COVID-19 since the start of the pandemic in early March. This month, KUER is remembering and highlighting the lives of a few of them. Sione "Shee-oh-nay "Ray" Tuineau "DOO-ee-nay-ow" lived in West Valley City. He was a hu											16:32			18:04
If Aridification Choked The Southwest For Thousands Of Years, What Does The Future Hold?	40/0/000	hud. Fab.		Agriculture and Environment	Factoria	It's no secret that the West is a climate hotspot. But new scientific research from a Utah cave tells how one hot dry spell dragged on for thousands of years. Reporter Judy Fahys {FAZE} of InsideClimate News visited the	,			6:43				8:4
	12/2/2020	Judy Fahys		Environment	reature	area before the pandemic, and d In recent months, youth residential treatment centers in Utah have been the subject of increased scrutiny. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) reports that a recording				6:43				8:4	3
Leaked Audio Brings More Attention To Utah's 'Troubled Teen Industry'	12/3/2020	David Fuchs	01:43	Crime and Law Enforcement	Superspot	leaked yesterday {Wednesday} has introduced a new turn in the story.												17:04			18:32
Utah Population Continues To Grow Steadily, Driven By Migration As Birth Rates Drop	12/3/2020	Lexi Peery	01:00	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	Utah's population has continued to grow steadily from last July to this year because more people are moving here. From KUER's Southwest news bureau, Lexi Peery tells us about findings from a new report released today {Thursday} by the Kem C. Gardner Polic										16:04			17:32
				Crime and Law		Jails in many parts of our region have high rates of immate deaths. That's according to a recent investigation by the news service Reuters. It examined who's dying and why. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent has more // Utah had the
Jail Deaths	12/3/2020	Robyn Vincent	01:00	Enforcement	Wrap	second high Proponents of Utah's Inland Port hope that a centralized distribution network will do wonders for the state's					7:04		8:04
Inland Port Authority Honing In On 'Satellite Ports'	12/3/2020) Jon Reed	01:05	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	economy. KUER's Jon Reed reports the project is based in the northwest corner of Salt Lake City, but is expanding statewide.		6:04				7:30			Noon		16:32
					100

						Counties in Southern Utah are asking state lawmakers
Rural Counties Plan To Lobby Lawmakers For More Say In How To Spend Tourism Tax Dollars	12/4/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:02	Politics and Government	Wrap	to grant them more leeway for spending hotel tax dollars. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports they want to use the cash to 1) offset the impact of tourism and 2) develop infrastr							16:04			17:32
	12742020	rate Greek inger	01.02	Coroninical	тар	As COVID-19 cases continue to rise in Utah, the state is experiencing more outbreaks in long term care facilities.							10.04			17.02
Long-Term Care Facilities — And Public Health Specialists Who Help Them — Face Staffing Shortages	12/4/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:10	Medicine and Health	Wrap	As KUER's Sonja Hutson reports some are now operating under crisis standards of care. Some states in our region allowed eviction protections to	6:04		7:04		8:30	Noon
Researchers Draw Link Between Eviction And COVID-19 Cases And Deaths	12/4/2020	Robyn Vincent		Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	some states in our region allowed eviction protections to expire before a national moratorium was enacted. Those states saw an increase in COVID-19 cases and deaths. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Robyn Vincent reports.									17:04			18:32
Doddio	1274/2020	rooyii viilooiii		Agriculture and		The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service recently proposed listing the whitebark pine as a threatened species. The tree is vital to ecosystems in our region. The Mountain												10.02
Whitebark Pine	12/4/2020	Robyn Vincent	00:42	Environment		West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent explains. COVID-19 vaccines will soon reach healthcare workers			7:30
				Medicine and		and later the general public. But that's being shadowed by mistrust and misinformation. The Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck has
Vaccines	12/4/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:49	Health	Voicer	more on what people can rely on about the vaccine. Americans have been slow to adopt COVID-19 contact		6:30		8:04
Tracing App	12/7/2020	Savannah Maher	01:05	Medicine and Health	Wrap	tracing apps. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Savannah Maher tells us how states are reacting in our region.									17:04			18:32
	40 77 70000			Agriculture and		Governors across the west are asking for federal support to ensure that wildfire restoration becomes a priority, similar to efforts for suppression and mitigation. From the Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie
Fire Restoration	12///2020	Stephanie Serrano	00:36	Environment	Voicer	Serrano reports. About 100 students and parents held a rally outside								16:32			18:04
Salt Lake City Students And Parents Rally For In-Person Learning To						East High School in Salt Lake City this afternoon {Monday}. They were asking the district to bring back in-
