1/12/2024	Play It Forward	Allison Van Cott-McEntee, Taylor Solomon, Kurtis Hall	1:00:00 PM	2:00:00 PM	1:00:00	Fentanyl/Opioid crisis, recovery resources, harm reduction	In this episode of Play It Forward, we interviewed Gene and Susan Murray. Gene and Sue lost their son over a decade ago to a fatal drug overdose. Tragically, another one of their children, daughter Chelsey, fought opioid use disorder. Chelsey attempted to recover by going to drug rehabilitation, only to be allegedly approached by her dealer after being released. Chelsey passed away due to fentanyl poisoning in August 2022. Gene and Sue Murray said, "We would like to express our support for a new proposed law, 'Chelsey's Law,' named in honor of our beloved daughter. After her tragic overdose from fentanyl and the arrest of the drug dealer, we were shocked to learn that in New York State, Chelsey's fentanyl dealer who caused her death could not be charged with anything beyond the sale of the drugs that killed her. We need a stronger law to hold those, who sell the poison that kills so many like our daughter Chelsey, accountable." We also discussed the fentanyl rally we all attended at The Capitol in Albany to pass four important bills! 🙏🏻 Stand with Us!	Gene & Sue Murray	They lost both of their children to fentanyl poisoning

She was unexpectedly and tragically drawn into the war against drugs and addiction when she lost her son, Thomas, to an overdose in 2012. Instead of allowing this loss to define her as a victim, she was motivated to turn her tragedy into hope by working to help other New York families battling the heroin and opioid crisis. Linda established Thomas' Hope Foundation to help fight for the lives of other young people and empower parents to help their loved ones. The Foundation is dedicated to promoting the awareness and prevention of drug addiction and to achieving victory for those individuals seeking sobriety through education, advocacy, research, and treatment. Linda has been a staunch advocate on behalf of families and communities. Her work has brought much-needed attention to this terrible epidemic and helped countless people understand the human suffering caused by drug abuse. In addition to her efforts with Thomas' Hope Foundation, Linda selflessly gives her time and talent to Families in Support of Treatment (F.I.S.T.), St. Joseph's Treatment Facility, the Nassau County Heroin Task Force and the Leadership Council within the Long Island Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependency.	Linda Ventura	We learned of Linda's work in the fight against overdose and substance use disorder and what she does for our community and to help those in need.