Resume	12/7/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:06	Education	Wrap	person class. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports.							16:04			17:32
Northern Utah Teen Treatment Center Reports First COVID-19 Cases	12/7/2020	David Fuchs	00:24	Medicine and	Voicer	Elevations R-T-C a youth residential treatment center in Davis County has reported its first COVID-19 cases among students. The cases come amidst increasing scrutiny of what's called the "troubled teen industry". KUER's David Fuchs [Fox] has more.		6:30		8:04		Noon
Cases	12/1/2020	David Fucils	00.24	rieditii	Voicei	Republican Governor-elect Spencer Cox has		0.30		8.04		NOOH
Governor-Elect Appoints New Rural Affairs Advisor With Focus On Economic Growth	12/7/2020	Lexi Peery	00:58	Business, Economics and Finance	Wrap	announced a new position for his incoming administration — senior advisor of rural affairs. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on this new role.	6:04		7:30			Noon
Salt Lake County's Census Response Rate Was Higher Than The State Average, But Disparities Persist	12/8/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:10	Politics and Government	Wrap	Nearly three quarters of Salt Lake County residents participated in the census this year. As KUER's Sonja Hutson reportsthat rate is higher than both Utah's and the country's.							16:04			17:32
Western Governors Appeal To Wildland Fire Managers To Prioritize Restoration	12/8/2020	Stephanie Serrano	00:45	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Governor's across the west are asking for federal support to ensure that wildfire restoration becomes a priority the same way suppression and mitigation efforts are. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano (suh-RAH-no) has more.		6:30		8:04
Utah Legislator Will Change Bill That						A controversial bill approved by a Utah legislative committee that would give legal protections to drivers who hit protesters will be modified.
Would Protect Drivers Who Hit Protesters	12/8/2020	Lexi Peery	00:54	Politics and Government	Wrap	From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on yesterday's (Monday) announcement. If you test positive for COVID-19, health officials		6:30	7:30
Health Departments Around The State Can't Keep Up With Contact				Medicine and		usually call people who you came into contact with and let them know. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau Kate Groetzinger reports that process
Tracing	12/8/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:02	Health	Wrap	known as contact tracing is changing around Utah. A federal judged recently ruled in favor of restoring the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program DACA	6:04		7:04			Noon
DACA	12/8/2020	Robyn Vincent	01:00	Immigration and Refugees	Wrap	for short. Now advocates in our region are are fielding a lot of calls from potential new applicants. The Mountain West News Bureau's Roby									17:04			18:32
Vaccine Tracking	12/9/2020	Savannah Maher	00:57	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Researchers in New Mexico are using computer models to get a clearer picture of how the pandemic might progress. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher (mar) reports.	6:04
Mountain Enthusiasts, Utahns Call For Conserving Bridal Veil Falls Ahead Of Public Hearing	12/9/2020	David Fuchs	01:28	Agriculture and Environment	Superspot	The Utah County Commission is holding a hearing today (Wednesday) to give the public a chance to weigh in on whether the county should move forward on selling a portion of Bridal Vell Falls to a private developer. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) reports the po			7:04
More Than A Number: Remembering Marnie Miller Blevins	12/9/2020	Lexi Peery	01:32	Medicine and Health	Superspot	Nearly 1 thousand Utahns have died from COVID-19 since the pandemic began in March. This month KUER is remembering the lives of some including long-time Garfield County nurse Marnie Miller Blevins (Bleh-vins). From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi								16:32

						Anti-mask and lockdown protesters are targeting public health officials and politicians across the region. Sometimes at their own homes. But as the Mountain Crime and Law		West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck found, some are rotests At Official's Homes	12/9/2020	Madelyn Beck	01:01	Enforcement	Wrap	fighting against it. // {OPT: Last week, the Dail												18:32
						On the heels of a federal ruling to fully restore the Obama-era DACA program or Deferred Action for Immigration and		Childhood Arrivals advocates in our region are fielding a lot of calls from potential new applicants. The
ACA	12/9/2020	Robyn Vincent	00:42		Voicer	Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent					8:04
						During a press conference today {Thursday}, state
tate Announces New Online						officials announced changes to Utah's COVID-19 ontact Tracing And COVID-19 accination By January For Utah				Medicine and		vaccine distribution plan. KUER's Sonja Hutson tells us more about that and the state's new online method for eachers	12/10/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:06	Health	Wrap	contact tracing.							16	32
danioro	12/10/2020	Conjunitation	01.00	ricaiii	map	ounds adong.							- 10	- CL Three states in the region have had limitations on religious gatherings to mitigate the spread of COVID-19.
				Politics and		But following a US Supreme Court ruling last month {11/26} at least one of them is easing those hurches	12/10/2020	Stephanie Serrano	00:38	Government	Voicer	restrictions. The Mountain West News Bureau's S	6:04				8:04
						Utah has some of the highest rates of child mental health disorders in the countryAND of kids who don't eport Finds Early Childhood Mental				Medicine and		receive treatment. KUER's Jon Reed has more on a new study that looks at early childhood mental ervices Lacking In Utah	12/10/2020	Jon Reed	01:04	Health	Wrap	healthcare in the state.				7:04
or vioco Edoking in Otali	12/10/2020	our reco	01.04	ricairi	map	nodulodio in tito otato.				7.04
						A report released this week by the Government
						Accountability Office found public land leased to energy
New Report Finds Leasing Low- Potential Public Land For Drilling				Agriculture and		developers for 2 dollars or less per acre brought in a tiny fraction of revenue compared to those that sell for
Brings In Low Returns	12/11/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:00	Environment	Wrap	more. From KUER's Southeast News Bure												18:32
J						The Salt Lake County Health Department began clearing out homeless encampments Wednesday
Salt Lake City Council Approves Overflow Shelter In West Side Hotel				Medicine and		starting downtown in the Rio Grande area KUER's
Overflow Shelter In West Side Hotel n Emergency Meeting	12/11/2020	David Fuchs	01:00	Medicine and Health	Wrap	David Fuchs {Fox} has more on a new plan from Salt Lake City to help the unsheltered.										17:32
	,2020		200
						The U-S hit a grim milestone this week. More than 3,000 COVID-19 fatalities in just one day. But as the Medicine and		Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck explains rising deaths do not necessarily translate into rising
lumb	12/11/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:31	Health	Voicer	concerns. // {OPT: Yesterday {Thursday} Utah's				7:04
		,
						The first people in Utah to get the COVID-19 vaccine
Jtah Health Care Workers Excited And Relieved To Be First To Take				Medicine and		are potentially just days away from receiving it. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, healthcare workers are at
COVID-19 Vaccine	12/11/2020	Jon Reed	01:01	Health	Wrap	the front of the lineand many are excited to get it.	6:04				8:04
						There was some debate early on as to whether the Pfizer vaccine can go to pregnant women or women
				Medicine and		who are breastfeeding. But as the Mountain West News
Vaccine and Pregnancy	12/14/2020	Madelyn Beck	00:48	Health	Wrap	Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports obstetricians say									17:04			18:32
						Indoor dining is allowed in Utah and across the West.
						New research shows that, even with current social Business,		distancing guidelines, it's not a safe option during the ndoor Dining	12/14/2020	Stephanie Serrano	00.33	Economics and	Voicer	pandemic. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Stephanie Serrano has more.	6:04			7:30
ndoor Diriing	12/14/2020	Otephanie Genano	00.55	i marico	VOICEI	In the Washington County School District, no school	0.04			7.50
						has had to move online because of major COVID-19
Sick Students Going To School Is						outbreaks. Still, district officials say they're feeling the Biggest Pandemic Challenge For Washington County School District	12/14/2020	Levi Peen	01:04	Education	Wrap	effects of the pandemic. From KUER's Southwest news bureau. Lexi Peerv reports.		6:30			8:04
reasing on County School District	12/14/2020	LON FEETY	01.04	Luucation	wiah	Utah State University canceled its last football game of		0.30			0.04			- the season Saturday after players refused to play in Jtah State University To Investigate				L .		protest of what they call racial and religious
President's Remarks After Football Feam Protests Discrimination	12/14/2000	David Fuchs	00:54	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	discrimination. KUER's David Fuchs {Fox} has more on the events that led to the protest and the							40	32			18:04
eam Frotests Discrimination	12/14/2020	David Fuchs	00:54	and Culture	wrap	President Trump's task force on Missing and Murdered							16	.JZ			18:04
						Indigenous People has released its first report. From the
				Crime and Law		Mountain West News Bureau, Savannah Maher (mar)
MMIW Federal Rec	12/14/2020	Savannah Maher	00:57	Enforcement	Wrap	reports.				7:04		8:30
						When it comes to gender parity, tribal councils in the Western U-S have made more progress than statehouses or U.S. Congress. But women are still ribal Councils Make Slow Progress				Politics and		underrepresented. The Mountain West News Bureau's
oward Gender Equality	12/15/2020	Savannah Maher	04:12	Government	Feature	Savannah Maher reports			6:43			8:43
						It's been a tough year for gas and oil prices but solar Business, Economics and		power has kept a steady pace during this pandemic year. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie olar Power	12/15/2020	Stephanie Serrano	01:01		Wrap	year. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano explains why.									17:04			18:32
			2			Some tribal governments are rushing to spend federal CARES Act aid before the December 30th deadline.
	10/15:			Politics and		The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher
ribal CARES	12/15/2020	Savannah Maher	00:43	Government	Voicer	{mar} reports.							16	32			18:04
						A wild mink in Utah has tested positive for the coronavirus. And it's believed to be the first case confirmed in a free-ranging, native animal, according to
Novel Coronavirus Detected In A Wild Mink Near Infected Utah Fur Farm	12/15/2020			Agriculture and Environment		confirmed in a free-ranging, native animal, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports							6:04			17:32

			Medicine and		There was some debate early on as to whether the Pfizer vaccine can go to pregnant women or women who are breastfeeding. But as the Mountain West News Bureau's Madelyn Beck reports obstetricians say
Vaccine and Pregnancy	12/15/2020 Madelyn Beck	00:41	Health	Voicer	yes. Avalanche education courses were already popular		6:30			7:30
			Agriculture and Environment		Availanche education courses were arready popular before the pandemic hit. And now, it's looking like record enrollment. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.						8:04
Avalanche Training V2	12/15/2020 Maggie Mullen	00:56	Environment	vvrap							8:04
Proposed Bill Gives Businesses The Power To Mandate Vaccines, Not The State	12/15/2020 Sonja Hutson	01:04	Politics and Government	Wrap	A Utah state lawmaker is planning to introduce a bill that would prohibit the state government from mandating a COVID-19 vaccine for the general public. But, as KUER's Sonja Hutson reports, it WOULD allow businesses to require employees to get vaccinated.							8:30		Noon
Dixie State University Trustees Unanimously Vote To Recommend A Name Change	12/15/2020 Lexi Peery	01:02	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	The Board of Trustees at Dixie State University unanimously voted yesterday (Monday) to recommend a name change. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lex Peery reports on how the university came to the decision.	6:04			7:04
Plans To Process Radioactive Sand In San Juan County Raise Questions			Agriculture and		The company that owns the White Mesa Mill in San Juan County just announced that it plans to start processing radioactive material to produce rare earth elements. They are used in everything from IPhones to
About State Oversight	12/16/2020 Kate Groetzinger	01:29	Environment Business	Superspot	Teslas. Our Kate Groetzinger from KÜER's Southea Some tribal governments are rushing to spend federal		6:30				8:04			Noon
Tribes & CARES Act	12/16/2020 Savannah Maher	01:03	Economics and	Wrap	CARES Act aid before the December 30th deadline. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher {mar} reports.				7:04			8:30
Utah Legislative Committee Approves $1,500 Bonus For Educators In Districts With In-Person Learning	12/16/2020 Sonja Hutson	01:04	Education	Wrap	Under a proposal passed by a state legislative committee today (Wednesday). Utah teachers and school staff would get a 15-hundred dollar stipend as a "thank you" for working during the pandemic. But, as KUER's Sonja Hutson reports, it would leave out Sal										16:04			17:32
More Than A Number: Remembering William E. Christofferson	12/16/2020 Jon Reed	01:37	Medicine and Health	Superspot	More than 1 thousand Utahns have died from COVID- 19 since the pandemic began in March. THIS month KUER is remembering the lives of some like William Christofferson. He fought in World War II and became a tireless advocate for veterans. As KUER's Jon											16:32			18:04
The New Neighborhood Watch: After Protests, Utah Sees Birth Of Different Armed Movements	12/16/2020 Justin Higginbottom		Race, Identity	Feature	Utah has a history with millitias. But following protests after the killing of George Floyd earlier this year, new armed organizations have formed on both the right and the left. Justin Higginbottom looks at how these groups are changing and interacting			6:43					8:43
Haaland Appointment	12/17/2020 Savannah Maher	01:06	Politics and Government	Wrap	NPR has reported that President-elect_loe Biden will taple Congresswaman Deb Haaland (HAW-lind) of New Mexico to lead the Department of the Interior. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher reports on the historic decision.											16:32			18:04
Utah 'Made Mistakes' During Pandemic, But Governor Said He Wouldn't Have Done Anything Differently	12/17/2020 Emily Means	00:59	Politics and Government	Wrap	Utah Governor Gary Herbert had his last monthly news conference this morning (Thursday), before his time in office ends in January. KUER's Emily Means has more on the outgoing governor's remarks.										16:04			17:32
Utah Has Seen Abuse In 'Troubled Teen' Programs For Decades. Now, Momentum Slowly Builds For Change.	12/17/2020 David Fuchs	07:24	Crime and Law		Over the past five decades, tens of thousands of young people have been sent to Utah by frantic parents or frustrated child welfare agencies. They come for a range of programs advertised to help with behavior issues, including substance abus.
COVID Update	12/17/2020 Stephanie Serrano	00:32	Medicine and Health	Voicer	As the first doses of a COVID-19 vaccine are rolled out, health officials are still urging people to follow public health guidelines. // The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano has an update on COVID cases in the region. TAG: In Utah, health off		6:30				8:04
Utah Lawmakers Stall On Confirming Appointment To Court Of Appeals	12/17/2020 Emily Means	01:40	Politics and Government	Superspot	A Utah legislative committee will consider recommending five judges for confirmation today (Thursday). But they left one name off the agenda: Margaret Plane, who the governor appointed to the court of appeals in November. KUER's Emily Means reports on the	6:04			7:04
A Controversial Highway Through The Book Cliffs Is Tabled For Now Due To Local Opposition	12/18/2020 Kate Groetzinger	01:06	Politics and Government	Wrap	A controversial highway through the Book Cliffs in southeast Utah won't go forward after a vote today (Friday). From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports Grand County strongly opposes the project, which was first proposed in the 1980s.												17:04			18:32
University Of Utah Students Frustrated With Lack Of Transparency As Police Chief Goes			Crime and Law		University of Utah officials confirmed Police Chief Rodney Chatman has been placed on leave. As KUER's Jon Reed reports, he's being investigated for
On Leave	12/18/2020 Jon Reed		Medicine and	Wrap	not being properly certified as a police officer in Utah. As for COVID-19 across the region here's the										16:04			17:32
Regional COVID	12/18/2020 Robyn Vincent	00:39	Health	Voicer	Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent. The Board of Trustees at Dixie State University voted earlier this week to recommend a name change for the		6:30				8:04
State Board of Higher Education Recommends Dixie Name Change, Along With University Trustees	12/18/2020 Lexi Peery	00:55	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	school. And this morning {Friday} the Utah Board of Higher Education could also vote to recommend. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery	6:04				7:30
Prison Vaccines	12/21/2020 Savannah Maher	01:00	Medicine and Health	Wrap	In most of the region, incarcerated people aren't among the top priority groups for COVID-19 vaccination. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher ["MAR" like Bill Maher] reports.		6:30				8:04

				Business.		An apparent ourse of out of towners moving to the
Pay Cuts	12/21/2020	Nate Hegyi	00:32	Economics and	Voicer	An apparent surge of out-of-towners moving to the region may be short-lived. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi explains.					7:30			Noon
Hispanic And Latinx Utahns Still Face More Hurdles When It Comes				Medicine and		At its peaks in April and June, nearly 60 percent of new COVID-19 cases in Utah came from the Hispanic and Latinx community. And though that's dropped significantly, KUER's Sonja Hutson reports, community
To Fighting COVID-19	12/21/2020	Sonja Hutson	05:00	Health	Feature	advocates worry things could get worse when federa											16:44	1				18:44
SLC Schools Deal	12/21/2020) Sonja Hutson	00:38	Education	Voicer	The Salt Lake City School District and Utah Legislative leaders have struck a deal to include their staff in a statewide teacher bonus, by bringing students back to the classroom. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports the plan still needs to be formally approved.									16:04				17:32
For Historic Planetary Alignment, Utahns May Have Better View Than Most	12/21/2020	David Fuchs	00:54	Science and Technology	Wrap	Today (Monday) marks a historic event in the cosmos it's the first time in 800 years that Saturn and Jupiter wil align in the night sky. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) has more on why Utahns will have a front row seat.										16:32				18:04
Pay Cuts	12/21/2020) Nate Hegyi	00:50	Business, Economics and Finance	l Wrap	An apparent surge of out-of-towners moving to the region may be short-lived. The Mountain West News Bureau's Nate Hegyi explains.												17:04			18:32
COVID-19 Case Count Grows At Davis County Youth Residential			00.56	Medicine and	wiap	Not quite schools and not quite long-term care facilities Utah's youth residential treatment centers fal into a categorical no man's land when it comes to COVID-19, KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) reports on a												17.04			10.32
Treatment Facility	12/21/2020	David Fuchs	00:50	Health	Wrap	current outbreak at one Davis County location and The Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Salt Lake City		6:04			7:04		8:30
Salt Lake VA Center Receives First Vaccine Shipment	12/22/2020) Jon Reed	01:04	Military, War and Veterans	Wrap	got its first shipment of the COVID-19 vaccine today (Tuesday). As KUER's Jon Reed reports, health care workers there will be vaccinated first, followed by high- risk veterans.												17:04			18:32
Locals Push To Keep 'Dixie' Alive In						Some institutions in southern Utah are moving away from the name Dixie. Like the hospital and the university could be next if the state Legislature
Southwest Utah As Big Institutions Move Away From The Nickname	12/22/2020	Lexi Peery	00:58	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	passes a bill to do so. From KUER's Southwest news bureau Lexi Peery reports on efforts by some loc									16:04				17:32
				Agriculture and		Republican Wyoming Senator John Barrasso (burr-ASS oh) is voicing concern as President-Elect Joe Biden's climate team comes into focus. He chairs the Senate Environment and Public Works committee and says he
Climate Fight	12/22/2020	Cooper McKim	00:57	Environment	Wrap	isn't planning to let nominations move forward			6:30			8:04
Outgoing Gov. Gary Herbert On The Coronavirus Pandemic And Being A 'Common-Sense Conservative'	12/22/2020	Emily Means	04:50	Politics and Government	Two-Way	Utah Governor Gary Herbert leaves office in two weeks after serving more than 11 years as the state's executive. Herbert joined KUER's Emily Meansfrom his office to reflect on his time leading the state. Means asked him first about why he decided to r	$			6:43			8:43
'Camp Last Hope' Provides Shelter For People Displaced By Salt Lake	40.000.000			Business, Economics and		The Salt Lake County Health Department recently shut down homeless encampments in downtown Salt Lake Cityas part of the county's no-camping ordinance. KUER's Emily Means reports, a new "campus" for
Encampment Cleanups	12/22/2020	Emily Means	01:36	Finance	Superspot	unsheltered people has formed as a result. The Utah Jazz tip off their 2020-21 season tonight {Wednesday} in Portland. As KUER's Ross Terrell		6:04			7:30
Jazz Return	12/23/2020	Ross Terrell	00:41	Arts and Entertainment	Voicer	reports this season will be an attempt for the team to return to normalcy.			6:30		7:30
Indian Laws	12/23/2020	Savannah Maher	01:07	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wrap	The U.S. Supreme Court will review its first case on tribal law enforcement jurisdiction since Amy Coney Barrett joined the court. The Mountain West News Bureau's Savannah Maher explains the stakes.									16:04				17:32
Utah Lawmaker Pushes for Funding To Help People Experiencing				Medicine and		A Republican Utah lawmaker has unveiled a bill that would boost funding for facilities that provide medical care for people experiencing homelessness after they leave the hospital. KUER's Sonja Hutson has more on
Homelessness After Hospital Visits	12/23/2020	Sonja Hutson	01:04	Health	Wrap	the legislation. Four people from the region died in avalanche related incidents over the weekend. The Mountain West News		6:04				8:04		Noon
Avalanche Risk	12/23/2020	Stephanie Serrano	01:03	Agriculture and Environment	Wrap	Bureau's Stephanie Serrano explains why it's particularly risky right now.					7:04		8:30
More Than A Number: Remembering				Medicine and		Nearly 12-hundred Utahns have died from COVID-19 since the start of the pandemic. This month, KUER is remembering the lives of some including beloved Coche Count educator Kelly Biolishabotar (includes:
Kelly Rindlisbacher	12/23/2020	David Fuchs	01:38		Superspot	Cache County educator Kelly Rindlisbacher (rind-less- BOCK-er). KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) has more on the										16:32	:			18:04
Govelect Spencer Cox On COVID- 19 Vaccines, Education and	40,000,00			Politics and		Next month Utah will have a new governor for the firs time in 11 years: Spencer Cox. He's been lieutenant governor for 7 years after serving in the state Legislature, the Sanpete County Commission, and as	t
Disagreement Santa On A Screen? Just One Of Many Changes This Pandemic		Sonja Hutson		Government Race, Identity		mayor of his hometown of Fairview. KUER's Sonja Santa's had to make some changes this year. While Doctor Anthony Fauci says he personally gave the big guy one of the first COVID vaccinations, Santa's been playing it safe. From Boise State Public Radio Troy				6:43			8:43
Holiday Season First Doses of COVID-19 Vaccine	12/24/2020	Troy Oppie	01:50	and Culture	Superspot	Oppie (AH-pee) has more. Intermountain Healthcare announced last night (Wednesday) that the first COVID-19 vaccine doses have been administered in rural communities in Utah. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) has more on that moment										16:32				18:04
Arrive In Rural Utah Hospitals	12/24/2020	David Fuchs	00:57	Health	Wrap	and rural access to the vaccine.									16:04				17:32

						The U.S. Supreme Court is reviewing a case on the authority of tribal police officers that stems from the Crime and Law		2016 traffic stop of a Non-Native man on the Crow Reservation in Montana. The Mountain West News
Indian Laws	12/24/2020	Savannah Maher	00:40	Enforcement	Voicer	Bureau's Savannah Maher reports.			6:30				8:30
				Race, Identity		Whether you get the help you need after a wildfire may depend on how wealthy or White your neighborhood is. That research was recently released in the publication Resources for the Future. The Mountain West News
Fire Inequality	12/24/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:51	and Culture	Wrap	Bureau's Maggie Mullen reports.					7:04		8:30
Domestic Violence Up According To Service Providers, Who Worry About				Medicine and		Calls to domestic violence hotlines in Utah have significantly increased since the beginning of the pandemic in March. KUER's Kate Groetzinger reports organizations across the state that serve victims of
Funding For Next Year	12/24/2020	Kate Groetzinger	01:04	Health	Wrap	abuse are worried they won't be able to keep up. //		6:04			7:3	10
Hunger Pains: Demand At Colorado Food Bank Reflects Rising Numbers Of Food Insecure	12/28/2020	Robyn Vincent	04:19	Business, Economics and Finance	Feature	During the pandemic, millions of people have been experiencing food insecurity in the United States for the first time. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Robyn Vincent takes us to a food bank for a look at the rising need in the region.				6:43			8:4	3
Lawmaker Proposes Bills To Address Police Reform During Utah's 2021				Crime and Law		This summer's movement against police brutality and racial injustice has spurred some Utah lawmakers to action. KUER's Emily Means reports on a few bills in
Legislative Session	12/28/2020	Emily Means	01:07	Enforcement	Wrap	the works for the upcoming general session. Forecasters are anticipating a dry start to 2021 across		6:04				8:04
Water Forecast	12/28/2020	Luke Runyon	00:43	Agriculture and Environment		much of the Colorado River watershed. Luke Runyon from KUNC reports.					7:04
Utah Gov. Gary Herbert Says Farewell After Nearly 12 Years In Office	40.000.0000			Politics and		This evening (Monday) after more than 11 years in office Governor Gary Herbert addressed the state for a final time. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox) has more on what the governor had to say about his decade in Utah's											17:04		18:04
Office	12/28/2020	David Fuchs	00:56	Government	Wrap	highest seat. Earlier this month the northern spotted owl and the monarch butterfly were denied protections under the Endangered Species Act even though both animals											17:04		18:04
Underfunded ESA	12/28/2020	Maggie Mullen	00:49	Agriculture and Environment	Wran	qualify. The Mountain West News Bureau's Maggie Mullen explains.									16:04
Ondendrided EGA	12/20/2020	Maggie Mulien	00.43	LITVIIOIIITEIT	wiap	The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints has been hit with several lawsuits for allegedly covering									10.04
BSA Suit	12/28/2020	Elaine Clark	00:40	Crime and Law Enforcement	Voicer	up decades of sexual abuse among Boy Scout troops in Arizona. KUER's Elaine Clark has more													18:04
Utah Ag-Tech Company Aims To				Agriculture and		Farmers are looking for innovative ways to feed an ever- growing population with shrinking supplies of land and water. KUER's David Fuchs (Fox), tells us about a VERTICAL farming system that's trying to disrupt how
Develop Future Of Animal Feed	12/29/2020	David Fuchs	01:01	Environment	Wrap	animals and eventually humans are fe From the pandemic to protests to elections, 2020 has		6:04				8:04
From The Pandemic To Protests To Elections, 2020 Was An Eventful Year In Utah Politics	12/29/2020	Caroline Ballard	05:15	Politics and Government	Two-Wav	been a year for the Utah history books. KUER political reporters Emily Means and Sonja Hutson joined All Things Considered host Caroline Ballard to recap the year in politics.				6:43			8:4	3
						Right now, the COVID-19 vaccine is being given to
As COVID-19 Vaccines Roll Out, Trial Participant Shares His Experience	12/29/2020	Caroline Ballard	04:42	Medicine and Health	Two-Way	healthcare workers throughout the state. But there are a few other Utahns who have participated in vaccine trials, meaning they either got the vaccine or a placebo. Retired NPR investigative reporter Howar Utah is one of only two states that hasn't signed on to a												17:44
State Lawmaker Wants Utah To Sign On To Federal Prison Rape Elimination Act	12/29/2020) Sonja Hutson	01:15	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wran	train is one or only two states that nash it signed on to a federal set of prison standards to prevent sexual assault and harassment in correctional facilities. KUER's Sonja Hutson reports a state lawmaker plans to sponsor a bill to change that.		6:04				8:04			16:04				18:04
Amid Drying Conditions, Colorado River Basin States Kick Off				Agriculture and		Utah and other states in the Colorado River Basin are ready to begin negotiating policies to govern a critical Western water source. From KUNC in Greeley,		0.04				0.04			10.04				10.04
Negotiations On Future Policies As He Retires, Rep. Bishop Wants To Be Remembered As Someone	12/30/2020	Luke Runyon	00:50		Wrap	Colorado, Luke Runyon reports. Republican Rob Bishop has represented Utah's 1st Congressional District for almost 20 years. As Bishop					7:04
Who "Would Not Take No For An Answer"	12/30/2020	Emily Means	01:38	Politics and Government	Superspot	prepares to retire, KUER's Emily Means spoke with him about his time in office and what comes next.		6:04				8:04
From The Pandemic To Protests To						It may be an understatement to say a lot happened in Utah in 2020, both on and off the Wasatch Front. KUER southern news bureau reporters Kate
Elections, 2020 Was An Eventful Year In Utah Politics	12/30/2020	Caroline Ballard	05:18	Politics and Government	Two-Way	Groetzinger, based in Bluff, and Lexi Peery, based in St. George, spoke with All Things Considered host Caroline										16:44				18:4
More Than A Number: Remembering Dolores Horta) Sonja Hutson		Medicine and Health		More than 1,200 Utahns have died from COVID-19 since the pandemic began in March. This month, KUER is remembering the lives of some, like 75-year-old Layton resident Dolores Horta. As KUER's Sonja Hutson tells us, she spent much of her life traveling the									16:04				18:04
A Look At Some Utah Laws That Take Effect On New Year's Day) Sonja Hutson		Politics and Government	Voicer	Utah voters approved seven constitutional amendments back in November. All of them will take effect tomorrow, as well as several other laws. KUER's Sonja Hutson has the details.									16:04				18:04
Lost In Translation: Bilingual Contact Tracers Confront A Failure In Public Health Messaging) Stephanie Serrano		Medicine and	Feature	COVID-19 contact tracers continue to be in short supply. and they're overwhelmed. That's especially true for billingual ones who have extra roles to play in the battle against the pandemic. The Mountain West News Bureau's Stephanie Serrano explains.	,			6:43			8:4	3	.0.04				.3.01

Racist Routes	12/31/2020 Robyn Vincent	01:01	Race, Identity and Culture	Wrap	Some athletes are working to make rock climbing more welcoming to all. They say it starts with a name. The Mountain West News Bureau's Robyn Vincent explains.			7:04
'We're Finally Turning The Corner': Pfizer Vaccine Arrives On Navajo Nation In Utah	12/31/2020 Kate Groetzinger	01:01	Medicine and Health	Wrap	Clinics on the Navajo Nation in Utah started vaccinating their employees this week after receiving 850 doses of the Pfizer vaccine on Christmas Eve. From KUER's Southeast News Bureau, Kate Groetzinger reports the vaccine is a ray of hope for communities	6:04			8:0	4
Racist Routes	12/31/2020 Robyn Vincent	00:33	Race, Identity and Culture	Voicer	Some athletes are working to make rock climbing more welcoming to all they say it starts with a name. From the Mountain West News Bureau, Robyn Vincent explains.								17:04			